Smith) processed into the Riverview Ballroom bringing symbols of worship to be placed on the alter. They were joined by those participating in the Opening Worship service (Rev. Weldon Bares, Master Liam Young, Rev. Kale Wetekamm, Mrs. Sabrina Short, Rev. Maddie Russo, Rev. Dr. Jay Hogewood, Rev. Kaseem Short, Rev. Hugh Debo, Mrs. Susie Cox, Rev. Dr. Van Stinson, Rev. Karl Klaus, Rev. Ramonalynn Bethley, Rev. Chad Brooks, and Rev. Robert Johnson), members of a Community Combined Choir, and Bishop Delores Williamston, who began the service with words of welcome and asking for the Passing of the Peace among the delegates. This was followed by the Opening Worship Service liturgy:

Rev. Kale Wetekamm: Can you feel it, Conference? That surge of joy moving through this space! Hold onto that feeling for a moment. Let it settle in your bones. This is no ordinary joy - this is resurrection joy, kingdom joy, the kind that persists even when the world gives us every reason to despair.

Mrs. Sabrina Short: We gather in this joy-filled moment not because our lives are perfect but because Christ is present. In this sacred space, we acknowledge that there is something we've been given that cannot be taken away.

Rev. Maddie Russo: This joy doesn't ignore reality. It transforms it. It doesn't deny struggle. It gives us strength to face it. It doesn't replace our pain, it refuses to be extinguished by it.

Rev. Dr. Jay Hogewood: As our hearts still beat with the rhythm of celebration, we turn now to name both the joy and the challenge of being faithful people at this present moment.

Rev. Wetekamm: *It can feel like the world is burning. A reality of displacement swelling. Progress threatened. From our day-to-day work to our global cooperation, anxiety is gnawing. From our church houses to our government houses, communal fibers are unraveling, and souls need peace. But right on the heels of this reality are two little words pregnant with joy for all God's people: And yet.

Mrs. Short: Storms rage and rumors of war creep, and yet the sun still rose this morning; it will do it again tomorrow. Grief and concern knock the breath out of our chests, and yet the beloved community is there to catch us, to break bread with us, to dance beside us, to sing about the kind of hope that has never been extinguished not even once, not even in the darkest of times.

Rev. Russo: Life is frail and yet there are kindred spirits and starry nights and children who feel wonder and efforts to organize and work to do and stories that matter to tell.

Rev. Dr. Hogewood: Power mocks mercy in the public square and tries to bury it within a tomb, and yet, and yet, and yet, and yet—do you hear Joy's heartbeat??—and yet! And yet the scriptures say "Why do you look for the living among the dead?"

Rev. Wetekamm: This joy is our witness. Our faith has made room for this timeline, this moment, this content, these challenges, these real human experiences of ours. Our God has gone before us, planting within us, within each other, all that we will need for exactly where and who we are and where and who we need to be. Existence can be overwhelming, and yet, we are able to say together:

ALL: Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now declare . . .

Mrs. Short: That in the beginning, there was joy. And this joy is our DNA from the Creator

ALL: We believe in God the Father, infinite in wisdom, power, and love, whose mercy is over all God's works, and whose will is ever directed to God's children's good.

Rev. Russo: This joy is our lifeline from the Redeemer.

ALL: We believe in Jesus Christ, Son of God and Son of man, the gift of the Father's unfailing grace, the ground of our hope and the promise of our deliverance from sin and death.

Rev. Dr. Hogewood: This joy is our fuel from the Sustainer.

ALL: We believe in the Holy Spirit as the divine presence in our lives, whereby we are kept in perpetual remembrance of the truth of Christ, and find strength and help in time of need.

Rev. Wetekamm: This joy is our inheritance, our resistance, our good news in a world that could use a little more right now. It is our culture, our language, and the fruit of our gratitude.

ALL: We believe that this faith should manifest itself in the service of love as set forth in the example of our blessed Lord, to the end that the kingdom of God may come upon the earth.

Mrs. Short: This joy is not a way out, but a way into the connection that holds and heals us.

Rev. Russo: It is our gift of grace, bigger within and between us than the despair could ever be around us.

Rev. Dr. Hogewood: Proclaiming this, O God, we ask that you make our joy complete for the worship and work ahead. That through our hope, we may discover this joy and create from its depths for the Louisiana Annual Conference this year. And together, we encourage one another.

ALL: Rejoice in the Lord always!

Rev. Wetekamm: Again, and again, and again and again and again I say: Rejoice!

ALL: Amen.

Master Liam Young (son of Mr. Wesley & Rev. Ali Young) then read the guiding scripture for this year's Annual Conference, Philippians 4:4, "Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!"

The AC2025 Praise Band then performed "House of the Lord" by Phil Wickham. The Opening Worship sermon was delivered by Rev. Weldon Bares, lead pastor, First United Methodist Church, Lake Charles.

"The Bible has an amazing verse in the book of Numbers. It is a word that we need to hear today. Here is that word: THE JOY OF THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH. (Numbers 8:10)

Here is an interesting question to think about; Who do you think are the happiest people in the world today? Which country is the happiest? A few weeks ago, USA Today had a front page list of those countries. The top four happiest countries in the world today? Number four, Sweden. Number three, Iceland. Number two, Denmark. And number one? Finland. America has dropped from number fourteen to twenty-four on the list. (USA Today, March 19, 2025, page 1A)

The happiest state in America? According to one survey, it's Hawaii. But I came across another survey that showed that Louisiana is the happiest state in the country. Four cities in our state actually made the top 10 of the happiest cities in America in that survey. Here they are: Number four - Baton Rouge. Number three - Shreveport-Bossier City. Number two - Houma. And number one? The answer is Lafayette.

Finding joy, finding happiness, is so important. A couple of years ago, I visited Marrakech, Morocco. The old section of the city has thousands of shops in these winding alleyways. Every shopkeeper was so fired up to see me, an American, a tourist. They were overjoyed. I went inside a carpet shop one day, and I was greeted with a smile and a handshake and a cup of Mint Tea. He introduced me to his wife, his children, his brothers and his parents. Then, he started showing me his rugs and carpets, one after the other. And so, I picked one out and we started working on the price. By the way, I challenge you to visit Morocco and not buy a rug or a carpet. I challenge you. I don't think it is possible. Anyway, he started very high and I started very low. And finally, I made the purchase, somewhere in the middle. After the purchase was made, the shop owner looked me right in the eye and then asked me, "Are you happy?" In other words, is everything okay about this deal? "Are you happy?" I said, "Yes, for sure." Then he smiled, we shook hands, and he said, "Good, good. I want you to be happy."

The question of that shopkeeper comes to each one of us here today. Are you happy?

Happiness is important, but JOY goes much deeper. Joy goes so much deeper. Is the joy of the Lord in your life? Our faith today says very clearly that it's genuinely possible to have joy in our lives today. The scripture affirms, "The joy of the Lord is our strength." I just really believe that we need to hear that word today. Especially right now. So many people today are unhappy. So many Christians seem to be unhappy. Sometimes even United Methodists have days that we struggle a little bit, right?

Some time ago, I was driving through Alexandria. I stopped to get some coffee at McDonald's, the drive-through. So there I was, minding my own business, carefully driving in the parking lot. Right then, coming quickly into the parking lot was an older woman driving her car, a big Cadillac Escalade SUV. I could see her coming, so I slowed down, but she blasted her horn at me, and told me to go. Now this wasn't just a honk. She blasted the horn at me. I know the difference between a blast and a honk. A honk says, "Hey there, excuse me." A blasting horn is shouting and cursing. This was a blasting horn. I wasn't moving out of her way fast enough. I nodded to her and said "okay," and then very clearly she pointed at me and said, "Stupid!" Stupid? What in the world did I do? I thought about parking my car, and going inside McDonald's to find her, and to say, "Excuse me, Mrs. Einstein, did you call me stupid out in the parking lot? Why?" But of course, nothing good would come from that, so I just shook my head and drove away. I prayed for that woman, and I quietly thanked God that I wasn't married to her. Was she United Methodist? I don't know. But if she is, I sure hope that she's not on the SPR Committee.

Some people today are just unhappy and angry, and it shows all the time. I read the other day that kids who are 3 to 5 years old laugh anywhere from 250 to 300 times a day. But adults only laugh around 15 times a day. Why is that? It doesn't have to be that way. It really doesn't. The scripture affirms, "The joy of the Lord is my strength." (Nehemiah 8:10)

Here is the truth of holy scripture: Joy comes to us from the hand of the Lord. It comes to us from Jesus Christ. In the Gospel of John, Jesus said these words, "I have spoken these things to you that my joy may be in you and that your joy might be full." (John 15:11) I want us to hear the words of Jesus again: "I have spoken these things to you that my joy may be in and that your joy might be full."

This morning, joy comes to us from the hand of Jesus Christ and it comes to us from the fullness of the Holy Spirit in our lives. The Apostle Paul pointed to nine signs of the Holy Spirit. He started out by saying, "The fruit of the Spirit is love" and then, after that is what? Joy. (Galatians 5: 22-23.) The fruit of the Holy Spirit in our lives is joy.

The word joy or joyful or rejoice is found 430 times in the Bible. It is found all through the Word of God. The Apostle Paul said in the book of Romans, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace." (Romans 15:13) The book of Proverbs says, "A joyful heart is good medicine." (Proverbs 17:22) The prophet Isaiah said, "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord." (Isaiah 61:10) The angel said to the shepherds on that first Christmas night, "Don't be afraid. I have good news of great joy for all people." (Luke 2:10). I find these words in Psalm 16:11: "You make known to me the path of life and you fill me with joy in your presence." It is found all through the Bible. I am just saying this morning that it's possible to have the joy of the Lord in our lives. And the time has come for us to find that joy, to find that enrichment from God in our lives, in our church once again.

A quick little side-story. My dog, Lucy, is six months old. She is such a good girl, and she wants to do the right thing. She goes to a doggy day care a couple of times a week. Several months ago, I dropped her off at doggy day care. They called me on the phone a few minutes after I dropped her off. I thought, "Oh no, what happened? What has she done?" But that wasn't it. They said, "Mister Weldon, we forgot to ask you, but do you want Lucy to participate in the enrichment class today?" I said, "Enrichment class? We are talking about my dog, right?" She said, "Yes sir. They're going to hunt Easter eggs today and then take a picture with the Easter Bunny." Now keep in mind that we are talking about my dog. Well, I didn't want Lucy to feel left out and to be the only dog not doing enrichment that day, so I said, "Yes, sure." It was an extra eight dollars. And get this, for dogs that are doing overnight boarding, they offer to read a bedtime story to the dog for $12. That is true. I don't know about you this morning, but I want God's enrichment in my life today. And God doesn't charge us eight dollars. Our faith proclaims: "The joy of the Lord is my strength."

John Wesley wrote an essay entitled, "A Plain Account of Christian Perfection" in the year 1777. I want us to hear part of what the founder of our church had to say. He said: "A Methodist is one who loves the Lord his God with all his heart, with all his soul, with all his mind, and with all his strength. God is the JOY of his heart, and the desire of his soul, which is continually crying, 'Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth whom I desire besides thee.' My God and my all! He is therefore happy in God. Yes, his JOY is full, and all his bones cry out, 'Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.'"

John Wesley got it. He understood it. He preached it. He lived it. The joy of the Lord is my strength. His brother, Charles Wesley, in his journal wrote about singing and joy. On June 8, 1738, he wrote these words, "In riding to Blendon I was full of delight and seemed in a new heaven and a new earth. We prayed and sang and shouted all the way." On September 27, 1738, he wrote in his journal about riding on horseback for three to four miles. Here is what he wrote: "We sang and shouted all the way to Oxford." Charles Wesley got it. He understood it. He preached it. He lived it. "The joy of the Lord is my strength."

The book of Ecclesiastes said it so poetically, "There is a time to laugh and there is a time to dance." (Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8)

A popular band in American culture is Kool and the Gang. They go all the way back to 1964. The band started in Jersey City, New Jersey by two brothers: Robert "Kool" Bell and Ronald Bell. I love his nick-name. Robert KOOL Bell. I wish I had a nick-name like that. My favorite song of Kool and the Gang is called, "Celebration." It came out in the year 1980. It was the only song by Kool and the Gang to go all the way to number one in the charts. Over the years the song has been played at weddings and graduations and sporting events. Some of the lyrics go like this: "There's a party goin' on right here. A celebration to last throughout the years. So bring your good times and your laughter too. We gonna celebrate your party with you. Come on now. Celebration."

Now here is the truth, and all of us know that it's true: We don't always have good times, that is for sure. We don't always have good times. But when we do, we should celebrate and give thanks to God. And this is so important: In spite of the challenging days, we need to hold on to the joy that comes to us from God.

I think of the famous parable that Jesus told that is found in the Gospel of Luke, chapter 15. The prodigal son left home and ran away to the far country. His father was so worried about him. His son finally came to the end of his rope and came back home to say, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son." His father saw him coming down the road and ran down the road to him. He threw his arms around him and hugged him and kissed him, and then, after that, what did he do? He threw a big party. It was a time of celebration.

I believe it is so important as a people of faith, as a people called United Methodists, for us to open our lives once again to the fullness of the Holy Spirit, and with God's help, let's find the joy once again.

The Bible says there is a time to laugh and there is a time to dance. The joy of the Lord is my strength.

In the United Methodist Church, a new day has come. It is a day of HOPE. It's a day of JOY. God is turning things around.

I want us to contrast two statements from David in the Old Testament. On the one hand, here is David in Psalm 43 who said, "O my soul, why are you so cast down within me?" The inward pain of David is so obvious. "Oh my soul, why are you so cast down within me?" (Psalm 43:5) But the same David said these words in Psalm 30, verses 11 and 12: "You have changed my sadness into a joyful dance. You have taken away my sorrow and surrounded me with joy." (Psalm 30:11-12) Now isn't that awesome? That is what God can do for us. Hear the first part of it again: "You have changed my sadness into a joyful dance."

God can turn things around. God can change our sadness into a joyful dance. God can do that in our lives today, and God can do that in our United Methodist Church. "The joy of the Lord is our strength."

In the book of Acts chapter 16, Paul and Silas are in prison in Philippi. For Paul and Silas, that was certainly a day of darkness. They were beaten with rods. Imagine the pain of someone beating you with a rod on your back over and over again. And they were thrown into prison. Their feet were locked up in stocks. Let me say it again. They were having a dark, sad, painful day. So what do Paul and Silas do? Do they throw up their hands and say, "That's it. I can't take this anymore. Too many churches have disaffiliated. I quit." Do they cry and pity themselves? Do they shake their fist at God and say, "Now God, we came here in good faith, trying to help, trying to do your will, trying to do the right thing, and this happens to us? Is this fair? Is this right? Do we deserve this?" Is that the attitude of Paul and Silas? Not even close. Here is what it says in the book of Acts, chapter 16, "About midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God." Instead of cursing, they are praying. Instead of blaming God and feeling sorry for themselves, they are singing hymns. Instead of whining and complaining, they are on their knees. And the same Paul, the same beat-up and imprisoned Paul, was able to write to the church at Philippi: "Rejoice in the Lord always. Again, I say, rejoice." (Philippians 4:4)

How can that be? It comes to us from the hand of Jesus Christ, and from the fullness of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Jesus said, "I have come that you might have life, life abundantly." (John 10:10) That is why Charles Wesley could say, "We sang and shouted all the way to Oxford."

E. Stanley Jones, the famous Methodist missionary to India, wrote: "Joy is the very essence of our faith. If there is no joy, there is no Christianity, for Christianity IS joy." And then he said, "The empty tomb takes away our empty gloom." (365 Days With E. Stanley Jones, pp. 352) The joy of the Lord is our strength. The empty tomb takes away our empty gloom.

Showtime had a really good series that was called, "First Lady." It was about Eleanor Roosevelt, Betty Ford and Michelle Obama. The 1976 presidential election was between President Gerald Ford and Governor Jimmy Carter from Georgia. It was a very close election. Jimmy Carter got 297 electoral votes and President Ford got 240 electoral votes. Nationwide, Jimmy Carter received 50 percent of the vote and President Ford received 48 percent. It was a very close election. So, obviously, President Ford and his family were so disappointed. They were just heartbroken. But I love this story about Betty Ford, the wife of President Gerald Ford. On her last full day as the first lady, on January 19, 1977, she walked into the cabinet room at the White House with nobody else around, except her photographer. She said, "I've always wanted to do this," and then she took off her shoes and got up on the cabinet room table, and then she danced on the table. The White House photographer, David Hume Kennedy, took some pictures, and here is what he said about that day. "The first lady took off her shoes, bounced up on a chair, then gracefully leaped onto the middle of the oblong table. The Martha Graham dancer inside of her unfolded. Mrs. Ford stood dead center beneath the chandeliers, one hand on her hip, the other extended forward. It was a real ta-da! moment. I fired off a few pictures. As quickly as she had gone up, she came back down, and then she put on her shoes, and brushed her hands together and said, 'I think that about does it.'" I love that story.

The scripture affirms: "You have changed my sadness into a joyful dance. You have taken away my sorrow and surrounded me with joy."

I want to tell you, God is doing that in the United Methodist Church. God is taking away our sorrow and surrounding us with joy. As an Annual Conference, we have been through a lot, right? Covid, hurricanes, the issue that has dominated our church for so many years. But the time has come for us to move on and to find the joy once again that comes to us from the Lord, to find the joy that comes to us from the Holy Spirit. To say, "The joy of the Lord is our strength." To affirm, "The empty tomb takes away our empty gloom."

The great news of our faith today is this: It doesn't matter if I am winning or losing. It doesn't matter if I'm on top of the world or a terrible failure. It doesn't matter if everything is going our way or if nothing is going our way. The joy of the Lord is our strength. It comes from the hand of the Lord. Here in Louisiana, we say it like this, and everybody knows the expression: "Laissez les bons temps rouler." And that means? Let the good times roll.

The Apostle Paul said, "This one thing I do, forgetting what lies behind and pressing FORWARD to what lies ahead." (Philippians 3: 13-14) The time has come for us to let it go. The time has come- for us to quit looking behind us. The time has come to look forward.

As a people of faith, as United Methodists, the time has come for us to say and to believe with all of our heart, "The joy of the Lord is our strength." Amen."

After the sermon, Bishop Williamston invited all to partake in Holy Communion using traditional liturgy as found in The United Methodist Hymnal.

The offering collected during the Opening Worship Service will go to support the Disability Ministries Committee of The United Methodist Church. Rev. Kaseem Short, lead pastor, Thomas UMC, Kenner, spoke to the need for more American Disability Act compliance measures to be taken in the churches, and how important it is for churches to be "accessible to all of God's children". Rev. Short shared stories of how his church embraced the need for more accessibility, and how those measures have provided spaces for not only more church activities, but also community activities and events. Rev. Short then offered a prayer of blessing for the Disability Ministries Committee and their work. As the offering was collected, the AC2025 Praise Band, along with the Community Combined Choir, sang "In This Very Room" by Ron & Carol Harris.

Bishop Williamston closed the Opening Worship Service with a few words of instruction on locations for Clergy and Laity Sessions, which will follow this service, and with words of "sending forth" with JoY!! The AC2025 Praise Band closed out the service by playing "Joy To The World" by Three Dog Night as the Recessional.

Break

The Laity Session of the 55th Session of the Louisiana Annual Conference began at 10:00 am, Wednesday, June 11, 2025 in the Riverview Ballroom of the Hilton Capitol Center, Baton Rouge, LA. The following are the minutes from that session:

Mr. John Smith, Mrs. Susie Cox, Dr. Fredrick Douglas Powe, Jr., Bishop Delores Williamston and members of the Laity Board were seated on the Stage.

Bishop Williamston addressed the Laity. Highlights of her remarks stated that 99.62% of the Conference membership is made up of the laity. She is looking to hear the voices of the laity and local churches on all matters. She wants to learn from them-You are the Conference. The Bishop said she was wearing her boots and dog tags because she is a soldier for the Lord. She asked that all take time to connect with others during this time of conference.

Lay Leader, Mr. John Smith, opened the session with the song "Our Hope is Built".

Mrs. Susie Cox, Associate Lay Leader, opened the meeting with prayer. She stated the mission of the Laity Board is to Love and Serve All of God's People. She followed with the introductions of the Laity Board members. During the introductions, Ms. Wendy Bray was named as a current member; however, she is no longer serving on the board.

A special offering for the Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship Fund was taken. Ms. Rhonda Whitley, chairperson of the Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship Fund, explained the purpose of the funds. She explained that this session was not the only time such offerings could be taken. Churches can take offerings at any time i.e. Student Day etc. Ms. Whitley explained how the fund was developed. The funds collected help educate God's children through the form of scholarships to Centenary College and Dillard University. A prayer was offered by Mrs. Brittany Winn Lee, a past recipient of a scholarship to Centenary College. The collected funds were later counted and reported to the secretary after conference. A total of $1,361.88 was collected.

Mr. John Smith, introduced Dr. Fredrick Douglas Powe Jr., an expert in connectionalism-one of the Bishop Williamston's directives.

Dr. Powe stated the text for the conference is 1 Peter 1:3-8. The theme is JOY. Evangelism is spreading joy, to spread joy one must have joy. We should have jubilation-we should be excited about Jesus. We must be outwardly focused. This is hard to do and we must get outside of our comfort zone. Critically important is that we must yield to our God. The Methodist Movement success was due to the Laity who spread the message far and wide. Our hope for the future is to share the message far and wide. He stated we can all do this well. For example, who hasn't shared with friends, family even strangers their favorite restaurant and dish? We can easily share our joy in God as well.

Mr. Smith followed Dr. Powe and asked the laity members to write down 6 things you feel God has done for you or brought you through. First in your work/career and then in your personal life. He suggested once home to place these notes in a box to be reviewed when life gets difficult. He suggested that we share this idea with our congregations. Mr. Smith then asked the group to list their joys and share them with their neighbors. Mr. Smith closed the session with a personal story regarding his great aunt. The purpose of telling the story was to indicate the importance of being comfortable sharing our story with others in a respectful way. The session was closed with the hymn- I Love to Tell the Story.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Chris Nolen

On any hand vote, those eligible delegates who wish to vote "YES" (approve) to the matter on the floor are asked to raise their green cards as the bishop directs. The bishop will also ask for those who wish to vote "NO" (do not approve) to raise their red cards.*
- When approaching the microphone to be recognized, speakers should display, in a manner easily discernable to the bishop, the green card if the desire is to speak "FOR" (in favor of) the item being considered, or red if the desire is to speak "AGAINST" (not in favor of) the item being considered. If the speaker simply has a question for clarification, they are asked to display the yellow card.
- Any report or material contained within the Pre-Conference Report and its supplement, that is not presented on the conference floor, will be considered as accepted and adopted at the conclusion of this session of the Annual Conference. The Journal Editor and Conference Secretary are empowered to correct typographical errors of any report before final publication.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions, and there being none, called for a vote to adopt the motion as presented; the motion was seconded, and adopted by a majority of voting delegates.

Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Katrena King, Conference Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Strategist to present on overview of monitoring procedures. Rev. King shared the following information:

My name is Rev. Katrena King. I am a young adult / Asian / female / clergy person representing the AC-COSROW. I want to thank you on behalf of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women (GCSRW) of the United Methodist Church for your commitment to understanding the responsibilities of the BOD Paragraph 2102. We are monitoring for gender inclusion and reporting these findings back to the annual conference & GCSRW. The goal of monitoring is to help the Church hold the most inclusive session possible, where every voice is respected and given opportunity to be heard. Monitoring is not policing, participating in the discussion, finger pointing, or shaming. Monitoring is observing with intentionality and reporting back the observations to assist the members of the annual conference in being self-aware of one's conduct toward the other. We will be observing the persons who are called upon to speak, the manner in which speakers address and show respect for one other, and the manner in which others show respect in listening to the speakers. We will give our attention to which voices are being heard. Is every voice given the same amount of time and respect? To help with this work, we encourage you to self-identify before you speak. You will hear from myself or an AC-COSROW representative each morning to see how we are doing.

The General Commission on the Status and Role of Women appreciates the work of the annual conference to make sure all members have the opportunity to voice their opinions. We appreciate the opportunity to provide our monitoring report and pray it can be helpful. We commend your commitment to strive toward inclusivity and safer space for all to participate.

The Board of Directors of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women together with our President, Bishop Delores J. Williamston, are in prayer that these monitoring tools and reports will help each of us be more aware of our conduct towards one another and our intentionality in including all voices equitably in the discussions.

Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Todd Rossnagel, Conference Director of Communications to share ways to stay connected during Annual Conference. Rev. Rossnagel informed the delegates that there are three (3) ways to make sure that they are aware of Annual Conference agenda items:

1. The LA Conference Website – AC2025 landing page has agenda, Pre-Conference Report, and other information pertaining to the conference.
2. The Guidebook App – has updates as they become available; Rev. Rossnagel shared how to upload and use this app.
3. Text Messaging – this year, there will be updates available to those who chose to receive them via text message; Rev. Rossnagel provided information on how to receive those messages.

Bishop Williamston called Rev. Dr. Tom Dolph, Conference Secretary, to present the Nominations Committee report. Rev. Dr. Dolph stated that the full list of those persons serving on current Conference Boards, Committees, Councils, Commissions, and Teams can be found in the Pre-Conference Report Supplement. There are a few new persons that need to be elected at this Annual Conference session to fill vacancies in previously elected classes that will serve until the end of the Quadrennium in 2028. Those nominated are as follows:

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions concerning the Nominations Committee Report. Mrs. Becky Vincent, lay delegate, Kaplan UMC, Kaplan asked why we still showed Class of 2020, instead of moving to Class of 2028? Rev. Dr. Dolph explained that the “class” listed is when the person was elected to serve, and some of those elected in 2020 may serve until 2028. There being no further questions, Bishop Williamston called for the vote to accept the names of those listed; they were elected by a majority of voting delegates.

Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Weldon Bares, Council on Finance & Administration, Chair, to present their report.

Rev. Bares began by recognizing Mrs. Sandy O'Brien, Conference Treasurer, for her 11 years of service and dedication to the LA Conference. Mrs. O'Brien will be retiring in July. Rev. Bares then presented Reports I and II, which will be voted on following this report. The theme of the annual conference, "Joy," was highlighted, with the financial reports and strategies reflecting optimism and stability for future mission and ministry. The conference's financial stability allows for continued investment in mission work, with a focus on building, connecting, and equipping for the transformation of the world.

Rev. Bares presented three detailed financial reports, starting on page 56 of the pre-conference report, emphasizing the importance of reviewing the reports for clarity and understanding. Report I outlines the ongoing CF&A policies and procedures on recurring matters. There is also an explanation of general unrestricted or undesignated reserves, and a detailed explanation of how those reserves are handled. It also shows a calculation of excess coverage of general reserves. Report II contains the following information:

- The annual conference is in a strong financial position, with a 90.9% apportionment collection rate for 2024, totaling $2,606,466, and a $914,821 excess coverage from general unrestricted reserves.
- Designated reserves from disaffiliated churches contributed $847,027, and other ministry areas utilized $2,084,000 in designated reserves for mission and ministry work.
- The 2024 apportionment expenditure budget was $4,542,009, and the annual audit report showed a clean opinion with no management comments.
- The conference reduced apportionments for local churches by 20% for 2024 and 2025, with a permanent reduction of 40% to match the 40% reduction in the number of churches in the conference.
- Internal quarterly financial statements are available on the conference website, and the 2026 apportionment expenditure budget is proposed at $4,754,018, a modest 1.52% increase from 2025.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions concerning Report I. There being none, she called for the question – “Will you adopt Report I of the CF&A Report?” The report was adopted by a majority of voting delegates. Bishop Williamston then asked if there were any questions concerning Report II. There being none, she called for the question – “Will you adopt Report II of the CF&A Report?” The report was adopted by a majority of voting delegates.

Rev. Bares then presented Report III, but voting for adoption will take place during the Friday Business Session. CFA Report III, found on page 127, outlines a threefold plan: balance, invest, and strategize, to ensure stable funding for mission and ministry without increasing apportionments or cutting programs.

- The plan includes a permanent 40% reduction in apportionments, a 2% distribution from investment income (totaling nearly $100 million in reserves), and strategic planning for staffing and organization.
- The 2% distribution is a conservative approach, well below the typical 4% endowment guideline, and will not affect principal balances or donor-restricted funds.
- The plan was developed in consultation with Merrill Lynch and the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana and approved by the CFA and the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits.
- The proposed 2026 budget reflects a 37% reduction from the 2020 budget, with clergy housing expenditures now included in the conference budget.

Rev. Bares concluded his report with this statement:

The plan for the future takes what has been Connectional, our United Methodist work, and it Builds upon the solid financial stability of our annual conference to continue the work of the church and then Equip it to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. And that after all is what it's all about. And so, to the annual conference this afternoon, I just want to say once again that all of this is really good news for us, and it brings a lot of joy to me to share it with our clergy and to share it with our conference. Again, Bishop Williamson, just a reminder, our conference is going to wait until the Friday session order to vote on this motion, but that concludes my report.

Bishop Williamston then asked Mrs. Sandy O'Brien, Conference Treasurer, to come to the stage for a time of recognition and thanks, and to present her with a plaque commemorating her time of service. Mrs. O'Brien, the conference treasurer for 11 years, was recognized for her exceptional service and dedication, particularly in supporting local churches and pastors. A plaque was presented to Mrs. O'Brien in appreciation of her work, and attendees gave her a standing ovation. Reverend Ali Young and Reverend Chad Brooks announced the creation of the "Sandy O'Brien Capital Improvement Grant" to honor her legacy, aimed at helping local churches with capital improvements. Mrs. O'Brien expressed gratitude for the opportunity to serve the conference and emphasized the collective effort of the conference office team.

Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Robert Johnson, Black Church Vitality Strategist and Rev. Chad Brooks, Church Vitality Strategist to present their reports.

Rev. Johnson began by emphasizing the importance of using the "right bait" to attract people to the church, such as music, preaching, family events, radical hospitality, and outreach that meets real needs, aligning with Jesus' call in Matthew 4:19.

Rev. Brooks highlighted the resilience and revival of churches in the Louisiana Conference, noting an increase in worship attendance and adaptation of ministries to reach new people despite challenges in recent years. Churches are asking difficult questions, developing new strategies, and embracing the Great Commission to make disciples, baptize, and transform the world under the power of the Spirit. Horseshoe Drive UMC, led by Reverend Monica Monk, achieved a 60% increase in worship attendance in 2024 despite financial struggles the previous summer. St. James UMC in New Iberia, led by Pastor

Wilford Edwards, grew by 150% in worship attendance, from 18 to 45, and continues to grow with an average of 55 attendees, attracting people from various denominations. Lay leaders in four churches stepped forward in the absence of pastoral leadership, demonstrating the strength of the United Methodist governance model and embodying the Ministry of Laity as described in the Book of Discipline.

Reverend Chad Brooks emphasized that churches with around 55 attendees are "normal-sized" congregations, as the median-sized congregation across all denominations in the U.S. is 55 people. Eighty percent (80%) of the Louisiana Conference consists of churches with fewer than 70 attendees, which are showing stabilization in worship attendance and are the strongest growing segment of the conference. Larger churches, which faced significant challenges during the COVID-19 pandemic, are beginning to reverse long-term declines and experienced growth in 2024.

The Office of Congregational Vitality is focused on financial stability, raising new leaders, expanding community engagement, investing in marketing outreach, and learning to do evangelism and integrate new people into faith communities. The 2025 Lookbook was distributed to attendees, containing inspiring messages, workshop dates, and details about new programs to support church growth and vitality. The Growth Grant Program will support 10 churches every six months, helping them become more evangelistic and build integration systems to attract and retain new members. A new program to provide financial assistance for physical building improvements is in its infancy stage and expected to be announced by the end of the year. Two new workshop series will be introduced in every district, focusing on strategic generosity and integrating and welcoming new people into churches, making them accessible to churches of all sizes.

Rev. Johnson shared stories of revival across Louisiana, including children carrying Bibles to worship in Bogalusa, young adults returning to Christ in Cheneyville, and churches making tangible impacts in public schools in Thibodaux at a place called Johnson Ridge Land. Churches in Napoleonville, like the Roadside Church, and in Bunkie are actively serving their communities, embodying Christ's love through food distribution and spiritual nourishment. These stories reflect a broader movement of hope and transformation in rural congregations, demonstrating the active presence of the Spirit and the commitment to revitalizing both churches and communities.

Rev. Brooks quoted Deuteronomy 30:11, reminding attendees that the work of fulfilling the Great Commission is hard but not beyond their reach, as God's word is near and provides guidance. Rev. Johnson emphasized the importance of embracing a transformative future, building disciples empowered by the Holy Spirit, and serving communities boldly and joyfully under Bishop Dolores Williamson's leadership. The report concluded with a call to remain open to God's work, trust in the best yet to come, and unite to build up the church and bless the world.

Bishop Williamston thanked Rev. Johnson and Rev. Brooks and asked if there were any questions. This report requires no action or vote.

Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Dr. Van Stinson, Executive Director of Mission & Ministry/Assistant to the Bishop, and Mrs. Susie Cox, Conference Associate Lay Leader to present the report from the Strategic Implementation Team.

Rev. Dr. Stinson began by stating that the team has concentrated on adaptive work, clarifying values, and assessing the organization's current realities versus its aspirations. Bishop Williamston's vision emphasizes building, connecting, and equipping disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future. Based on this vision, the team has identified three (3) key adaptive opportunities:

- Shift towards a new reality
- Maximize financial resources to support mission and ministry.
- Develop organizational structures that align resources and staff with mission priorities.

During visioning retreat earlier in the year, the team established four strategic priorities:

- Evangelize new generations and embrace diversity.

- Foster a culture of call for clergy and laity.
- Prioritize congregational vitality and leadership development.
- Creatively communicate the story of the Louisiana Conference.

Rev. Stinson introduced Mrs. Susie Cox, associate lay leader, who will assume the role of chair and facilitator for the next phase, coordinating efforts with the extended cabinet and strategic partners. Both Rev. Dr. Stinson and Mrs. Cox expressed enthusiasm for the future work of the team, emphasizing the importance of community and purpose in their mission.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any question, and there being none, she invited Mr. Joseph LeBoeuf and Mr. Brandon Tubbs, to present the report from the Youth Ministries Task Force.

Mr. Tubbs began the report by stating that the Youth Ministry task force discussed challenges, strategies, and plans for supporting and equipping youth workers in the conference. He highlighted the evolving challenges in youth ministry, emphasizing the difficulty of reconnecting with teenagers in a world vastly different from 25 years ago, where platforms like YouTube Shorts and TikTok have become primary sources of influence for youth. He noted that many churches struggle to maintain traditional youth groups, with some congregations having only a handful of teenagers or youth groups composed entirely of family members. He reflected on the shift in church attendance patterns, mentioning that regular attendance is now considered once every six Sundays, compared to the past when missing two Sundays would prompt outreach from church members. He also stressed the importance of helping youth discover the "fingerprint of God" in their lives and creating a supportive church environment that welcomes and nurtures them. He also emphasized the importance of creating a "new normal" for youth ministry, avoiding a return to outdated models and focusing on innovative approaches that meet today's needs.

Mr. LeBoeuf continued the report by stating that the Youth Ministry Task Force, under the direction of Rev. Dr. Van Stinson, has spent the past year assessing the needs of youth ministry in the current context and identifying strategies to address them. The task force aims to support youth workers by providing professional development, community-building opportunities, and resources to help them navigate the challenges of modern youth ministry. The task force includes a diverse group of members, such as full-time and part-time youth ministers, volunteers, and clergy, all working collaboratively to address the challenges faced by youth ministries. He announced the creation of an interim youth ministry strategist role, which he and Brandon Tubbs will share, to provide dedicated support for youth ministry within the conference over the next year. This role will involve answering questions, offering guidance, and serving as a resource for pastors and churches seeking to develop or strengthen their youth ministries. He shared that in the past month alone, five pastors approached him with questions about starting youth ministries, highlighting the demand for this support.

Mr. LeBoeuf continued by saying that the task force plans to spend the next year developing a clearer picture of the annual conference's needs for youth ministry, with the goal of eventually appointing a dedicated point person for this work. To facilitate planning and resource allocation, the task force is collecting accurate information about youth point persons at each church through iPad kiosks and QR codes available at the conference venue. The task force will continue to assess the needs of youth ministry, connect with youth workers, and provide resources to equip and support them in their roles.

To conclude their report, Mr. LeBouef informed the conference that he will transition to leading the camping and retreat ministries task force, which will work alongside the extended cabinet to assess the future of these ministries. This integration aims to create a cohesive strategy for youth ministry and related areas, ensuring that all efforts align with the broader goals of the conference. The overarching theme of the annual conference, "Joy," was emphasized as a guiding principle for the task force's work, with hopes for a future filled with excitement, discovery, and renewed energy for youth ministry. Both Mr. Tubbs and Mr. LeBouef expressed optimism about the potential for growth and transformation in youth ministry, encouraging attendees to embrace the opportunities ahead.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions concerning this report, and there being none, she invited Mr. Chris Brown, Conference and Centenary Archivist & Historian, and Dr. Chris Holoman, President of Centenary College to give their report, and share a presentation on the celebration of the 200th Anniversary of Centenary College.

Dr. Holoman opened by expressing gratitude to the Conference for its ongoing support of Centenary, both financially and spiritually, and noted his own service within the University Senate of the United Methodist Church. He encouraged delegates to support Amendment Four, linking the college's mission to the broader work of the church. His central theme was simple: that all present should feel proud and joyful about Centenary's 200-year legacy and its continuing role in higher education.

Mr. Brown then provided a sweeping historical overview of Centenary's relationship with Louisiana Methodism. He traced the institution's origins to 1825, when the Louisiana legislature founded the College of Louisiana in Jackson.

In 1839, the Methodist Episcopal Church launched Centenary College in Mississippi, naming it in honor of John Wesley's centennial. The two merged in 1845 when the College of Louisiana closed, creating Centenary College of Louisiana. Mr. Brown highlighted the college's resilience through the Civil War, during which the campus was shuttered and even served as a battleground. He detailed Centenary's relocation to Shreveport in 1908, a move secured through support from civic leaders and the Louisiana Conference, and recounted the Conference's long history of financial contributions, including a $250,000 pledge in 1925.

Mr. Brown also emphasized Centenary's role in shaping the Methodist witness in Louisiana. From hosting the Annual Conference almost every year between 1956 and 2018, to preserving the archives of Louisiana Methodism, Centenary has served as both meeting place and memory keeper. He noted the pivotal 1971 service in the college's Gold Dome that formally merged the racially segregated Conferences A and B, and described how the Christian Leadership Center, founded in 1974, has grown into a vital program preparing students for both church and secular leadership.

Mr. Brown conclude by highlighting the behind the scenes archives work of Centenary student Beth Vogler. Thanks to conference funds, Beth worked three months last summer to help catalog material transferred to the archives from closed and disaffiliated United Methodist churches. During that time, she processed about 50 boxes worth of material. Now inventories to all those collections are accessible in our online catalog.

Dr. Holoman returned to outline recent achievements and current initiatives. Centenary continues to be recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in United Methodist higher education, with active student exchanges connecting Shreveport to Methodist institutions across the globe. The campus itself has seen notable improvements, including accessibility renovations to Brown Chapel, the installation of a new bicentennial sculpture inspired by the Methodist cross and flame, and construction of four new residence halls collectively named Bicentennial Village.

Looking ahead, Dr. Holman shared a calendar of bicentennial celebrations. These include a brick dedication ceremony on August 19, a full slate of homecoming events October 20–26, a special bicentennial worship service on September 29 in Shreveport, and a closing celebration on December 6. The final event, Spotlight Centenary, will feature alumnus and former Harlem Globetrotter Herbert “Flight Time” Lang as master of ceremonies.

Dr. Holman concluded with a major announcement: the college is nearing the successful completion of a $50 million capital campaign, with $49.182 million already raised. He emphasized that this campaign represents not only a financial milestone but also a renewed commitment to Centenary’s future as a United Methodist institution in Louisiana.

The session closed with a recognition of leadership transitions in the chaplain’s office. Rev. Lindy Broderick, who recently retired, was honored for her faithful service, and Rev. Maddie Russo was welcomed as the new chaplain of Centenary College. A blessing was offered for her ministry and for the continuing work of the college as it steps into its third century.

Bishop Williamston called upon Rev. Dr. Tom Dolph for an announcement concerning the next Business session. Rev. Dr. Dolph reminded all voting delegates to return for the session with their credentials and voting cards, and we will be voting on the Constitutional Amendments. He also asked that the chairs in the main ballroom remain as they have been placed, in order for the tellers to more efficiently distribute and collect ballots. Bishop Williamston dismissed the conference until 3:18 pm.

Break

Bishop Williamston welcomed the Conference back into session by asking Rev. Dr. Van Stinson to make announcements concerning events for the evening. Rev. Dr. Stinson asked for a hand count of those who planned to participate in the Biking With The Bishop bike ride beginning at 7:30 pm, in order to make sure there are enough bikes for anyone that wants to ride. There is a QR Code with a form that will need to be completed before riding.

There will also be a HUB for Innovation gathering in the Riverview Ballroom at 7:00 pm with Rev. Matt Rawle and Ms. Rachel Billups. Bishop Williamston recognized Rev. Wybra Price, II and his wife, Mrs. Judy Price, Centenary graduates, to lead the delegation in prayer, written by Rev. John Winn.

Bishop Williamston introduced the new vision statement proposed by the Council on Bishops and adopted by the Connectional Table. It reads:

The United Methodist Church forms disciples of Jesus Christ who, empowered by the Holy Spirit, love boldly, serve joyfully, and lead courageously in local communities and worldwide connections.

A video, presented by Bishops and members of the Connectional Table, shared how they arrived at this new vision statement, and provided more information on what the three (3) points mean in action.

1. Love Boldly – We passionately love God, and like Jesus, embrace and include people of every age, nation, race, gender, and walk of life.
2. Serve Joyfully – With the heart of Christ, we journey alongside the most vulnerable, offering care and compassion with joy.
3. Lead Courageously – Following Jesus' example, we resist and dismantle all systems of evil, injustice, and oppression, striving for peace, justice and reconciliation.

This renewed vision is more than words. It is an invitation to embrace the joy and hope as we live God's mission. It also provides us with a clear Christ centered framework for missional unity and collaboration across the worldwide connection.

In the months ahead, the Council of Bishops and the Connectional Table will work with our general agencies to create resources that inspire and equip disciples, leaders, and congregations to live into this vision. Together, we will discern how each of us can participate in the new thing God is doing.

Now, more than ever, the world needs to experience God's boundless love. As the people of The United Methodist Church, we embrace God's call to be and form disciples of Jesus Christ who, empowered by the Holy Spirit, love boldly, serve joyfully, and lead courageously to transform lives, communities, and the world.

Bishop Williamston informed the Conference that more information can be found about this vision at resourceumc.org/vision and on the Louisiana Conference website as well. A local church guide book designed to support pastors and leaders, as well as link to the video, and be found on the website. There is also information concerning the mission – to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, and how the UM brand promise (primarily used in external messaging) – Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors – reminds us of what everyone should expect to find in a United Methodist congregation or organization.

Bishop Williamston recognized Rev. Dr. Tom Dolph, Conference Secretary to present the four (4) constitutional amendments for consideration in accordance with the United Methodist Book of Discipline, as well as the voting procedure.

Rev. Dr. Dolph, before presenting the amendments, reminded the Conference that “by Discipline, changes to the Constitution must be voted on by the members of all Annual Conferences. According to paragraph 60 of The Book of Discipline, which states amendments to the Constitution shall be upon a 2/3 majority of the General Conference present and voting, and a 2/3 affirmative vote of the aggregate number of members of the several annual conferences present and voting. It is required that each annual conference must pass with an aggregate 2/3 approval from all voting members.

"Aggregate 2/3 approval," means that 2/3 of the total number of United Methodist voting worldwide must vote for approval. This means that the vote taken at our Annual Conference is a part of the approval process but not the only determining factor. Thus, even if our AC approves the changes, unless the total number of members voting for approval from all Conferences reaches 2/3 they do not pass. Likewise, if they do not reach the 2/3 mark in our AC but sufficient numbers from other Conferences approve, they will still pass. This also means, in part, that the result of our balloting will not be released at this session of our Annual Conference. The results of our Conference vote will not be available until after the Council of Bishops has received the entirety of the vote in the Fall of 2025, if then.

Each of the proposed amendments will be voted on separately by written ballot. When it is time for the vote, detailed instructions will be given. Preceding each vote, you will be guided to where the language of the proposed changes can be found in the Pre-Conference Report, and a member of our General Conference delegation will provide a brief description of the proposed changes. The floor will then be opened for debate. Our standing Conference rules of order will guide this debate. I also remind you that, although these changes can be debated, they cannot be amended, nor can the proposed language be altered in any way. Our book of Discipline determines who is eligible to vote on Constitutional Amendments, and Rev. Dr. Dolph asked that those who are eligible to vote, please stand to receive their packet of four (4) ballots for the tellers.

The persons eligible to vote on Constitutional Amendments are:

(See ¶602.1.a, b, c & d.)

- Full Connection Elders and Deacons, whether active, retired or on leave (red credentials).
- The official Lay Members of the Annual Conference (yellow credentials)

Delegates were reminded not to sign their ballots, and not to mark their ballots until instructed to do so by Bishop Williamston.

Once all ballots were distributed, Rev. Dr. Dolph returned the floor to Bishop Williamston, who called on Rev. Katie McKay Simpson, lead pastor, University UMC, Baton Rouge to present a brief overview of Amendment 1 – Regionalization, found beginning on page 23 of the Pre-Conference Report. Rev. McKay gave the following description:

This amendment updates the governance structure of the United Methodist Church to reflect the cultural diversity and global growth of the denomination, while maintaining unity in doctrine, connectional structure, and oversight through the General Conference, Council of Bishops, Judicial Council and General Agencies. It creates regional conferences both inside and outside the United States that can adapt church practice, mission, and ministry to their unique contexts. Regionalization ensures equity across the church by granting all regions the same ability to respond to local needs. This change allows every part of the global connection to flourish and more effectively reach new people in the name of Jesus Christ.

Bishop Williamston opened the floor for discussion and debate on Amendment 1. There being none, Bishop Williamston called for the vote on Amendment 1 – Regionalization. Rev. Dr. Dolph instructed the conference on the proper way to mark Ballot 1. Voting was closed, and ballots were then collected by the tellers. Bishop Williamston then called upon Rev. Karli Pidgeon, Southeast District Superintendent, to share a brief overview of Amendment 2 – Inclusivity, found on page 53 of the Pre-Conference Report. Rev. Pidgeon gave the following description:

This amendment updates paragraph 4 of the Constitution to explicitly include gender and ability among the characteristics that cannot be used to exclude someone from full participation in the church. It affirms that all persons, regardless of race, gender, ability, color, national origin, status, or economic condition, may fully participate as worshippers, program participants, baptized members, and professing members of The United Methodist Church. This amendment reinforces the church's commitment to the full inclusion of all people in the life and membership of the church.

Bishop opened the floor for any questions or debate on Amendment 2. There being none, Bishop Williamston called for the vote on Amendment 2 – Inclusivity on Ballot 2. Bishop Williamston closed the voting, and the ballots were collected by the tellers. Bishop Williamston called Rev. Brady Whitton, lead pastor, First UMC, Baton Rouge, to present a brief overview of Amendment 3 – Racial Justice, found on page 54 of the Pre-Conference Report. Rev. Whitton gave the following description:

This amendment revises paragraph five (5) of the Constitution to name racism as a sin that opposes God's law and diminishes the image of every person, who is created in the image of God. It adds the terms white supremacy, white privilege, and colonialism to this paragraph, marking a shift from earlier, more generalized language, and directly confronting the church's complicity in systemic injustice. By declaring that The United Methodist Church must be an actively anti-racist institution, the amendment calls for tangible ongoing efforts to dismantle racist structures both within the church and in society.

Bishop Williamston opened the floor for questions or debate on Amendment 3. There being none, Bishop Williamston called for the vote on Amendment 3 – Racial Justice, Ballot 3. Bishop Williamston closed voting on Ballot 3, and they were collected by the tellers. Bishop Williamston then called upon Mr. Adam Philley, lay delegate, Broadmoor UMC, Shreveport to give a brief overview of Amendment 4 – Clergy Delegates Educational Requirements, found on page 55 of the Pre-Conference Report. Mr. Philley gave the following description:

This amendment clarifies the educational requirements for clergy who vote for delegates to General, Regional, or Jurisdictional Conferences. Previously, the paragraph stated that a clergy delegate must have completed course of study or have a master of divinity degree. It now reads “course of study or master of divinity from a university senate approved theological school or its equivalent as recognized in a central conference. The goal is to ensure a consistent global standard for theological education. It does restrict voting rights for licensed local pastors.

Bishop Williamston opened the floor for questions or debate on Amendment 4. There being none, Bishop Williamston called for the vote on Amendment 4 – Clergy Delegates Educational Requirements, Ballot 4. Bishop Williamston closed the vote on Ballot 4, and they were collected by the tellers. This ended the voting on Constitutional Amendments. Bishop Williamston thanked the Conference for an extremely smooth voting process, the delegation representatives for clear and concise amendment overviews, and the tellers for timely distribution and collection of ballots.

Rev. Dr. Van Stinson reminded the Conference to take time to visit the exhibitors area in the Gallery Hallway, and in the Governor, the Capitol, and the King conference rooms. They are here representing vital missions and ministries that could be wonderful partnerships, so please take time to visit with them and learn of the wonderful connectional nature that we all celebrate today. Rev. Dr. Stinson invited Mr. Michael Klaus, AC2025 Band leader, to say a few words about the Celebration of the Saints on Thursday at 11:00 am. Mr. Klaus invited any delegates who would like to participate in the Delegation Choir that will be providing special music during that time, to remain following adjournment for this evening, for a time of rehearsal. Mrs. Kyle Wooldridge, AC Planning Team, asked that all delegates remember to pick-up trash and dispose of it, in order to have the room as clean as possible for the event this evening and for tomorrow morning. Bishop Williamston asked for the first Retirees video, featuring Rev. Karl Klaus, to be shown. Bishop Williamston then announced that worship would begin at 8:15 am, with Dr. Douglas Poe, Jr., PhD, and Business Session 3 would begin at 9:15 am Thursday morning. Bishop Williamston recessed the Conference until 8:00 am tomorrow morning.

THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 2025

The second day of the 55th Session of the Louisiana Conference began with music from the AC2025 Praise Band. Selections included: Joy To The World, by Three Dog Night; Every Good Thing, by Pat Barrett; and Thrive, by Casting Crowns. Bishop Williamston welcomed the conference back for day two of the Annual Conference, and officially called the meeting to order. She reminded the delegation of the orders of the day, the first at 11:45 am and 4:00 pm. Bishop Williamston issued an invitation for all to attend the Celebration of Ministry Service tonight at 6:00 pm in the Riverview Ballroom. She invited Rev. Danny Gleason, lead pastor, First UMC, Hammond, and Centenary graduate to open with prayer.

Bishop Williamston introduced Rev. Dr. Douglas Powe, Jr., president of Phillips Theological Seminary in Tulsa, OK, highlighting his background as her professor at St. Paul School of Theology and his expertise in Black Church Ministries and Evangelism. Dr. Powe was welcomed warmly, and his academic credentials, including his role in mentoring leaders like Bishop Williamson, were emphasized. Dr. Powe humorously accepted the challenge to “preach beignets”, referencing a lighthearted comment from the previous day.

Dr. Powe began by thanking Bishop Williamston for the invitation to speak at the Louisiana Conference, to Rev. Bryan Dalco for acting as host, and to the Laity for allowing him to speak during their session. He then began his presentation by reading Romans 12:1-2 – “Therefore, I urge you brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, Holy and pleasing to God. This is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and prove what God’s will is, his good, pleasing, and perfect will.”

Dr. Powe began by defining joy in the Christian and Wesleyan tradition as more than happiness, emphasizing it as abiding in Christ and being transformed into His image. He referenced Romans 12:1-2 to explain the concept of living as a “living sacrifice,” valuing what God values, and being renewed in mind to discern God’s will. He stressed the importance of sober judgment, acknowledging the reality of one’s congregation and individual gifts, and using those gifts joyfully to build the body of Christ. Dr. Powe highlighted the need for congregations to avoid selfishness, embrace transformation, and focus on serving the Lord with spiritual fervor.

Romans 12:3-8

- Sober Judgment
- Body of Christ
- Gifts (personal and social)

Dr. Poe adapted Howard Thurman's framework to describe three types of congregations:

- Swamp Congregations: Inwardly focused, concerned with survival, and resistant to welcoming outsiders or engaging in missional work.

Swamp

- Inwardly focused
- Not willing to risk anything to move forward
- Have become satisfied with the status quo
- Missional Mindset
 - At most give money, but no physical engagement
 - Only want to follow Jesus when it's comfortable
 - Happy with an inwardly focused community

Swamp

- Do not have a missional mindset
- Lack of Joy

- Reservoir Congregations: Engage in limited outreach through "pet ministries" like feeding or clothing programs but often lack transformative relationships with the community.

Reservoir

- More outwardly focused, but often it is a pet ministry
- Can morph into a social agency attitude
- Risk is usually connected to getting people to come to us
- Prefer status quo, but can change at times
- Missional Mindset
 - Focus on pet project or ministry
 - Take doing for others seriously, but still want comfort of pet ministry or project
 - Happy with maintaining a set group to keep pet ministry or projects going

Reservoir

- More of a missional mindset
- More abiding Joy

- Canal Congregations: Outwardly focused, creating partnerships, equipping disciples, and fostering a missional mindset to impact their communities.

Canal

- Outwardly focused
- Willing to take risk in service to mission
- Understand the importance of adapting
- Missional Mindset
 - Seek ways to have transformational impact by fully engaging those outside of congregation
 - Willing to follow Jesus even when it is not comfortable and do something new
 - Seeking to expand the community to include others

Canal

- Missional Mindset
- Joy

He emphasized the importance of congregations moving toward a canal model to embody joy and fulfill their mission. Attendees were asked to take a few minutes to reflect on whether their congregation resembled a swamp, reservoir, or canal, and to identify one action needed to bring more joy to their congregation.

Questions

- Does your congregation more resemble a swamp, reservoir or canal?
- What one thing does your congregation need to work on to have more joy?

Dr. Powe asked that one person share what they discussed. Mrs. Linda Smith, lay delegate, shared that her congregation was between a swamp and reservoir, emphasizing the need for more prayer and unity to align everyone on one accord. The discussion highlighted the challenges of differing visions within congregations and the importance of collective prayer and discernment.

Dr. Powe then outlined four critical areas for congregational development:

- Context: Understanding the community's assets, needs, and opportunities through tools like Mission Insight or direct engagement.
- Community: Emphasizing the importance of communion and creating a welcoming, inclusive environment both inside and outside the congregation.
- Innovation: Taking adaptive risks to address challenges and avoid repeating ineffective practices while retaining valuable traditions.
- Vision: Developing a clear, actionable vision focused on impactful goals, such as supporting children or other community needs, rather than mere survival.

Dr. Powe concluded by reiterating the importance of joy as a deep commitment to transformation and renewal in Christ, which should be shared with others. He referenced Acts 2, emphasizing that God will add to the congregation's number if they live out their joy authentically.

Bishop Williamston thanked Dr. Powe for his teaching and encouraged attendees to explore his books, "Transformative Evangelism" and "Adept Church," for further learning. The session ended with anticipation for Dr. Poe's next teaching session the following day.

Following Dr. Powe's teaching session, Bishop Williamston called on Rev. Katrena King, DEI Strategist, to present the GCOSROW Monitoring Report for Wednesday's sessions. Rev. King stated that during the plenary session yesterday, there were 29 total speakers with 4 identifying as black, 1 identified as Asian, and 24 identified as white. There were 12 females and 17 males, and 18 clergy and 9 laity who addressed the conference. Rev. King went on to thank everyone for showing respect to those who were speaking, but mostly to thank everyone for participating joyfully.

Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Karli Pidgeon, Southeast District Superintendent, to introduce the president of Dillard University. Rev. Pidgeon introduced Dr. Monique Guillory, highlighting her journey from joining Dillard University as Provost in April 2024 to being named Interim President and officially becoming President in January 2025. Dr. Guillory is the first President of Dillard University from New Orleans, bringing a wealth of experience from her service at various HBCUs and other institutions across the country. Rev. Pidgeon emphasized Dr. Guillory's commitment to modernizing Dillard University and ensuring its prominence in the 21st century.

Dr. Guillory began her presentation by sharing her personal background as a New Orleans native and cradle Catholic, expressing her appreciation for the Methodist faith tradition and its inclusivity. She humorously noted her unexpected journey to becoming President, emphasizing her initial focus on being a Provost and her reluctance toward traditional presidencies. She credited her family and community for their support, including her experience of having a second child at 46 years old, which she described as a blessing.

Dr. Guillory continued by discussing the widening generational gap, exacerbated by rapid technological advancements, and its impact on higher education. She expressed concern about the disconnect between traditional academic values and the aspirations of young people, many of whom aim to become influencers or streamers rather than pursuing conventional career paths. She highlighted the anti-intellectual movement among youth, citing examples like Mr. Beast's viral video of counting to 100,000, which garnered 25 million views, as indicative of shifting priorities.

Dr. Guillory announced Dillard University's plan to offer a course on becoming an influencer, recognizing the reality of students' interests and the economic potential of this career path. She emphasized the importance of listening to students and aligning education with their values and the current global paradigm shift. She acknowledged the need for higher education to adapt to the evolving world and avoid stagnation, ensuring relevance for students.

Dr. Guillory introduced a new framework for freshman education at Dillard, focusing on four pillars: mind, self, spirit, and path.

- The "mind" pillar encourages students to develop self-awareness through practices like prayer, meditation, and journaling, helping them understand their thoughts and motivations.
- The "self" pillar emphasizes the importance of physical and mental health, urging students to care for their bodies and address issues like depression and anxiety.
- The "spirit" pillar aims to strengthen students' relationship with the divine, incorporating Methodist traditions and fostering spiritual growth.
- The "path" pillar focuses on helping students discover their purpose and how to use their gifts to contribute to the world.

Dr. Guillory highlighted Dillard University's legacy as the oldest HBCU in Louisiana, celebrating its 155-year history. She expressed her commitment to modernizing the institution while preserving its traditions, ensuring it remains relevant and impactful in the current global context. She concluded by thanking the Methodist community for their support and partnership in advancing Dillard's mission.

Bishop Williamston thanked Dr. Guillory and invited any Dillard University alumni to stand. She then invited Mr. Chris Spencer, UM Foundation of Louisiana president, to present their report.

Mr. Spencer began by announcing that the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana added new planned gifts and endowments to benefit churches across the conference, achieving double-digit returns in a challenging investment market. Over $500,000 in new grants were distributed to more than 30 churches and ministries across Louisiana, supporting rural communities, urban ministries, small churches, flagship churches, clergy, and laity leadership training and education.

The Foundation celebrated its 50th anniversary at its annual meeting April, and introduced a new logo and new branding colors, a fresh approach for the Foundation that will carry it forward into the next 50 years with renewed purpose and vision.

Also at the annual board meeting, three new Board of Trustees members were elected: Reverend Katie Black, Brent Graham, and Dr. Van Stinson, as well as a new Executive Committee: Rev. Jo Cooper, President; Rev. Drew Sutton, Vice President; Mrs. Val Lavigne, Secretary; Mr. Bob Kimbro, Investment Chair; and Rev. Mimi McDowell, Grants Chair.

Newly Elected Members of the Board of Trustees:

Rev. Katie Black
Pastor, First UMC of Houma

Brent Graham
Director of Financial Planning,
Centura Advisors

Dr. Van Stinson
Executive Director of Mission &
Ministry, Asst. to the Bishop,
Louisiana Annual Conference

New Members of Executive Committee:

Rev. Jo Cooper
Board Chair

Rev. Drew Sutton
Vice Chair

Val Lavigne
Secretary

Bob Kimbro

Rev. Mimi McDowell

Mr. Spencer emphasized the interconnectedness of the Foundation with churches and ministries across Louisiana, highlighting the contributions of board members and volunteers.

The meeting also showcased the Foundations growth from an initial $5,000 donation in 1975 to nearly $250 million in assets today, thanks to wise investments and strong leadership. Planned gifts were highlighted as multi-generational and perpetual funds that allow donors to continue their faithful giving beyond their lifetimes, with the first planned gift established in 1990 by Nellie Rhoades Greer. Since 1990, 421 planned gifts totaling over $50 million have been made, with hundreds of thousands of dollars distributed annually to Methodist churches, the Louisiana Methodist Children’s Home, and other ministries. The Foundation aims to help every church in the conference establish an endowment fund to grow their ministry and encourage United Methodists in Louisiana to leave legacies that outlive them.

Planned giving was described as an opportunity to express belief in the future of the Church and ensure sustained ministry for generations. (a brief video was presented at this time)

Mr. Spencer continued by reporting that the Foundation has awarded $8.1 million in grants since 1992, supporting seminary service loan programs, clergy leadership training, outreach programs, and innovative ministries through local churches. A key priority over the past decade has been clergy leadership, including the Practical Church Leadership Program at Dakota Wesleyan University, which addresses the lack of business training for pastors. Grants have filled gaps in funding for specific projects, extending the mission and ministry of the conference in impactful ways.

In addition to grants, the Seminary Service Loan Program was launched in 2000 to address the burden of seminary debt, allowing clergy to pay off loans through service to the Church over a five-year period. The program has provided financial assistance to clergy, enabling them to afford seminary education and enter ministry without financial strain. Participants expressed gratitude for the program, noting its role in fostering connections with the Louisiana Conference and supporting their calling to serve.

Mr. Spencer conclude by stating that the Foundation's future goals include establishing endowment funds for every church, growing ministries, and funding impactful projects across Louisiana communities. An upcoming workshop titled "It's Time for Revolution," featuring Pastor Mark Deez, was announced for August 23rd, in partnership with First United Methodist Church of Baton Rouge. The Foundation continues to emphasize its commitment to helping churches and donors understand their role in growing God's kingdom and creating lasting legacies. Mr. Spencer thanked the Conference for its continued prayers, partnerships, trust, and confidence in the work they are doing. This concluded the report.

Bishop Williamston thanked Mr. Spencer for their report, and then called upon Rev. Dick Humphries, chair, Board of Pensions & Health Benefits, along with Mrs. Lynn Hammel and Mr. Bob Gerlach, to present their report.

Rev. Humphries introduced and shared a personal anecdote about his marriage, highlighting his long-standing connection to the Methodist Church and especially Centenary College. He reflected on the legacy of Rev. Jimmy Caraway, a former executive director, and his contributions to the financial stability and vision of the conference, as well as all of those who served in that role, who worked diligently and faithfully with prudent investing and good stewardship.

Rev. Humphries began the report by stating that the conference's financial position is strong, with all retirement plans fully funded on a long-term basis, and the Retiree Health Benefit Fund is overfunded due to the generosity of the Woolworth Foundation. The pre-1982 years of service pension will increase to $887 per service year in 2026. The proposal to use 2% of investment balances (earnings) to fund the apportionment expenditure budget starting in 2027 was highlighted, with assurances that principal balances and donor-restricted funds will remain untouched. The Board of Pensions & Health Benefits recommends adoption of CFA Report II, which includes this funding proposal. The full Board of Pensions & Health Benefits report can be found beginning on page 141 of the Pre-Conference Report.

Rev. Humphries introduced Mrs. Lynn Hammel, Louisiana Conference Client Relations Manager from Wespeth. Mrs. Hammel shared a video presentation detailing the new Compass retirement plan for clergy. This video can be seen in its entirety at <https://www.wespeth.org/retirement-investments/Compass> - Compass Annual Conference Presentation. A few items of note included:

- The Compass Retirement Plan, effective January 1, 2026, will replace the current pension plan for active clergy, offering a defined contribution (DC) structure.
- Clergy and the UMC will contribute to the plan, with the UMC providing a flat dollar amount, 3% of compensation, and a dollar-for-dollar match up to 4%.
- The plan includes features like automatic escalation, increased parsonage value from 25% to 35%, and provisions for student loan payments to count toward matching contributions.
- The Life Stage Retirement Income Program ensures income throughout retirement, with options like Social Security Bridge and longevity income protection.

Rev. Humphries thanked Mrs. Hammel for her attendance, and for her willingness to answer questions concerning Compass. Rev. Humphries also reminded the retired clergy of the conference of the availability of The Shepards Fund. The Shepherd's Fund, initiated by anonymous donors, provides financial assistance for extraordinary health or dental needs of retired clergy and their spouses. The fund has no income or need verification requirements, ensuring easy access for those in need. This completed Reports I and II.

Rev. Humphries began Report III, which can be found beginning on page 193 of the Pre-Conference Report, that proposes to move the conference to the Wespeth Health Flex Plan. There have been multiple seminars and webinars in varying degrees of detail since last fall that explain the need for the change. There are several videos present more information on Health Flex at <https://www.wespeth.org/health-well-being/AE>. Rev. Humphries introduced Mr. Bob Gerlach to share more about the Health Flex Plan. Mr. Gerlach gave a brief overview of the new plan, with a few items of note being:

- The Health Flex Plan, effective January 1, 2026, was proposed to replace the current health plan for active clergy and their families, with unanimous support from the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits.
- The plan offers six options, including health savings accounts, health reimbursement accounts, and a traditional PPO plan, all using the same broad networks and coverage.
- Care coordinators will provide proactive support for medical and pharmacy needs, resolving issues before they arise.
- The plan includes wellbeing programs with incentives of up to $410 per year for completing milestones.
- The timeline for implementation includes communications in August-September 2025, workshops in October, plan selection in November, and benefits activation in January 2026.

Rev. Humphries thanked Mr. Gerlach for his attendance, and his willingness to answer questions concerning Health Flex. The final report from the Board of Pensions & Health Benefits can be found on page 197 of the Pre-Conference Report, and consists of the following four (4) resolutions:

- Resolution 1: Adoption of the current pension and retirement plan concluding December 31, 2025.
- Resolution 2: Approval of the new Compass Retirement Plan effective January 1, 2026.
- Resolution 3: Agreement to support health insurance premiums for pastors under appointment.
- Resolution 4: Adoption of the Clergy Housing Allowance for retired, disabled, or former United Methodist clergy, ensuring tax benefits for housing expenses.

Rev. Humphries made the following motion: I present to this delegation the information presented in Reports I and II as they pertain to Resolutions 1, 2, 3, and 4, noting the special significance of Resolution 2, and the adoption of Report III concerning the adoption of the Westpath Health Flex Plan as the new insurance plan for active clergy & their families. Board of Pensions & Health Benefits members unanimously recommend adoption of all reports and resolutions.

Bishop Williamson informed the delegation, that as these reports come with the recommendation of the presenting committee, there is no need for a second to the motion. She opened the floor for questions or debate, and there being none, Bishop Williamson called for the vote; the motion was approved by a majority of voting delegates.

Rev. Humphries expressed gratitude to the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits members, guest presenters Mrs. Lynn Hammel and Mr. Bob Gerlach from Westpath, and the conference attendees for their attention and approval of the reports. Bishop Williamson commended the body for their important work and facilitated the smooth conclusion of the session.

At this time, the Retiree Video featuring Rev. Lindy Broderick was shown. This video can be seen in its entirety on the Louisiana Conference website. The DEI Strategist report was moved to the afternoon sessions. Bishop Williamston invited Mr. John F. Smith, Conference Lay Leader, to present the report of the Board of Laity.

Mr. Smith began his report with a call to action for laity to strengthen connections, grow in discipleship, and demonstrate love through impactful ministry initiatives. Mr. Smith emphasized the importance of laity demonstrating their love for Jesus through actions, aligning with the biblical call to "feed my sheep." The report highlighted the need for laity to actively participate in church programs and initiatives to strengthen their discipleship and support their congregations. He encouraged attendees to reflect on their personal experiences with God as a source of strength and motivation for their actions.

The Board of Laity oversees various programs, including the Daughenbaugh-Matheny Scholarship, which supports young individuals in pursuing education, demonstrating the church's commitment to nurturing future leaders. The United Methodist Men focus on three core competencies: discipleship, men's ministry, and mission, aligning their efforts with the broader goal of demonstrating love for all of God's children. United Methodist Youth programs aim to provide meaningful opportunities for middle and high school students to grow in their relationship with Christ while fostering leadership and discipleship. And the United Women of Faith (formerly United Methodist Women) focus on building a community of women dedicated to knowing God, experiencing holistic freedom through Christ, and participating in global church missions. Mr. Smith continued by stressing the importance of building stronger relationships within congregations, noting that many church members may not know their neighbors despite sitting in the same pews for years. Programs like United Methodist Men, Youth, and Women of Faith were highlighted as avenues to foster deeper connections and community within the church.

Lay Servant Ministries were identified as a critical development program for lay leaders, empowering them to grow in discipleship and better support their home churches. Mr. Smith emphasized that while not everyone is called to be an ordained pastor, every individual has a role to play in making disciples of Jesus. He encouraged attendees to imagine the potential impact of each member building relationships with three (3) other people, creating a ripple effect of connection and healing within and beyond the congregation.

The collective efforts of the Board of Laity's programs were framed as a means to answer Jesus' call to "feed my sheep" and to bring joy, hope, and love to others. Attendees were encouraged to write down six blessings from God and place them in a box to serve as a reminder of God's love during challenging times. This exercise was presented as a way to strengthen faith and maintain hope by reflecting on personal experiences of God's presence and blessings.

Mr. Smith informed the conference that the Board of Laity plans to formalize and share impact data from its programs and initiatives to demonstrate their effectiveness and inspire further participation. He then committed to providing detailed reports on the outcomes of these efforts to the congregation and the United Methodist Conference. This conclude the report of the Board of Laity

Bishop Williamston acknowledged and thanked Mr. Smith for his first report in this quadrennium, recognizing the work of the Board of Laity in overseeing opportunities for laity within the conference. Rev. Dr. Van Stinson asked that persons sitting in a few sections, please remove any personal items, in order to make seating available to the families of those being remembered during the Memorial Service and for members of the Delegation Choir. Bishop Williamston adjourned the session until 11:00 am,

Break

Celebrating Our Saints – A Time of Remembrance began at 11:00 am with opening music. Bishop Williamston offered this welcome and words of transition:

Friends, we now pause in our business proceedings to enter a sacred time of remembrance. As we shift from the necessary and holy work of our conference, to this holy time of memorial, I invite you to take a deep breath and center your hearts. In a moment, we will honor those who have gone before us – our colleagues, mentors, friends, and loved ones who faithfully served our conference and now rest in the arms of our Creator.

These saints have shaped our journey and continue to inspire our ministry. Their footprints remain in our churches; their wisdom echoes in our decisions; and their faithfulness guides our path forward.

As we remember them, we acknowledge that grief and joy are intertwined companions on our journey of faith. In the words of our liturgy, that we will now share together, we recognize that our grief bears witness to the depth of our love.

Let us now enter this celebration of the saints with reverence, gratitude, and the assurance that death is not the final word.

Rev. Jo Ann Cooper, lead pastor, Henning Memorial UMC, Sulphur, led the congregational response liturgy:

Rev. Cooper: Grief, like joy is an expression of our deepest humanity.

ALL: Grief, like joy is something to embrace

Rev. Cooper: Grief, like joy can overtake us, overwhelm us, and leave us with moments to remember over and over again.

ALL: Grief, like joy is what we own when we have loved, and when we have been loved.

Rev. Cooper: Grief, like joy is something to be shared... Tears and laughter; laughter through tears. Shared memories and everyday stories; everyday stories that become cherished memories. But what if... What if grief invites us into a deeper joy? A deeper joy that warms the heart when our fresh grief brings a chill? A deeper joy that will hum the tune, until our grief can form the lyrics? A deeper joy that whispers, "Well done, they good and faithful servant", when our grief seems to have blurred our purpose?

ALL: A deeper joy that is strong enough to sit with our deepest grief; hold our tears and laughter, hold our cherished memories and our everyday stories...

Rev. Cooper: A deeper joy known as – All that has been, all that is, and all that will ever be.

ALL: Amen

The congregation joined in singing Dona Nobis Pacem, and then joined Rev. Cooper in reading Psalm 23. This was followed by the Delegation Choir singing Shall We Gather At The River.

Bishop Williamston then read the names of each saint who passed away this year, Rev. Cooper tolled a bell:

We remember the clergy of the Louisiana Conference who have entered life eternal: Lyndle Ray Bullard, Stone Walker Caraway, David Charles Carlton, Richard Lester Cockburn, Yvonne Piper Dayries, Calvin Jeffery Duke, Peggy Barrios Foreman, David Frank Fortuna, Robert Ingram Galatas, Bryant Eugene Gore, Barbara LaVerne Murray, Angela Wilson Roberson, James Walton Spitzkeit, Richard Owens Teeter, and James Edwin Wilson

We remember the clergy spouses: James Dale Bates, Virginia Kirkland Bowdon, Gloria Hoover, Helen Jeanne Hall Lynch, and Wilma Nell McDonald McLemore

The congregation then joined in singing the closing hymn, When We All Get To Heaven, which spontaneously became a very joyous celebration of life led by Bishop Williamston.

Bishop Williamston invited the families of those who were remembered to lunch with the retirees, and then offered this benediction before dismissing the conference for lunch:

As we conclude this time of remembrance and holy reflection, may we carry both our grief and our joy as sacred companions. May we find strength in our shared memories, and courage in the legacy of those who have gone before us.

May the God who weaves our stories together continue to hold us in the tapestry of divine love. May Christ, who knows both grief and glory, walk with us through every valley and mountaintop. May the Spirit, who breathes life into dry bones, sustain us with hope that transcends understanding. And until we gather again at the eternal feast, may we live with purpose, serve with compassion, and love with the depth that makes grief possible.

Go now in peace, carrying the light of those we've remembered today, knowing that we are never alone in our journey. In the name of the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, Amen.

The Celebrating Our Saints service can be viewed in its entirety on the Louisiana Conference website YouTube, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hPtnkRGjimQ&t=12909s>, beginning at 3:03:14.

Lunch

The afternoon plenary session began with opening music, You Are Good by Isreal & New Breed, followed by Boots On The Ground: Where Them Fans At? by Douglas Furtick. Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Karli Pidgeon to direct the conference in the Boots on the Ground line dance.

Bishop Williamston then began her 2025 Episcopal Address:

Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say Rejoice!

Greeting to you, the members and friends of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, where Joy is moving through our Conference in this new season of the Louisiana Conference! It has been 2½ years since my arrival as your new bishop! And the best of all is God is with us! I invite you to prepare yourselves, with Joy-full and Joy-filled hearts, to go on a brief journey this afternoon.

I want to start with my arrival in 2023, as we celebrated our first annual conference together. We leaned into the theme of HoPE, through the man being carried on his mat by four people, lowered down in front of Jesus, who told the man to pick up his mat, walk, and go home...and he did! And we, the Louisiana Annual Conference did the same – we picked up our mat's and went home filled with HoPE and opportunity. And throughout the season of 2023-2024, we witnessed signs of HoPE, and captured stories and pictures of the 7-foot-tall HoPE sign as it made a trip around the conference to places like Baton Rouge, Baker, Denham Springs, New Orleans, Destrehan, Thibodeaux, Lafayette, and Lake Charles to name a few. The message of HoPE re-energized us for the journey!

Then at the 2024 Annual Conference, we kept the theme of HoPE alive, to give HoPE a stronger foothold and remind us once again to pick-up our mats and walk as Jesus told the man who laid at the pool of Bethesda for 38 years. Jesus asked him a simple question: "Do you want to be made well?" The man gave excuse after excuse, but Jesus again simply said: "Get up! Pick-up your mat and walk", and the man did! After the 2024 Annual Conference, we took the question to heart and asked ourselves, "Do I/we want to be made well?" Personal and professional commitments were made that changed our lives, and the season of HoPE continued through 2024-2025. Also in 2024, the conference was introduced to the vision statement after 18 months of Boots on the Ground touring, listening, dreaming, and capturing your voices, your thoughts, hopes, and your dreams. To BUILD a conference that is relevant in organization, processes and practices to fit the context and the times; to CONNECT with deep faith in relational ways; and to EQUIP for the new mission field. So, a vision statement was born to:

Build, Connect, and Equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future!

This means that every member, laity and clergy, play a role to BUILD, CONNECT, and EQUIP to pull the Louisiana Conference forward into a transformative future.

Now, I am going to tell you a story that I have been sharing around the connection, from the Council on Bishops to the Horizon Texas Conference and more. It is an old story, a powerful story, told over 20 years ago at a World AIDS conference by Bishop Joao (Joe-al) Machado, God rest his soul. This is a story to help us understand how we are going to pull our conference forward – Building, Connecting, and Equipping.

An African hunter went hunting one day for meat for his village. He speared and killed a 3-ton bull elephant, and it falls to the ground with a great thud shaking the ground. Now a 3-ton elephant is approximately 6,000 pounds and is more than one little hunter can drag by himself back to this village. So, the hunter ran to the village and got the whole community – his family, friends, associates and neighbors...the mayor, the baker, the lawyers, the doctors, the postal, the factory workers, the grocer, the youth, the children, the pastor – the whole village to help him drag this 6,000 pound elephant back to the village. So, they came, the whole community, to where the elephant lay, and they tie ropes around the elephant's body, and they begin to pull the elephant home. And as they are pulling, they began to chant together... Our elephant, huh; Our elephant, huh; Our elephant, huh. But the hunter was chanting... My elephant, huh; My elephant, huh; My elephant, huh. Everyone heard what he was saying, so they all stopped pulling, and said "Hey, since this is your elephant, you can pull it yourself. We are going back to the village." And with that, they dropped their ropes and walked away. As the hunter watched them drop their ropes and walk away, he realized what he had done. He went running after them saying "No, no, no, wait, wait, don't go – come back!" They stop and look at him as he pleads with them to come back, and they decide as a community to go back at the hunter's request. This time, before they start pulling the ropes, they look at the hunter and he looks at them, nods his head, smiles, and says, "Yes, Our elephant!" And they all begin to pull the elephant chanting...Our elephant, huh; Our elephant, huh; Our elephant, huh. Say it with me "Our elephant, huh; Our elephant, huh; Our elephant, huh." When they get back to the village, they divide up the elephant, and there is enough meat for their village and beyond.

Y'all, I am here to tell you that the Louisiana Conference is that elephant! You/us/we are the people, the disciples both laity and clergy, who are called to pull the elephant in, and this 3-ton elephant is more than one person in the conference can pull in by themselves. We all must roll up our sleeves, put our backs into, din our heels in, and pull this elephant in so that there will be meat/resources enough for all as we Build, Connect, and Equip to make disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future. This includes, your bishop, your church leaders (laity & clergy), and others... for this is our elephant... to join in as we, the whole community/conference, pull this thing in over the next quadrennia, decade or longer for a transformative future so that ministries will thrive.

Hey, it's going to take a while, and it will continue to be hard and heavy work, but if we pull the ropes together, lean into it with all our might & muscle, and let the JoY of the Lord be our strength, we will get there. And if we rely on the power of the Holy Spirit, then we can re-spark the future of United Methodism right here in Louisiana. We must decide if we really want to be the church/conference!

We cannot let egos or attitudes get in the way or even care who get's the credit for an idea or project, but be more like who Nelson Mandela described, "There is no limit to what a man/woman can do, or where he/she can got, as long as he/she doesn't give a damn who get's the credit!" Or if you need a churchier vernacular – then hear this:

There is no limit what the Louisiana Conference can do, or where the Conference can go, as long as we don't give a damn who starts the process or brings the idea...just do something, stay in the arena, and pull the elephant in.

Why, because the world is hungry for living bread, the living Christ! Like the song written by Johnson Oatman, Jr., a Methodist Episcopal preacher in the 1800's says:

*How to reach the masses, those men of every birth?
For an answer, Jesus gave the key;
"And I, if I be lifted up from the earth,
Will draw all people/men unto Me".*

*Oh! The world is hungry for the Living Bread,
Lift the Savior up for them to see;
Trust Him and do not doubt the words that he said,
"I'll draw all People/men unto Me."*

*Don't exalt the preacher, don't exalt the pew
Preach the Gospel simple, full, and free;
Prove Him and you will find that promise is true,
"I'll draw all People/men unto Me."*

*Lift Him up by living as a Christian ought,
Let the world in you the Savior see;
Then they/men will gladly follow Him who once taught,
"I'll draw all People/men unto Me."*

Refrain:
 Lift Him up, lift Him up:
 Still, He speaks from eternity:
 "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth
 Will draw all People/men unto Me."

The world is hungry for us; the church, the conference, and the disciples of Jesus Christ, to Love Boldly, Serve Joyfully, and Lead Courageously in times such as this, remembering the purpose of the conference is to:

Make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its (our) local churches for ministry, and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church, all to the Glory of God, Amen! (Book of Discipline 2020/2024 ¶601)

There are bayous to boat through, shores to walk, lakes to sail, swamps to survey, roads to walk, forks in the roads ahead, and bridges to repair. So yes, there will be times when we get weary and want to stop pulling the elephant in, or we may just get so exhausted we stop pulling. That is when we should remind ourselves to move over and let others do the pulling.

Hey, ya'll, our world is a lot different than 10 years ago, but the world goes on...there are wars, rumors of war, prices on food and good rise, stock markets continue to go up & down, and no one knows what's next. There are communities still recovering from floods, storms, tornados, and global warming. Justice issues from immigration, racism, Christian nationalism, ablism, poverty, homelessness, joblessness, children who are hungry, and concerns for the elderly & disabled, continue. We are not always loving our neighbors and have forgotten that everyone is made in the image of God – Muslims, Jews, Christians, and other faith traditions. And in the middle of this we are asked this year to consider JoY? Not superficial JoY, but a deeply embedded in the soul JoY!! We must remember that Jesus said, "No one can steal your joy or take you joy away. Nor can trials or tribulations steal your joy." If they can, then we never had it!

So, be of good cheer, or great Joy. Jesus said, "I have overcome the world", and we are overcomers. So, hold on to your fans Louisiana Conference, for we have only just begun in our journey of JoY, to Build, Connect, and Equip the conference for a transformative future... to pull this, our elephant, in!

Work is being diligently done to build and right-size apportionments, streamline organizational structures; work is being diligently done to connect back to who we are as a connectional church; work is being diligently done to equip the members of the conference. And the conference is finding new tools/new equipment to examine critical areas and transformational priorities such as:

*Evangelizing new generations, and embracing and pursuing diversity
 Creating a culture of call for both laity and clergy
 Prioritizing congregational vitality and leadership development to include concerns of children and youth in our conference
 Faithfully telling our story of the Louisiana Conference*

Now I brought my old basic training duffle bag from 1982, and to put into this bag, they would give us tools to equip us. Some of the equipment they would give us included a Kevlar helmet, a uniform, tent pegs for putting up my tent, combat boots, but these are now old and need to be upgraded. Later, my son would tell me to quit buying VHS tapes and CDs, as they would soon be obsolete...now we have Netflix, Pandora, Sirius, etc. And phones, here is a very, very old rotary dial phone; don't think anyone can send a text with this thing. Here is a flashlight that is not out-of-date but just needs batteries in order for it to work, and here is a camera that might still work, but the supplies needed are no longer available. Sometimes we need to dispose of things that are no longer useful, and we must do the same in the work of the church – some things need to be gotten rid of, replaced, disposed of, or fine-tuned, so that we can engage our mission, confident and equipped for the journey/task.

*Here is a LookBook – that is a new tool that we can use, and here is a book, Is My Church Healthy: A Field Manual for Normal Size Church Vitality. These are new tools that we can use to “pull the church in”. We need to re-tool, re-equip for this time with new tools.*

In our equipment, let me give you some data:

Our conference is made up of 99.62% laity and .38% clergy. Laity are the biggest resource in every annual conference.

In 2024, the Louisiana Conference recorded 82,601 members (82,289 laity & 312 clergy) – that’s more than the seating capacity of Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City; more than Notre Dame’s stadium, the home of Touchdown Jesus; more than Mile High Stadium in Denver; and more than Jerry’s World Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys!

Hey y’all, that is almost 83,000 United Methodist in the Louisiana Conference, and if we add 399 more members, we could pack out the Superdome in New Orleans with the saints of the Louisiana Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church! I believe we can do it if we stay in the arena and pull the elephant in...together. And if we dream to fill Tiger Stadium (seats 102,000), we just need a mere 19,399 more members...but we can do it!!! If we pull the elephant in together.

It’s gonna be some hard work. We have got to put our backs into it, lean into the work required, and continue to stay off our mats. It’s gonna take holding on to our HoPE; it’s gonna take some Love, Faith, and you gotta have JoY to keep pulling when hard decisions need to be made. You gotta have JoY and grind up some of those sacred cows into hamburger meat for cheeseburgers.

So, let’s Build up our JoY, and Connect with JoY, and Equip ourselves with JoY in all we do!!! For...

JoY is on the move!! You can see it in places like the Rockin’ Mozart School of Music at First UMC in Donaldsonville

JoY is on the move at the Shepard's Market at St. John's UMC in Baton Rouge, and The Destrehan Food Bank.

JoY is on the move in the continued connections to the Louisiana Conference Children's Home, Centenary College for 200 years, and Dillard University.

JoY is on the move to build and reconnect with The Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso, TX, and Volunteers in Mission, to re-engage in mission opportunities.

JoY is on the move as we connect contextually to organizations such as Together Louisiana and Together NOLA, BTR, Lafayette, Lake Charles and other such community partners.

From homeless ministries to day schools, we are called to serve with JOY as we pull these elephants in.

So, we gotta keep our boots on the ground; keep our faith, hope, love and joy on the ground; and remain grounded in our faith in Jesus Christ to tell the message that changes lives, real lives, in our communities.

So, let's keep pulling in the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, this 3-ton elephant, together.

Now....

Where those Disciples of Jesus Christ?

Where those Fans of Jesus Christ?

Where those Fans of HoPE?

Where those Fans of Love?

Where those Fans of Faith?

Where those Fans of JoY, JoY, JoY?

We got this and God has us. Tomorrow is not promised. And yes, this is OUR ELEPHANT, OUR ELEPHANT, OUR ELEPHANT!!!

So, I say to you,

Rejoice in the Lord, always. And again, I say REJOICE, REJOICE, REJOICE!!!

Bishop Williamston dismissed the conference to a break until 2:15 pm.

Break

Bishop Williamston called the afternoon plenary session to order by inviting Mr. Adam Philley, lay delegate, Broadmoor UMC, Shreveport, and Centenary alumni, to open the session with prayer. Bishop Williamston then invited Rev. Katrena King, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Strategist, to present her report.

Rev. King began her report by emphasizing the importance of diversity, equity, and inclusion in the Louisiana Conference. The strategist team, including Reverend Robert Johnson and Reverend Chad Brooks, works collaboratively to develop resources, workshops, and strategies tailored to the needs of the annual conference. The strategists are always open to hearing ideas and needs relating to resourcing. Specific worksheets and workshops on DEI topics are available for those interested, as highlighted in the resource packet shared by the Bishop.

Rev. King shared a few of the highlights from this past year. The Louisiana Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women is being reactivated, with a call for volunteers to assist in monitoring and planning events throughout the year. Rev. King shared the success of the "People Like Me" retreat, which had over 20 attendees and was described as spirit-filled, thoughtful, and joyful. Excess grant funds will be used to host a one-day event in the fall at a different location to reach more participants.

Rev. King continued by talking about building, connecting, and equipping the members of the conference with resources and information that might be helpful.

A short workshop was conducted during the meeting to help attendees understand diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) through practical questions and examples, such as the bicycle analogy for equity and personal reflections on inclusion. Rev. King presented several slides with questions for members of the conference to think about:

DIVERSITY

- What makes you, you?
- How can we consider the range of human differences, while both celebrating and highlighting the things that make us unique?

EQUITY

- Consider a time when you were invited to a gathering and you did not have what you needed to fully participate. What were the circumstances? How did you feel?

INCLUSION

- Think of a time when you remember being “left out.” What was that experience like? How did it impact you moving forward?

DEI is connected to hospitality and discipleship-making, emphasizing its role in fulfilling the United Methodist Church's mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Rev. King asked, “How can we do that if we don’t consider, that while we are the same, we are also different. Some people might need extra things to help them at the table, and sometimes people just need to feel like they were invited, included.”

Bishop Williamston called for questions and recognized Rev. Debra Keller, lead pastor, Roberts UMC and St. Luke’s UMC, Denham Springs. Rev. Keller expressed concerns about ensuring that traditional worship practices are not overlooked in the effort to promote inclusivity within the conference and denomination. She emphasized the importance of giving a voice to those who prefer traditional worship and ensuring they are not forgotten or marginalized in the movement toward inclusivity. Rev. Keller shared her empathy for those who feel hurt or excluded, highlighting the need for balance in welcoming new members while valuing those already present in the community.

Reverend Katrina King responded by acknowledging Rev. Keller's vulnerability and reaffirming the importance of remembering and valuing existing members while inviting others to join the flock.

Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Todd Rossnagel, Conference Director of Communication, to present his report. Rev. Rossnagel thanked Bishop Williamston for the opportunity to share with the conference the importance of storytelling in church communications to inspire connection, meaning, and ministry. He acknowledged the contributions of Mr. William Willoughby, Associate Director of Communications, for video and photography, as well as GNTV for ensuring the technical success of the conference

Rev. Rossnagel began by emphasizing the department's alignment with the Louisiana Conference's vision of "Build, Connect, Equip," describing it as more than a slogan but a framework for ministry. The Communications Department focuses on building platforms to elevate voices, connecting churches through shared stories, and equipping local congregations with tools and imagination to share the good news. Rev. Rossnagel shared his personal journey of realizing that communication is a form of ministry, highlighting its role in fostering connection and meaning. He reflected on his career journey, including his time in broadcast television and social media management, and how these experiences shaped his approach to communication in ministry.

Rev. Rossnagel stressed the significance of storytelling in church communications, explaining that people respond to meaning rather than just facts or dates. He referenced Simon Sinek's principle of "Start with Why," advocating for leading with purpose to capture attention and create deeper connections. He also highlighted the power of stories to evoke emotions, citing Jesus as the ultimate storyteller who used parables to inspire and connect with people. He encouraged the use of storytelling across various platforms, including emails, social media, and sermons, to invite people into meaningful experiences.

Rev. Rossnagel acknowledged the difficulty pastors and church staff face in finding stories due to their busy schedules, humorously illustrating this with relatable anecdotes. He provided a detailed "PASTOR" acronym as a method for discovering stories:

- P: Prioritize finding stories and understanding the "why" behind them.
- A: Ask questions and remain curious to uncover meaningful narratives.
- S: Start a story list to keep track of potential stories and involve others in contributing.
- T: Tilt your perspective to see familiar situations in new ways, especially from the viewpoint of marginalized or new individuals.
- O: Look for opportunities in everyday church activities, such as worship services, mission trips, and hallway conversations.
- R: Reconnect and revisit stories after events or significant moments to uncover deeper insights.

Rev. Rossnagel emphasized that curiosity, patience, and a heart for people are essential for effective storytelling and communication in ministry. He encouraged attendees to pause, lean in, and ask questions to uncover stories that matter, framing this as a practice in the way of Jesus. He highlighted the transformative power of grace and truth in a world overwhelmed by divisive and noisy content, urging communicators to focus on hope, unity, and healing.

Rev. Rossnagel concluded his report by urging church communicators to continue telling stories that point to hope, remind the world of good news, and foster unity in a divided society. He encouraged attendees to focus on meaningful connections rather than just content, emphasizing the role of storytelling in transforming lives and communities. He said, "So friends, the stories are there, and when we pause, when we lean in, when we ask someone, 'Tell me more', when we lean on curiosity, we are not just gathering content, we're practicing ministry in the way of Jesus. You don't need a fancy camera or even an old camera. You don't need a perfect script, you just need curiosity, patience, and a heart for people. In a world of hurry, let's keep telling stories that matter. Let's keep pointing to hope. Let's remind the world that we still have good news worth sharing. Let's remind a world that is addicted to divisive news, that we are united. Remind a world chasing 'clicks', that grace doesn't trend, it transforms. Remind a world that hurts, Jesus heals. Remind a world that's exhausted by noise, that truth still whispers. Remind a world that labels and divides, that we still gather at one table."

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions for Rev. Rossnagel, and there being none, she moved to the next agenda item, which was a video from the General Board of Global Ministries and can be found at umcmmission.org. Bishop Williamston then stated:

Our vision here in the Louisiana Conference is to build, connect, and equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future. Right now, we'd like to celebrate individuals within our conference who embody this vision by building meaningful connections, equipping disciples for ministry, and supporting global missions to spread God's love worldwide. You may have read or seen the stories we've done on Mr. Tom and Mrs. Delisa Carey, global missionaries of The United Methodist Church. They are faithfully serving in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. Mr. Carey serves as a medical doctor at Hebron Hospital, and Mrs. Carey is administration of the Bridge of Hope Vocational Training Center. They are lay members of Asbury UMC, Lafayette, so I would like to ask their pastor, Rev. John Cannon, to share more of their stories and what the conference can do to support them in their new life.

Reverend John Cannon, lead pastor, Asbury UMC, Lafayette, shared the Careys' transition from regular church members to global missionaries, emphasizing their openness to God's grace and calling. He highlighted their involvement in church activities, such as Sunday school and stewardship programs, before embarking on their missionary journey. Reverend Cannon expressed hope that the Careys' story would inspire others to take bold steps in their faith journeys, even if not on a global scale.

Mr. William Willoughby, Associate Director of Communication, produced a video of the Careys sharing their story, which was shown at this time.

The Careys shared their initial hesitation about leaving their family and careers but found reassurance as they progressed in their mission. They highlighted the dedication of local employees at GBGM Cambodia and the joy of participating in programs like street ministry for children. Language barriers, particularly learning Khmer, were identified as a significant challenge, and they requested prayers for their language learning efforts. The Careys encouraged supporters to follow their journey on Instagram and stay connected through email.

Following the video, Reverend Cannon urged the audience to support United Methodist global missionaries like the Careys through special offerings, budget allocations, or individual contributions. He emphasized the collective responsibility of the church to support global ministries and likened it to pulling an “elephant” together. A video update on the Careys’ work in Cambodia was shared, along with QR codes and other ways to connect and contribute to their mission.

Bishop Williamston thanked Rev. Cannon for his report. She then invited Dr. Carla Cardoza, President of the Lydia Patterson Institute to present their report following a brief video presentation.

Dr. Carla Cardoza, President of Lydia Patterson Institute (LPI), presented an overview of the institute, emphasizing its role as the only United Methodist secondary school under the South Central jurisdiction located on the US-Mexican border, serving as a faith-based sanctuary of learning. Dr. Cardoza shared her personal immigrant journey, connecting it to the resilience and courage of LPI students who cross the border daily for education, highlighting the institute's transformative impact. She described the daily struggles of LPI students, including border delays, immigration worries, and the challenges of adapting to a new environment, emphasizing their resilience and faith. She highlighted the broader issues of migrant families being divided, children being confused and afraid, and the lack of kindness and welcome, urging the community to address these injustices. Dr. Cardoza reported that just afternoon, the US Consulate had closed all new visas for students.

At this point in Dr. Cardoza's report, Bishop Williamston came to the podium to offer words of hope and a prayer:

There are lots of things going on in our community, and we're talking about children and families. There are some things that just aren't right. This woman (Dr. Cardosa) is doing remarkable work at one of the missions of our denomination and of our jurisdiction, and we need to do better. Let us pray, Almighty God, we ask that you be with Dr. Cardosa. Lord, lots of things are going on, and you know exactly what needs to be done. So Lord, we lift up our sister, in Jesus's name, as there are many concerns upon her heart; serious things for children and families, but you Lord are with us and with her. We ask that you send her grace and mercy to deal with the events that are ongoing, and help us when we don't know what to say. Lord, open our hearts to a force for God, to be witnesses as your disciples, and to stand up against injustices. All they want is an opportunity in this world for a better life. But we believe, oh God, that you can change impossible looking situations and can turn this injustice around. So help us, oh God, help us in this moment to help our sister know that her work is important, and that we in the Louisiana Conference of The United Methodist Church are going to help her pull this elephant. Let her know that we stand by her side, and we will lean in and dig in with her to be the church that you have called us to be. For one day, you may ask "Why didn't you help? Why didn't you do something? I gave you all the tools, gifts, and talents you needed to make a difference – why? So Lord, help us to help her in Jesus's name we offer this prayer. Amen.

Rev. Cardoza thanked Bishop Williamston for her words of hope and prayer. She continued with her report by sharing that LPI celebrated a 100% graduation rate for the Class of 2025, with all seniors accepted into college, showcasing the institute's commitment to academic excellence and student success. The institute expanded its STEM makerspace for robotics, deepened college readiness programs, reignited student lay ministry, and brought alumni to mentor students, reflecting its holistic approach to education. LPI paid off legacy debts and expanded athletics, demonstrating financial stability and growth in extracurricular offerings.

Dr. Cardova invited the Louisiana Conference of United Methodist Church to support LPI through prayer, donations, mission trips, and volunteer efforts, emphasizing the importance of walking alongside the students in their journey. Churches were encouraged to contribute offerings, plan youth trips, or volunteer to help LPI, with the Louisiana Conference pledging to disseminate information on how to assist. This concluded Dr. Cardoza's report.

Bishop Williamston recognized Rev. Laraine Waughtal, lead pastor, DeRidder UMC, DeRidder as wishing to ask a question. Rev. Waughtal wanted to know if there was an agency that could be contacted to apply some pressure to the US Consulate to reinstate these student visas? Bishop Williamston and other attendees committed to organizing strategic plans to assist LPI, including exploring ways to reinstate visas and providing financial and logistical support. Mr. Chris Spencer, President of the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana, made a motion that the UM Foundation of Louisiana and the Louisiana Conference to pledge a total of $150,000 ($75,000 each) to LPI, to be used at the discretion of LPI's board for specific needs. Discussions clarified that the funds would not include previously designated LPI Chapel renovation funds but would come from undesignated reserves and new contributions. An amendment was proposed to use the undesignated portion of Foundation funds for immediate crisis needs at LPI, with further clarity requested on the allocation of existing designated funds. A motion to postpone the decision until the next day was approved to allow for detailed discussions and clarity on fund allocation.

Rev. JC Richardson, lead pastor Wesley UMC, Baton Rouge, suggested expanding the scope of support to include immigrant and refugee communities within Louisiana, emphasizing the need to address local challenges alongside LPI's efforts. The suggestion was acknowledged as an important consideration for future discussions, reflecting the broader mission of the church to support vulnerable populations. Judge Jay Caraway, lay delegate, Asbury UMC, Bossier City, made a motion to amend the previous motion to clarify which funds are available to send to LPI. Rev. Drew Sutton, lead pastor, St. Andrew's UMC, Baton Rouge, made motion to postpone the original motion in order to discuss and to gather details to present a clear plan to the body in the morning. Bishop Williamston called the question – Do you vote to postpone discussion and voting on the motion made by Mr. Chris Spener until Friday morning? There was a second to the motion; it was approved by a majority of voting members.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any objections to moving the report of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries to Friday morning, and there being none, Bishop Williamston called on Rev. Ali Young, Director of the Office of Clergy Excellence to present her report.

Rev. Young presented updates on clergy excellence initiatives, wellbeing programs, and transition processes within the Louisiana Conference. She highlighted the Louisiana Conference's prioritization of clergy wellbeing, including retreats, prayer study groups, and grief retreats, which have been impactful and well-received. A 66% increase in pastors taking renewal leave was noted, with six pastors availing this opportunity in the past year, reflecting a growing emphasis on self-care. Plans to debut a renewal leave grant opportunity for local pastors were discussed, addressing the gap in the 2024 Book of Discipline that excludes licensed local pastors from renewal leave. The initiative is supported by seed funding from generous donors, aiming to help local churches support their pastors' renewal leave.

Rev. Young continued in discussing appointment process improvements. The appointment-making process has been revised to include a new rubric-based evaluation system for clergy, focusing on transparency, open communication, and reducing anxiety. The system has been developed to assess clergy across nine core competencies: preaching, worship, teaching, relationships, administration, leadership, conflict resolution, pastoral care, and missional engagement. This system aims to provide clearer, more objective feedback and will be incorporated into the evaluation of residents in ministry to build foundational skills early in their careers. The rubrics will be refined over time to adapt to the evolving needs of the church and clergy. Clergy profiles and church profiles are being utilized more effectively to ensure better alignment between pastors and congregations, with an emphasis on honesty and collaboration. Direct appointment calls are now summarized in follow-up emails to ensure clarity and reduce stress for pastors during transitions. A new appointment plan workbook, including a 100-day plan and set meeting dates, has been introduced to streamline transitions and foster healthier partnerships between clergy and laity.

Rev. Young shared upcoming training and development programs for clergy. Reverend Jasmine Smothers will lead a fall clergy retreat (September 23-25) where pastors will develop customized plans for leading vision in their local churches, focusing on the "next faithful step." Reverend Dr. Elise Fulbright will lead a year-long Transformative Pastor Leadership Program for black clergy starting in January, aimed at fostering leadership development. Two clergy members were sent to the Leadership Institute at the Church of the Resurrection in Kansas, with plans to continue offering such opportunities. Additional training in coaching skills, including IFC Level 1 certification, is being provided to clergy to better support local pastors and congregations.

Transition Academy and Onboarding Enhancements were shared by Rev. Young. The Transition Academy, in partnership with the Office of Congregational Vitality, is being utilized to ensure smoother transitions for pastors into new appointments. Onboarding specialists are being added to expedite the process and provide pastors with necessary information closer to the start of their appointments. The onboarding process emphasizes honesty from laity about church needs and challenges to better equip pastors for their roles.

Rev. Young informed the conference that the Office of Clergy Excellence is utilizing reserved funds for the majority of its expenses, reflecting a commitment made at a previous annual conference to ensure clergy care without overburdening the apportioned budget. These funds have been used to support various programs, retreats, and training opportunities for clergy, demonstrating effective stewardship of resources.

Rev. Young concluded her report by expressing gratitude to Mrs. Kyle Wooldridge for her extensive behind-the-scenes work in supporting clergy processes, including retreats, reimbursements, and evaluations. She also announced her transition out of the role of Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry, with Rev. Sonya Lars taking over the position starting July 1st. Reverend Young reflected on the privilege of serving in this role, highlighting her emotional connection to guiding clergy through their journeys from candidacy to ordination. This concluded her report.

Bishop Williamston recognized Rev. Austin Rinehart, Board of Ordained Ministry chair, as wishing to make a motion. Rev. Rinehart made the motion, that in order to present the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and complete its necessary work, the Order of the Day be rescinded. Bishop Williamston asked for a second to the motion; called for any questions or debate, and there being none, call for the vote; the motion passed by a majority of voting members.

Bishop Williamston then invited Rev. Austin Rinehart, chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, to share their report. Rev. Rinehart emphasized the sacred responsibility of the Board of Ordained Ministry to shepherd candidates toward licensed or ordained ministry, highlighting the complexity and sacredness of the work. He recognized the contributions of district committees on ordained ministry and the conference's Board of Ordained Ministry members, asking them to stand for acknowledgment. The conference celebrated 16 certified candidates for ordained ministry, and four provisional members (three deacons and one elder) currently in the residency process making their way toward ordination. They know that the work needs to adapt as the current needs of the local churches and candidates are changing, so the Board of Ordained Ministry is adapting its work to meet those current needs. The Board is adapting its residency process (RIM) to align with the current needs of candidates and Louisiana churches, aiming to create effective clergy for the mission field. And, they are working with in our Orders and Fellowships to create a more connected clergy family. Rev. Rinehart invited Mrs. Pattye Hewitt and Rev. Jo Ann Cooper to share the work of the Louisiana Licensing School.

Mrs. Pattie Hewitt, outgoing director of the licensing school, shared details of the eight-week online program through Candler Theological School, which included Zoom classes, papers, quizzes, recorded sermons, and a boundaries course on clergy sexual ethics. The program culminated in an in-person retreat at Wesley Center, fostering learning and connection among students. Rev. Jo Ann Cooper, incoming director, expressed excitement about continuing the work and celebrated the accomplishments of the students, and introduced the four students who completed the licensing school this year: Malcolm Dean Carter, Wilfred Paul Edwards Jr., Cheryl Thomas, and Ellen Nicholson (who also received her Certified Lay Minister certificate).

Rev. Dr. Barbara Calhoun Gibson and Rev. Charles Edward Washington presented the names of newly licensed local pastors: Malcolm Dean Carter, Wilford Paul Edwards Jr., John Harrell Fletcher, Lauren Broussard LeBoeuf, Michael Alexander Munro, and Cheryl Ann Thomas.

Bishop Williamston celebrated their achievements, emphasizing the significance of licensed pastoral ministry and the hard work required to reach this milestone, and a prayer was offered for the newly licensed pastors, asking for guidance and blessings as they begin their ministry.

Rev. Rinehart recognized Rev. Renee Andre Deaton for completing the rigorous Course of Study, which includes 20 classes. Bishop Williamston acknowledged the difficulty of the journey and prayed for Renee's continued ministry, asking for blessings on her work and witness.

Rev. Allison Sauls Sikes, Division of Elders chair, and Rev. Lauren Frasier-McGuin, Division of Deacons chair came forward to introduce those being commissioned and ordained. Two candidates for commissioning as provisional elders were presented: Re. Neva Marie Joseph and Rev. Trisha Lynn Wilkinson, with prayers offered for their upcoming commissioning service. Bishop Williamston encouraged Neva and Trisha to cherish the moment and prayed for their commissioning service, asking for joy and blessings in their ministry. Rev. Alice Gautreaux Boutte was introduced as the sole candidate for ordination as an elder, with recognition of her ability to bring people together around the mission of the church. Bishop Williamston encouraged Alice to cherish the moment and prayed for her ordination service, asking for joy and blessings in her ministry.

Rev. Mimi McDowell, retired deacon, introduced retirees, representing a total of 264 years of service to the United Methodist Church, including deacons, elders, and local pastors. Specific retirees and their years of service were highlighted, including Karl Sherman Klaus (41 years), William Craig Gilliam (32 years), Derrick Dwayne Hills (30 years), and Timothy John Neustifter (31 years). Bishop Williamston presented a gift to Reverend Carl Klaus in recognition of his service as a district superintendent and thanked all retirees for their contributions.

Reverend Marissa Horvath, Board of Ordained Ministry vice chair, emphasized the importance of local churches in identifying and nurturing future ministers, urging attendees to invest in their congregations and recognize potential candidates for ministry. She provided examples of qualities to look for in potential candidates, such as sharing God's grace, offering wisdom, seeking justice, and leading with compassion.

Rev. Horvath reminded attendees that ministers are called out of their churches and encouraged them to plant seeds of encouragement in individuals who may be called. This concluded the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions, and there being none, the report was accepted.

At this time, the ordination video featuring Rev. Alice Boutte was shown (this video can be seen in its entirety on the Louisiana Conference website).

Rev. Dr. Van Stinson gave a final announcement asking all attendees to remove all personal items and dispose of any trash in order for the Planning Team to transition the space for the Celebration of Ministry service beginning at 6:00 pm. Bishop Williamston adjourned the session until Friday at 8:30 am.

Service for the Ordering of Ministry

The Service for the Ordering of Ministry was held in the Riverview Ballroom of the Hilton Capitol Center, Baton Rouge, and began at 6:00 pm with pre-service music provided by Mr. Thomas Jackson, organist. Following the processional, Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee, UM Hymnal #89, Bishop Williamston greeted those in attendance and opened with prayer. She continued with a Recognition of Common Ministry and a Reaffirmation of Baptism. Bishop Williamston, along with members of the Board of Laity and the Board of Ordained Ministry, presented those who are to be ordained (Alice Gautreaux Boutte) or commissioned (Neva Marie Joseph and Tricia Lynn Wilkinson). There was the General Examination of the candidates by Bishop Williamston, followed by the Proclamation and Response led by Rev. Derrick Hills, lead pastor, Fellowship UMC, Bossier City.

Bishop Williamston delivered the following sermon:

*God is good all the time, and all the time God is good...
Let us prepare our hearts and minds for brief...
Let us pray...*

This past summer, I was invited to attend a Jellyroll concert in New Orleans. Now the invitation came from someone one who was really excited about the concert coming to town and shared with me that this Jellyroll is a excellent singer, has a great message in his songs.... 'Oh, you just gotta hear Jellyroll this guy is great!'

*I'm like hmmm... in my mind....
But as they shared one of his songs with me, and as I listened, I remembered that I had heard a little bit about this Jellyroll but wasn't familiar with his music...*

So, as the song played, I listened and nodded and tapped my foot and said...

Oh okay...Interesting.....he's a little country...not to twangy... a hint of RB in there.....

Then, later I went to do 'the Google' and I listened some more.....then realized... that Jellyroll was the guy I'd seen on one of the singing shows I had watched some months ago....

But I wasn't quite sure about going to his concert, but then was asked again said okay I'll go.

And I went... and watched...and watched...and jammed a little bit... and listened to this singer called Jellyroll.

And I tell ya what, whenever I have the opportunity or the time to go to another Jellyroll concert, I would not hesitate to go because I have heard and seen him for myself and I too, will try to convince/compel people to go check out this Jellyroll... and you will have a new perspective on church and being the church of Jesus Christ in a new way.

The messages in the songs Jellyroll sings that I've listened to are his testimony about his life.... not much different from the experience of the Woman at the Well being told all about herself, and after a long conversation with Jesus, she runs into town and tells the community, the people to come see the one/the man/ who told her/me all about herself/myself....

Come see the one who, who will give living water, from a well that will never ever, ever ever run dry....

She compelled the whole community to come and they went, and she stepped out of the way so that they too could hear for themselves the one who gives everlasting life.

Alice, Neva and Tricia....

God is calling you and us to compel people to come.

To come to the well of living water, everlasting water...

To a water that never ever runs dry...found in Jesus Christ...

The invitation is open to all who will hear or listen, and we are called by God to invite people the banquet.

As the scripture says... when the king was inviting people to the banquet they were throwing, but those invited did not come, the master/king/ told the servants...to "Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled."

That is.... Go to the highways, byways, the back alleys, go 'Back of town", to the bayous, the water ways, the parishes, towns and cities, communities and urge people to come or compel them to come or persuade them to come so that the Lord's house/ God's house will be full. (And Chad Brooks will some more data)

Eugene Peterson, in the The Message Bible, puts it like this: in part...

That the King/master is calling the servants/us to go to the country roads. Whoever you find, drag them in. I want my house full!

We are called to fill God's house, not our house, but God's house because God want's it full.

Neva, Tricia and Alice....

Your gifts, passions and talents are given to invite and compel the community, people, to the living water found in Jesus Christ.... and it is a well that will never ever, ever, ever run dry. It is a well filled with Everlasting life.... Free to all who will come.

As a man by the name of OSCAR WOODS from my Home Church would often sing... hear how he would sing it: Everlasting Life.

Tricia, Alice and Neva....

You are not alone in this work....

WE are the community together with you, drawing from the same well of living water, to compel people to come.

The people the woman compelled went and heard for themselves it says, and they say to the woman...

"We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world."

Hey, no one needs to convince me to listen to Jellyroll or to go to one of his concerts; I have seen what he does to share the message of faith and to compel others to come...I have seen for myself.

And oh y'all... if we set our sites on compelling people to come to see the one who tells us all about ourselves.... Our churches would be full.

Alice, Neva, Tricia, all of us in here have work to do!

To compel people to come as Romans 10:13-16 says:

¹³ For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."¹⁴ But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed?^[e] And how are they to believe^[f] in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim(preach) him? ¹⁵ And how are they to proclaim(preach) him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

The woman at the well brought good news to the community and we are to bring good news, that good news of Jesus Christ to the community, wherever we are sent in the name of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Let's pray....

Following the sermon and the anthem, Here I Am, Lord arranged by Jack Schrader, Bishop Williamston commissioned the provisional members with prayer and by laying on of hands. The new provisional members were presented with bibles, as well as their provisional membership and appropriate license for ministry. This was followed by the sung congregational response, O Jesus, I Have Promised, UM Hymnal #396 verse 1.

Bishop Williamston then began the examination of that person being ordained as an elder. This was followed by prayer and laying on of hands. The newly ordained elder, Rev. Alice G. Boutte, was immediately clothed with the yoke stole; presented the instruments of her office, a chalice & patten; and certificates of ordination as an elder and of full connection membership. This was followed by the sung congregational response, O Jesus, I Have Promised, UM Hymnal #396 verse 4, Retiring Deacon, Rev. Lindy Broderick and retiring Elder, Rev. Craig Gilliam, joined Bishop Williamston in passing the towel & basin (symbols of the servant ministry of ordained Deacon) and the mantle (symbol and sign of the office of ordained Elder), to Rev. Boutte. This was followed by the singing of Holy Spirit by Bryan & Katie Torwalt, and a time of Commitment, Call and Renewal, in which individuals who feel called to make a first-time commitment to Christian ministry, were invited forward to be greeted and prayed for by designated persons. Rev. Austin Rinehart, Board of Ordained Ministry chair, led the invitation to the offering, which goes toward sponsoring a tour of the Holy Land, or other pilgrimage opportunity, every other year for new ordinands to enrich their ministry and enhance their spiritual journey of faith.

Following the offertory anthem, I Will Follow by Jon Guerra & Jacop Sooter, Bishop Williamston asked all licensed, commissioned, consecrated, and ordained ministers to stand as she charged them go where they are sent or have been called, to serve Christ with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength. She then asked all those who have been baptized to stand as she charged them to uphold the church by prayer, presence, gifts, service, and witness, and to affirm and receive the clergy as servants of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and support them in their work.

The closing hymn, It's My Joy by MercyMe, was followed by a blessing of the people by Bishop Williamston, and dismissal by Rev. Alice Boutte, and the recessional, It's My Joy by MercyMe.

FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 2025

The final day of the 55th Session of the Louisiana Annual Conference began at 8:15 am with music from the AC2025 Praise Band followed by the second teaching session from Rev. Dr. Douglas Powe.

Dr. Powe began with prayer and then began his presentation with a brief re-cap of his presentation the previous day. He emphasized that joy is more than happiness and is deeply connected to abiding and dwelling in Christ, which is essential for spiritual growth and fulfillment. He discussed the need to move away from old patterns of self-interest and embrace sober judgment, which can be challenging but is crucial for personal and congregational transformation. He highlighted Wesley's concept of joy as spreading love abroad, which aligns with scriptural holiness and the mission of the church.

Dr. Powe outlined three major challenges facing the UMC today: reaching more people, reaching diverse people, and reaching younger people, noting that the average age in United Methodist congregations is over 60.

Challenge

- Past as a predictor of the future
- Changing context (Community looks different)
- On-going pastoral challenge
 - Reach more people. (Folk are not coming or joining)
 - Reach more diverse people. (Forget diversity, we cannot even reach those like us)
 - Reach younger people. (We have trouble connecting with young people)

He explained that people are not actively seeking to join churches, and many congregations struggle to adapt to changing demographics and connect with diverse communities. He stressed the need for change, both sustaining and disruptive, to address these challenges effectively.

Sustaining and Disrupting Change

- Sustaining is not just keeping things going.
- Disrupting is not causing chaos.
 - Clayton Christensen who has coined this language in the business world
 - Our phones, the changes are focused on sustaining current customers not reaching new ones
 - Blockbuster, Redbox a disruption to the way we viewed movies, now stream
- These are technical terms that refer to the types of change most associated with two types of organizations.
 - Sustaining change typically takes place in incumbent organizations serving established constituencies.
 - Disruptive change typically takes place in newer organizations serving people previously unserved or underserved.

Sustaining change involves incremental improvements, such as hiring a new choir director to revitalize a stale choir, which is easier for established organizations. Disruptive change requires thinking outside the box and addressing adaptive issues, such as reaching younger people, which is more challenging but necessary for long-term growth. Dr. Powe used the example of Blockbuster's failure to adapt to Red Box's disruptive model to illustrate the importance of embracing disruptive change.

Dr. Powe highlighted the relational aspect of ministry, emphasizing the importance of building relationships, connecting with communities, and equipping congregations for effective outreach. He stressed that successful ministry requires understanding the context and readiness of the congregation, as well as aligning initiatives with the church's mission and values.

Moving Ideas Forward

- Fit – How will it align with our identities and values?
- Values
- The “Why” – Do we want an after school program so we can receive funds from the city
- Is the program furthering our mission to make a difference in the lives of those in the community
- Is it a quick fix?

Dr. Powe presented a framework for adaptive or disruptive change, starting with identifying the desired outcome, such as reaching specific groups like middle school students interested in sports. He emphasized the importance of learning about the target audience's interests and needs before implementing any initiatives, such as understanding whether they prefer skateboarding, gaming, or other activities. Implementation should be followed by evaluation and learning to improve upon the initial efforts, ensuring continuous growth and refinement of ministry strategies.

Plan to Achieve New Things

Dr. Powe gave the conference a few minutes to answer a few questions: What have you tried at your church that did not work well? What part of the process broke-down causing it to not work well? What do we need to learn to achieve our desired outcome?

Rev. Leslie Hyacinth, lead pastor, and Mrs. Chantilly Reddmann, lay member, Jefferson UMC, Baton Rouge shared the challenge of restarting their children's Sunday school post-COVID, where parents expressed interest but did not follow through, highlighting the need to understand barriers to participation. Mr. Shan Schatzle, Southeast District at-large lay delegate, discussed repeated failures in college ministry due to trying to fit it into traditional church structures, suggesting the need to meet young adults in their own spaces and focus on connection rather than conversion. Mr. Stan Laskos, lay delegate, Aldersgate UMC, Slidell shared a failed initiative to engage toddlers during worship, which lacked parental input and led to discomfort, as well as a successful effort to combine contemporary and traditional services, which increased membership due to effective planning and buy-in.

Dr. Powe encouraged congregations to focus on taking the next faithful step rather than aiming for unrealistic goals, such as growing from five members to 500 overnight. He suggested that swamp congregations should focus on one ministry or partnership to become more outwardly focused, while reservoir congregations should aim to engage more people in ministry and move from doing things for the community to doing things with the community. He assured attendees that incremental steps, guided by joy and mission, will lead to growth and fulfillment in their ministries.

In closing, Dr. Powe expressed gratitude for the opportunity to speak and thanked Bishop and her staff for their hospitality and support. Bishop Williamston acknowledged Dr. Powe's upcoming inauguration as President of Phillips Theological Seminary on October 5th and expressed her intention to attend the event. The meeting concluded with blessings and prayers for safe journeys home and continued success in ministry efforts.

Business session six (6) was called to order by Bishop Williamston, and began with a prayer offered by Mr. Chris Brown, director, Conference Archives, and Centenary alumni. Bishop Williamston then invited Rev. Katrena King, DEI Strategist, to give the COSROW monitoring report from the previous day's sessions. Rev. King reported that of those who spoke, there were 12 black; 20 white; 1 Asian; 1 Hispanic/Latino/ Chicana; 1 Native American; 19 female; 16 male; 23 clergy; 8 laity. Rev. King went on to thank those who volunteered to assist in monitoring, and also the conference members for their willingness to self-identify, and speak & listen with respect. This concluded her report.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any objections to moving the CF&A report to the top of the day's agenda, and there being none, she invited Rev. Weldon Bares, CF&A chair to present Report III for a vote following the retiree video featuring Rev. Tim Neustifter.

Rev. Bares introduced the CFA Report III, emphasizing its forward-looking nature, contrasting it with a quirky historical reference about Anthony Thornton's backward walking record of 95 miles in 1998. The report was presented on June 11, 2025, and included thorough pre-conference materials, webinars, and efforts to ensure transparency. Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions, and there being none, Rev. Bares made the following motion:

The resolution is to accept and approve CF&A Report III, including the proposed 2026 apportionments expenditure budget of $4,754,018 with setting aside calculated excess general undesignated, unrestricted reserves to reduce 2025 and forward local church apportionments by 20%, and then setting aside 2% of the CF&A Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits pool of reserves to be used for funding the difference between apportionments assessed and expenditures paid out beginning in 2026.

Bishop Williamston called for the vote to accept the motion; the motion was accepted by a majority of voting delegates. Bishop Williamston invited Rev. Katie Black, Board of Higher Education & Campus Ministry chair, to present their report.

Rev. Black invited all current campus ministers to join her on the stage. Rev. Black emphasized the historical roots of Methodism in campus ministry, tracing back to the 1720s at Oxford University, where the Holy Club laid the foundation for the denomination. She highlighted the vital role of campus ministries in building, connecting, and equipping disciples of Jesus Christ, echoing the historic tradition of engaging deeply in the work of Christ. The discussion underscored the importance of campus ministries in training current and future leaders, both clergy and lay, for the church.

Reverend Katie Black outlined updated guidelines requiring campus ministries to be anchored within a local church in the immediate vicinity of their campus to receive funding from the board. This policy aims to foster mutual accountability, strengthen connections between campus ministries and local churches, and encourage collaboration in discipleship and outreach efforts. Churches were urged to actively engage with campus ministries to share the love and work of Jesus Christ, rather than viewing them as separate entities. Campus ministries have had to adapt to the rise of isolation and loneliness on college campuses, as well as the increase in online classes and virtual interactions. Rev. Black encouraged local churches to creatively address the demographic gap of college-aged young adults by collaborating with campus ministries to meet students where they are. The discussion emphasized the need for campus ministries to be seen as assets and connections for local churches, rather than as competitors for attendance.

Rev. Black announced that a workshop on sustainable fundraising practices was hosted in May with the support of a grant from the United Methodist Foundation, aimed at equipping Wesley Foundation board members and campus ministries with tools to manage limited resources effectively. The workshop was described as a starting point for rethinking ministry approaches in light of financial constraints, with an emphasis on leveraging local church connections and resources. Rev. Black acknowledged the growing and diverse responsibilities of campus ministers, from leading small groups to providing pastoral care and managing fundraising efforts. Rev. Black then offered a prayer for our campus ministers and their ministries. Bishop Williamston thanked Rev. Black for her report and asked if there were any questions.

Bishop Williamston recognized Rev. Clifton Conrad, lead pastor, Cornerstone UMC, New Orleans. Rev. Conrad wished to know the status of the Wesley Foundation on Southern University's campus.

Rev. Black then turned to the concerns raised about the status of the Wesley Foundation at Southern University, by asking for some clarification of the situation from Rev. Karli Pidgeon and Rev. Chad Brooks. Rev. Brooks explained that plans are underway to maintain a presence on Southern University's campus and there are ongoing discussions with the university administration.

Bishop Williamston recognized Ms. Catherine Bowden, lay delegate, St. Paul UMC, Shreveport as wanting clarification to the previous question, Is the now or will there be a Wesley Foundation physical presence on the Southern University campus? Rev. Karli Pidgeon came forward to respond to that question. Rev. Pidgeon clarified that the Wesley Foundation building at Southern University has been uninhabitable for several years due to mold and other issues, and the campus ministry is currently on pause while plans are developed in collaboration with the university administration to maintain a presence. Rev. Pidgeon also emphasized that as there are currently no other campus ministries at Southern, the UMC would like to be THE campus ministry there. Rev Pidgeon also informed the conference that there is a collaboration involving the closest UMC, Camphor Memorial UMC and Rev. Bryan Dalco, to make sure that the students at SU are still being reached in the interim.

Rev. Black called on churches and individuals to actively support campus ministries, emphasizing the need for collaboration, creativity, and commitment to reaching students, because there is work to do. The discussion highlighted the importance of funding, physical infrastructure, and leadership to ensure the sustainability and effectiveness of campus ministries. Participants were encouraged to listen for a potential call to serve in campus ministry and to engage in conversations about how to share the love and work of Jesus Christ with college students.

Bishop Williamston recognized Ms. Laretta Clark, lay delegate, St. Peter/Jackson Chapel/Mt. Carmel, Clinton as having a question. Ms. Clark wanted asked if there would continue to be funding for the SU Wesley Foundation? Rev. Brooks confirmed that funding for SU's campus ministry has been consistently allocated with approximately $65,000 - $70,000 spent annually in recent years, including $42,000 last year through money from Congregational Vitality, and there is no plan to stop that funding.

Bishop Williamston thanked Rev. Black for her report, and Revs. Pidgeon & Brooks for their answers to the questions raised.

Bishop Williamston recognized Rev. Don Cottrill, pastor emeritus, First UMC, Baton Rouge, as wishing to ask a question. Rev. Cottrill inquired as to the filling of the Conference Treasurer's position with the retirement of Mrs. Sandy O'Brien. He stated that the Conference Treasurer must be approved by the Annual Conference, and he wanted to know what was being done to ensure that procedure is followed. Bishop Williamston stated that Mrs. O'Brien would serve as the Conference approved Treasurer until her replacement is named. Rev. Cottrill thanked the Bishop for her answer.

The postponed motion concerning the Conference financial gift to the Lydia Patterson Institute was reintroduced by Bishop Williamston. The main motion on the floor was:

The UM Foundation of Louisiana and the Louisiana Conference pledge a total of $150,000 - $75,000 from each organization – to the Lydia Patterson Institute to be used at the discretion of their Board of Directors.

Bishop Williamston reported that after further discussion, a substitute motion or amendment was offered to amend the pending motion by striking out the $75,000 match by the Louisiana Conference and inserting the words "undesignated funds", so that if the changes are adopted, the amended motion would be:

The UM Foundation of Louisiana pledge a total of $75,000 of undesignated funds to the Lydia Patterson Institute to be used at the discretion of their Board of Directors.

Therefore, we will proceed with the proposed changes first; again it was moved to amend the pending motion by striking out the $75,000 match by the Louisiana Conference, and inserting the words "undesignated funds". Bishop called for and received a second on the amended motion; then asked if there were any questions or debate. Bishop Williamston recognized Judge Jay Caraway, lay delegate, Asbury UMC, Bossier City. Judge Caraway stated that his intent in making the motion to amend the original motion from Mr. Chris Spencer, was to make sure that the CF&A had time to deliberate and discuss on the best way for the Conference to provide the requested matching funds, beyond what the UM Foundation pledged. If CF&A has or is planning to have those discussions, Judge Caraway stated that he wished to withdraw his motion amendment substitution, and that the UM Foundation pledge be sent to LPI as soon as possible.

Bishop Williamston asked if there was any objection, there being none, and as this requires no vote, the amended motion was withdrawn. She then asked if there were any questions or debate on the original motion made by Mr. Chris Spencer:

The UM Foundation of Louisiana and the Louisiana Conference pledge a total of $150,000 - $75,000 from each organization – to the Lydia Patterson Institute to be used at the discretion of their Board of Directors.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions or debate, and recognized Mr. Chris Spencer. Mr. Spencer wished to withdraw his motion, and there being no discussion, and this does not require a vote, the motion was withdrawn. Bishop Williamston commended the Foundation and CF&A for their willingness to continue discussions on the best way to provided funds to LPI for the ongoing work they are doing during this time of crisis at the Texas/Mexico border.

Bishop Williamston called for a brief break before resuming the session. Upon returning from the break, Bishop Williamston recognized Rev. Weldon Bares, CF&A chair, who informed the conference that CF&A, in consultation with the Lydia Patterson Institute, and in partnership with the UM Foundation of Louisiana, promises that the monies discussed would get the LPI. Bishop Williamston thanked Rev. Bares for sharing that information. She then invited Rev. Todd Rossnagel, director of Communications to the podium. Rev. Rossnagel wanted to inform the conference of the situation at LPI, that prompted the motion from Mr. Spencer. He stated that, “moments before Dr. Cardoza began her presentation, she received word that the US State Department was pausing visas. The enormity of that situation for Lydia Patterson may not be understood. Forty percent (40%) of that schools population are from Juarez, Mexico, and have visas in order to cross over the border into the US to go to school. That means that almost half (50%) of the students won’t be able to cross the border. There is an appeal period, but it is lengthy, and may delay them beginning the new school year on time.” If the situation is not resolved soon, the Board of Directors at LPI, is looking in to options such as remote learning. Rev. Rossnagel took a moment of personal privilege to say how heart-warming the reaction of the Louisiana Conference was to this heart-breaking news, and that we know that God is already one step ahead of this situation. Bishop Williamston thanked Rev. Rossnagel. Bishop Williamston took a moment of personal privilege to bring to the stage, Odin, her Shih Tzu.

Bishop Williamston invited Mr. Adam Philley, LGBTQUI+ Ministry Team chair, to present their report. Mr. Philley, began by inviting all Ministry Team members to join him on stage. He then shared the team's mission to build a more inclusive, welcoming, Christ-centered church where all people, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity, are embraced as beloved children of God. The team has focused on creating sacred spaces of belonging, telling truth in love, and imagining a church where everyone truly has a place. A significant initiative involved hosting a table display at last year's annual conference, where attendees placed pins on a map to identify welcoming congregations or express hopes for their church to become inclusive, symbolizing a living prayer for grace and inclusion.

The team hosted a luncheon during the conference, attended by over 80 people, to reflect on bold work done at the General Conference and discuss its implications for Louisiana.

The LGBTQIA+ Ministry Team actively participated in Pride events across Louisiana, including Baton Rouge, New Orleans, Lafayette, Shreveport, and North Shore, to demonstrate love and affirm that God loves everyone without exceptions. Sacred Worth gatherings were launched as simple, honest spaces for sharing faith, naming wounds, imagining healing, and creating community through relationships, with the second event held recently. These gatherings aim not only for inclusion but also for restoration, embodying the essence of church as a space for healing and belonging.

Dr. John Fletcher became the first openly LGBTQIA+ licensed local pastor in the Louisiana Conference, marking a historic milestone for the church. His courage serves as a testimony to his faith and a beacon of hope for others who have wondered if there is a place for them in the church, affirming that inclusion is possible and celebrated.

The LGBTQIA+ Ministry Team announced the upcoming launch of a resource page on the conference website, curated to assist congregations in fostering inclusivity and addressing specific needs. Mr. Philley encouraged attendees to reach out to the team for tailored support and resources to help their churches become more welcoming and inclusive. He shared a theological reflection inspired by the story of the prodigal son, emphasizing that God's grace welcomes everyone with open arms, without requiring them to earn their way back into the church. He highlighted the importance of moving beyond mere tolerance to full inclusion, reminding LGBTQIA+ individuals that they are deeply loved and always have a place at God's table.

A verse from the song "I Then Shall Live" was shared to inspire the church to embody compassion, tear down walls of fear, and build bridges of understanding and love.

*I then shall live as one who's learned compassion
I've been so loved that I'll risk loving too
I know how fear builds walls instead of bridges
I'll dare to see another's point of view
And when relationships demand commitment
Then, I'll be there (I'll be there) to care and follow through.*

Mr. Philley challenged the church to risk loving boldly, step into the hard and holy work of inclusion, and embody love in every corner of the community. He urged the church to move beyond words to action, presence, and persistence, becoming a church that not only welcomes but walks alongside marginalized individuals. The LGBTQIA+ Ministry Team's work was presented as a starting point, with the challenge extended to the broader church community to continue and expand this mission. This concluded their report. Bishop Williamston thanked the Mr. Philley for their report, and asked if there were any questions, and there being none, she called upon Rev. Kaseem Short and Mrs. Sabrina Short, to make a presentation.

Rev. Kaseem Short, lead pastor, Thomas UMC, Kenner, and Mrs. Sabrina Short announced the launch of the Clergy Renewal Fund in partnership with the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana to support pastors in need of rest, healing, and spiritual renewal. They personally committed $10,000 to the fund, with a goal to raise an additional $25,000 by Fall 2026 for the first grant. The long-term vision includes establishing a $100,000 permanent endowment to sustain the fund for future generations. The initiative emphasizes the importance of self-care for clergy, ensuring they can thrive in ministry with joy and purpose. The Louisiana Annual Conference also announced Clergy Renewal Grants to address the immediate need for rest among pastors.

Rev. Short, as chair of the Conference Board of Trustees, presented their report. Rev. Short thanked previous board members and chairs, and then asked the new and current board members to stand for recognition. The Board reported net revenues of $2,077,386 from the sale of church properties after deducting $219,330 in expenses. $310,000 from the sale proceeds of the former Newell United Methodist Church was allocated to Dillard University's Lawless Chapel. The report highlighted the sale of 10 properties, including two cemetery properties, and the correction of a conference journal entry for Matthews Memorial Church. The trustees emphasized that all proceeds from closed church property sales are held in trust for the benefit of the annual conference, as per the Book of Discipline.

Rev. Tom Dolph, Conference Secretary, went over the procedure for the closing of churches. He stated that,

This procedure is backed by the Discipline as to how and when we close churches and what happens when we do. According to paragraph 2549 0.4 in the Book of Discipline, only the annual conference can close a church. A church is not technically closed until the conference votes to do so. There are some churches that understand they no longer have the resources to continue being the United Methodist Church that the discipline and Christ call them to be. They decide for themselves that they can no longer exist, and in most cases, a charge conference is held, a resolution is passed, and they close themselves. That is really the end of their life, but they are not truly closed until the annual conference votes on them. If exigent circumstances exist as explained in paragraph 2549 0.4B of the Book of Discipline, then under those circumstances there is a process that includes the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the District Board of Church Location, to declare exigent circumstances. When these conditions are met, all of the property and assets of that church are immediately vested with the Conference Board of Trustees. Those churches then come to Annual Conference to be voted on to close under exigent circumstances. Officially, exigent circumstances are when a church or ministry does something contrary to the Book of Discipline; for example, if a church changes its articles of incorporation indicating that it is no longer a United Methodist Church, but the XYZ Church, then that would be a case for closure under exigent circumstances.

Resolutions were presented for the closure of three churches: Seventh Ward United Methodist Church (Spirit Church) in New Orleans, Matthews Memorial United Methodist Church in Matthews, and North Highlands United Methodist Church in Shreveport. The closures were conducted under the provisions of the Book of Discipline, citing exigent circumstances. The process involved approvals from district boards, the presiding bishop, and unanimous votes from district superintendents.

Karl Klaus, after having followed the required provisions of The Book of Discipline 2020/2024 of the United Methodist Church, that North Highlands United Methodist Church, (GCFA Permanent ID 716261; Conference ID 9600) with a municipal address of 835 Poleman Rod., Shreveport, LA 71107 should be closed under “exigent circumstances” ¶2549; and

WHEREAS, this decision and action has been approved by the North District Board of Church Location and Building, the presiding Bishop, Delores J. Williamston, and the unanimous District Superintendents of the Louisiana Conference; the Conference Board of Trustees presents this resolution:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction, in Annual Conference assembled, in accordance with The Book of Discipline 2020/2024 of the United Methodist Church, that North Highlands United Methodist Church in the North District is now CLOSED;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Board of Trustees of the Louisiana Conference, through two of its members, be authorized to use or to dispose of all properties of the North Highlands United Methodist Church under such terms and conditions as the Board of Trustees may deem meet and proper.

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions, and for any former pastors and members of North Highlands UMC to please stand for recognition. There being no questions, Bishop Williamston called for the vote on Resolution Three; the resolution was approved by a majority of voting delegate.

This concluded the report from the Board of Trustees. Attendees were invited to honor the legacy and ministry of these churches, with a prayer offered to reflect on their contributions and new beginnings. Dr. Van Stinton led a prayer to honor the legacy of the closed churches, emphasizing gratitude for their ministry and the hope for new beginnings. The prayer acknowledged the lessons learned, the seeds planted, and the grace that sustains the church community during transitions.

Bishop Dolores J. Williamston introduced the next agenda item, a petition on immigration communities, highlighting its relevance to current national and community issues. As Rev. Dr. Ramonalynn Bethley, Committee on Petitions chair, made her way to the stage, Bishop Williamston encouraged attendees to familiarize themselves with the United Methodist Church's social principles, which address human rights, immigration, and other social justice concerns. Pastors were urged to educate their congregations on these principles to strengthen the church's witness and advocacy efforts.

Rev. Bethley presented the petition titled "Love Our Neighbor - Immigrant Communities in the Louisiana Annual Conference" submitted by Rev. Ann Sutton, retired clergy and Rev. Drew Sutton, lead pastor, St. Andrew's UMC, Baton Rouge, which focuses on the political and social challenges surrounding immigration. The petition calls for United Methodists to prayerfully consider the meaning of "sanctuary" in their worship spaces and to be aware of immigrant communities in their neighborhoods, seeking opportunities to be good neighbors. It proposes that the Conference Mission Mercy team organize one event to deepen understanding of the immigration process and equip churches with tools for advocacy. The petition requests the Conference Communications team to feature two articles in the next year highlighting ministries that support immigrants. It emphasizes the importance of praying for government policies to be guided by justice, mercy, and respect for the dignity of every individual.

Be it resolved, that The United Methodist who call the space where they worship "sanctuary", should give prayerful consideration to what that can mean at this time; and
Be it resolved, that churches and congregations be aware of immigrant communities in their neighborhoods and seek opportunities to be good neighbors; and
Be it resolved, that the Louisiana Conference Mission and Mercy team provide one (1) conference event to deepen our understanding of the immigration process and equip churches with vocabulary and tools to advocate for our neighbors; and
Be it resolved, that the Conference Communications Team feature two (2) articles in the next conference year, featuring ministries in the Louisiana Conference that welcome and support immigrants; and
Be it resolved, that we will continue to pray for our government, that the spirit of justice and mercy might guide our national policies and actions, all of which should be grounded in due process and respect for the dignity of every child of God.

Rev. Bethley informed the conference that the petition was sent to the Mission & Mercy Team, and it passed five (5) to zero (0).

Bishop Williamston asked if there were any questions concerning the petition. Mr. Robert May, lay delegate, First UMC, Arcadia raised concerns about the term "sanctuary," questioning whether it referred to a place of worship or a means to circumvent federal and state laws. Rev. Ann Sutton clarified that "sanctuary" was used in the Methodist tradition to refer to places of worship and was not intended to imply legal circumvention. Mr. Gary Lytle, Southwest District at-large delegate, Asbury UMC, Lafayette inquired as to whether the petition's proposed communications would be translated into Spanish to ensure accessibility for non-English-speaking immigrant communities. Rev. Todd Rossnagel, Director of Communications, confirmed that the petition and related materials would be translated into Spanish and other languages available through United Methodist Communications.

Rev. Ann Sutton provided detailed statistics, noting that Louisiana has eight privately owned, for-profit detention centers housing 7,000 detainees. Immigrants make up 5% of Louisiana's population, with 2,230,000 identified immigrants and 6,891 students on visas. Rev. Sutton shared her personal experiences assisting detainees, including women from Afghanistan, China, Venezuela, Africa, Russia, Ukraine, and Honduras, who sought asylum in the U.S. She highlighted the complexity of the immigration system and the historical role of the Methodist Church in addressing social justice issues, referencing a 1956 resolution opposing measures to weaken public education during desegregation.

Rev. JC Richardson, lead pastor, Wesley UMC, Baton Rouge, recommended the book "America for Americans" by Erica Lee to provide historical context on immigration and its challenges. He emphasized that the current immigration issues are not new and encouraged understanding the historical patterns of immigration policies. Rev. Cyril "Kirby" Vert, former tribal chairman of the United Houma Nation, lead pastor, Clanton Chapel, Dulac expressed support for the petition with a brief statement, "Welcome to America. Welcome to Louisiana."

Bishop Williamston called for the vote on the “Love Our Neighbor” petition. The petition was approved by majority vote, with no visible opposition, marking the beginning of efforts to implement the proposed actions. She concluded with a reminder of the importance of being informed by the United Methodist Church's social principles when engaging with the world and supporting such petitions.

Bishop Williamston began Closing Worship with the following liturgy:

Bishop Williamston: As we gather for this final moment together, we acknowledge the journey we have taken here.

ALL: We have shared in business, in learning, in remembrance, and in celebration.

Bishop Williamston: We have moved forward with hope in joy, knowing that God goes with us into whatever lies ahead.

ALL: We have been strengthened by our time together and are ready to return to our communities renewed for the sake of renewal.

Bishop Williamston: As we soon depart from one another—

ALL: We go fortified by this community—

Bishop Williamston: Strengthened by shared wisdom, empowered by shared vision.

ALL: We go forward as the body of Christ, dispersed yet united, diverse yet one in purpose.

Bishop Williamston: Now hear these words attributed to a Hopi elder from Arizona:

"You have been telling the people that this is the Eleventh Hour, now you must go back and tell the people that this is the Hour. And there are things to be considered...Where are you living? What are you doing? What are your relationships? Are you in right relation? Where is your water? Know your garden. It is time to speak your Truth. Create your community. Be good to each other. And do not look outside yourself for the leader. This could be a good time!

ALL: There is a river flowing now very fast. It is so great and swift that there are those who will be afraid. They will try to hold on to the shore. They will feel they are torn apart and will suffer greatly.

Bishop Williamston: Know the river has its destination. The elders say we must let go of the shore, push off into the middle of the river, keep our eyes open, and our heads above water. And I say, see who is in there with you and celebrate.

ALL: At this time in history, we are to take nothing personally, least of all ourselves. For the moment that we do, our spiritual growth and journey comes to a halt.

Bishop Williamston: The time for the lone wolf is over. Gather yourselves! Banish the word struggle from your attitude and your vocabulary. All that we do now must be done in a sacred manner and in celebration.

ALL: We are the ones we've been waiting for."

Bishop Williamston: As we prepare to leave this place, hear these words of commissioning:

The river that flows before us is not just a challenge to be faced, but a current of joy to be embraced. The journey that lies ahead is not merely a path to walk, but a dance to celebrate. The community that surrounds us is not simply a support system, but a chorus of joy-bearers.

ALL: We receive this joy and commit to sharing it with others.

Bishop Williamston: You are being sent from this place as carriers of divine delight. You are being called not to solemn duty but to radiant celebration. You are being commissioned not to wade cautiously at the river's edge but to dive deep into its refreshing waters.

ALL: We embrace this joy with open hearts and uplifted spirits.

Bishop Williamston: May the God who delights in creation fill your hearts with wonder. May the Christ who broke bread in celebration and remembrance invite you to divine rejoicing. May the Spirit who dances through the universe lead you in steps of joy.

Go now into your communities, not burdened by responsibility but buoyed by this joy. Let the current carry you, let laughter mark your path, and remember: We are the ones we've been waiting for, and this—this is indeed a good time!

Bishop Williamston announced that the appointments have been set, and the 2025 Louisiana Annual Conference is adjourned! Thanks be to God. AMEN!!!

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Kyle Wooldridge

CONFERENCE STRUCTURE & RULES:

CONFERENCE STRUCTURE

ARTICLE I: ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEMBERSHIP

The membership of the Annual Conference is described and set forth in Constitution of The United Methodist Church ¶132.

A. ELECTION OF LAY MEMBERS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Each charge shall elect annually a lay member of the Annual Conference and one or more alternates (2016 Book of Discipline ¶¶32, 602.4). Each charge served by more than one clergy, shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members.

B. ELECTION OF YOUNG ADULT MEMBERS

1. Young Adult – a young adult representative shall serve as the “equivalent officer of the Conference young adult organization”, and shall be a member of the Annual Conference (2016 Book of Discipline ¶¶32, 602.4).
2. College Student – the Executive Committee of the Conference Board of Higher Education & Campus Ministry shall elect a student who shall serve as “the chair of the Annual Conference college student organization”, and shall be a member of the Annual Conference (2016 Book of Discipline ¶¶32, 604.2).

C. LAY AND CLERGY MEMBERS

In accordance with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the membership of the Annual Conference shall be equally composed of clergy and laity (2016 Book of Discipline ¶¶32, 604.2).

1. Clergy Members – the composition of clergy membership is prescribed in The Book of Discipline ¶¶369, 602.1. Accordingly, the clergy membership shall consist of Deacons and Elders in full connection (¶¶ 329,333), Provisional Members (¶ 327), Associate Members, Affiliate Members (¶¶344.4, 586.4), and Local Pastors under full-time or part-time appointment to a pastoral charge (¶317). (See also 2016 Book of Discipline ¶32.) Each clergy member of the Annual Conference shall be attached to one of the districts.

2. Lay Members – the composition of lay membership is prescribed in The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church ¶¶32, 602.4. Accordingly, the lay membership of the Annual Conference include the following:
 - a. A lay member, or the appropriate number of lay members, elected by each charge
 - b. The Diaconal Ministers
 - c. The active Deaconesses under Episcopal appointment within the Annual Conference
 - d. Conference President, United Women in Faith
 - e. Conference President, United Methodist Men
 - f. Conference Lay Leader
 - g. District Lay Leaders
 - h. President, or equivalent officer of the Conference Young Adult Organization
 - i. President, Conference Council on Youth Ministry
 - j. Chair of the Annual Conference College Student Organization
 - k. Two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age from each district, elected by the District Ministry Team

These persons shall be counted as members of the Annual Conference from the districts in which they reside.

The Conference Committee on Credentials, in consultation with the District Superintendents, shall determine the number of clergy members in each district, and shall determine the number of laypersons in each district who are members by virtue of their office. The Conference Committee on Credentials shall then determine the number of additional lay members needed to equalize the clergy and lay membership of the Annual Conference. The total number of additional lay members needed shall be prorated to the districts based upon the church membership of the districts as reported in the most recent audit of the Conference.

The additional lay members shall be designated “at-large members”, and shall be elected by the respective District Conference or District Ministry Team, after nomination by the District Committee on Nominations. Additional nominations may be made from the floor of the District Conference or to the District Ministry Team. In the nomination process, special attention shall be given to inclusiveness in keeping with policies for Conference agencies. (See 2016 Book of Discipline ¶¶140, 610.5.)

ARTICLE II: THE MISSIONAL ORGANIZATION OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. PURPOSE AND ORGANIZATION

1. Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, and the local church provides the most significant arena through which our disciple-making occurs (2016 Book of Discipline ¶201).
2. The purpose of the Annual Conference is to advance this mission “by equipping its local churches for ministry, and by providing for connectional ministry beyond the local church” (¶601).
3. In order to accomplish this mission, the Annual Conference functions to equip and encourage our local churches to become “vital congregations”: congregations that lead others to abundant life in Jesus Christ; engage in their communities; learn, live, and tell the Gospel story; and reach out to and draw in people from all walks of life (Matthew 22:36-40 and 28:16-20).
4. In order to give priority to our missional purpose and to our commitment to developing vital congregations, the Louisiana Conference will be organized into three (3) Ministry Areas, in addition to and as a compliment of the strategic and equipping ministry of the Bishop and Cabinet (¶¶401ff, 414ff, 419ff). The Bishop, Cabinet, and the three (3) ministry areas will work together in a connectional relationship in order to strengthen the local churches in their mission and ministry.
5. The three (3) ministry areas are: 1) Vital Congregations; 2) Clergy Excellence; and 3) Administrative Ministries. The purpose of these Ministry Areas is to fulfill the missional purpose of the Annual Conference, to grow vital congregations, and to provide for other ministries as required by The Book of Discipline.

B. MINISTRY AREAS

1. Vital Congregations will serve to equip and empower local churches to lead others to abundant life in Jesus Christ; engage in the communities; learn, live, and tell the Gospel story; and reach out to and draw in people from all walks of life. The purpose of this work is to empower local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. It will do so by fostering shared ministry among local churches and by providing for connectional ministry beyond the local church. In addition to other responsibilities outlined in the Book of Discipline and Conference Rules, a Director of Connectional Ministries (see Article III, A.1.a) will coordinate this ministry area and convene the leaders of these teams in order to encourage collaboration in our effort to grow vital congregations, and to ensure faithfulness to the purpose of the Annual Conference (¶601) and the mission of The United Methodist Church (¶120). Vital Congregations will be comprised of the following ministries:
 - a. A Church Planting Ministry will coordinate the formation of new vital congregations by directing the work of planting new faith communities, mergers of existing churches to form new congregations, and other strategic and creative models for starting vital faith communities. A Board of Congregational Development of no fewer than seven (7) persons, laity and clergy, will function to support Conference staff assigned to this ministry, provide missional accountability, maintain a budget, and provide financial oversight.
 - b. A Church Revitalization Ministry will coordinate the revitalization of congregations that have potential for new growth. Task forces and advisory teams may be formed to assist in this work as needed.
 - c. The Conference Discipleship Team will assist local churches in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The ministry of this team includes, but is not limited to, the ministries outlined in The Book of Discipline ¶630. In accordance with ¶645, the Discipleship Team will assume the responsibilities of the Small Membership Church Commission.
2. Clergy Excellence shall actively engage in the recruitment and development of clergy who are able to lead in the disciple-making ministry of the church, and who will effectively equip local churches to lead others to abundant life in Jesus Christ; engage in their communities; learn, live, and tell the Gospel story; and reach out to and draw in people from all walks of life. The purpose of this work is to empower local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. A Director of Clergy Excellence (see Article III, A.1.b) will coordinate the work of this ministry area.

Clergy Excellence will be comprised of the following ministries:

- a. The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry shall be organized and function as mandated and described in The Book of Discipline ¶635. The Bishop shall nominate members of the Board after consultation with the chairperson of the Board, the Executive Committee, and the Cabinet. The Bishop shall fill vacancies after consultation with the chairperson of the Board.
 - b. The Center for Pastoral Excellence is to help sustain pastoral excellence by providing support and guidance for our clergy and congregations in difficult situations, conversations, and conflict; coaching clergy as a confidential and trusted resource; offering continuing education opportunities; working on special projects/contexts as requested by the Bishop and Cabinet; and offering other ministries related to the art and science of pastoral leadership.
 - c. The Conference Committee on Administrative Review shall be organized and function as mandated and described in The Book of Discipline ¶636.
3. Administrative Ministries will provide administrative support to the Annual Conference in order to help it fulfill its purpose and mission. The Executive Director of Administrative Services will act as a liaison between the ministries of this ministry area to ensure faithfulness to the purpose of the Annual Conference (¶601) and to the mission of The United Methodist Church (¶120). Administrative Ministries will be comprised of the following:

- a. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CF&A) shall be organized and shall function as mandated and described in The Book of Discipline ¶¶611-619.

if taken, shall be by signed ballot. An “aye” and “nay” vote by secret ballot may be ordered on motion of any member, without debate supported by one-third (1/3) of the members present and voting. A count vote may be ordered on motion of any member without debate, supported by one-third (1/3) of the members present and voting, in which case the members shall rise from their seats and stand until counted.

No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been called, until the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fit into the time while waiting for the report of the secretaries on a count vote, or any “aye” or “nay” vote. The count shall be made by the Committee of Tellers.

RULE 10. DIVISION OF QUESTION:

Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as he/she indicates. If no delegate objects, the division shall be made; but if there is objection, the chair shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second, without debate, which division shall be allowed upon approval of a majority of the members present and voting.

RULE 11. VOTE BY ORDER:

The ministerial and lay members shall deliberate as one body; but upon a call, by motion of any member, seconded by another member of the same order and supported by one-third (1/3) of the members of that order voting, the ministerial and lay members shall vote separately. But when the Conference votes by orders, no measure shall be passed without the concurrence of a majority of both classes of members. In cases of such a vote the order calling it shall vote first; provided, however, that the Conference may not vote by orders on a proposed amendment to the Constitution. (2016 Book of Discipline ¶¶ 59-61)

RULE 12. MOTION FOR ADOPTION OF REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS, UNNECESSARY:

Whenever a report of a committee, signed by the chairperson and secretary thereof, and otherwise in compliance with the General Rules of this Annual Conference shall be presented to the Conference for its action, it shall be deemed in proper order for consideration by the Conference without the formality of a motion to adopt, and a second thereto.

RULE 13. REQUIRED FORMS FOR REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS AND AMENDMENTS:

All resolutions and committee reports shall be presented in triplicate; and, when requested by the secretary, motions, including amendments, shall be presented in writing.

RULE 14. ALTERATIONS OF MOTIONS, ETC.

When a motion is made and seconded, a resolution is introduced and seconded, or a committee report is read, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Conference and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.

In order to provide an efficient manner to inform the Annual Conference of any intention to introduce changes, deletions, or additions to the printed CFA recommended budget, such intentions must be provided in writing to CFA no later than two weeks prior to the opening of Annual Conference.

The presenter of the budget amendment shall introduce the amendment during the “Introduction of New Business” on the day of Annual Conference. In addition, the presenter shall provide sufficient copies of the Budget Amendment Form* to distribute to the Annual Conference in accordance with conference rules. All proposed budget amendments shall be presented to the conference for deliberation when CFA presents the printed budget for adoption. At this time, the Chairperson of CFA shall state CFA’s response to the budget amendments received. No additional budget amendments will be accepted from the floor without the Annual Conference suspending this conference rule.

* A Budget Amendment Form can be obtained from the Conference Treasurer’s office and must be returned to the Chairperson of CFA by the above deadline. The required form shall identify, (1) the person, church, or agency making the proposal; (2) the Report Number in the CFA proposed budget; (3) the line item proposed to be changed, deleted, or added; (4) the proposed dollar amount adjustment to the line item, and (5) the basis for which such proposed adjustment is being made.

RULE 15. UNDEBATABLE MOTIONS:

The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally
2. To suspend the rules
3. To lay on the table
4. To take from the table
5. To call for the previous question
6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion
7. To limit or extend the limits of debate
8. To call for the orders of the day
9. To alter voting procedure
10. To divide the question (if objection by a delegate is made).

RULE 16. RIGHTS OF THE MAIN QUESTION:

The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit or refer, to substitute, to postpone, or to reconsider. No new motion, resolution, or subject shall be entertained until the one under consideration shall have been disposed of. The foregoing does not apply to secondary motions if otherwise allowable in the existing parliamentary situation.

RULE 17. PRECEDENCE OF SECONDARY MOTIONS:

If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence, in relation to one another, shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn (this motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table)
2. To adjourn
3. To take recess
4. To order the previous question
5. To lay on the table
6. To limit or extend the limits of debate
7. To postpone to a given time
8. To commit or refer
9. To amend or to substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment)
10. To postpone indefinitely

RULE 18. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS:

No motion, which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

RULE 19. REFERRING REPORTS, ETC.:

It shall be in order for the Conference to refer to a committee, a section or a part of a report or resolution, which is before the Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

RULE 20. PROCEDURE FOR CONSIDERATION OF SUBSTITUTES:

When a resolution or committee report is properly before the Conference for consideration and action, even if amendments thereto are pending, a substitute therefore may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report or resolution under consideration. The Conference shall then proceed first to perfect the original report or resolution, including consideration and action upon any amendments which may be offered to it. The same perfecting process shall then be followed with respect to the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report or resolution; provided, however, that the motion for the previous question shall not be in order on the adoption of the report or recommendation or on making the proposed substitution until opportunity has been given for at least two (2) members to speak on each side of the question of substitution or adoption.

RULE 21. PREVIOUS QUESTION:

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending), he/she shall indicate to what he/she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If he/she does not so indicate, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and shall require a two-thirds

(2/3) vote of those present and voting for its adoption; and if it is accepted, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies without further debate.

RULE 22. MOTION AFTER SPEECH:

It shall not be in order for a member, immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

RULE 23. EXCEPTIONS TO MAJORITY VOTE:

A majority of those voting, a quorum being present, shall decide all questions with the following exceptions:

1. One-third (1/3) of those present and voting shall suffice to sustain a call for a count vote in case the decision of the chair is doubted. A tie vote sustains the chair.
2. A call for a vote by orders shall prevail if sustained by one-third (1/3) of the members of the order from which the call came, present and voting.
3. A two-thirds (2/3) vote shall be required to sustain a motion to suspend or amend the rules; to sustain a motion for the previous question; to set aside a special order; to consider a special order before the time set therefor; to sustain the request of the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges for the presentation of any person on the final day of the Annual Conference.

RULE 24. RECONSIDERATION:

A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

RULE 25. CALENDARS, REGULAR AND NON-CONCURRENCE:

The Secretary shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day and of reports of committees, which record shall be called the Calendar, and the matter of business placed on it shall be considered as recommended by the Committee on Agenda (the Cabinet) to the Conference, unless by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference an item is taken out of its order.

When a committee presents a report on a given subject, as part of its report, it must also list the numbers of all petitions relating to this subject on which the committee voted non-concurrence.

RULE 26. MOTION TO ADJOURN IN ORDER EXCEPT:

The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except:

1. When a member has the floor
2. When a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided
3. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending
4. When a motion to adjourn has been lost, and no business or debate has intervened
5. When the motion to fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn is pending; the foregoing does not apply to a motion for adjournment of the Conference

RULE 27. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST:

When the report of a subject is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the presiding officer to ascertain, when he/she recognizes a member of the Conference, on which side he/she proposes to speak; and he/she shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.

Except for undebatable motions, no motion shall be adopted or question relating to the same, be decided without opportunity having been given for at least two (2) speeches for and two (2) against the said proposal, provided that right is claimed before the chairperson or duly authorized member representing the committee's report or the minority report, if there be such, has been recognized by the presiding officer to close the debate.

When all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the chairperson and/or duly authorized member or members presenting a committee's report (and a minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right of the chairperson and/or other member or members to close the debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of five (5) minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, to lay on the table, or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the report under consideration; provided, that this five (5) minute limit shall not apply to a motion to substitute a minority report for a regular (majority) report of a committee.

RULE 28. EFFECTIVE DATE:

All actions of the Annual Conference shall become effective upon the final adjournment of the session of the Annual Conference at which they are enacted, unless otherwise specified, except as provided otherwise in the Discipline.

RULE 29. SUSPENSION OF RULES:

The operation of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference.

RULE 30. ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY:

In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by these Rules of Order, the Annual Conference shall be governed by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

7. Conference Archives completed its fourth year with ArchivesSpace, an information management application to manage and provide online access to inventories of Louisiana Conference and Centenary College archival collections. Annual cost split between Commission and Centenary Archives.
8. Conference Archives continued updating an online map with locations and GPS coordinates of all current and former UM churches in the Louisiana Conference and its predecessor denominations. Map currently identifies 730 churches.
9. Note: above three projects accessible online at www.centenary.edu/campus-community/archives/louisianamethodist/

Measurable goals for the coming year and how they contribute to our preferred future:

1. Create online video tutorials about archival research as well as maintaining local church archives. Desired outcome: videos will provide how-to instructions for researchers and local church historians.
2. Commission will work to draft a policy to cover the ongoing costs of storage and processing material from closed and disaffiliated churches, for example those listed in this report.
3. Work with Conference to promote United Methodist Heritage Sunday observed in May. Desired outcome: share resources developed by General Commission on Archives and History on the 2025 theme.
4. Collect records of closed and disaffiliating UMC congregations and transfer to the Louisiana Conference Archives. Follow guidelines provided by UMC General Commission on Archives and History (GCAH): "Any local church records, clergy records, or records of an annual conference up until the point of disaffiliation are the property of the annual conference of the UMC. These records should be treated as closed church records and preserved accordingly. Official records (see Annual Conference Guidelines for examples and retention schedule), up until the point of disaffiliation, shall be maintained by the annual conference archives of the UMC. These can be copied, scanned, or generally made accessible as needed for the disaffiliated church or annual conference to make use of and/or to begin their own annual conference repository" Email from Mark Shenise (Associate Archivist of GCAH), September 16, 2022.

5. Work with Conference to have congregations' charge conference reports include paperwork that updates information in the Conference Historical Register. Desired outcome: updated Historical Register will reflect current information and include congregations founded since 2004.
6. Conference Archives to continue updating content management system and online catalog, ArchivesSpace. Desired outcomes: 1) archives staff efficiently manage description of collections and create online inventories to collections, 2) researchers can access online inventories.
7. Conference Archives to continue prioritizing and cataloging unprocessed Louisiana UMC records. Desired outcome: processed archival collections with online finding aids to assist researchers and archives staff.
8. Conference Archives to continue updating online map identifying the location and GPS coordinates of all current and former UM churches in the Louisiana Conference and its predecessor denominations. Desired outcome: interactive resource for archives staff and researchers.
9. Remind leaders of our churches that our Commission has provided helpful resources designed to help you and your Local Church Historian properly manage the historical records of your local church. Go to the webpages of the Louisiana Conference Commission on Archives and History <https://www.la-umc.org/homepagecommissiononarchivesandhistory>. In order to find information about your church in past conference journals go to www.centenary.edu/campus-community/archives/louisianamethodist/. Desired outcome: provide tools to follow recommended guidelines to manage historic records of local churches.

Concerns and challenges facing your work/ministry area:

1. During disaffiliation process that started in 2022, some churches did not transfer their records to the Conference Archives. This requirement has still not been met by some churches. New commission members have expressed interest in helping collect this material.
2. Ensure pastors know they are responsible for working with a local church historian to guarantee that church records are appropriately maintained. Church records are defined in the GCAH Guidelines for Managing Records of the Local Church. This document specifies the varying lengths of time that records are to be maintained by local churches. Some church records must be retained permanently. Pastors are encouraged to appoint a Local Church Historian (§247.5a&b Book of Discipline) and a Membership Secretary to help with the duties and responsibilities of a solid records management program. The Church Historian duties appear in guidelines published by GCAH and Cokesbury.
3. Encourage church officers to keep accurate church records and, with the Local Church Historian, preserve all specified records and historical materials no longer in current use.
4. Encourage churches to appoint a Local Church Historian and Congregational Committee on Records and History. They are in charge of preserving your church's historical records and material. They are also the point people in the annual observance of Heritage Sunday and the celebration of significant anniversaries. Encourage local church historians to engage the congregation's younger members and document their activities.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Reports to Annual Conference

(Note: An email address has been set up to assist with questions regarding the CFA reports: CFAQuestions@la-umc.org . Alternatively, feel free to call Sandy O'Brien at 225-346-1646, ext. 201 with any advance questions.)

REPORT I – Finance and Administration Policies and Related Matters

The people and churches of the Louisiana Conference, along with United Methodists around the world, are making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We use our financial blessings from God to live in line with God's purposes for all creation as we create our preferred future in our homes, our churches, our local communities in Louisiana and around the world. The Council on Finance and Administration and the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries' office are available to assist local church pastors and laity any way they can. If you wish for an explanation of the Conference Apportionment Budget or any specific apportionment item within it, please refer to the most recent Conference Journal on the website at www.la-umc.org, or call or write the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries.

1. The Council reminds all congregations of the importance of STEWARDSHIP in the life of all Christians. When we are good stewards, managing God's blessings God's way for God's glory, we are in line with Christ's commandment to love God and love neighbor. Christ calls His disciples to give as an act of worship of God.
2. Paragraph 629.5 of the 2020/2024 Book of Discipline lists among the responsibilities of the Conference Discipleship Team "to interpret the biblical and theological basis of stewardship" and "to educate the local church that tithing is the minimum goal of giving in the United Methodist Church." CFA calls upon the Conference Discipleship and District Discipleship Teams to consider methods of assisting congregations in developing a process of education in the areas of stewardship and to work with the United Methodist Foundation in this regard. The intent of this request is to enhance the spiritual growth of our members and the ministry of Jesus Christ done in our local congregations, our conference and our world ministries through the United Methodist Church.
3. Collections of apportionments for the Conference budget will be allocated to individual line items in the budget according to the percentage of the total budget for that line item. The Annual Conference grants CFA the authority to change the process of allocation of Conference apportionments and collections during the year to maintain operations of the Conference Office and its ministry areas upon a majority approval of CFA members' approval at a duly called CFA meeting.
4. In the event apportionment monies are collected from a local church for prior (closed) years, those monies shall be retained by the Board of Trustees in a designated fund account for use in maintaining and repairing closed church property held by the Trustees for sale. Apportionment monies collected for future (not yet opened) years' apportionment obligations shall be designated by the Council on Finance and Administration for future years' apportionment expenditures. CFA can elect to use or distribute future years' apportionment collections to maintain operations of the Conference Office and its ministry areas.
5. Prior to January 1, 2023, collections received for the Districts' apportionments for the Districts' budgets were allocated to each respective District. Commencing with the adoption of the 2023 (and forward) "one apportionment" budget, which combines the Conference and the Districts' apportionments, all collections will be allocated on ratio of budget line items.
6. The Council recommends a continued emphasis by all churches on Advance Specials, both General Advance and Conference Advance Specials. All churches are recommended to pay their designated apportionments in full before appropriating funds for special advance or second-mile projects.
7. The Council recommends that the Annual Conference grants permission to:
 - Centenary College and Dillard University to make an appeal for every church in the Conference to send a "paid student" to the institutions.
 - allow the Bishop to call for any special offering needed to address a natural disaster
 - The Council on Finance and Administration to approve special offerings to be taken during Annual Conference sessions in 2025.

By adoption of this report by the Annual Conference, such permission is given.

8. The Council recommends that the pastoral charge consider for each clergy an accountable reimbursable amount of $7,200 for Pastor's Travel/Professional Expense (including Annual Conference Session expenses) and an amount of $7,200 for Utilities/Furnishings Expense. The Council reminds churches that only Accountable Reimbursable Plans are to be used for Clergy Compensation. Non-accountable reimbursement plans are not permitted. The amount of accountable reimbursement expenses allowed for a clergy should be based on 1) an estimated total of eligible professional, travel and meal expenditures incurred by the clergy in performing church business, and 2) an amount the Local Church Finance Committee, in consultation with the Staff/Pastor Parish Relations (S/PPR) committee, deems reasonable for the church's overall financial resources.
9. The Council recommends that the Pastoral Charge pay the Travel, Housing and Meal expenses of its Annual Conference Members (Lay and Clergy) to attend the in-person Annual Conference Session.
10. The Council has considered the Report of the Committee on Moving Expenses and concurs in its recommendation to the Annual Conference. Churches are asked to budget $2,000 each year up to an accumulated reserve of $6,000. Money not used for moving should be placed in an escrow account to ensure such funds are available when needed. When the moving expenses amount requested for reimbursement exceeds $6,000, the clergy should be responsible to pay the amount over the recommended amount.
11. The Council reminds the clergy of the Conference who will move to another charge that they are to accept salary and expense reimbursement (including Annual Conference Session reimbursements) through the end of the appointment year (June 30) from the charge they are presently serving. The salary, benefits and expenses for the new appointment begin July 1 with the new appointment year.
12. The Council recommends that all clergy under appointment be compensated at least semi-monthly. All churches should issue a W-2 form (in accordance with requirements outlined under the Internal Revenue Code, and not a Form 1099) for ordained, commissioned, licensed, in seminary, or in course of study clergy appointed to the church. Churches and clergy are also reminded that bonuses and gifts are to be included on W-2 forms. Additionally, moving expenses reimbursed to, or paid on behalf of, a clergy are considered taxable income. Any such amount must be included on the clergy's W-2 Form as compensation. This information will also be reported to Wespeth Benefits and Investments for purposes of determining each clergy's Plan Compensation and corresponding pension obligation on these amounts. The Conference Benefits office will contact each church with a clergy move to provide such information.
13. The Council reminds churches that they are not required to withhold and remit federal or state income taxes for the clergy person, although a clergy person can request such withholding. Churches and clergy are also reminded that FICA (Social Security) and Medicare taxes are never to be withheld for clergy. CFA also recommends that all local churches prepare and file the quarterly Form 941 payroll tax reports for compensation paid to clergy. The IRS matches these Form 941s with the clergy's annual W-2's and discrepancies are required to be reconciled. Failure to file these forms could result in significant penalties imposed by the IRS. In the event a layperson is appointed to serve a church on a supply basis, that individual is not considered clergy, and not eligible for clergy housing or utility allowances. Furthermore, a lay supply pastor is to be treated as any other lay employee subject to income tax withholdings, including FICA (Social Security) and Medicare taxes for both the employee and employer (church) portions, and the corresponding Form 941s prepared, filed timely, and payment remitted for any taxes withheld or due. Any federal or state income taxes withheld for clergy or laity must be remitted promptly in accordance with Internal Revenue Service payroll tax requirements. Failure to pay these payroll taxes could result in significant late payment or failure to file penalties imposed by the IRS.
14. To comply with federal income tax regulations, we recommend that the Annual Conference declare by adoption of this report that the utilities and other housing expenses on the Conference Clergy employees' residences and the utilities allowances for the district superintendents be a part of each person's cash compensation as "Housing Allowance." The parsonages presently or in the future owned or leased by the Conference Board of Trustees are declared parsonages for the housing of the district superintendent assigned primarily to that area. The adoption of this report equates to such declaration.
15. The Council reminds all persons, clergy and lay, handling funds in local churches to adhere to Paragraph 258.4(f) of the 2020/2024 The Book of Discipline that states: "Contributions designated for specific causes and objects shall be promptly forwarded according to the intent of the donor and shall not be used for any other purpose." This reminder is made by CFA although local churches and institutions are presently and have always been responsible for the proper use of funds.

16. Each Council, Board, Team, Commission, Committee, etc. of the Conference receiving funding from the Conference shall designate one person, other than the chairperson, as the Finance Officer. The Finance Officer shall keep for that board or agency a current record of financial transactions involving the budget receipts and expenditures for that body. The Finance Officer shall receive all vouchers from members and shall approve and submit them to the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries. Vouchers must be specific, in detail, accompanied by the appropriate receipts, and must bear the signed approval of the Finance Officer. The Finance Officer shall in turn submit them to the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries within three weeks. To assist the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries in closing the books and setting up books for a new fiscal year, all Finance Officers must have final vouchers of said entity in the Finance Office by 4 pm on Monday, December 22, 2025.

17. The Travel and Incidental Expense Reimbursement Request Policy for Conference Boards and Agencies is as follows:

Voucher Form- A Form for reimbursement requests for travel and incidental expenses can be obtained on the Conference Web site at:

Travel – Within the State of Louisiana – Travel Expense for Conference Councils, Boards, Teams, Commissions and Committees and Agencies is set at a maximum of 35 cents per mile. When three or more members travel together, a maximum of 40 cents per mile will be paid. Regardless of the mode of travel used, the maximum of 35 cents per mile will still apply. Beyond the state, the most economical mode of travel must be used with this provision with a maximum annual amount of $500 allowed for eligible individuals who reside outside the state boundaries to attend regular meetings of their conference entity. A Conference agency may vote to increase this amount if the members choose to make an exception due to the specific need for participation by a particular member. This limit applies only to travel and not to per diem lodging and meal costs. All air travel must be supported by the air ticket stub and must be the cheapest available for reasonable times of travel.

Lodging and Meals – Reimbursement for lodging expenses will be made for the actual amount of expenses incurred. Moderately priced hotel or motel accommodations must be used, and double occupancy is not permitted. An itemized bill must accompany the request for reimbursement. Reimbursement will be made for meals for the actual expenses incurred, but not for entertainment or room service. Any meal exceeding $5 must be supported by an itemized receipt. Those submitting vouchers for hotel and food reimbursements are to use good stewardship to keep costs at a minimum.

Other (including incidental expenses) – Reimbursement requests for all other approved incidental expenditures with supporting documentation can be submitted on this line of the Expense Reimbursement Request Form. Please note that appropriate Conference personnel must approve these expenses before it is incurred, otherwise reimbursement will not be paid.

18. All institutions and agencies receiving funds from the Conference are required to submit a financial statement at the end of each calendar year. (Per Par 617.2 of the 2020/2024 Book of Discipline and Conference Rules for Rule on Annual Audits).

19. The Annual Conference grants the amendment of the budget and the use of monies in the Conference General (unrestricted or undesignated) Reserve Fund as follows: (1) The Director of Administrative Ministries/Treasurer is authorized to pay apportionment salary, benefits or accountable reimbursement amounts in the adopted budget for which sufficient apportionments are not collected; (2) CFA (based upon a majority of sitting CFA members' approval at a duly called CFA meeting) can access the General Reserve Fund for purposes CFA deems meet and necessary. Any such action will be reported to the next Annual Conference and subject to ratification by the Annual Conference.

20. The Council has approved the reserves policy below for clarity, accurate administration and accounting:

- a. A balance at the close of the fiscal year in any budget line item or any funds collected (with the exceptions set forth below) shall be closed into the Conference General Reserve Fund to be used in a future need, including a disaster or catastrophe, liabilities that are the result of severe market decline, lawsuit, litigation, a decline in overall apportionment payouts, collection of apportionments at less than apportioned amounts for salaries and benefits budgeted, or other matters of an unanticipated and emergency nature.

- b. The Council on Finance and Administration can designate individual reserves to be maintained for the specific purposes outlined below and are exceptions to the general rule set forth above:
- (1) Funds donated for specific purposes (e.g., Special Sunday offerings designated for Conference use, Minister Emergency Funds, the 25% portion of the Minister Education Funds designated for the Board of Ordained Ministry if not used in that year for educational purposes, money donated by individuals and churches for a special project/ministry/event such as Disaster Response, etc.);
 - (2) Funds self-generated by a program through fees charged and collected in one year for an event to occur in another year (e.g., certain VIM trips);
 - (3) Funds budgeted and approved by CFA as a multi-year project (e.g., Clergy Defense Fund, Leave and Transition funds);
 - (4) Budgeted Line Items and Funds approved by CFA to have continuing reserves (e.g., Board of Congregational Development Church Planting Ministry & Church Revitalization Ministry, Board of Trustees and Building Funds, Chancellors Fees, Clergy Defense Fund, Board of Higher Education, Board of Ordained Ministry, etc.). Such approval can include a maximum dollar amount for that reserve.
- (Note - the enumerations provided of specific ministries are illustrative only and not indicative of all possibilities-see the Treasurer's Report for all such designated funds).

Detailed research confirmed that while the principal amount of the various designated reserve funds must remain intact until their authorized expenditure, the investment earnings can be used to help mission, ministry, clergy benefits, and administrative costs of the Conference.

- c. The Council on Finance and Administration believes that an amount equal to six (6) months of the current annual apportionment budget is acceptable for the "Emergency" Reserves Unrestricted/Undesignated fund account. For purposes of calculating any overage or excess, "unrealized investment gains/losses" are separated from these amounts to balance maximizing investment returns with liquidity and the long-term security of assets. Upon realization of investment gains or losses, such amounts will be included in the General Unrestricted /Undesignated reserves funds account. In the event the Conference accounting records reflect cumulative unrealized investment holding losses at year end, such negative amounts will reduce the General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserve Fund in calculating "excess/overage" of unrestricted/undesignated reserves.

Annually, CFA shall review the General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserve Funds policy and adequacy of the amount of such reserves and make recommended changes if deemed appropriate. If there is a deemed to be an overage or excess of General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserve Funds, then CFA, will consider reductions in apportionments assessed to the local churches, and/or make designations to be used in ministry areas to eliminate the necessity for future apportionments for the proposed upcoming budget years. The form and amount of a reduction or rebate to local churches will take into consideration the apportionment payment histories of faithful local churches. The results arising out of CFA's annual review of General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserves is provided below:

STEP BY STEP Calculation of Potential EXCESS /OVERAGE of GENERAL RESERVES

Under the approved policy, CFA reviews the Reserves policy each year to assess the current conditions and needs of the Conference for on-going designations. CFA is required to report annually to the Annual Conference and present changes that are deemed necessary. CFA does not propose any changes to the calculation of the amount of "Emergency Fund" Reserves. The "Emergency Fund" reserve can only be used by the Conference upon CFA approval.

21. Hancock Whitney National Bank and J. P. Morgan Chase Bank are designated as the principal depositories for general operating funds of the Louisiana Conference. All excess cash flow, contingency and surplus funds shall be invested with the United Methodist Foundation. Authority to open accounts is given to the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries and the Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Louisiana Conference. Authorized signatures on the accounts and deposit boxes are to be the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries, representative(s) of the CFA designated by CFA, designated conference office director(s) and employees as named by CFA, and the Senior Pastor of First UMC, Baton Rouge.

The Council in concert with the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (CBOPHB) has authorized a Conference Investment Advisory Committee (CIAC) with the following members: CFA Chair, CBOHPB Chair, and two at-large CFA members. The Treasurer, a Cabinet liaison, and the CEO of the Foundation serve as ex- officio members of the Conference Investment Advisory Committee. The CIAC convenes quarterly to review the invested funds and make recommendations regarding the allocation, performance and placement of investments of the Conference, and reports thereon to CFA and CBOPHB.

The CIAC shall consult with the Investment Committee of the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana (the Foundation) to assist in the overall investment management of Conference funds. During 2024, the Conference Investment Advisory Committee requested the United Methodist Foundation of La. (UMFLa) to “carve out” the CFA and CBOPHB investments into two separate pools with Merrill Lynch. Previously, the CFA and CBOPHB multiple investment custodial account funds had been combined with funds of all the other church investors at the UMFLa. Together, CFA and CBOPHB comprise the single largest combined investment holder at the UMFLa (about 40%). Therefore, these investment assets necessitate more care and attention, and we need to be proactive with our investing strategies.

The new structure of pooled investments will not affect the relationship with the Foundation as they will continue to be the investment arm and a strong advisor/participant in the meetings with Merrill Lynch. CFA encourages local churches and other connexional agencies to continue using the Foundation for investment purposes.

CFA and CBOPHB policies have historically allowed various designated principal funds to keep separate UMLa accounts, and record and keep their respective earnings (by keeping separate investment accounts and recording the earnings to the designated fund). Beginning in 2024, all custodial account funds except the Districts', and unless otherwise donor restricted, will be combined into two pools, one for each CFA and CBOPHB funds. As more fully discussed in CFA Report III, Item 2, the Annual Conference has approved a policy to utilize a portion of the investment balances (primarily earnings) to supplement the local church apportionments for mission, ministry, clergy benefits, and the administration of all these thereon.

In general, the plan allows the CFA and CBOPHB investment pools to provide an annual 2% distribution for funding the Conference's mission and ministry areas. See CFA Report III, Sections 1 and 2 for the complete 2026 Apportionment Expenditure Budget presentation as approved.

Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction -
Finance and Administrative Services,
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction - Finance and Administrative Services (the "Finance and Administrative Services"), a nonprofit organization, which comprise the statements of assets, liabilities and net assets - modified cash basis as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of revenues, expenses, and other changes in net assets - modified cash basis and functional expenses - modified cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction - Finance and Administrative Services as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets - modified cash basis for the years then ended in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting as described in Note 1.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Finance and Administrative Services and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis of Accounting

We draw your attention to Note 1 to the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements and supplementary information are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 1, and for determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the presentation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Finance and Administrative Services' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Finance and Administrative Services' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Finance and Administrative Services' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information as listed in the table of contents is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from, and relates directly to, the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

LOUISIANA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH,
SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION
FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS – MODIFIED CASH BASIS

ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF ACTIVITIES:

The accompanying financial statements of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction - Finance and Administrative Services (the "Finance and Administrative Services") include the assets, liabilities, net assets, and the financial activities of all administrative and program offices and departments maintained and directed by the Council on Finance and Administrative Services of the Board of Trustees of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction, a Louisiana corporation (the "Conference"). The Conference is one of fifty conferences of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church in the United States. Effective January 1, 2020, the accounts of six state-wide districts merged with the Finance and Administrative Services. Subsequent to the merger, all operations of the districts are conducted and recorded by the Finance and Administrative Services.

The purpose of the Finance and Administrative Services is to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Conference. The Conference and therefore, the Council cannot financially obligate any organizational unit of the United Methodist Church except the Conference itself. Operating support is derived primarily from apportionments to approximately 250 churches in 2024 and 2023 located in Louisiana, contributions, interest on cash balances, and investment earnings.

The activities of churches, the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana, the Board of Pensions, charitable institutions, and other distinct operating entities which operate within the Conference ("non-combined affiliated entities") have not been included in the accompanying financial statements.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Basis of Accounting:

The accompanying financial statements of the Finance and Administrative Services have been prepared on a modified cash basis of accounting, which records revenue when received and expenses when paid, with the following exceptions:

- a) Investments are recorded at fair market value, with any unrealized gain or loss being reported in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Other Changes in Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis.
- b) Receivables and the corresponding revenues are recorded for church remittances received shortly after year-end.
- c) Payables and the corresponding expenses are recorded for obligations arising from the apportionment and benefit receipts received shortly after year-end.

The modified cash basis of accounting differs from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America primarily because the Finance and Administrative Services has not recognized interest receivables and payables for grants, salaries and wages payables, payroll taxes payables, fixed assets, promissory notes receivable, and other accrued expenses and their related effects on the change in net assets.

Basis of Presentation:

Net assets, revenues, and expenses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Finance and Administrative Services and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- a) Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - Net assets that are not subject to or are no longer subject to donor-imposed stipulations.
- b) Net Assets with Donor Restrictions - Net assets whose use is limited by donor-imposed time and/or purpose restrictions.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, as of the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period, and the disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Finance and Administrative Services considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less, including sweep accounts which are overnight repurchase agreements, to be cash equivalents.

Investments:

The Finance and Administrative Services records investments at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Finance and Administrative Services investments consist of pooled investment funds. The pooled investment funds report fair value at estimated net asset value (NAV). The fair value is estimated by adjusting the NAV provided for cash receipts, disbursements, security distributions and valuation changes in market value of holdings contained in the portfolio. Unrealized and realized gains and losses are included in the net appreciation/depreciation in the fair value of investments in the accompanying Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Other Changes in Net Assets - Modified Cash Basis. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments are recorded as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulations or law. Interest earned on donor-restricted investments is reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Sources of Revenue:

Apportionments and contributions are the major sources of funding for the Finance and Administrative Services. Apportionments are assessed each year to the churches in the Conference. The churches are required to remit their apportionments to the Finance and Administrative Services to support the programs of the United Methodist Church. The apportionments for General Conference are allocated to the categories as required by the General Council on Finance and Administration and, in turn, remitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration. The remaining Louisiana Conference apportionments assessed are approved for each budget line item as presented at the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administrative Report. Any apportionments collected after year end for the previous year's apportionment is recorded as apportionment receivable.

Donated Services of Volunteers:

A substantial number of volunteers have given extensive amounts of time and services to the Finance and Administrative Services. However, no amounts are reflected in the financial statements for such services as management believes that the requirements for recording in-kind services have not been satisfied.

Allocated Expenses:

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the Statements of Revenues, Expenses, and Other Changes in Net Assets - Modified Cash Basis. Certain expenses are attributable to both the program and general and administrative cost and are allocated based on the function performed.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (Continued)

Fundraising Expenses:

All expenses associated with fundraising activities are expensed as incurred, including those expenses related to fundraising appeals in a subsequent year. For the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, there were no fundraising expenses incurred.

Tax Matters:

The Finance and Administrative Services is exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and part of a group exemption of the United Methodist Church.

Accounting standards provide detailed guidance for financial statement recognition, measurement, and disclosure of uncertain tax positions recognized in an entity's financial statements. These standards require an entity to recognize the financial statement impact of a tax position when it is more likely than not that the position will not be sustained upon examination. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023 management of the Finance and Administrative Services believes that it has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Contributions and Revenue Recognition:

The Finance and Administrative Services recognizes contributions when cash, securities or other assets, or a notification of a beneficial interest is received. For contributions received with donor-imposed restrictions, the contribution is reported as a contribution with donor restrictions. When the restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions, and reported in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Other Changes in Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis as net assets released from donor restrictions. Contributions received with donor-imposed restrictions that are met in the same reporting period are reported as support without donor restrictions and increase net assets without donor restrictions. All contributions are considered available for the Finance and Administrative Services' general programs unless specifically restricted by the donor.

Investment income that is limited to specific uses by donor restrictions is reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met in the same reporting period as the income is recognized. Non-cash gifts received from sources such as estates and trusts are not recorded as assets until converted into cash.

3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

A fair value hierarchy which has three levels based on the reliability of the inputs is used to determine fair value. These levels include: Level 1, unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities; Level 2, directly or indirectly observable inputs other than quoted prices for the asset or liability, such as quoted market prices for similar assets or liabilities; and Level 3, unobservable inputs for use when little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions. The asset's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The Finance and Administrative Services' investments in pooled funds are based on their reported net asset values (NAV) per share. The Finance and Administrative Services uses the investee's NAV per share, or its equivalent, as a practical expedient for measuring the fair value of its pooled investments. As such, the investments are not categorized within the fair value hierarchy, but are still required to be measured at fair value.

4. INVESTMENTS CALCULATED AT NET ASSET VALUE:

The Finance and Administrative Services invests in pooled funds that calculate net asset value per share. These assets do not have a readily determinable fair value (i.e. shares of these investments are not actively traded in financial markets) and are in investment companies or similar entities that report their investment assets at fair value. The pooled investments invest in money market funds, fixed income investments, equity investments, mutual funds, and alternative investments.

The following table summarizes the Finance and Administrative Services investments that calculate net asset value per share as of December 31, 2024 and 2023.

deposits while still earning a higher rate than usually found with similar liquid funds. This fund is an alternative to CD's or when a ministry anticipates needing its money in the near future.

Impact Fund:

The Impact Fund consists of equity-only investments in companies with positive social impact business practices and "ESG investing" (Environment, Social, and Governance).

Conference Finance & Administrative Fund:

The Conference Finance & Administrative Fund consists of money market accounts, fixed income investments, equity investments, mutual funds, and alternative investments. The Fund's objective is to maintain an inflation-adjusted value of funds while achieving growth of income and observing limitations and socially responsible investment concerns of the United Methodist Church. In addition, the objective of the Fund is to provide funds for capital investments and expenditures that the Finance and Administrative Services might make from time to time.

MM Treasury Fund:

The MM Treasury Fund consists of short-term, low risk securities such as Treasury bills, commercial paper, and certificates of deposit. The Fund is used to deposit funds to earn interest while maintaining liquidity.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK:

The Finance and Administrative Services has cash balances invested with several banking institutions. Accounts at these institutions are insured by the U.S. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 per account. The balances at times may exceed federally insured limits. There were no cash balances in excess of insured amounts as of December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Excess cash in the operating account is swept overnight into a repurchase agreement. The repurchase agreement had a cost of $1,169,345 and $777,417 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Pledged securities valued at $1,490,981 and $792,965 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, secured the repurchase agreement.

The Finance and Administrative Services contributes to defined benefit and defined contribution plans in addition to a disability plan for clergy under appointment through the Conference office. The Finance and Administrative Services also contributes to a defined contribution plan for Conference lay staff with one or more years of service. All plans are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments. The contributions for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 were as follows:

Clergy contributions	$ 131,770	$ 114,850

Total contributions	$ 192,927	$ 183,422

7. HEALTH INSURANCE:

The Conference provides various health benefit plans for:

- a) Full-time Conference clergy who are under appointment at the Conference or various other Conference office affiliates and dependents thereof.
- b) Laity who are full-time with the Conference.

The health plans include medical, dental, vision, prescription, and Health Savings Account (HSA) benefits.

The monthly premium for 2024 and 2023, for full-time clergy is a "blended" rate of $1,580 and $1,490, respectively. The rate is considered blended because the premium is the same whether the clergy needs family or single coverage. Of this amount, $100 is paid into the employee's HSA, and the remainder is remitted to the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) Benefit's accounts to pay benefit claims.

At December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Conference pays for Conference lay staff health benefits in the amount of $970 and $925, respectively, per month for single coverage. If the lay staff employee desires family/dependent coverage, then the employee is responsible for that additional cost which is $1,070 and $975, respectively, per month. Additionally, the Conference pays $100 per month into lay employees' HSA.

The health insurance premiums, including HSA amounts paid on behalf of Conference staff to the CBOP for eligible participants totaled $166,690 and $156,621, respectively, for 2024 and 2023. District Superintendents' total health insurance premiums, including HSA amounts paid to the CBOP totaled $56,160 and $62,580, respectively, for 2024 and 2023.

11. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS:

The Finance and Administrative Service's primary sources of support are apportionments received from local churches, income from investments, and disaster-related contributions and grants. As of December 31, 2024, most funds were kept in the Conference Finance & Administrative Fund maintained and managed by the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana to maximize returns. As of December 31, 2023, most funds were kept in the long-term Balanced Fund, Income Fund, and Impact Fund maintained and managed by the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana to maximize returns. The Conference utilizes operating cash and reserves for any annual cash requirements, if any. Annually, any operating deficit or overage is reconciled and the Conference transfers to or from the operating account as needed.

The following table reflects the Finance and Administrative Service's financial assets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, reduced by amounts not available for general expenditure within one year. Financial assets are considered unavailable when illiquid or not convertible to cash within one year, or because the governing board has set aside the funds for a specific contingency reserve or a long-term investment as board designated endowments. These board designations could be drawn upon if the board approves that action.

12. DISAFFILIATIONS:

At the 2019 Special Called General Conference of the United Methodist Church, conditions were passed to allow churches to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church. These conditions are outlined in the new Book of Discipline paragraph 2553, and the conditions were set to expire on December 31, 2023. Annual conferences were given leeway to develop their own disaffiliation policies and procedures, provided that the disaffiliating church paid the current twelve months apportionments, plus the next two years of apportionments, and the disaffiliating church's share of the conference pension liability.

- 3. All remittances for the year 2025 must be received in the Office of the Conference - Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries on or before noon on Monday, January 12, 2026.
- 4. As indicated in Report I, Item 3 above, the Annual Conference grants CFA the authority to change the process of allocation of Conference apportionments and collections during the year upon a majority approval of sitting CFA members' approval at a duly called CFA meeting.
- 5. District Superintendents are appointed by the Bishop as officers of the entire Annual Conference; their salary, reimbursable expenses (see related District Superintendents notes in Report I), utilities allowance, parsonage or housing allowance, professional expenses, and the Conference health insurance premium shall be paid by the Conference. Additionally, the Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries is authorized to pay from the District Superintendents' Fund expenses of Cabinet Meetings and any moving expenses for District Superintendents. See note 14 on Report I regarding the housing allowance declaration.

The base salary of all the District Superintendents shall be equal throughout the Conference. We recommend the following income be paid to the District Superintendents from the District Superintendents' Fund and adoption of this report sets these amounts by Annual Conference: Base Compensation for 2025 is $107,658 reflecting a 2.5% increase. The recommended utilities/furnishings amount remains at $7,200. There shall be a total pooled amount of $90,000 to be paid from the District Superintendent's Fund drawn by voucher and used for continuing education expenses, accountable reimbursable expenses and automobile travel expenses (to be reimbursed at the IRS standard mileage reimbursement rate) that the District Superintendents incur in carrying out the responsibilities of the office. On the compensation forms of the individual district superintendents serving one district, these amounts shall be shown as one line of accountable reimbursement expenses of $30,000. If the Bishop assigns a district superintendent to serve more than one district, then the accountable reimbursements amount on the compensation form shall be adjusted for this additional assignment and the Treasurer is given the authority to make said allocation.

- 6. The Council wished to note that elections to contribute gifts to the Ministers' Emergency Fund (designated) are incorporated into the annual Clergy Compensation Form for which all serving clergy must complete, sign and submit to their respective District Office. It is a celebration of compassion and generosity that many active Clergy have pledged to contribute to this fund. Further several retired clergy still serving in a local church are also contributing to this important ministry. The total of such gifts for 2024 was $13,027. Further for the year 2024, four (4) grants of $1500 each were approved from the Ministers' Emergency Fund.

7. The Council reports that for 2024 no special grants were needed from the General Reserve Fund to provide for salaries and benefits that are budgeted and paid at 100%. The salaries and benefits expenses did not exceed 2024 budgeted apportionments. The amounts collected for apportionments budgeted to salaries and benefits as well as the use of designated reserves to replace or supplement apportionments collected covered the actual expenditures. The net difference between collected apportionments for all budgeted salaries and benefits versus the actual expenditures for such items was refunded to the General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserves for 2024 and is summarized by ministry area as follows:

Net to General Reserves	Net Used (Unused) for 2024
	Budgeted Salaries
Congregational Vitality	$ 9,223
Episcopacy/Clergy Excellence	36,839
Administrative Ministries	(16,538)
Districts	(82,843)
Net unused transfer to General Reserve Fund	$ (53,319)

8. The Mission and Mercy Team and the Office of Congregational Transformation and Development each began receiving an annual distribution from the Lafon Home Fund of ½ of 4% of the account balance as approved by the 2016 Annual Conference. The total distribution for 2024 of $42,038 made at year-end was $21,019 to each of these ministry areas.
9. The Centenary College and Dillard University endowments established at the United Methodist Foundation in 2018 for each respective institution resulted in annual distributions to each organization as follows:

	Paid in 2025	Paid in 2024
Centenary	$45,707	$44,904
Dillard	11,908	11,699

10. When Board of Trustees Conference property is sold, the proceeds of the sale are to be distributed as follows (1) costs of the sale (2) expenses that were incurred by the Conference or districts in maintaining the property between the time the Conference assumed responsibility until the sale (utilities, insurance, maintenance, lawn care, etc.); (3) legal fees incurred by the Trustee (4) if property from a church, any arrearages of the church in the following order – pension, health insurance and apportionments.
11. The Conference Disaster Response ministry area had limited activity in 2024 as it was a quiet hurricane and storm season for Louisiana. However, the Conference did receive two solidarity grants of $10,000 each from the Texas Conference and the Rio Texas Conference, respectively, as well as approximately $29,000 in donations through our local churches. During the active hurricane season across the southeastern and southwestern portions of the state, the Bishop requested that the Conference fund five solidarity grants of $10,000 each to the Texas, Western North Carolina, North Georgia, and Florida (2 grants) conferences for a total of $50,000. The Congregational Vitality team continues to plan and strategize ways to prepare our local churches to respond in meaningful ways in times of disaster.
12. Districts' Finance Activities and Requirements - As shown in 2020/2024 Book of Discipline (BOD), (page 446) ¶614 Budgets –4. Other Apportioned Causes the CFA shall include in its budget recommendations specific amounts recommended for all other funds properly apportioned to the annual conference for the support of duly authorized general or other connectional funds. The budget recommendations shall likewise include any other amounts to be apportioned to the districts, charges, or churches by the annual conference for conference or district causes of any kind.
- A. The Conference and Districts' apportionment budgets to the local churches is combined as one apportionment amount with each Districts' programming expenditures presented as a department of the overall Conference apportionment budget. Billing, receiving, and processing of all apportionments occurs at the Conference Finance Office.
- B. The District Finance Committees and District Superintendents will continue to be instrumental in the creation and development of their respective District's tailored programming budgets to achieve their individual District goals and objectives.

- C. All Districts' reserve funds are accounted for separately as specific funds and restricted for the various and varied designations, except where in conflict with the guidelines for those funds in the BOD. All United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana (UMFLa) accounts transferred over to the accounting system of the Conference.

13. The Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries has posted quarterly interim financial reports for the activities and reserves on hand on the Conference's website. These reports include the Statement of Assets – Modified Cash Basis, and the Statement of Activities – Modified Cash Basis for each quarter ended March 31, 2024, June 30, 2024, September 30, 2024, and year ended December 31, 2024. Please note this information is subject to the required annual audit as shown in the auditor's reports contained in CFA's Reports. The internal quarterly reports can be found at this link:

END OF CFA REPORT II

REPORT III – Apportionment Budgets for Revenues and Expenditures - Financial Reports

1. PROPOSED (and APPROVED) 2026 Apportionment Expenditure Budget:

For the 2026 budget year, CFA, in collaboration with the Treasurer and Conference leadership, have continued prior years' work to develop a multi-dimensional revenues and expenditures model for funding the mission and ministry of the Conference.

The following 2026 proposed budget is presented for the Annual Conference's consideration and approval.

DETAILED 2026 PROPOSED (And APPROVED) APPORTIONMENT EXPENDITURE BUDGET

While the individual line items on the expenditures apportionment budget may have changed from 2025 to 2026, CFA was committed to retaining the overall apportionment expenditure budget at zero or a modest increase. If the former designation of interest income to fund Conference clergy housing expenses of $143,000 is excluded from apportionment expenditures, then the increase is very modest at 1.63% from 2025 to 2026.

The compelling apportionment expenditure budget funding issue is the long-term loss of apportionment revenue. The current funding model is projected to use almost all the Reserves - Disaffiliated Churches' Apportionment Collections by the end of 2026 with a remaining shortfall of approximately $250,000, assuming a collection rate of 95% for apportionments. The final shortfall amount in 2026 will depend on collections for apportionments in both 2025 and 2026 and the usage of reserves to cover the shortfalls. Beginning in 2027, alternate revenue sources will be required unless apportionments assessed to local churches are raised, and/or mission, ministry, and administration costs are significantly reduced. See Section 2 of this report.

Supporting NOTES TO 2026 Combined Conference and Districts Apportionment BUDGET PROPOSAL (AS APPORVED)

(Note: corresponding letter referenced on presentation):

- a. In keeping with the ongoing effort to reduce overall apportionments to local churches, CFA has considered the various reserves on hand and available to fund the mission and ministry work of the Conference. CFA felt strongly that apportionments to churches should not increase and therefore proposes that the apportionments assessed for 2026 be the same as the 2025 amounts less the proposed 20% reduction for 2025 and beyond. It is important to note that the “apportionment revenue budget amounts (as assessed to local churches)” is not the same as each ministry area’s “apportionment operating (or expenditure) budget”.
- b. The apportionment budget amounts listed for the General Conference are based on the newly proposed amounts approved at the 2024 General Conference and issued by GCFA in January 2025. GCFA requested a 4.6% overall increase from the amount approved for the 2025 GCFA budget. Additionally, individual GCFA budget lines were revised from prior years’ based upon the Connectional Table meeting in January 2025.
- c. The South-Central Jurisdictional Conference - the proposed amount of $51,723 for 2026 is the same as the 2025, and for the 2024-2028 quadrennial.
- d. The Conference Office has continued to adapt and evolve considering the significant changes over the last few years. Within the Conference Office, clergy and laity have been reassigned (or duties and responsibilities reallocated) from one ministry area to another. The 2026 budget reflects an overall modest cost of living increase of 2% including changes in benefits costs due to rising prices, primarily the health insurance premiums.

The Conference leadership has decided to pause any new permanent positions or replacement hires. Further, the Conference strategic planning group is in the beginning stages of implementing a longer-term plan for the mission and ministry, including staffing needs.

Full Time Equivalents (FTEs) for both Conference and District permanent staff:

	2024	2025	2026 Approved
Clergy	6.5	6.0	6.0
Laity	10.0	11.5	12.0
	16.5	17.5	18.0

Conference clergy and staff may receive annual increases in salary or housing allowances at the discretion of the Bishop with supervisory input but must not create a deficit in the total budget amounts across the Conference for salaries and benefits, et al. budget line items.

As part of the strategic planning, several ministry areas have engaged part time workers to assist with strategic implementation work. These expenditures are not considered long term or permanent employment roles and are funded out of existing designated reserves or reserves in various ministry areas.

- e. In alignment with a strategic shift in utilizing both reserves on hand and alternate funding sources, the Conference has created three temporary positions for starting July 1, 2023. Two of the positions are for the Congregational Vitality Strategist: UMC Congregational Vitality Strategist and Black Church Vitality Strategist. Both positions are funded by Congregational Transformation and Development reserves. The Conference leadership has also hired a temporary part time Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion strategist to assist with the Antiracism work currently underway. This position is being funded out of the special designations of prior year’s Excess Reserves as approved by CFA and the Annual Conference. The Executive Director of Mission and Ministry, in consultation with the Bishop, will periodically assess the effectiveness and necessity for each of these three positions.

- f. The positions for Congregational Vitality – Laity Salary, Benefits and Reimbursements (see note d. above) that provides support for the Office of Congregational Transformation and Development., Communications, the Board of Trustees, and the Disaster Response ministries have been consolidated under the Finance and Administrative Services Office. These staff are cross-functional in these ministry areas, including the Office of Finance and Administrative Services.
- g. The Office of Congregational Transformation and Development (CTD) has been a priority for the Conference for many years in terms of apportioning a significant amount of the overall budget. Accordingly, this ministry area has built up reserves of unused apportionments as well as received other designated reserves for ministry work which aligns with the Office of CTD's mission. The total of such reserves is $3,734,631 as of December 31, 2024. While still a priority for the ministry and mission of the Conference, CFA believes that with reserves of this magnitude, there is no need for apportioning churches additional amounts. These reserves can be used for multiple years in the future with no interruption in current or future CTD work. Given the amount of overall reserves on hand on December 31, 2024, this ministry area submitted a 2026 placeholder budget amount of $1,000.

Additionally, the Office of CTD is currently holding two separate closed Conference properties, the Southern University Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry building in Baton Rouge, and the former Parker Memorial UMC in New Orleans, and being researched and investigated into future alternate missional uses. The cumulative carrying costs for minimal maintenance and insurance for these properties are $176,924 as of December 31, 2024 (see the Treasurer's Financial Report in the Journal Report).

- h. Volunteers in Mission (VIM) funds budget items are currently coordinated under the Conference Disaster Response Coordinator. CFA determined that the Disaster Response ministry areas have reserves of over $800,000 as of December 31, 2024 for all types of VIM and disaster response efforts. CFA believes that with reserves of this magnitude, there is no need for apportioning churches additional amounts (see the Treasurer's Financial Report in the Journal Report).
- i. CFA believes that Discipleship Team Ministries' budget amount of $2,350 is adequate for the ministry plans based upon prior years' expenditures and sees no need for apportioning churches additional amounts at this time. CFA believes that this ministry area can absorb the reduction in apportionments due to expenditure levels in the last few years.
- j. CFA believes that the Mission and Mercy Team budget amount of $5,000 is adequate for the ministry plans based upon prior years' expenditures and sees no need for apportioning churches additional amounts at this time.
- k. The Youth Ministry area is one of the few ministry areas that is allowed to carryforward unused reserves from year to year due to their self-fundraising programs. The future Youth ministry efforts are a strategic objective for the Strategic Implementation Team's (SIT) work. As of December 31, 2024, this area had available reserves of $133,170.
- l. CFA believes that the three (3) District Camps' and related Camping Ministries need long-term strategies for fruitfulness, accountability and sustainability within the United Methodist connection. The future Camping Ministries' efforts are a strategic objective for the Strategic Implementation Team's (SIT) work. CFA recommends this area receive the same 2026 apportionment budget amount as in 2025 for a proposed amount of $100,000.
- m. The Board of Laity requested a 2026 apportionment budget of $6,000 which is the same as the prior year.

- n. The Board of Higher Education & Campus (BHECM) Ministry's leadership continues to work with the Campus Ministries and the Cabinet on strategies for fruitfulness, accountability and sustainability. The Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry solely determines the grant amounts to each individual Wesley Foundation. The Board used $122,088 of reserves in 2024 leaving a total reserves balance of $9,099. Additionally, the McNeese University Wesley Campus Ministry property was sold in 2023, netting proceeds of approximately $220,000 received by the Conference Finance Office in early 2024.

With the utilization of regular reserves over the last two to three years, the BHECM has begun working to implement strategic objectives for each Campus Ministry funded by apportionments. They plan to reduce the grant amounts to align with performance indicators and have requested a reduced 2026 proposed apportionment budget of $245,000.

- o. For Safe Sanctuaries, the Council recommends the same apportionment budget as the 2025 amount of $10,000. The future Camping Ministries' efforts are a strategic objective for the Strategic Implementation Team's work. Plans are being made for programming for both clergy and laity.
- p. CFA recognizes that The Wesley Center is an important asset for the entire Conference. The future Wesley center ministry efforts are a strategic objective for the Strategic Implementation Team's work. CFA proposes the same apportionment budget amount of $90,000 for 2026 as was approved in 2025.
- q. CFA recognizes the importance of membership in The Louisiana Interchurch Conference (LIC) for ecumenical purposes. The Conference already provides in-kind office space, and bookkeeping and accounting services at a reduced rate, resulting in savings of a full-time staff position. CFA proposes the same apportionment budget amount of $14,450 for 2026 as was adopted in 2025.
- r. We are blessed to have two colleges with historic ties to The United Methodist Church within the bounds of The Louisiana Annual Conference. Since the merger of Conference A and Conference B in 1971, both institutions have received annual funding through apportionments, offerings, campaigns, and endowment distributions.

Permanent Endowments were established for both institutions in 2018, a $1,000,000 dollar endowment for Centenary College and a $250,000 endowment for Dillard University, to be managed by The United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana. Each institution receives an approximate 4% distribution from these endowments annually. For 2026, CFA recommends apportionment budget allocations of $120,000 each for both institutions, the same as for 2025.

- s. The positions included for the Episcopacy (Bishop' Office) and Clergy Excellence – Clergy Salaries and Benefits are for the salaries, housing allowance and benefits and expense reimbursements for the Executive Director of Mission and Ministry/Assistant to the Bishop, the Director of Communications Strategies, and the Director of Clergy Excellence. Clergy in this area may receive annual increases in salary or housing allowances at the discretion of the Bishop or other supervising clergy. In addition, clergy benefits include a projected 5% increase in the premium for the health insurance plan.
- t. Beginning in 2026, CFA does not propose using the interest earnings on the designated reserves from the various Sales of Parsonages (the principal) for Conference Clergy and Districts' Superintendents (Southeast, Southwest, and North) housing and parsonage expenses. These expenses will be funded through the apportionment expenditure budget, the proposed designation of investment balances (See CFA Report III, Item 2), or using other reserves designated for 2026 apportionment expenditures.
- u. The staff positions included for Episcopacy and Clergy Excellence – Laity Salary, Benefits and Reimbursements are for 1) Associate Director for Website/Communications position to support and enhance the Cabinet and Communications Ministry, and 2) Administrative support to the Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Clergy Excellence.

- v. The ministry area of Clergy Excellence has utilized a significant portion of their reserves during the 2024. The Director of Clergy Excellence has requested increased apportionment funding to maintain and increase recruitment and leadership development programming efforts. Therefore, CFA recommends this area's apportionment funding for 2026 be raised to $50,000.
- w. The Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) has two types of reserves. One part is the Pastoral Care reserve funds, and the other is the unused Ministers' Education Fund (MEF) that arises from the 25% of the General Church apportionment for MEF expenditures. CBOM's cumulative unused reserves for both types total $408,454 as of December 31, 2024. The BOM also maintains a Clergy Exiting reserve fund of $59,478. (See the Treasurer's Financial Report in the Journal Report). CFA deemed the proposed 2026 apportionment amount of $10,000 is sufficient given the reserves on hand. In addition, in 2026 the BOM-MEF will receive approximately $45,000 from the 25% of the collections for General Church Ministerial Education Fund apportionment budget of $185,137 (listed under the General Church apportionments), but subject to on-ratio collections.
- x. The request for 2026 apportionments for the Clergy Leave and Transition under other Pastoral Care reflects the ministry area's reserve balance of such funds in the amount of $313,776 as of December 31, 2024 (see the Treasurer's Financial Report in the Journal Report). Given the amount of overall reserves on hand on December 31, 2024, this ministry area once again submitted a 2026 placeholder budget request amount of $1,000.
- y. The Communications Ministry continues to work diligently to transition to the rapidly changing digital and social media platforms. CFA recommends the reduced apportioned amount of $25,000 for 2026 for this ministry area due to reserves on hand of $83,999.
- z. The Annual Conference/Worship Event - the 2026 apportionment budget request has stayed the same as the 2025 amount of $125,000 due to the decline of registration fees from attendees, and the increase costs for the event technology. The Conference leadership will continually search for ways to conduct the event in smaller less expensive venues with the reduced number of delegates.
- aa. The General/Jurisdictional Delegation apportionment budget accumulates funds from year to year in preparation for the time when General and Jurisdictional Conferences occur. This reserve funding in the amount of $137,630 as of December 31, 2024, is designated for those delegates and alternate members elected by the Conference to have expenses reimbursed and represents a portion of delegate costs to attend General Conference, the remainder being paid by General Conference funds. Based upon the funds expended in the past year, CFA recommends a placeholder budget of $1,000. The General and Jurisdictional Delegation will utilize the reserves on hand and still have funds remaining beyond the current year.
- bb. Episcopal Area Administration reflects an increase in the 2026 budget from 2025 due to a realignment by the General Conference of the Episcopal Fund pass-through amounts at the 2024 General Conference. Thus, the Conference budget presentation for 2026 is $60,000. The Conference is expected to bear more of the cost of the Episcopal Office and not be dependent upon General Conference funding.
- cc. For the ministry area of the Episcopacy Committee, CFA recommends a placeholder budget of $1,000 in apportionment for this ministry area due to reserves on hand of $1,448.
- dd. The District Superintendents Fund - Salaries, Benefits and expense reimbursements, including cabinet expenses. The Bishop has appointed three (3) District Superintendents (DSs), and therefore CFA recommends a small budget decrease for a total of $608,400 plus parsonage expenses of $70,000 for the 3 DSs.
- ee. The Districts' parsonages expenses for each of the three DSs are reflected in the DS salaries and benefits budget line-item expenses at the Conference level.

- ff. The Districts' Laity Administrative Assistants–Salary, Benefits and Reimbursements, which includes the two administrative assistants each assigned to multiple Districts, are reflected as laity salaries and benefits expenses in the overall Conference level. Additionally, the 2026 budget includes a projected increase of 5% in the premium for the participants' health insurance plan (See note d).
- gg. The Districts' Office expenses include the operating expense of three District offices which are reflected under the overall Conference budget. The Districts' office expenses include telephone, internet, and office supplies for the three District offices.
- hh. The Annual Conference – At Large Delegates expenses for the 2026 apportionment budgets are reflected under the overall Conference budget. These include funds or a stipend to assist laity - at large delegates with some travel expenses. The 2026 budget request is the same budget amount as 2025, or $30,000 to attend the Annual Conference event.
- ii. The Districts have various, and in some cases, plentiful reserves for funding individualized and unique programming expenses for their respective Districts. These include expenses for District clergy and laity events, special endeavors, and other District-specific activities. Each Districts' Finance Committee can determine their Districts' overall expenditures using their Districts' unrestricted reserves. CFA did not see the necessity of apportioning significant additional funds when each district had ample reserves to fund any District-specific programming needs. Thus, the 2026 apportionment budget requests reflect a reduced total amount of $9,000 for all three Districts (see the Treasurer's Financial Report in the Journal Report).
- jj. The Laity Administrative Ministries–Salary, Benefits and Reimbursements includes the Treasurer/Director of Finance and Administrative Ministries/Conference Benefits Officer. The other employees for Administrative Ministries–Laity Salary, Benefits and Reimbursements are Comptroller/Assistant Treasurer/Assistant Benefits Officer, and Receptionist/Finance & Benefits Assistant.
- kk. The operating expense items under the Administrative Ministries area have been reduced and stabilized over the last few years. The budget request reflects a decrease in these line items due to the overall costs of operating the administrative office operations.
- ll. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (CBOPHB) assessed the ongoing need for apportionment funds. It was determined there is sufficient investment income from CBOPHB's unrestricted reserves to cover the various miscellaneous clergy benefits, excluding health insurance, and pension and welfare plans. CBOPHB believes that the reserves on hand are more than sufficient to underwrite the pension, health, and welfare benefits for active and retired clergy.
- mm. The Board of Trustees operations has incurred significant expenses in connection with protecting and maintaining the premises of closed churches, parsonages, and cemeteries for which they are actively trying to sell or donate unused properties. Most expenses, including property insurance, are property specific and could be recouped if the property is subsequently sold. In most cases, there is no opportunity to sell these closed church properties, so some property expenses will never be recovered. Projections indicate that more closed church properties will be transferred to the Board over the next few years and the expenses could be significant over time. Due to the reserves on hand for general operations of Trustees matters, the Board has requested a nominal apportionment budget for each operations and closed church property in the amount of $1,000.
- nn. The Board of Trustees maintains various commercial liability coverages including closed church property and umbrella liability protection. The property insurance on either Conference operational property such as the Episcopal residence, the Conference Office (527 North), and the District parsonages (3) are funded by the apportionments for those respective budget line items. The budget request for 2026 is $40,000 which represents an increase for the various liability coverages from 2025's budget amount.
- oo. The expenses for Episcopal Residence have increased due to the overall increases in costs of insurance and upkeep. The current reserve for major repairs and maintenance of $34,949 will have to be supplemented by the Conference Board of Trustees' other reserves source in the event of a major repair. The recommended budget for 2026 recurring and non-recurring expenses is $30,000.

- pp. The Building (527 North) Maintenance expenses are separated into two expense types: Recurring and nonrecurring costs. The recurring expenses, which include all utilities, supplies, janitorial services, insurance and routine maintenance costs, have increased due to the overall increases in these costs. The budget request for recurring expenses for 2026 is $55,000. Additionally, there are several significant deferred maintenance issues on the building which may completely deplete the designated reserves on hand for non-recurring expenses. But for 2026, CFA is requesting the same amount of $30,000 and will confer with the Conference Board of Trustees if there are not enough funds to make the necessary repairs on the building and grounds.
- qq. The Chancellor's unused apportionment budget carries forward each year. The legal needs of the Conference have changed significantly in recent years and require multiple attorneys to address the various legal situations facing the Conference. However due to the reserves on hand of $323,364 as of December 31, 2024, CFA recommends a reduced budget of $50,000 for 2026.
- rr. Since the Conference's apportionment budget is collected and utilized within the same fiscal year, the Council has given authority to each ministry area to spend the amount of their current budget multiplied by the prior year's actual collection rate on the current year expenditures. For 2024, the prior year (2024)'s apportionment collection rate was approximately 90.9%.

2. APPROVED Apportionment Expenditure Budget Funding Plan for 2026

Below is a recap of the APPROVED 2026 Apportionment Expenditure Budget by major ministry area (detailed line-item amounts are shown on the presentation in Item 1 above:

Summary by Ministry Area - Detailed Apportionment Expenditures Budget presented on next pages	2025 Approved Expenditure Budget	2026 Expenditure Budget	(Increase) or Decrease from 2025 to 2026
General Church & SC Jurisdiction	$ 1,172,888	$ 1,224,418	$ (51,530)
Congregational Vitality	789,950	745,800	44,150
Episcopacy and Clergy Excellence	304,000	293,000	31,000
District Superintendents and Operations	85,000	64,000	21,000
Administrative Ministries	115,371	122,500	(7,129)
Other Apportioned Funds	232,000	196,000	36,000
All Salaries, Benefits et al	1,985,800	2,108,300	(122,500)
Less: interest income designated to housing	(143,000)	-	(143,000)
Total	$ 4,542,009	$ 4,754,018	$ (212,009)

As previously stated, the current funding model is projected to utilize all from the Reserves - Disaffiliated Churches' Apportionment Collections by the end of 2026 with a remaining shortfall of approximately $250,000, assuming a collection rate of 95% for apportionments. The final shortfall amount in 2026 will depend on collections for apportionments in both 2025 and 2026.

Beginning in 2027, alternate revenue sources will be required unless apportionments assessed to local churches are raised, and/or, mission, ministry, and administration costs are significantly reduced there will be a small shortfall in 2026. Thus, in connection with funding the projected shortfall in 2026 as well planning for 2027 and beyond, CFA is proposing the following:

APPROVED 2026 Funding Plan:

Part 1 - Use the calculated excess/overage of General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserves (see CFA Report I, Item 21. C. for calculated amount of $1,460,039) to reduce current year 2025 (and 2026 forward) apportionments by (up to) a maximum of 20% This step would utilize approximately $550,000 for 2025 and 2026 each, of the calculated excess/overage of General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserves (the reductions of apportionments calculation on a local church, will be based on each church's 2024 payout rate as seen in the example below)

(2025 and 2026 apportionment reduction example: if a church paid 100% of 2024 Apportionments due in 2024, then they would receive the full 20% reduction; thus, if the church paid 75% of the 2024 Apportionments, then they would receive 75% of the 20%, or a calculated “15%” reduction in 2025 and forward in Apportionments due) concurrently with

Part 2 - Adopt a new policy of designating 2% of the CFA and CBOPHB investment balances on January 1 of each year and forward for the purpose of funding any shortfall between apportionment collections and actual apportionment expenditure budget for 2026 and forward.

Both parts of this plan are required to support the 2026 apportionment expenditure budget, and beyond. Otherwise, the excess/overage of General Unrestricted/Undesignated Reserves will be needed to fund the 2026 apportionment expenditure budget as it would be inappropriate and poor governance to approve any expenditure plan with no valid advance funding plan. That is a risk that is not feasible or realistic.

The funds designated under Part 2 above will be comprised of 2% of the pooled investment balances amount for each of the beginning investment balances at the UMFLA as follows:

Example (Future years Investment Balance amounts are projected)

CFA Investment pool (used simple assumption reduction in principal of 2% per year)

Investment balance (except Districts’ funds – Districts will continue to retain their own UMFLa investment accounts and retain all their investment earnings)

	All except Districts
For year	Investment balance	Designation 2% (less prior designations*)
1/1/2025 actual	$25,374,156 X 2%	= $507,483 less designations $265,178
1/1/2026 proj.	$24,866,672 X 2%	= $497,333 (no more other designations)

And so on

*Selected reserve funds have significant reserves funds for which they have historically been allowed to “keep” their own investment earnings. Under this proposal, this will be phased out starting in 2026.

CBOPHB Investment Pool (used simple assumption of no reduction in principal per year)

Investment balances (all)

For year	Investment balance	Designation 2% (less prior designations)
1/1/2025 actual	$73,950,196 X 2%	= $1,479,004 less prior designations committed $125,000
1/1/2026 proj.	$73,950,196 X 2%	= $1,479,004 less prior designations committed $135,000

And so on

These designations are for expenses comprised of the normal costs of the CBOPHB for professional, audit and actuarial fees, medical grants, retiree moving expenses, plan administration fees, and other sundry benefits that CBOPHB offers to our clergy. They were previously covered by apportionments funding from the Conference which is no longer part of the apportionment expenditure plan.

The designation of 2% of the CFA/CBOPHB investment pools balances as of 1/1/2025 and each year thereafter will result in accumulating reserve designated funds to be used toward funding the small shortfall in 2026 and projected shortfalls for 2027 and forward.

Basis for Proposed Strategic Funding Plan:

- Since the reserves resulting from disaffiliation payouts will be exhausted by the end of 2026, there is a need to find alternate sources to fund the 2026 (and beyond) projected shortfall to maintain the Conference’s ministry and operations.
- This is a purposeful plan for replacing future apportionment expenditure funding that has not been needed up to this point. Until this point, we have not had to utilize the investment income, so each reserve’s investments returns have been reinvested in the reserve ministry area/designation.

- The plan demonstrates long term planning and good stewardship in the execution of the leadership's fiduciary responsibility to plan.
- Previously, the interest, dividend and realized gains/losses have been designated to the General Unrestricted Undesignated Reserves. Those same reserves allowed for a two-year reduction in appointments of 20% plus a 5% bonus (2024 and 2025) and another 20% for 2025 and forward.
- The 2% distribution of investment balances is a conservative funding plan under long term endowment guidelines that normally allow for up to 4% distribution annually without danger of drawing down on the principal amount of the investment balances.

Below is an analysis of the expected and projected funding without the proposed plan in place:

Current Model WITHOUT PROPOSED PLAN

Net shortage	$ (0)	$ (250,314)	$ (1,925,906)	$ (1,973,922)

Without an alternative source of funding, the 2026 shortfall is projected to be $250,314, and potentially much larger for subsequent years. The need for short- and longer-term funding sources is vitally important for continuity and stability for ongoing ministry efforts and operations.

This "plan" does not commit the Conference to more than the upcoming budget year of 2026. In the event the financial situation changes, then CFA will consider adjustments to the plan, and present other alternatives to the Annual Conference for approval in subsequent years.

The analysis below reflects the inflows and outflows with a designated source of alternative funding to cover the projected shortfalls.

With the proposed plan in place, the funding reserves are adequate for the next year as well as planning for years beyond 2026. CFA will revisit the plan annually to ensure that the plan still is relevant and achieving the desired results for the Conference's local churches and members. Below is the overview of the proposed plan in place:

END OF CFA REPORT III

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Commission on Equitable Compensation provides resources to the appointive cabinet to augment the compensation of a pastor deemed a good match for a continued missional appointment, yet not having the complete resources to fully support the pastor. The Book of Discipline states that the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges (see ¶ 624, The Book of Discipline, 2016). In addition, the Annual Conference provides a program of support for the ministers (not the individual churches) to assure them a livable level of financial support when serving a full-time appointment. No equitable compensation grants for salaries have been requested as of this date. One equitable compensation grant was issued in 2024 in accordance with the supplemental moving reimbursement polity listed below. This grant totaled $926.76.

Below you will find rates for Equitable Compensation Grants for 2025 as well as our conference policy on grants supplementing moving expenses.

Equitable Compensation Grants:

The minister's conference relationship sets the Equitable Compensation she/he is eligible to receive, and any changes in Conference relationship during the year will change eligibility. The formula rate for full time is 60% of the lower of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) or Conference Average Compensation (CAC) each year. Rates for 2024 are as follows:

2025 Full-Time Amount will be $48,002 (60% of the DAC of $80,003)
 Conference Relationship Full Time Compensation Applied % EC Base
 Elder $48,002 X 104% = $49,922
 Associate Member $48,002 X 103% = $49,442
 Provisional Elder $48,002 X 102% = $48,962
 Full-time Local Pastor $48,002 X 100% $48,002

Moving Expense Policy of the Louisiana Annual Conference (Effective January 1, 2018)

The appointment of clergy by the presiding Bishop within the bounds of the Louisiana Annual Conference is part of our connectional life. The costs of moving full-time clergy are a burden shared by the clergy and churches. This policy adopted by the Annual Conference of 2017 states the responsibility of various parties in a move. It is a policy of reimbursement of expenses incurred by the clergy person in making the move to a new appointment

Eligibility for Reimbursement of Moving Expenses:

- Full Elder serving full time who is moving to another full-time appointment
- Provisional elder serving full-time who is moving to another full-time appointment
- Associate Member serving full-time who is moving to another full-time appointment
- Full Time Local Pastor serving full-time who is moving to another full-time appointment
- An individual completing his/her seminary education who will be commissioned as a Provisional Elder and appointed to serve in a full-time appointment

Maximum Amount of Moving Expense Reimbursement

The maximum amount of reimbursable moving expense is $6,000.

Eligible Reimbursable Moving Expenses:

- Supplies for packing items (boxes, tape, packing material)
- Rental of truck, dolly, blankets OR the costs of a moving company
- Fees paid to non-related packers or non-related individuals to load and unload a rented truck
- One month's rental of a pod or storage unit not to exceed 10 ft. x 20 ft.

- Gas purchased for a rental moving truck, if utilized
- One night stay on the road and one meal on the road for family members moving with the clergy person from the last appointment location to the new location
- Mileage at the IRS moving rate (18 cents per mile for 2022) between the present appointment location and the new location for one vehicle.

Who Reimburses the Expense

The receiving church reimburses the clergy person for the allowed moving expenses in most instances. A church should budget $2,000 per year for moving until a sum of $6,000 has been accumulated in a designated fund to be used for this expense. If a church did not request a move and the present full-time clergy person has been there less than three years, then the reimbursement of the clergy person is divided as follows:

- (1) Present clergy person has been there one year
 - a. the church reimburses 1/3 of the expense up to $2,000
 - b. The Annual Conference through Equitable Compensation funds reimburses 2/3 of the expense up to $4,000
- (2) Present clergy person has been there two years
 - a. The church reimburses 2/3 of the expense up to $4,000
 - b. The Annual Conference through Equitable Compensation funds reimburses 1/3 of the expense up to $2,000

If a church has not had a full-time clergy person and is receiving one for the first time, the church is responsible for the entire reimbursement amount.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HEALTH BENEFITS

REPORT I—Administrative benefits policies and matters

1. CONFERENCE APPORTIONMENT

We recommend that no monies be apportioned to the charges of the Louisiana Conference in 2026 as in 2025. The reason is due to the investment income earned on unrestricted/undesignated benefits reserves is projected to be adequate to fund the various other benefits provided by the CBOPHB. Further, CBOPHB has determined that the current unrestricted/undesignated benefits reserves were $2,550,806 as of 12/31/2024.

This change in the source of funding is a significant shift in offering and paying for miscellaneous benefits (excluding pensions or health benefits which will continue to be billed directly to each local church). If these interest income earnings should decrease in subsequent years, then it may be necessary to utilize unrestricted/undesignated reserves, or request CFA to reinstate an apportionment funding amount for the other various clergy benefits sponsored by the CBOPHB.

We remind churches that payments made to the CBOPHB for pensions and health benefits shall be proportional to the amount paid on the clergy salary or salaries of a given charge. See Paragraph 622, The Book of Discipline.

2. PRE-1982 BENEFITS

We recommend:

- A. That the funded annuity rate for 2026 ("Past Service Rate") for years of service prior to January 1, 1982, be set as has been Conference policy at 1% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC) for 2026 ($886 per year). The annual CAC has historically been calculated by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) but will no longer be provided once the new COMPASS retirement plan is effective. Thus, for years after 2026, the CBOPHB recommends that the PSR rate will be increased annually by the percentage increase in the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC).
- B. That the benefits to surviving spouses of clergy be set at 75% of the annuity rate.

3. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 2; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Louisiana Conference United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, South Central Jurisdiction's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information as listed in the table of contents is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from, and relates directly to, the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HEALTH BENEFITS
SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - MODIFIED CASH BASIS

1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF ACTIVITIES:

The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (the “Board of Pensions”) is an agency of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church (Conference). The Conference represents one of the basic units of the United Methodist Church and the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits is a mandatory sub-entity of the basic unit.

The function of the Board of Pensions is to administer the pension programs, health and dental benefit programs, disability and survivor benefit programs, and related welfare programs offered to clergy and their families and lay employees of the United Methodist Churches in Louisiana. Support is derived primarily from direct billings to the local churches for premiums, annual apportionments, direct contributions, interest on cash balances, and investment earnings. All activities of the Board of Pensions are under the direction of the Conference.

The Board of Pensions is within the scope of church benefit plans, and therefore is not subject to regulations by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) or the Department of Labor.

The financial statements of the Board of Pensions include only the activities of the pension programs and the health benefits programs. It does not include any activity of the Finance and Administrative Services or any other distinct operating entities which operate within the Conference ("non-combined affiliated entities").

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Basis of Accounting:

The accompanying financial statements of the Board of Pensions have been prepared on a modified cash basis of accounting, which records revenues when received and expenses when paid with the following exceptions:

- a) Investments are recorded at fair market value, with any unrealized gain or loss being reported in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits – Modified Cash Basis.
- b) Due from related party and the corresponding revenue are recorded for remittances from the Finance and Administrative Services shortly after year-end.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HEALTH BENEFITS
LOUISIANA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH,
SOUTH CENTRAL JURISDICTION
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - MODIFIED CASH BASIS

The modified cash basis of accounting differs from accounting principles generally accepted by the United States of America primarily because the Board of Pensions has not recognized contribution receivables, interest receivables, accounts payable, health claim payables, incurred but not reported claims payables, and postemployment benefit obligations for health claims. The Board of Pensions does not record salaries and wages payable, payroll taxes, and other expenses and their related effects on the change in net assets.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, as of the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period, and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Board of Pensions considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less, including sweep accounts, which are overnight repurchase agreements, to be cash equivalents.

Investments:

The Board of Pensions records investments at fair market value in the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits - Modified Cash Basis. Fair market value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Board of Pensions invests in pooled investment funds. The pooled investment funds report fair value as estimated net asset value (NAV). The fair value is estimated by adjusting the NAV provided for cash receipts, disbursements, security distributions and valuation changes in market value of holdings contained in the portfolio. Unrealized and realized gains and losses are included in the net appreciation/depreciation in the fair value of investments in the accompanying Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits - Modified Cash Basis.

Investments: (Continued)

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded when received.

Sources of Revenue:

Churches in the Conference are required to remit contributions to the Board of Pensions to support the pension and health programs of the Board of Pensions.

Tax Matters:

The Louisiana Conference is exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and part of a group exemption of the United Methodist Church. The financial information of the Board of Pensions is included in the financial information on the income tax return of the Louisiana Conference.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Board of Pensions' management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Board of Pensions and recognize a tax liability for any uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Board of Pensions is subject to routine audits by tax authorities; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Board of Pensions' tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities for tax years ended December 31, 2020 and after.

Donations:

Non-cash gifts received from sources such as estates and trusts are not recorded as assets until converted into cash.

3. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS:

The Board of Pensions has cash and cash equivalents balances as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 in the amount of $790,301 and $798,980, respectively. The cash is invested with a banking institution, in which excess cash is swept overnight into a repurchase agreement and reported as a cash equivalent in the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits – Modified Cash Basis. The repurchase agreement had a cost of $856,574 and $1,533,470 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Pledged securities valued at $873,705 and $1,564,138 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, secure the repurchase agreement.

5. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

A fair value hierarchy which has three levels based on the reliability of the inputs is used to determine fair value. These levels include: Level 1, unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities; Level 2, directly or indirectly observable inputs other than quoted prices for the asset or liability, such as quoted market prices for similar assets or liabilities; and Level 3, unobservable inputs for use when little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions. The asset's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The Board of Pensions' investments in pooled funds are based on their reported net asset values (NAV) per share. The Board of Pensions uses the investee's NAV per share, or its equivalent, as a practical expedient for measuring the fair value of its pooled investments. As such, the investments are not categorized within the fair value hierarchy, but are still required to be measured at fair value.

6. INVESTMENTS CALCULATED AT NET ASSET VALUE:

The Board of Pensions invests in certain funds that calculate net asset value per share. These assets do not have a readily determinable fair value (i.e. shares of these investments are not actively traded in financial markets) and are in investment companies or similar entities that report their investment assets at fair value. The Board of Pension's investments measured at net asset value consist of the pooled funds.

The following table summarizes the Board of Pension's investments that calculate net asset value per share as of December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Balanced Fund:

The Balanced Fund invests in equities, corporate bonds, global bonds and alternative investments. The fund sees long-term appreciation and current income. Equity and alternative securities provide a capital appreciation.

Income Fund:

The Income Fund operates like a money market fund and invests primarily in U.S. government bonds and corporate bonds. The fund's securities provide income and absolute return, and real assets provide downside protection. The Income Fund offers quick access to deposits while still earning a higher rate than usually found with similar liquid funds. This fund is an alternative to CD's or when a ministry anticipates needing its money in the near future.

Impact Fund:

The Impact Fund consists of equity only investments in companies with positive social impact business practices and "ESG investing" (Environment, Social and Governance).

CBOP Fund:

The CBOP Fund consists of money market accounts, fixed income investments, equity investments, mutual funds, and alternative investments. The fund's objective is to maintain an inflation-adjusted value of funds while achieving growth of income and observing limitations and socially responsible investment concerns of the United Methodist Church. In addition, the objective of the Fund is to provide funds for capital investments and expenditures that the Board of Pensions might make from time to time.

6. INVESTMENTS CALCULATED AT NET ASSET VALUE: (Continued)

Money Market Treasury Fund:

The Money Market Treasury Fund consists of short-term, low risk securities such as Treasury bills, commercial paper, and certificates of deposit. The Fund is used to earn interest while maintaining liquidity.

Multiple Asset Fund:

The Multiple Asset Fund invests in a pre-specified allocation of units of the following Wespath funds: Fixed Income Fund (FIF), Inflation Protection Fund (IPF), International Equity Fund (IEF), and U.S. Equity Fund (USEF). The objective of the Fund is to maximize long-term investment returns, including current income and capital appreciation, while reducing short-term risk by investing in a broad mix of investments. The Fund generally does not invest in companies that derive more than 10% of their revenue from gambling or from the manufacture, sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages, tobacco-related products, adult entertainment, weapons, or the management or operation of prison facilities.

Short-Term Investment Fund:

The Short-Term Investment Fund invests exclusively in short term fixed income instruments including US government bonds, agency bonds, corporate bonds, securitized products, commercial paper, certificates of deposit and other similar types of investments. The objective of the Fund is to preserve capital while earning current income generally greater than that of a typical money market fund.

7. RESTRICTED FUNDS:

For each of the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Board of Pensions had $304,419 of funds with restrictions from donors with the earnings to be used for the payment of benefits and the corpus to remain intact. The funds with restrictions are reported within the net assets available for benefits on the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits – Modified Cash Basis.

8. PENSION PLANS:

General:

The Board of Pensions for the Conference is the plan sponsor for various retirement programs offered by the United Methodist Church for all clergy in connectional ministry with the Louisiana Conference, either under appointment at a local church, or various other Board office affiliates. All plans are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments.

General: (Continued)

The Board of Pensions is the plan sponsor for the Clergy Protection Plan (CPP), the Clergy Retirement Security Program defined benefit plan (CRSP-DB), the Clergy Retirement Security Program defined contribution plan (CRSP-DC), the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) and the United Methodist Life Insurance Plan (UNUM).

Each local church is directly billed by the Board of Pensions for each clergy staff member's portion of the Clergy Protection Plan (CPP), Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) including defined benefit (CRSP-DB) and defined contribution (CRSP-DC) provisions, and the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) and UNUM Plan. CPP is a combination life and disability insurance benefit. CRSP and UMPIP are retirement income benefits. Funds are remitted to Wespath who administers the various plans.

All amendments and changes in benefits must be presented and approved at the "Annual Conference" delegation which meets annually.

The following is a description of the plans and benefits and is provided for general informational purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for more complete information.

Clergy Protection Plan (CPP):

Wespath Benefits and Investments established the CPP effective January 1, 1982. CPP is a "Church Plan" as defined in §414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and §3(33) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and provides disability and death benefits for the eligible participants.

Clergy members are eligible to participate if they are serving a full-time appointment, receiving plan compensation equal to at least 25% of the Final Denominational Average Compensation (DAC), and are in one of the following classes:

1. A full, provisional or associate Clergy member of the United Methodist Church or another Methodist denomination;
2. A local pastor of the United Methodist Church
3. A Clergyperson of another denomination appointed to a charge of the United Methodist Church, if not participating in a similar program sponsored by that person's own denomination.

Clergy Protection Plan (CPP): (Continued)

Required contributions under the CPP are based on participant's total plan compensation. The annual contribution amount is 3% of a participant's contribution base. The annual contribution amount is payable in equal monthly installments for each month the employee is an active participant.

Disability Benefits:

For participants eligible for a disability benefit on or after January 1, 2017, the disability benefits will equal 70% of a participant's annualized plan compensation, which is calculated for the CPP year that contains the date of the first disability benefit payment. For purposes of calculating disability benefits, plan compensation is limited to 200% of the DAC. Disability benefits may be reduced for certain amounts, such as Social Security disability benefits or other income. Benefits will be paid monthly, and the benefit amount will be increased annually by 3% on each anniversary date of the first disability benefit payment.

For participants eligible for a disability benefit between January 1, 2002 and December 31, 2016, the disability benefits will equal 70% of annualized plan compensation, but will not be less than 40% of the DAC in effect on the date of the first payment. The benefit is subject to certain reductions.

For participants eligible for a disability benefit prior to January 1, 2002, the disability benefit as of January 1, 2002 is adjusted to be the greater of the existing disability benefit as of January 1, 2002 or 40% of the DAC in effect for the 2002 plan year. Benefits are paid monthly, and the amount is increased annually by 3% on each anniversary date of the first disability benefit payment.

Death Benefits:

If a participant dies while active, a death benefit of $50,000 is paid to the beneficiary. If a participant dies while retired, a single-sum death benefit will be paid to the beneficiary based on retiree's date of retirement. If the participant retired prior to January 1, 2013, the benefit will be equal to 30% of the DAC in effect on the date of death. If the participant retired after January 1, 2013, the benefit will be $20,400 and may be adjusted for inflation.

The General Conference shall have the right to terminate the Plan at any time in a manner and to the extent not inconsistent with The Book of Discipline. Upon termination of the Plan, the assets remaining in the Plan after all obligations of the Plan have been satisfied shall be distributed pursuant to action decided upon by the General Conference.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

The CRSP is a program of one or more church-sponsored retirement income accounts within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code §403(b)(9). CRSP includes both a defined benefit plan and a defined contribution plan. CRSP is also a Church Plan within the meaning of code §414(e).

Employees are eligible to participate in CRSP if they are a United Methodist clergyperson who is:

1. Under full-time Episcopal appointment to a local church, pastoral charge, district or Conference-elective agency, camp, foundation, or other entity specified by the Board and receiving eligible Compensation for services (including local pastors, deacons, and ministers of other denominations);
2. Under half-time or three-quarter-time Episcopal appointment to a local church, pastoral church, district or Board-elective agency, camp, foundation, or other entity specified by the Board; receiving eligible Compensation for services (including local pastors, deacons, and ministers of other denominations); and their plan sponsor has elected to cover their apportionment percentage on its Adoption Agreement;
3. Receiving disability benefits under the CPP and appointed full-time (or at least half-time or three-quarter time if elected by their plan sponsor on its Adoption Agreement) at some time during the 24 months (excluding periods while on leave of absence) immediately preceding the effective date of their CPP disability benefits;
4. On medical leave but not receiving CPP disability benefits if medical leave is elected by their Board as an eligible category for participation, and they were appointed full-time (or at least half-time or three-quarter-time if elected by their plan sponsor on its Adoption Agreement) at some time during the 24 months (excluding periods while on leave of absence) immediately preceding the effective date of medical leave.

The General Conference of The United Methodist Church reserves the right to terminate, suspend or modify CRSP at any time, prospectively or retroactively. Also, the Board of Directors of Wespath is authorized to amend CRSP when changes in the law or The Book of Discipline require it. If the General Conference terminates CRSP, the accounts will remain fully vested and will either remain in CRSP or be distributed according to the provisions of CRSP.

Defined Benefit Plan:

The defined benefit plan is a multi-employer plan that includes all U.S. annual conferences. It is managed by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (Wespath Benefits and Investments) and controlled by plan documents enacted by the quadrennial General Conference of the UMC. Assets contributed by any conference may be used to provide benefits to clergy of any participating conference. Should an annual conference make contributions less than the total liability of their participants the underfunded obligations are borne by the surviving annual conferences. A decision to withdraw from the plan is in violation of the Discipline (by-laws of the church) and would cause an immediate suspension to the benefits to the Conference's clergy.

For all annual conferences, the method to calculate the value of benefits earned varies by year of services: before 1982, between 1982 and 2006, and after 2006. Service time is accrued in one day increments for full-time enrollees. If the enrollee is employed less than full-time, credited service is determined by multiplying the percentage of employment appointment by the days of service completed.

Each annual conference contributes according to an actuarial present value of benefits earned by their clergy for service during those periods. The administrator of the plan, The General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (Wespath Benefits and Investments), annually calculates liabilities and expected contributions for each annual conference based upon demographic and market changes relative to previous year's reports. Contributions per clergy by the Board of Pensions for the years ending December 31, 2024 and 2023 are ten percent (10%) of clergy compensation not to exceed $7,829 and $7,622, respectively.

The funding valuation is calculated two years prior to the year of funding. The funded status of the Board of Pensions' share in the multi-employer defined benefit plans for the 2024 and 2023 funding year (January 1, 2023 and 2022 results) was as follows:

	2024	2023

Retirement benefits are paid monthly and calculated based on an enrollee's final Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) and years of credited service. The benefit is equal to 1.25% of the final DAC times years of credited service from January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2013, plus 1% of the final DAC times years of credited service after December 31, 2013.

Benefits can begin upon:

1. Retirement, either after 30 years of service or at age 62,
2. Age 62 after termination of Board of Pensions relationship, or
3. Age 62 if the enrollee retires after 20 years of service.

If the retiree elects retirement before normal retirement age, the benefit will be actuarially reduced.

Defined Contribution Plan:

The defined contribution plan provides an account balance a participant can access as retirement needs require. The Board of Pensions contributes to the defined contribution plan on a participant's behalf as long as they are eligible and receiving compensation. The participant may direct the investment of contributions into any one or a combination of the investment funds offered by Wespath. If a participant dies prior to all funds being paid out, the remaining funds will be paid to the beneficiary either in one lump sum or over time. Employer contributions to the CRSP defined contribution plan are 3% of an enrollee's compensation. The employee receives the full 3% employer contribution if the employee contributes at least 1% to the UMPIP plan; otherwise, the employee receives 2% of the employer contribution.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP):

UMPIP is a defined contribution retirement benefits 403(b) Church Plan of The United Methodist Church, and is administered by Wespeth Benefits and Investments. Contributions to the Plan are made by the employer at 10% of an enrollee's compensation. Employees can contribute but are not required to make contributions. The Plan is subject to individual contribution limits under the Internal Revenue Code. The limit on annual additions is the lesser of $69,000 and $66,000 for 2024 and 2023, respectively, or 100% of includible compensation on the employee's most recent year of service. Eligible participants can make before-tax, Roth and/or after-tax contributions. The participant may determine how contributions are invested and all contributions immediately vest.

The eligibility requirements are established by the plan sponsor and must be met prior to contributions into a participant's account. The following are the three variations of the UMPIP plans in the Conference:

1. Clergy with either a full time, $\frac{3}{4}$ time, or $\frac{1}{2}$ time increment automatically receive a mandatory CRSP – Defined Contribution of 2% of Total Plan Compensation. In order for these clergy to receive the matching 1% contribution of the CRSP-DC into their employee (personal) account, the clergy person must make a minimum employee (personal) salary deferred UMPIP contribution of 1% of Total Plan Compensation. Clergy can elect salary deferrals of more than 1%, subject to the limitations set forth by the Internal Revenue Code. The clergy is responsible for determining these amounts and informing the church of these amounts for inclusion on their compensation form. Each local church is the plan sponsor and administrator of this UMPIP, and is responsible to pay these contributions directly to Wespeth.

The Conference makes the matching 1% contribution upon notification by Wespeth that the clergy has contributed the 1% UMPIP (personal) contribution. $\frac{1}{4}$ time employees can elect to contribute to the plan but are not required.

2. Clergy with an appointment increment of $\frac{1}{4}$ time receive a nonmatching 10% contribution of Total Plan Compensation. The clergy are not required to contribute in a salary deferral amount in order to be eligible for the nonmatching contribution. The Conference is the plan administrator and sponsor of this variation. The clergy's local church is billed for the 10% contribution and pays these contributions to the Conference Benefits Office. The Conference Benefits Office remits the UMPIP to Wespeth on the clergy's behalf.

3. Eligible lay employees can also participate in the Plan. The Conference is the plan sponsor and administrator for the eligible lay employees in the Conference. At the employee’s one year anniversary, the Conference, as the sponsor, contributes 9% of the employee’s base salary to their UMPIP account. Employees can also elect to make personal contributions, subject to the limits under the Internal Revenue Code.

UMPIP may be terminated, suspended or modified at any time. Also, Wespath Board of Directors is authorized to amend UMPIP at any time, as long as the amendment does not retroactively reduce an accountholder’s account balance or degree of vesting. If UMPIP is terminated, or if the Plan sponsor freezes or terminates its participation in UMPIP, each accountholder’s account will be fully vested and will either remain in UMPIP or be distributed according to the provisions of UMPIP.

United Methodist Life Insurance Plan (UNUM):

Full-time lay employees and clergy working at least 30 hours a week not eligible for the CPP Plan, as well as their spouses, are eligible for life and disability insurance under the UNUM Plan. The plan provides death benefits for active participants and their dependents and retired participants, accelerated death benefits in case of terminal illness, accidental death and dismemberment benefits for active participants, and survivor grief and financial counseling.

Contributions received by the Board of Pensions from member churches for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 were as follows:

8. PENSION PLANS: (Continued)

The Board of Pensions is responsible for the contributions due to Wespath Benefits and Investments even if not fully reimbursed by the member churches. Any amounts not collected from churches are monitored closely and addressed accordingly. Substantial arrearages may affect the eligibility to participate in future plans. Arrearages as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 were $131,281 and $133,842, respectively.

9. HEALTH AND WELFARE:

General:

The Board of Pensions manages a self-funded defined benefit health benefit plan (the Plan). The self-funded health benefit plan provides comprehensive medical benefits and prescription drug benefits as well as dental and vision benefits to eligible members as specified in the Summary Plan Description. A Health Savings Account (HSA) has been established which allows employees to obtain reimbursement of eligible medical expenses incurred by them or their dependents. The Plan also contributes to the Plan for eligible participants. Those eligible to participate in the health benefit plan include:

1. Full-time clergy, including their dependents, in connectional ministry with the Louisiana Conference, either under appointment at a local church, or
2. Various other employees of Louisiana Conference affiliates.
3. Laity employees who are full-time with the Louisiana Conference, local churches, and Louisiana Conference affiliates.
4. Selected health benefits to surviving spouses of deceased clergy and for clergy on temporary administrative leave or disability.

Effective January 1, 2020, retirees are no longer eligible to participate in the Plan.

The Plan contributed to the HSA $113,427 and $133,410 for the years ending December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Board of Pensions has the right under the Plan to modify the benefits provided to eligible members. The Plan may terminate at any time and for any reason in whole or in part.

Contributions:

The Plan is funded by contributions from the participating members. The monthly contribution for 2024 and 2023 full-time clergy is a "blended" rate of $1,560 and $1,490, respectively. The rate is considered blended because the contribution is the same whether the clergy elects family or single coverage. From this contribution, $100 is paid into the employee's HSA, and the remainder is used to fund benefit claims.

The monthly contribution for 2024 and 2023 for laity health benefits is $970 and $925, respectively for single coverage and $1,940 and $1,800, respectively for family/dependent coverage. If the lay employee elects family/dependent coverage, the employee is responsible for the additional cost over single coverage. Additionally, the Louisiana Conference pays $100 per month to the laity employees' HSA.

The Board of Pensions bills and collects contributions from each local church for their clergy members.

The health and welfare contributions collected from eligible clergy and laity by the Board of Pensions for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 were $1,894,409 and $2,192,950, respectively.

Health Reimbursement Arrangement:

Effective January 1, 2020, the Board of Pensions agreed to provide retirees with a Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) annual subsidy administrated by Wespath to assist in the purchase and payment of premiums for Medicare supplement plans, Medicare Advantage plans in the Private Exchange, or to fund any eligible health care related costs.

For eligible participants employed on or after January 1, 2020, there is a ten-year full-time service requirement in the Louisiana Conference by clergy and/or their spouse to be eligible to receive a retiree health benefit subsidy upon reaching age 65. The subsidy is paid to assist retirees in the payment of their own health plan. All existing Louisiana Conference clergy eligible under the previous retiree health plan are grandfathered into the new plan. The annual amount of the subsidy is $1,800 per person. The total amount paid for the years ending December 31, 2024 and 2023 was $340,557 and $312,224, respectively. The Board of Pensions also incurred administrative fees of $3 per account per month paid to Via Benefits for administering the HRA annual subsidy. The Board of Pensions incurred administrative fees of $5,328 and $9,591 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Administrative Fees:

For 2024 and 2023, the Board of Pensions contracted with Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Louisiana (BCBS) for its eligible employee and affiliates plans for medical, prescription, and vision health claims processing. This included an administrative fee of $33.32 and $33.32, respectively, per member per month. The agreement with BCBS also provides for rebates of prescription costs for those qualified pharmaceutical claims expenses. BCBS also provides dental administration for a fee of $3.75 per member per month for the years ending December 31, 2024 and 2023. The Board of Pensions also incurred administrative fees of $3 per account, paid to American Health Resources, for administering the Health Savings Account (HSA).

Reinsurance:

The Board of Pensions mitigates potential catastrophic medical losses by purchasing reinsurance for specific stop loss coverage of $150,000 per plan participant, and aggregate stop loss coverage of 125% of expected claims up to $1,000,000 of maximum benefits.

The reinsurance premiums per participant/per month for such coverage are as follows:

	2024	2023
Aggregate stop loss	$ 9.79	$ 8.42
Specific stop loss:
Single	$ 62.76	$ 56.97
Family	$ 164.44	$ 142.47

Total administrative fees and reinsurance premiums paid to BCBS for years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 totaled $178,342 and $265,630, respectively. Stop loss recoveries are netted with the stop loss coverage claims and totaled $97,675 and $309,035 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

10. POST-RETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFIT OBLIGATION:

The post-retirement health benefit obligation represents the actuarial present value of those estimated future benefits that are attributed by the terms of the Plan to employees' service rendered to the date of the financial statements, reduced by the actuarial present value of contributions expected to be received in the future from current Plan participants. benefits include future benefits expected to be paid to or for (1) currently retired or terminated employees and their beneficiaries and dependents and (2) active employees and their beneficiaries and dependents after retirement from service with participating employers. The post-retirement benefit obligation represents the amount that is to be funded by contributions from the Plan’s participating employees and from existing Plan assets. Prior to an active employee’s full eligibility date, the post-retirement benefit obligation is the portion of the expected post-retirement benefit obligation that is attributed to that employee’s service rendered to the valuation date.

The actuarial present value of the expected post-retirement benefit obligation is determined by an actuary and is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to historical claims-cost data to estimate future annual incurred claims costs per participant and to adjust such estimates for the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as those for death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment.

Actuarial Assumptions:

The valuation was performed as of December 31, 2023, the measurement date. The valuation is made every two years. The following were the significant assumptions used in the valuations as of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2021:

Discount rate	4.80% for 2023 and 2.60% for 2021
Current health care cost trend rate	6.75% for 2023 and 6.25% for 2021
Ultimate health care cost trend rate	5.00% for 2023 and 5.00% for 2021
Mortality:	Pri-2012 Top Quartile Employee Mortality Table (headcount-weighted) with generational projection using Scale MP-2020 for actives and Pri-2012 Top Quartile Retiree Mortality Table (headcount-weighted), adjusted 93% for males and 85% for females, with generational projection using Scale MP-2020 for retirees and continent annuitants

Termination:	Rates range from .0300-.0400 for clergy and .0015-.0994 for lay employees for 2023 and from .0300-.0400 for clergy and .0015-.0994 for lay employees for 2021
Retirement:	Rates range from 0%-100% depending on age for each year for clergy and lay employees

Accumulated Post-Retirement Benefit Obligation:

The accumulated post-retirement benefit obligation calculation by the actuary is performed every two years. The post-retirement benefit obligations for the most recent valuations are as follows:

	Valuation Date
	12/31/2023	12/31/2021
Fully eligible actives	$ 1,904,569	$ 2,367,106
Other actives	1,783,782	2,120,783
Retirees, dependents and surviving spouses	7,040,059	4,570,537
	$ 10,728,410	$ 9,058,426

The increase in the post-retirement benefit obligation for the December 31, 2023 valuation is due to an increase in the HRA maximum subsidy to $1,800 in 2024 and $2,760 in 2025, an assumed increase in the HRA subsidy to a 2% increase after 2025, the removal of the Catastrophic Prescription Drug component of the HRA, an increase in the discount rate of 2.20%, and changes in assumptions. The increase in post-retirement benefit obligation for the December 31, 2021 valuation is due to increases in the Conference HRA of 2% every other year, an increase in the subsidy from the prior valuation, changes of assumptions, and a decrease in the discount rate by 0.5%.

Wespath Benefits and Investments manages the Plan's investments in the amount of $1,009,201 and $891,057 as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 respectively. Wespath Benefits and Investments of the United Methodist Church is a general agency of the United Methodist Church and provides administrative and investment services to benefit plans for the Board of Pensions. The Plan did not incur any cost for these services for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

The Board of Pensions received monthly contributions for health coverage from the Finance and Administrative Services on behalf of eligible clergy and laity totaling $222,850 and $219,201 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Finance and Administrative Services is the finance and administrative agency of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The Board of Pensions received an annual apportionment for pension benefits from the Finance and Administrative Services in the amount of $-0- and $118,706 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Board of Pensions also received pension contributions from the Finance and Administrative Services in the amount of $192,927 and $183,422 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Finance and Administrative Services is the finance and administrative agency of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church.

As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Finance and Administrative Services owed the Board of Pensions $218,294 and $243,209, respectively, relating to contributions for health coverage and pension contributions.

12. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES:

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits – Modified Cash Basis.

Plan contributions are made based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, inflation rates, and employee demographics, all of which are subject to change. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimates and assumptions process, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates and assumptions in the near-term would be material to the financial statements.

13. DISAFFILIATIONS:

At the 2019 Special Called General Conference of the United Methodist Church, conditions were passed to allow churches to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church. These conditions are outlined in the new Book of Discipline paragraph 2553, and the conditions were set to expire on December 31, 2023. Annual conferences were given leeway to develop their own disaffiliation policies and procedures, provided that the disaffiliating church paid the current twelve months apportionments, plus the next two years of apportionments, and the disaffiliating church's share of the conference pension liability.

During the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 the Louisiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church had zero (0) and ninety-five (95), churches disaffiliate, respectively, from the United Methodist Church under Book of Discipline paragraph 2553.

In the year ended December 31, 2023, the unfunded pension liability was significantly lower than the prior year and the disaffiliation calculations reflected no allocable unfunded pension obligation to the 95 churches that disaffiliated in 2023, thus there were no payments received by the Board of Pensions.

14. RECLASSIFICATIONS:

Certain amounts in 2023 have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

15. DATE OF MANAGEMENT REVIEW:

Management has evaluated subsequent events through April 25, 2025, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

4. INVESTMENTS

Hancock Whitney National Bank and J. P. Morgan Chase Bank are designated as the principal depositories for general operating funds of the Louisiana Conference. All excess cash flow, contingency and surplus funds shall be invested with the United Methodist Foundation. Authority to open accounts is given to the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries and the Chair of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Louisiana Conference. Authorized signatures on the accounts and deposit boxes are to be the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries, representative(s) of the CFA designated by CFA, designated conference office director(s) and employees as named by CFA, and the Senior Pastor of First UMC, Baton Rouge.

The CBOPHB in concert with the Council on finance and Administration (CFA) has authorized a Conference Investment Advisory Committee (CIAC) with the following members: CFA Chair, CBOHPB Chair, and two at-large CFA members. The Treasurer, a Cabinet liaison, and the CEO of the Foundation serve as ex- officio members of the Conference Investment Advisory Committee. The CIAC convenes quarterly to review the invested funds and make recommendations regarding the allocation, performance and placement of investments of the Conference, and reports thereon to CFA and CBOPHB.

The CIAC shall consult with the Investment Committee of the United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana (the Foundation) to assist in the overall investment management of Conference funds. During 2024, the Conference Investment Advisory Committee requested the United Methodist Foundation of La. (UMFLa) to “carve out” the CFA and CBOPHB investments into two separate pools with Merrill Lynch. Previously, the CFA and CBOPHB multiple investment custodial account funds had been combined with funds of all the other church investors at the UMFLa. Together, CFA and CBOPHB comprise the single largest combined investment holder at the UMFLa (more than 40%). Therefore, these investment assets necessitate more care and attention, and we need to be proactive with our investing strategies.

The new structure of pooled investments will not affect the relationship with the Foundation as they will continue to be the investment arm and a strong advisor/participant in the meetings with Merrill Lynch. CFA encourages local churches and other connectional agencies to continue using the Foundation for investment purposes.

CFA and CBOPHB policies have historically allowed various designated principal funds to keep separate UMLa accounts, and record and keep their respective earnings (by keeping separate investment accounts and recording the earnings to the designated fund). Beginning in 2024, all custodial account funds except the Districts', and unless otherwise donor restricted, will be combined into two pools, one for each CFA and CBOPHB funds. As more fully discussed in CFA Report III, Item 2, CFA has proposed, and the Annual Conference has approved) a policy to utilize a portion of the investment balances (from investment earnings) to supplement the local church apportionments for mission, ministry, clergy benefits, and the administration of all these thereon.

In general, the approved plan allows the CFA and CBOPHB investment pools to provide an annual 2% distribution for funding the Conference's mission and ministry areas. See CFA Report III, Sections 1 and 2 for the complete 2026 Apportionment Expenditure Budget presentation.

5. GRANTS

CBOPHB recommends that from CBOPHB unrestricted reserve funds:

- A. A grant for a retired clergy dependent be continued for January 1, 2026 – December 31, 2026, and the grant amount be set at 10% of the DAC to Larry Leon Scott.

5. GRANTS- continued

- B. Special grants be paid July 1, 2025– June 30, 2026, to:
1. Mrs. Jewell B. Bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the 1968 annuity rate for the service of Rev. John Bonds, Sr., covering the period June 2, 1961 – June 6, 1968. Annual grant amount is $341.28.
 2. Mrs. Patsy R. Garrett in an amount equal to 75% of twelve (12) years of annuity credit at the 1967 rate. The annual grant amount is $585.12.

6. YEARS OF SERVICE OR STATUS CORRECTIONS

NONE

7. BENEFITS BILLINGS AND ARREARAGES

The CBOPHB has adopted the policy of requiring all churches to pay their monthly benefit obligations through an automatic withdrawal or ACH/EFT from their bank account. Each church incurring benefit obligations on behalf of their appointed clergy are required to provide appropriate banking information for their clergy benefits payment. The ACH/EFT transaction will be processed by the Benefits Office between the 25th and end of each month for the monthly amount billed. The church will be responsible for ensuring the bank funds are available for draft by that date. Further, any NSF fees will be borne by the church.

- A. Pension Plan billings - As noted in the Pension Resolution, if a participant's pension billings funded by his/her employer/church become three (3) months in arrears, then the Bishop and the Cabinet will take into consideration whether the congregation is financially able to support a pastor with benefits.
- B. Medical Plan billings – If a participant's health insurance billings funded by his/her employer/church become three (3) months in arrears, then the Bishop and the Cabinet will take into consideration whether the congregation is financially able to support a pastor with benefits. All participants whose benefits are not paid directly by a church (i.e. retired UM clergy not yet Medicare eligible for the postretirement health HRA benefit) must be enrolled in an automatic draft (ACH) for remittance of the premiums. It is the responsibility of the participant enrolled in the ACH to ensure that the bank funds are available for draft by the 25th of the month for which the premium is being billed. Further the participant will bear any NSF fees. If for any reason, such a participant becomes two (2) months in arrears, his/her coverage will be discontinued.
- C. Due to the fiduciary responsibility for all benefit fund designations, the CBOPHB recommends that timely payment by local churches of pension benefits billings for their pastors be key performance indicators of a vital congregation and effective pastoral leadership. Therefore, the CBOPHB urges the Bishop and the Cabinet to continually assess local churches/pastoral appointments and designate them as either a vital and growing congregation or a missional or transformational endeavor. If a congregation is officially designated a missional or transformational endeavor, then missional or transformational funding sources, other than assets designated for benefits obligations, should be established for paying the benefits obligations.

For further information concerning pension and benefits payments contact the Conference Office of Administrative Ministries at (225) 346-1646.

8. COMPREHENSIVE BENEFITS FUNDING PLAN for all LOUISIANA RETIREMENT and HEALTH PLANS

Effective with the 2012 General Conference, each Annual Conference's Board of Pensions and Health Benefits must develop and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for its benefits obligations related to its annual retirement, welfare and health benefit plans for the Louisiana Conference clergy. The 2025 Comprehensive Funding Plan will be presented to CBOPHB for approval.

According to the September 2024 Actuarial Valuation report issued by Wespeth Benefits and Investments, the CRSP-DB and MPP Annuities under the Corridor Funding methodology remain above 100% funded as of January 1, 2025, on a long-term funding basis. Pension plan liabilities on a long-term funding basis are calculated using a discount rate that reflects the long-term, average expected earnings of the plan assets as well as actuarial assumptions about the clergy census and participation rates.

In addition to providing the long-term funding status for the retirement plans, Wespeth periodically calculates a current short term estimated underfunded pension liability (on a market basis). Pension plan liabilities on a market basis are calculated at a discount rate that reflects what an insurer or other outside party would use in pricing the liabilities if taking over the responsibility for benefit payments from the Louisiana Conference. Depending on current interest rates, market liabilities are typically higher than funding liabilities, sometimes significantly, since they reflect an immediate transfer of the liabilities to another party, whereas funding liabilities anticipate an ongoing, long-term plan. In past decades, local churches served by multiple United Methodist clergy who are still receiving pension benefits, or are due benefits in the future, which create a market rate liability relating to the long-term pension obligation.

A pension plan that appears funded on a long-term funding basis today could become underfunded in the future, due to economic downturns that produce lower-than-expected earnings, or due to increased longevity that results in longer periods of benefit payments. Such underfunding could result in additional contributions to the plan being required. These additional contributions to the plan are the responsibility of the annual conference, and in turn, the local churches of that conference – the conference's primary source of funds.

REPORT II – Benefits Offerings

The following benefits outlined below are the plans in effect for periods indicated:

1. A. (ENDING 12/31/2025) LOUISIANA CONFERENCE CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PLAN (CRSP) FOR CLERGY HALF (1/2) TIME OR GREATER,

We recommend:

- a. That Participants shall be all non-retired Clergy members of the Louisiana Conference under Episcopal appointment to a charge or conference-controlled agency according to the schedule below. Thus, clergy included are full and provisional elders and deacons, associate members, other elders, other fellowship, and local pastors.
- b. That Participants' Pension Plan Compensation is the sum of: (1) cash salary (including tax deferred pension and savings or other tax deferred items) received from church-related sources; (2) utilities; and (3) housing allowance, or when a parsonage is provided, 25% of the Pension Plan Compensation (note change on 1/1/2026 to be 35% of Plan Compensation) as the approximate value of that parsonage. This information has been reported to Wespath Benefits and Investments for purposes of determining each clergy's Pension Plan Compensation.
- c. That the following chart, based on the DAC or CAC, whichever is the lower, be used to determine part-time increment status of an appointment to a charge or conference-controlled agency as it relates to pension years of service and pension billing calculation.

2025-Based on 60% of the DAC ($80,003) which is lower than the CAC($87,281)

 - i. $1 – 24,001 = ¼ Time Status UMPIP Only
 - ii. $24,002 – 36,001 = ½ Time Status CRSP
 - iii. $36,002 – 48,001 = ¾ Time Status CRSP
 - iv. $48,002 and above = Full Time Status CRSP
- d. That Louisiana Conference clergy serving at least half (1/2 time) to a local church or conference-controlled agency, shall participate in Wespath's CRSP plan; and the church's contribution base be set as a percentage of pension plan compensation according to the following:
 - i. DefinedBenefit(DB) 10% Pension Plan Compensation with a cap at 10% of DAC
(Cap was $8,000.30 for 2025)
 - ii. DefinedContribution(DC) 3% of Pension Plan Compensation.*
Effective 1/1/2014 through 12/31/2025 when plans ends), 2% of the plan comp is deposited automatically into the clergy's personal DC account, and the final 1% of plan comp is deposited into the clergy's personal DC account if the clergy also contributes at least a matching 1% of pension plan compensation into his/her personal UMPIP account.
- e. That churches are to timely submit a clergy's 1% or more matching "personal UMPIP" contributions election, deducted from his/her paycheck, and any additional personal clergy elected UMPIP funds withheld from clergy compensation directly to Wespath Benefits and Investments, P.O. Box 5184, Carol Stream, IL 60197-5184. Clergy electing to contribute personal funds to his/her UMPIP account, must contact the Conference office for a Contribution Election Form. Clergy shall have his/her employer (local church) make direct deposits into a pre-tax, after-tax, or Roth contribution, in accordance with federal government regulations. Further information concerning the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan may be obtained from Wespath, 1901 Chestnut Drive, Glenview, IL 60025-1604 (1-800-851-2201), ending 12/31/2025.

1. B. (BEGINNING 1/1/2026) COMPASS Retirement Plan FOR CLERGY HALF (1/2) TIME OR GREATER

Compass, the new clergy retirement plan approved at General Conference 2020/2024, is an account-based defined contribution retirement plan for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church (UMC) designed to help clergy optimize their retirement income with the ability to leave their account balance to their beneficiaries. Through shared responsibility, clergy will accumulate an account balance during their active ministry and have flexibility to receive their income during retirement. Compass will take the place of the CRSP-DB/DC plans, which will remain for beneficiaries to be paid out, but with no additional benefits earned or contributions made by the clergy after 12/31/2025.

The the following chart based on the DAC, will be used to determine part-time increment status of an appointment to a charge or conference-controlled agency as it relates to pension years of service and pension billing calculation.

2026-Based on 60% of the DAC ($81,603)

- i. $1 – 24,481 = ¼ Time Status - No contribution
- ii. $24,482 – 36,721 = ½ Time Status COMPASS
- iii. $36,722 – 48,961 = ¾ Time Status COMPASS
- iv. $48,962 and above = Full Time Status COMPASS

Compass participation is mandatory through automatic enrollment for full-time, ¾ and ½ time clergy. The primary components of COMPASS are:

- $150 per month fixed contribution per Full Time clergy (¾ and ½ time increments will be prorated)
- 3% of Total Plan Compensation (TPC) (no clergy match required) with a 35% parsonage value included in calculating total plan compensation
- $1/$1 match up to 4% of clergy total plan compensation through clergy contributions (through local church payroll withholdings, and/or qualified Student Loan repayments)

Beginning 1/1/2026, for each eligible clergy, local churches will be billed 13% of the clergy's plan compensation (the same as under current CRSP-DB/DC), but this will include the 4% match amount, either withheld from the clergy's paycheck, or the equivalent of amounts paid by the clergy in qualified Student Loan repayments.

Wespath has indicated that the parsonage value has been increased from 25% to 35% for purposes of calculating "Total Plan Compensation", effective 1/1/2026.

The Compass plan includes an annual automatic escalation provision, which the CBOPHB has recommend be set as a 1% increase (maximum up to 10%) in required clergy contributions from a starting contribution a rate of 4%. This election will require clergy to increase their personal contributions by one (1) percentage point every year, but plan provisions allow the clergy to opt out of the escalation provision at any time.

The Clergy's individual contributions under Compass can be pre-tax, post-tax or Roth contributions. Qualified student loan payments may be eligible for calculating the 4% required match. Wespath has robust educational resources to help guide clergy through the transition to this new plan, and the Conference will provide more details about options and process at the fall Charge Conferences.

2. COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP) (Louisiana Clergy ¾ time and above)

We recommend:

- A. That participants shall be all provisional and full connection elders and deacons, associate members, and fulltime local pastors under Episcopal appointment and all Other Fellowship and Other Elders who are not covered by their denominational plans, who have a pension plan compensation which grants a status of ¾ time according to the schedule set forth in 1.C above.

The disability benefit is reduced by any disability benefits payable (or that would have been payable if the clergy person had not opted out of Social Security) under the Social Security Act; other reductions may apply in accordance with the terms of the SPD and Plan Document, as determined by Wespath. Eligible participants receiving CPP disability benefits may also receive retirement plan contributions to either CRSP or the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) under the terms of the CPP plan as set forth in the SPD and Plan Documents of CPP, CRSP and UMPIP.

5. LOUISIANA CLERGY ACTIVE/LAY HEALTH PLAN - MEDICAL & HEALTH CARE PROGRAMS

On December 19, 2024, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits approved making a formal recommendation to the Annual Conference to adopt Wespath's HealthFlex Plan, effective January 1, 2026. More information can be found in CBOPHB's Report III. The Annual Conferecen approved with a majority vote to approve the HealthFlex adoption 1/1/2026.

However, in the until that time, the current plan as outlined below will remain in place with the following provisions:

A. Description of Current Plan (approved to replace with HealthFlex, effective 1/1/2026)

Our self-funded group health plan is a comprehensive major medical program for full time Louisiana Conference clergy and their dependents who meet the requirements to be enrolled in the plan. The Plan Booklet with terms of eligibility and a Schedule of Benefits may be found on the Conference Website (www.la-umc.org). The Schedule of Medical Benefits contains a Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) – BlueCross and BlueShield of Louisiana's Preferred Care PPO.

BlueCross BlueShield provides the program for nationwide coverage outside of Louisiana. For further information regarding benefits and claims, first contact Customer Service at the number on your card, and, if not satisfied, contact the Conference Office of Administrative Ministries at (225) 346-1646.

- a. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits is authorized to act for the Louisiana Conference to provide comprehensive major medical expenses, dental care and vision benefits group insurance for the Louisiana Conference clergy, surviving spouses, dependents and eligible full time, or required to be covered by law, lay employees of the Conference as defined by the plan.
- b. Between sessions of the Annual Conference, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits may increase premiums charged in its discretion. Between sessions of the Annual Conference, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits may make changes in the program or the carrier with approval of the Council on Finance and Administration and the Cabinet.
- c. Enrollment must be accomplished within 30 days following the effective date of Louisiana Conference clergy appointments or the hiring of lay employees. After that time, a participant would be eligible to enroll if a Special Enrollment Provision is met. Such provisions would either be a loss of coverage, or if there is a new dependent because of marriage, birth, adoption or placement for adoption. Enrollment under either of these provisions should be requested within 30 days of the loss of coverage, marriage, birth, adoption or placement for adoption. Dependent children are covered to age 26 as required by the Affordable Care Act. Dependent children may be covered beyond this date in certain limited disability situations. - f. Under laws governing Medicare, clergy serving full-time appointments beyond the age of 65 as well as their dependents must retain the Conference's active health insurance regular coverage, and their church will be billed for the health insurance premium due to the full-time appointment status. Such participants can elect to sign up for Medicare A and B as a secondary payer but will lose eligibility to receive a Health Savings or Reimbursement Account. Contact the Conference Office of Administrative Ministries for more information.
- g. The Conference requires an annual verification of each participants eligibility to participate in the Health Savings or Reimbursement Accounts. .

B. Current Plan Premiums AS OF JANUARY 1, 2026 (however, HealthFlex passed - See CBOPHB Report III)

- C. NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS- If a participant's health coverage has been discontinued for non-payment of premium, reinstatement will not be permitted for one full year and will only be permitted if they meet all the requirements for coverage eligibility. 6. RETIREES-POSTRETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFIT OFFERING FOR LOUISIANA CONFERENCE CLERGY

Background

In 2019, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (CBOPHB), with approval from the Annual Conference, adopted a health benefit offering for all of the Louisiana Conference retired clergy, current and future, and their spouses upon reaching Medicare age eligibility, except if they continue to serve in a full-time appointment in the Conference.

The benefits are managed under a partnership with Via Benefits, (with Wespath's oversight) where each eligible retiree participant will have one on one consultation to select from multiple Medicare supplement (or Medicare Advantage) plans customized to their individual needs and budget.

Each eligible clergy and their spouse receive a Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) annual subsidy administrated by Via Benefits, to assist in the purchase and payment of premiums for the Medicare supplement plans, or Medicare Advantage plans in the Private Exchange, or, to fund any eligible health care related costs they incur.

For Louisiana Conference retirees who were employed after January 1, 2020, there shall be a 10-year full time service requirement in the Louisiana Conference by clergy and/or their spouse to be eligible to receive the retiree health benefit HRA subsidy upon reaching age 65, or actual Medicare enrolment whichever is later. All existing Louisiana Conference clergy eligible under the previous retiree health plan are grandfathered into the new plan. If a Medicare age eligible retiree as defined above elects not to enroll in a Medicare supplement or Advantage plan through Via Benefits, then the HRA subsidy benefit is permanently forfeited. Further, if a Louisiana Conference retiree is not Medicare age eligible at retirement, then he/she, and/or their age ineligible spouse, must stay enrolled in the Conference plan and bear the premium cost personally. At the point either the retired clergy or his/her spouse attain Medicare age eligibility, then they will also be eligible for the HRA subsidy.

Funding the Louisiana Conference Retiree Health Benefit Offering (HRA Subsidy)

On April 18, 2024, the CBOPHB elected to increase the HRA annual subsidy for 2025 from $1,800 per person per year to $2,760, or $5,520 for a clergy and spouse. Currently, the designated assets for postretirement health benefits exceed the corresponding projected actuarial liability. The CBOPHB recommends that the amount of the annual subsidy be considered at least biennially (every two years) in conjunction with the required actuarial valuation of the benefit offering liability. Increases to the subsidy will be weighed to correlate with the available retiree health benefit asset reserve funds, keeping a modest surplus for unexpected negative investment performance. Please note, the HRA subsidy is only available through enrollment with Via Benefits under the Louisiana Conference sponsorship. In the event a retiree and/or their spouse inadvertently enrolls in a Medicare Supplement or Advantage plan outside of the Louisiana plan with Via Benefits, then HRA subsidy benefits shall be permanently terminated.

7. PAID TIME OFF BENEFIT

This policy is to be printed each year in the Journal of the Louisiana Conference.

- A. Vacation - This Vacation Policy for Clergy is to standardize clergy vacations across the Conference. The policy is for clergy appointed within the bounds of the Louisiana Conference.

Time used for Continuing Education, as defined by The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church and according to the rules set by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, shall not be considered as vacation time or used in lieu of vacation time. Vacation time is on a conference year basis. Vacation time not used in one year cannot be carried over into the next year.

Vacation chart:

	CONFERENCE REALTIONSHIP	TIME OF SERVICE	VACATION TIME
(1)	Full-Time Local Pastor in process, Attending the four-week Course of Study		2 weeks paid
(2)	Full-time Clergy (Full Members, Provisional Members, Assoc. Members, Full Connection Deacons, FTLP)	5 years or less	2 weeks paid
(2)	Part time Local Pastors	5 years or less	1 week including 1 Sunday paid
(3)	Full-time Clergy (Full Members, Provisional Members, Assoc. Members, Full Connection Deacons, FTLP)	5 years + 1 day through completion of 9 years of service	3 weeks paid
(3)	Part-time Local Pastors	5 years + 1 day through completion of 9 years of service	2 weeks including 2 Sundays paid
(4)	Full-time Clergy (Full Members, Provisional Members, Assoc. Members, Full Connection Deacons, FTLP)	10 years or more of service	4 weeks paid
(4)	Part-time Local Pastors	10 years or more of service	3 weeks including 3 Sundays paid

NOTE: Years of service refer to years of service in a Conference(s) of the United Methodist Church, not years of service in the local church to which the clergy is appointed. These years of service include years under appointment to Seminary or beyond the local church.

B. Other Paid time off

1. The Conference's policy is that each local church's Pastor-Parish Relations Committee establish a paid time off policy with the pastor(s) of the charge. For a full-time appointment, the minimum standard for days off is as follows: 2 days per week and 2 nights per week. Additionally, the local church should adopt a reasonable holiday schedule for clergy and church office hours. Lastly, the pastor should be allowed time each week for prayer and study.
2. If an honorarium is given to a guest pastor while the appointed pastor is on vacation, it shall be paid by the local church and not from that pastor's compensation.
3. Churches should encourage their pastor(s) to participate in physical exercise programs, good nutrition programs, and to get regular checkups with their doctors.

8. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE BENEFIT

- A. All active clergy in any relationship – PTLP, FTLP, AM, PE, PD, Full Connection, or retired clergy if serving an appointment to a charge or conference-controlled agency – shall be offered at least 30 days for bereavement leave (BL) for the death of a spouse or child. The District Superintendent shall initiate this process by informing the bereaved clergy of the availability of bereavement leave.
- B. Bereavement leave will be in addition to vacation time, continuing education time and days off. The local church or conference agency to which the clergy is appointed shall continue to provide salary and housing, as well as pension and insurance payments during the bereavement leave. The clergy will have ninety (90) days, beginning the day after the memorial/funeral service, in which to begin the bereavement leave. Details - pulpit supply, covering hospitals, etc. - will be worked out in conjunction with the District Superintendent and S/PPR chair. The clergy may use the bereavement leave in one block or some smaller blocks of time as he/she wishes but must complete it within six months of the funeral/memorial service.
- C. In many cases the congregation will have its own resources to secure appropriate pastoral leadership during the bereavement leave, but if the District Superintendent and S/PPR determine that financial assistance is needed to provide a supply pastor, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits will provide a maximum of $400 per week depending on whether the appointment is part or full time, and the responsibilities expected of the supply pastor. The Conference office will disburse any funds from the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits to the supply pastor. Counseling is available at no cost to all clergy by a confidential request to the Director of Clergy Excellence, Rev. Ali Young at ayoung@la-umc.org.

9. RETIREE MOVING EXPENSE BENEFIT

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits provides a one-time moving expense reimbursement benefit for full elders, provisional elders, associate members and full-time local pastors presently under appointment who are retiring. Current tax laws require that all such reimbursements be considered taxable income by the recipient of the benefit. A Form 1099 will be issued to each retired clergy receiving the reimbursement of moving expenses. This is a one-time benefit and must be used within one year of the date of retirement. The maximum amount of the benefit is $6,000. In the event a clergy couple retires, there is only one $6,000 benefit unless the clergy couple is living in two different homes/parsonages in two different cities in their last appointments. If one member of a clergy couple retires and the other clergy couple member will continue in active status, a benefit is only due if the clergy retiring has been living in a separate home/parsonage in a separate city from the clergy spouse not retiring.

To request reimbursement for this benefit, please refer to the form with detailed instructions on the website under the Finance–Important Forms at:

Receipts for all expenses must be attached to the form before payment is processed. Please submit the form and supporting receipts to: Louisiana Conference Office, Attn: Conference Finance Office, 527 North Blvd, Baton Rouge, LA 70802, or email at benefits@la-umc.org.

10. OTHER BENEFITS

- A. The Shepherd's Fund is a special benefit that was created by a private anonymous donor to offer help for retired United Methodist ministers and their spouses (or widows) who are encountering a significant financial expense incurred on by a health or dental issue. The benefit provides up to $10,000 per person per year to help with bills and other financial concerns relating to a medical or dental event. The grant is not based upon financial need and no verification of income or other criteria are required except to be a retired clergy or spouse (or surviving spouse) in connection with the Conference. Please contact the Benefits Office to find out more about how to apply for these funds.

- B. It has been the practice by the CBOPHB to provide each retiree or surviving spouse with a printed copy of the annual Journal. Over the years, the cost of producing and mailing the Journals to retirees has increased significantly since the Conference has moved to a digital website format for the Journal for the Annual Conference membership at large. The CBOPHB requests retirees to consider utilizing the online version of the Journal. The online version is a complete Journal except for the names and addresses for clergy and families that cannot legally be published on the website. If the retirees would like to receive the portion of the printed Journal that only has the clergies' names and addresses information, please contact Ms. Kyle Wooldridge at 225-346-1646. The CBOPHB appreciates this assistance with the savings realized from not printing and mailing the entire Journal to the retirees.

REPORT III – (APPROVED) Proposal to Adopt Wespeth’s HealthFlex Plan

In December 2024 at a duly called meeting, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits voted unanimously to recommend moving to Wespeth’s HealthFlex plan on 1/1/2026. Therefore, the CBOPHB presents the following resolution:

WHEREAS the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church approve the adoption and implementation of the Wespeth Benefits and Investment’s HealthFlex plan, effective 1/1/2026.

NOTE: The recommendation was approved by the Annual Conference delegation with a majority voting in favor of the plan.

HealthFlex Highlights:

1. Local church billings and participation provisions

The local churches will be billed the blended rate for each full-time appointment. For 2026, the monthly blended rate will be $1,630 per month which includes 5% increase from the 2025 rate of $1,560. The blended rate has been used since the Conference adopted the current plan in 2005. It is intended to help with the appointment process and to help local churches plan and budget for consistent health benefit costs across the entire census of full-time clergy under appointment, regardless of the age and number of dependents an appointed clergy may have. Thus, it is important to note that regardless of the plan(s) the clergy chooses under HealthFlex, the local church will be billed the same rate of $1,630 per month.

As with the current Health plan, participation is open to all active clergy and their legal dependents serving in full time appointments. The HealthFlex plan does not affect retired clergy and their spouses enrolled in Via Benefits. Clergy serving in $\frac{3}{4}$ time appointments may be eligible to take part if the local church is willing to bear the costs of the blended rate premium. Note that all full-time appointments to a local church or charge will be billed the blended premium rate whether the clergy chooses to take part in the health plan. Clergy with less than a $\frac{3}{4}$ time appointment are not eligible for health benefits.

2. HealthFlex Plan Rates and Premium Credits (buying power):

The Wespeth HealthFlex Plan offers six (6) different health plans, three (3) dental coverage plans, and two (2) vision plans. It has robust wellness care features and is used by more than thirty other United Methodist Conferences in our denomination. That is the equivalent of 7200 clergy and 15,000 actual participants. The CBOPHB researched assorted options and believes the HealthFlex model offers the best options for participant choice, long term sustainability and administrative support to the clergy and their dependents.

The CBOPHB has committed to keeping health care costs billings to local churches at a modest 5% increase which has been the normative increase since the adoption of the current plan in 2005. Overall health care costs inflation, as well as high claims risk, has far exceeded the 5% increase; thus, the CBOPHB believes a long-term alternative is necessary.

The Health Flex model allows the full-time active clergy to “shop” the various plans which best suits their health care needs with a “premium credit.” Premium credits stand for the purchasing power by the clergy participant to shop the health, dental and vision plans. The participant clergy can use the premium credit(s) in whichever purchasing combination they prefer.

The premium credits are purposely based on the pricing of the H2500/HSA, Dental PPO, Vision Premier plans which represent the benefits that are comparable to the current plan benefits.

For 2026, the CBOPHB has approved the premium credits for each category as follows:

Premium Credits for Participant category		Monthly Amount
Employee only	$	1,107.00
Employee and 1 dependent (either spouse or child)	$	2,013.00
Employee and 2 dependents (either spouse or 2 children)	$	2,735.00

Each of the plans offered carry different premium rates set by Wespath, as shown on the next page. They vary due to benefits offered as well as level of deductible, and number of dependents. For more detailed information of each of the plans, please visit <https://www.wespath.org/assets/1/7/5258B.pdf>

Please turn to the next page to view the HealthFlex rates and plans.

3. Plan Selection Differentials

As stated above, the premium credits are set based upon the H2500/HSA plus Dental PPO plus Vision Premier rates published by Wespath. If the participant chooses this combination of health, dental and vision plans and applies their premium credits, the difference should be a $100 per month “overage” to be deposited into their HSA. Thus, the HealthFlex benefits with the premium credits are comparable to the current benefits.

If the participant chooses a plan(s) which creates a positive balance after applying the premium credit, this differential will be credited toward the clergy’s HSA or credited to an HRA on their behalf. This is exclusive of other employee H.S.A contributions the clergy may wish to make through local church payroll deductions. Note that total annual H.S.A contributions are subject to IRS limitations.

If the participant chooses a plan(s) which results in a negative balance due over the premium credit, these amounts will be owed by the clergy through payroll deductions by the local church and remitted to the Conference Benefits Office as part of the monthly billing process.

4. Enrollment and Education Assistance

Wespath has a robust participant education and enrollment counseling process with highly trained advocates that will begin in early fall of 2025 if this change is approved. CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

REPORT I

The detailed report on CBOT's Financial Activities for the year ended December 31, 2024, are reflected as part of the CFA Report II Item 1. A., pages 83-88.

The CBOT's work resulted in the disposition/sale of several properties and revenues raised $2,606,716 for the period June 15, 2024, through May 15, 2025. The net revenues for these sales were $2,077,386 after third party sales commission, and closed church expenses totaling $219,330. The CBOT also funded a $310,000 gift to the Dillard University Lawless Chapel from the sale proceeds of the former Newell UMC property. The sales proceeds are held in trust by the Board of Trustees for the benefit of the Annual Conference following the requirements specified in the Book of Discipline under Paragraph 2549.7.

REPORT II

CORRECTION to the 2024 Journal – Mathews Memorial UMC. Mathews, LA

The CBOT Report II for the 2024 Journal shows that Mathews Memorial United Methodist Church (GCFA#711383), 201 Central Lafourche, Mathews, LA 70375 was closed, but the church never held the final charge conference to formally close. Further, the Mathews church property was formally donated by legal act from the local church to the CBOT in June of 2024. Thus, while the property is now titled in the name of the CBOT, the local church has never been formally closed. Mathews Memorial UMC was closed on February 24, 2025, under exigent circumstances by the Cabinet and Bishop, and is to be presented for approval at the 2025 Annual Conference. See Item 8 below.

Following the 2020/2024 Book of Discipline regarding sales, donations or other changes in ownership of church properties, the Conference Board of Trustees (CBOT) reports the following transactions have occurred from June 15, 2024, through May 25, 2025:

STRATEGIC IMPLEMENTATION TEAM

The Louisiana Conference of The United Methodist Church is committed to its mission to build, connect and equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future. In response to the dynamic changes faced by the Church, the lingering effects of the global pandemic, and the impact of disaffiliation, the Strategic Implementation Team was established in 2024 to guide the conference in a strategic realignment of its organizational structure and missional priorities to ensure that the conference remains resilient, innovative, and faithful in its mission to build connect and equip for the future. The work of the team is both grounded in and guided by the Organizational Review Report developed by Dr. John Wimberly and presented to the 2024 Louisiana Annual Conference.

In the Spring on 2024, the Strategic Implementation joined Bishop Williamston and the Extended Cabinet to receive and review the initial organizational review report from Dr. John Wimberly. In his presentation to the group Dr. Wimberly stated that the foundation of the entire strategic process “will be to establish a simple, straightforward statement of understanding about the organization’s goals that is specific enough to give direction for the mission-critical decisions and strategies that will be necessary to align the Conference’s organizational structure and operations with its mission.”

That simple, straightforward vision statement, included at the beginning of this report is “The vision of the Louisiana Conference of The United Methodist Church is to build, connect, and equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future.”

In January, the team gathered for a vision focused retreat at University United Methodist Church in Baton Rouge. Dr. Jackie Stavros, author of SOAR, let the team in a day long exercise designed to help implement SOAR into their work. The SOAR acronym stands for Strengths, Opportunities, Aspirations, and Results. It is like the SWOT analysis, which focuses on Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats, but shifts the focus away from weaknesses and threats, to opportunities, aspirations, and results.

Using the SOAR framework, the team identified three adaptive opportunities and four strategic priorities.

Adaptive Opportunities

1. Make a strategic and hopeful shift to our post-disaffiliation reality.
2. Maximize and optimize financial resources to support future mission and ministry.
3. Develop innovative organizational structures that align resources and staff with mission and ministry.

Strategic Priorities

1. Evangelize new generations while embracing and pursuing diversity.
2. Create a culture of call for both laity and clergy.
3. Prioritize congregational vitality and leadership development.
4. Faithfully and creatively tell the story of The Louisiana Conference of The United Methodist Church.

These strategic priorities will frame the work of the team going forward as they work to address the adaptive challenge of developing a strategic organizational structure that aligns resources and staff with mission and ministry.

We are grateful for the ongoing work of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration in developing a funding plan that maximizes and optimizes our financial resources to fund future mission and ministry that does not require increases in apportionments to local churches. We wholeheartedly endorse their recommendation. It will enable the Strategic Implementation Team to do its best work by letting funding decisions be based on mission and ministry priorities.

We look forward to our continuing work together to build, connect, and equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformational future.

MISSION STAFFING COMMITTEE and CONFERENCE MINISTRY ASSESSMENT TEAM

The work of the Conference Ministry Assessment Team and the Mission Staffing Committee has been carried out jointly and in conjunction with Caitlin Congdon, Chief Officer of Human Resources and Professional Development at GCFA. Over the past year, the following has been completed:

1. Complete Review and Update of HR policies and employee handbook.
2. Reviewed and approved process for hiring new conference treasurer.
3. Reviewed and approved the creation of the Executive Director of Mission and Ministry position and affirmed Bishop Williamston's intent to appoint Rev. Dr. Van A. Stinson to this position effective January 1, 2025.

As the ongoing work of the Strategic Implementation continues, both the Mission Staffing Committee and the Conference Ministry Assessment Team will continue to work in conjunction with GCFA to review and assess our efforts to build connect and equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future.

REPORTS RELATED TO CLERGY EXCELLENCE:

OFFICE OF CLERGY EXCELLENCE

The Office of Clergy Excellence has been working collaboratively this year with Congregational Vitality, the Bishop and Cabinet, and the Board of Ordained Ministry. Much of our work this year has been centered around standardization and equity in processes. Another large portion of our work has been centered around our 2024 stated goal of Clergy Wellbeing.

For the 2024-2025 appointment year, we offered a grief retreat, a day away spiritual formation retreat, two zoom opportunities for prayer and reflection through local church partners, a Calling of the Orders with the Bishop's Office and Board of Ordained Ministry, and Replenish Spring Retreat. Each of these opportunities were intentionally designed to offer clergy space and time away from the pulls of work and daily life to tend to their own hearts, souls, minds, and bodies.

We worked with the Bishop and Cabinet to refine and clarify our appointment making process to center it more intentionally around our G.I.F.T.E.D framework and to prioritize both the missional needs of our local churches and the specific gifts of our pastors.

We also worked with the Bishop and Cabinet to develop a rubric based clergy evaluation tool honing in on 9 core competencies. By standardizing clergy evaluations we hope to eliminate some of the subjective nature of evaluations, and even the playing field between potential challenges like age, gender, race, theology, ability/disability, or other differences that may unconsciously influence SPRCs, congregations, and others who are evaluating clergy. We also hope that by keeping it the same from year to year we can track growth in pastors and in appointments; tailor resources and tools to meet a specific clergy person's needs for growth, and help equip SPRCs and churches to work with pastors in areas of growth and encourage them in areas of giftedness.

In 2025-2026, we will continue to work on refining processes and systems that support and develop our clergy. Including the Transition Academy in partnership with the Office of Congregational Vitality for clergy in "first" appointments; on-boarding for all full-time appointments; optional transitional coaching for all full-time appointment changes; New Appointment Plans; 100 Day Plans; and clearer communication.

Additionally, we will continue to provide meaningful retreats and opportunities for clergy to have time away to care for themselves. We are excited to continue to work in partnership with The Bishop and Cabinet, our Congregational Vitality Strategists, and the Board of Ordained Ministry as we build, connect, and equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future!

Director

CLERGY COUNSELING GRANTS

As a pastoral leader in your church, members of your congregation and community lean heavily on you in times of crisis and celebration, when navigating new life pathways and while in despair. Often you are helping one or more individuals deal with difficult situations at any given time. In more extreme times – such as during the pandemic – the entire church and community looks to you to offer comfort, support, and encouragement as the heaviness of the world weighs on them all.

As you care for others, you may neglect yourself. Your ability to provide effective leadership for your church and community depends greatly on your own total well-being.

We encourage you to share your concerns with someone you trust. Someone with your best interests at heart. Someone who can encourage and support you during difficult times. Your district superintendent is a tremendous resource and is often the best first person to seek out. But, if you find that more help/guidance is needed, the Louisiana Conference provides Clergy Counseling Grants of up to $1500 per year to any clergy under appointment, as well as their spouse or children.

In 2024, twenty-five (25) Clergy Counseling Grant applications were received and approved for up to $1500 each, totaling $37,500. Of the 25 grants provided, seventeen (17) were awarded to clergy under appointment; three (3) were awarded to spouses of clergy under appointment; and five (5) were awarded to children of clergy under appointment. Nineteen (19) different providers, all licensed and credentialed, were employed, with one (1) of them being out-of-state with sessions conducted virtually. At the time of this report, twenty-three (23) applications for 2025 grants have been received and approved for up to $1500 each, totaling $34,500. Of those 23 grants, sixteen (16) are for clergy; two (2) for clergy spouses; and five (5) for a child of a clergyperson. Funds for 2025 grants are still available, and the online application form can be found on the Louisiana Conference website (Resources – Clergy Support – Counseling Grants). CONFERENCE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Louisiana Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (CBOM) continues to faithfully shepherd those called to licensed or ordained ministry within our Annual Conference. The CBOM is a group of faithful, thoughtful, and committed clergy and lay persons who come from various parts and contexts within our Annual Conference – we are full-time local church pastors, retired clergy, faithful lay members in our local churches, healthcare professionals, bridge-building deacons, college chaplains, but most of all, we are fellow sojourners along The Way with our candidates for ministry. We are the credentialing body of the Annual Conference, and we are so much more – we seek to celebrate our candidates and challenge them to grow in their capacity for ministry in the Louisiana Annual Conference.

This past year, the CBOM experienced significant change in the makeup of our board as the past quadrennium came to an end. We elected new officers to our executive committee, adopted a simplified structure, and underwent a board-specific diversity training (Intercultural Development Inventory) to increase the cultural competency of our board members. All of this work was done to equip our board to do its best work on behalf of the Annual Conference.

I'd like to share with the Annual Conference that the CBOM is undergoing a rigorous evaluative study of our Residence-in-Ministry (RIM) process, CBOM policies, and avenues of support for our existing clergy. Our purpose is to align the work of the CBOM with the current needs of our ministry candidates, the needs of the local church, and the ongoing opportunities within the mission field. I'd like to thank Rev. Allison Sikes (Chair of the Division of Elders) and Rev. Lauren Frazier-McGuin (Chair of the Division of Deacons) for leading our RIM Team, Rev. Marissa Horvath (Vice-Chair of the CBOM) for leading our policies team, and Rev. Leslie Hyacinth (Chair of the Order of Elders), Rev. Charles Washington (Chair of the Division of Local Pastors and Associate Members), Rev. Barbara Calhoun-Gibson (Chair of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members), and Rev. Lenda Faye Matthews (Chair of the Order of Deacons) for leading our formation & support team.

ORDER OF ELDERS

It is with great enthusiasm that I write this report. This year has been a beautiful season of rebuilding and reconnecting. With disaffiliations in our conference closed we have finally been able to begin the important work of healing and dreaming about the future. As our Bishop so often reminds us, we are moving forward with hope! For the first time in many years we had a calling of the Orders and Fellowship event. Led by Rev. Dr. Kevass Harding, this gathering provided a space for us to worship, learn, play, and experience the great gift of each others presence. We look forward to more of these in the future.

As your Order of Elders chair, I am given the privilege of serving on both the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Executive Committee. Through this work it has come to my attention that we are in need of Mentors to work with both men and women exploring a call to ministry and those in process. To this end, we will have a mentor training in June during annual conference. If needed we will offer an additional training within the next year. All persons interested in serving as a mentor must attend this training. I also have been doing some work along with others on the board around the recruitment of new persons called to ministry as well as finding ways that we can stay connected and support those in process. This work is vital to the continuation of our witness as the United Methodist Church. Finally, I am continuing to develop and find ways for those of us who are part of the Order of Elders to strengthen our connection through fellowship and worship opportunities. It is my hope to offer more of these in the coming year.

If you have any concerns, suggestions, or ideas feel free to reach out. My email is pastorleslie@mac.com. Thanks again for all you do to serve Christ and our conference so faithfully day in and day out.

ORDER OF DEACONS & DIACONAL MINISTERS

Order of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers is a lifelong call to “Word, Service, Compassion and Justice, to both the community and the congregation. The Order’s ministry connects the two (BOD ¶ 329). Deacons bridge the church and the world, serve with compassion, and bring justice to all who are on the margins of society (BOD ¶329) and to those in the pews. In addition to local congregations, Deacons of the Louisiana Annual Conference work in the world in community centers, nonprofit institutions, counseling agencies, healthcare, in education, prisons, and courts; deacons are reaching out and drawing people in from all vocations and occupations. Deacons live and proclaim the Gospel story as they help lead whosoever will to an abundant life in Christ through music ministry, spiritual direction, missions, education, local church ministries, preaching, teaching, pastoral care, and justice in and outside the local church. The Order of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers is a “covenant community within the church to mutually support, care for, and hold accountable its members for the sake of the life and mission of the church” (BOD ¶306). The purpose of the Order is to nurture and support one another, to continue formation through regular gatherings, to create unity through relationship building, and to develop trust. Currently, the Order of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers includes two (2) Diaconal Ministers, three (3) Provisional Deacons, and twelve (12) Deacons in Full Connection. At this Annual Conference, no

Deacons will be commissioned or ordained. We have twenty-four (24) retired Deacons in the Louisiana Annual Conference. One (1) deacon will retire this year. Recently, we celebrated the life and ministry of Rev. Barbara LaVerne Murray (retired), the first African American to serve as Chair of the Division of Deacons; she died January 25, 2025.

Deacons meet as an Order twice a year. During each Annual Conference we meet in person for dinner to connect with each other and to celebrate those commissioned and ordained. Gratitude to First UMC, Baton Rouge for hosting and providing the meal. In October 2024, we held our Annual Retreat and Day with the Bishop at the Wesley Center. There were ten (10) in attendance relaxing, sharing Deacon news with Bishop Williamston and discussing the changes approved by the General Conference 2024 that affect Deacons, particularly sacramental authority.

The Order of Deacons and Diaconal Ministers' commitment to serving as the bridge between the church and the world remains. Our challenge is to invite others who hear the call to this unique service as God's called to ordained ministry to lead the church in service, to educate about the identity and role of Deacons and Diaconal Minister. We are both humbled and honored to be the hands and feet of Jesus as we serve in our individual appointments outside the local church and within local congregations throughout the Louisiana Annual Conference.

LICENSING SCHOOL

The Louisiana Annual Conference conducted its Licensing School for 2025 in the Spring. Under the leadership of Pattye Hewitt, Director, and Rev. JoAnn Cooper, Assistant Director, four persons successfully completed their studies through the Candler School of Theology online course. Several clergy persons in our Annual Conference served as presenters and evaluators for the student's work this year. We are so very grateful for their service. Also completed by the students was an online Clergy Sexual Ethics course through Lewis Center. An overnight retreat was taken April 4th & 5th at the Wesley Center for fellowship, learning and celebrating the culmination of Licensing School.

MINISTER'S EMERGENCY FUND

The Ministers' Emergency Aid Fund is supported by the clergy of the Louisiana Conference who voluntarily contribute one-half of one percent of their base salary annually. We recommend the following guidelines for the Ministers' Emergency Aid Fund:

1. That each clergyperson under appointment in the Louisiana Conference is asked and encouraged to give an amount equal to one-half of one percent of their base salary for 2024 and 2025 to the Ministers' Emergency Aid Fund. These amounts can be deducted from the clergy's payroll and remitted to the Conference office as often as desired (line 5030 on the Conference Remittance Sheet).

2. That this fund be used to provide emergency benefit aid to the clergy of the Louisiana Conference and their immediate families, subject to the following guidelines:

- a. The maximum amount allowed for a single emergency grant shall be $1,500
- b. Exceptional situations may be given special consideration by the Cabinet
- c. Only one grant will be provided to any one individual in a twelve-month period

In calendar year 2024, Conference clergy contributions and Annual Conference offerings for the Minister's Emergency Aid Fund totaled $13,027.23.00, with $128,046.00 being carried over into 2024. Four (4) grants of $1,500.00 each for a total of $6,000, were distributed to clergy families this past year. Many thanks to all our clergy who contribute to the support of colleagues in their times of need. Seeing more clergy involved in this effort is encouraging and inspiring. Your aid has made a difference!

RETIRED MINISTERS' HOME BOARD, INC.

The Retired Ministers' Homes Board, Inc. of the Louisiana Conference is a wonderful resource for our retired ministers and/or their surviving spouses that very few other conferences have.

When ministers retire, they lose the care of a congregation and the provision of a parsonage. The goal of the Retired Ministers' Homes Board (RMHB) is to help with that transition by providing comfortable, affordable housing at a low price (18 cents per square foot per month).

We currently have 25 homes to serve our retirees. Except for one house, which is currently being sold, all the homes are occupied. We have been slowly making up-grades to some of the home and are making good progress.

We are thankful for the generous donations from many of the congregations in our Conference, and we are always happy to have one of our Board members speak to your church about our work. We believe this is a great opportunity to continue supporting those who have supported us for their entire careers.

We covet your prayers and donations to continue this important service for our retired ministers, many of whom are still actively serving in churches – your support is greatly appreciated.

REPORTS RELATED TO CONGREGATIONAL VITALITY:

CONGREGATIONAL VITALITY STRATEGIST

In July 2024, Rev. Robert Johnson and I began full-time appointments as strategists in the Office of Congregational Vitality. Our work has not just expanded but adapted as these appointments become fully focused on vitality in our Annual Conference. My report is to discuss the breadth of ministry that comes out of my role as Strategist.

The Congregational Development Guidelines report was last updated in 2018. Now, it reflects our current understanding of Vitality. It also details how we envision starting new ministries and churches in our Annual Conference. I have also received an invitation to expand this work to local churches, Wesley Foundations, and other ministries of the Annual Conference.

Vitality is important for all our ministries. However, we know many congregations must focus on stability first. Moving into vitality without stabilizing key ministry functions weakens its foundation. We looked into these ideas and teamed up with churches in the connection. We found 4 stages of Vitality and the core categories that help it grow. The seven core categories are easy to measure. We've made tools to help congregations reduce growth anxiety. These tools also help set clear goals and plans. We are in a situation where the answer to almost every church is "You need to grow" and we are ready and prepared to assist people in this task.

In addition, we are introducing two new grant programs to the churches of the Annual Conference, which are open to all churches. The Growth Grant program helps churches connect with new people. It focuses on personal evangelism and getting the local church ready to welcome them. The Capitol Grant program assists congregations in facility repairs to become long-lasting places of Christian ministry.

We've worked with dozens of churches across the connection, focused deeply on strategic mission fields, provided coaching and counsel to pastors, and assisted the work of the Annual Conference in different ways. We are building a stronger relationship with the Office of Clergy Excellence. This helps us prepare pastors in transition through the Transition Academy.

I am excited about what the 2025/2026 Annual Conference year will bring!

Rev. Chad Brook,

BLACK CHURCH VITALITY STRATEGIST

Commitment to Vitality

We are dedicated to growth, unity, and community impact within black churches. This aims to align with the Conference's vision. The strengths of the Black Church are community, perseverance, resilience, faith, and historical significance

Call to Action

Jesus called out to them, "Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!" (Matthew 4:19 NLT)

We encourage churches to reach out to new members using innovative strategies and the "right bait" while aligning with the Conference's transformative future vision. We hope to continue to help educate churches to start "Seeing All of Our Neighbors." We have the tools needed to help our black churches become vital congregations. We must find what attracts people to other churches in our community—hence, the "right bait."

Now is the time for United Methodists to go fishing, just as Jesus called the disciples to go and fish for people. The "right bait" may be the music, preaching, evangelism, outreach, family events, or the intentional welcoming that will attract people to the local United Methodist Church.

Data Insights

Data analysis revealed areas for improvement and creative disciple-making approaches. By gathering data from our black churches, we have learned that only fifteen of the black churches in the Louisiana Conference have fifty or more people attend worship every Sunday morning. The data showed that in 2023, only 55.7% of the black churches in the conference didn't have one profession of faith nor any baptisms at their local Church. These analytics help us plan and execute our initiatives throughout the year.

Church Visits & Workshops

- 44 church visits across the state
- Hosted 18 workshops for congregation outreach and assessments
- Hosted a Black Church Convocation

Community Rebuilding

We have more black churches creating new ministries and applying for grants from the United Methodist Foundation. As of June 2024, twenty-one Black Churches have received specific grants, helping them through outreach ministry to meet the needs of their communities. Those 21 grants totaled $156,125. This support allows the black church to continue to live out its purpose as a beacon of hope for the black community.

Education & Networking

- Attended the School of Congregational Development
- Participated in National Gathering to acquire now and innovative strategies

Training Focus Areas Shared Throughout the Year

- Methodism 101
- Technology
- Evangelism
- Leadership
- Community Engagement

Listening Sessions

We conducted impactful listening sessions to address churches' needs and to foster collaboration. We conducted four Black Church Listening Sessions across the Louisiana conference with the help of the Office of Clergy Excellent, Rev. Ali Young, the chair of Diversity Equity and Inclusion, Rev. Katrena King, and Conference Lay Leader John Smith. We met at various black churches across the conference: Fairfield UMC- Shreveport, Louisiana Avenue UMC - Lafayette, Roberts UMC- Denham Springs, and Thomas UMC-Kenner. The total number of people who attended these listening sessions was 119; there was fruitful dialogue between pastors and laity. It was a perfect time to share ideas to help our churches become vital faith communities across the conference.

Building Connections

We are strategizing ways to adapt to community needs, engaging youth, unity, and focus on outreach. As mentioned above, the Louisiana Conference hosted a Black Church Convocation with more than 100 attendees who came together at the Wesley Center in Woodworth, Louisiana, in February 2025. This gathering was filled with powerful learning, sharing, connecting, and spiritual awakening moments. The convocation focused on strengthening relationships and sharing resources to help churches thrive. We were able to share new ways to grow—not just in numbers but also in faith and community impact.

Financial Support & Convocation

The black churches in the Louisiana Conference are faithful to the connection and doing their part of being a United Methodist. Among the 105 Black Churches in the Louisiana Conference, 93.16% of their apportionments were paid. We would like to recognize that 91 black Churches have paid 100% of their apportionments. These statistics indicate a strong financial commitment from these churches.

Future Focus Areas

- Financial Sustainability
- Leadership Development
- Outreach Strategies
- Community Engagement
- Marketing efforts to attract newcomers

Endorsement & Appreciation

We recognize and appreciate the significant impact the Black United Methodist Churches have in our communities and in our conference. We strive to continuously remind our churches and their communities of who we were and who we are. We will always keep the purpose of the church at the forefront of what we do, which is to impact lives inside and outside the building of a church. May we remember our strengths as a black church by reclaiming our story and continue to remember our role as a beacon of hope and a community change agent. We will continue to grow our churches and their communities in faith, resilience, and perseverance.

May my work help the Black United Methodist Churches of the Louisiana Conference build, connect, and equip disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future.

Rev. Robert E. Johnson, Sr.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION STRATEGIST

The last Conference year has been a busy time in the world of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Strategist for the Louisiana Annual Conference. Priorities for the work have been taking a deeper look at the different folks that make up our church community, as well as the communities around our congregations, and helping them build bridges across their distinctions. Rev. King continues to carry out Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) assessments for members of the Extended Cabinet and others. A focus on diversity, equity, and inclusion work is highlighted at every Extended Cabinet meeting, as an opportunity to continue to address the challenges seen within our Conference and the world.

A heavy emphasis has been placed on learning from our Conference's stakeholders, and Rev. King assisted Rev. Robert Johnson with a series of Black Church Listening Sessions. Rev. King's People Like Me Retreat was hosted in May of 2025, with training and topics that were developed as a result of what she heard at these sessions:

- Introduction to the Intercultural Development Inventory
- Letting Others Lead – How to Pass the Mantle to the Next Generation
- Tough Conversations – In Your Church, In Your Community

- Connecting with the Community; However it Looks
- Telling Your Story Authentically—You + Your Church
- Casting Vision & Finding Resources to Support It

She also attended the Black Church Convocation and spent time celebrating the faith and culture of black churches in our area. Rev. King also speaks at Rev. Chad Brooks' Small is the New Big workshops, with topics on how to work with communities that may seem different from a church's congregation.

Most recently, Rev. King has actively walked alongside the LGBTQIA+ Ministry Team as a liaison to the Extended Cabinet, trained and convened the Bishop's Response Team which responds to traumatic situations in a congregation or community's life, and worked to re-activate the Louisiana Annual Conference's Annual Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

Rev. King remains available to provide training, workshops, and facilitation conversations on challenging topics, such as diversity, equity, and inclusion work, conflict management, and community building. Her goals in the new year will focus on helping to prepare congregations and clergypersons for appointments that are cross-cultural or cross-racial, as well as seeking to help others find common ground in times that are challenging.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Strategist

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION & CAMPUS MINISTRY

The work of this Board echoes and reflects the mission of the Conference to Build, Connect, and Equip disciples of Jesus Christ.

We are proud to support our UM Universities and our Campus Ministries. This year, we have been overhauling our covenantal agreements and expectations for our Campus Ministries. We know that each campus ministry is unique, and we will be working with them to help ascertain measurements of growth and success that make sense in their unique contexts. We know our campus ministries can be the front lines of raising up leaders in the church, and we work to build them up.

We give thanks to the United Methodist Foundation for funding a grant for our Campus Ministries to host a workshop retreat for their Board of Directors focusing on Sustainable Fundraising for Campus Ministries. This is not just for one campus, but is open across Louisiana, furthering our connection between the campus ministers, equipping them for sustainable ministry in a world where costs keep rising at every turn.

We also have made some updates in our budget allocations for those campus ministries located in areas that have little to no UMC connection. In order to remain faithful to our connectional roots, we require our Campus Ministries to be anchored to a United Methodist Church in the immediate area, in order to receive funding. We also encourage ecumenical relationships, so long as the denominations do not conflict with our core values, and they do not disparage our Campus Ministries, nor our denomination. We know campus ministry is at its best when supported by the local church. For the campus ministries that have lost UMC connections in the local churches, we call upon the departed local churches, and where applicable, their parent denominations, to match the support previously given by the Louisiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. This support continued to our Campus Ministries for 24 months, making use of the funds used by the churches upon their disaffiliation agreements. And after 24 months (June 30, 2025), reallocations needed to be made, to ensure more equitable funding from across the Conference towards our UMC campus ministries. The Methodist movement started as campus ministry in Oxford. We know the power of what God can do on college campuses, and the effective ministry that can be done.

Please be in prayer for our campus ministries, as they work to build, connect, and equip disciples of Jesus Christ.

Rev. Katie Black,
Chair of Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

LA Tech Wesley Foundation

Last school year, two students professed saving faith in Jesus, and we saw significant growth (especially among freshmen) at all the deeper formative layers of Wesley's community. Likewise, half the students on our mission trip to Ethiopia this past summer were either freshmen or new members of the community. During this present school year we've seen many students come suddenly into vital relationship with Jesus, and there are a handful of other non-Christians in our community who seem on the verge of conversion. Recently, we discerned together that the Lord was leading us to reformat our Tuesday evening worship gathering. At the start of Spring quarter we launched a brand new worship band, and we've been amazed at the outpourings of the Holy Spirit every Tuesday. At that worship gathering we've seen a notable increase in the number of women and international students in attendance. More broadly, we've seen an outbreak of deep healing and breakthroughs in our students' lives — some of whom we've known for years and some of whom we've just recently met. During a weekly evangelical discipline we call "Two by Tuesdays" we send out students and staff in pairs onto campus at lunchtime to minister and pray with students we've never met before. Lately at Two by Tuesdays we've been astonished at the ways the Holy Spirit has consistently led us to precisely those college students who are in the darkest places and who most need to hear the gospel. Tuesday after Tuesday we hear students we've just met telling us (often through tears) how deeply they needed someone to reach out to them or that they had literally begged God that morning to send someone into their lives. This spring so many students have been consistently attending our Monday and Thursday Community Groups that we're going to have to divide the groups to form new ones. This summer our mission team will travel to Appalachia to care for the poor and provide relief for victims of hurricane Helene. This next school year we're hiring the largest team of full-time Missionary Interns we've hired in three years.

For decades God has accomplished abundant growth in the lives of students through the Wesley on Louisiana Tech's campus. During my own tenure as Director we've baptized fourteen people. Over the course of those same nine school years, we've sent fourteen Wesley interns and students to seminary and several more into full-time ministry. We continue to see God raising up a new generation of pastors and missionaries. We anticipate two of our incoming Missionary Interns will go on to seminary and the pastorate when they leave Wesley. Just last week yet another student accepted God's call to become a minister of the gospel. No matter how established its legacy, every Wesley Foundation finds itself in uncharted waters in the aftermath of the denominational split. On March 24th, 2025 the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry informed us that as of July 1, 2025 Louisiana Tech Wesley will cease to receive any further financial support from the Conference due to the lack of a UMC presence in our area. Though it will be a significant challenge to replace the loss of what had amounted to approximately 33% of our core operating budget, by the grace of God, we are not afraid. Instead, we're grateful that it's been granted to us not only to believe in Christ but also to suffer for his sake. We have every confidence not only that we will survive these financial challenges, but that the Lord will continue to add to our number day by day those who are being saved. Moreover, we are galvanized in fervent prayer for revival and awakening on Tech's campus at a scale that will extend far beyond the bounds of our own ministry. Our staff, our student Discipleship Team, and our board are in full accord and of one mind. As the Apostle Paul said in Acts 20, our singular focus is to fulfill the calling we've received from the Lord Jesus Christ — to testify solemnly of the gospel of the grace of God.

Rev. W. Ryan Ford, Director

Wesley Foundation at LSU

Rev. Mary Rachel Moore was appointed as director of the Wesley Foundation and associate minister at University UMC in July 2024. During the academic year, students worshipped weekly and shared meals provided by Baton Rouge area United Methodists. With the University of Louisiana, Lafayette Wesley United Campus Ministry, the LSU Wesley Foundation did a collaborative spiritual service retreat in October. We worshipped with First Grace UMC, New Orleans, and served with Hagar's House. A few students live at the Wesley Foundation and serve as leaders. A small group of students grew attached to one another, shared communion weekly and drew comfort and support from each other and the practices of our faith. We are reengaging in campus life by reaching out to students and staff across campus. We look forward to connecting with the incoming students and making disciples for Jesus Christ at LSU. You can help us by recommending the Wesley Foundation to any LSU students you know.

The Wesley Foundation is working with Rev. Chad Brooks, congregational vitality strategist, to determine the potential for our ministry at LSU and to develop measurable goals for the coming year.

The Wesley Foundation was without a director for nearly two academic years. We are excited to rebuild our campus ministry at LSU and serve the changing needs of college students. The board of the Wesley Foundation will soon participate in a fundraising for campus ministries workshop with Cargill and Associates. Given the forecasted changes in the annual conference budget, the Wesley Foundation is committed to finding adequate funding to continue serving LSU students that they may grow in their faith, their love of God and their love of neighbor. After a property condition assessment, the board is making plans to address the short-term repair needs of our beautiful building. We appreciate the prayers and support of the Louisiana Annual Conference as we face the challenges ahead with hope and faith.

The Labyrinth/NOLA Wesley

The Labyrinth/NOLA Wesley is a joint campus ministry between the LA UMC Wesley Foundations and the Presbyterian Church (USA)'s 1001 New Worshipping Communities. We function as a pay-what-you-can café, community center, and worshipping community.

Special moments from last semester as a worshipping community:

- 1) Being asked by two students to help them mediate a conflict and witnessing the forgiveness and healing they offered each other.
- 2) Hosting a pumpkin carving night with tons of snacks and music. I got to meet a bunch of new students and hear some funny stories.
- 3) Learning about The Labyrinth/NOLA Wesley through the reputation that's been cultivated over the years. For instance: Students knew they could come and ask us for leftover coffee and food to distribute to people they knew needed it; Students knew they could ask to use our space for Black Student events, Queer Student Alliance, and peacemaking group events; When I met community members in the city and I told them where I worked, people always responded with "Oh, I know that place!" and a heartwarming story about a positive experience they'd had in our building.
- 4) Feeling affirmed in my call by students seeking me out and asking wonderfully thoughtful theological questions. Feeling honored to be trusted by students to pray for them and their concerns that they raise during Prayers of the People.
- 5) Attending Montreat's College Conference with a student and a supporting partner church.
- 6) As a worshipping community we explored stories from the Bible on Sunday nights, went together to protests calling for peace, walked the labyrinth, prayed and cried and laughed together, learned about modern day prophets together, and broke bread together.

Last year overview for the café ministry:

- 30 students from Loyola and Tulane on staff in 2024
- 42,904 customer visits, 36,122 of those visits were repeat visitors.
- Hosted 30 community lunches, offering 4,000 students a free meal

-The cafe expenses are offset by student donations and remains a strong operation.

The Labyrinth café continues to grow and thrive as a place where students feel welcome and can access affordable food options!

2025-2026 Cafe and Worshipping Community Goals:

- Grow Sunday evening attendance to 20+, engage students in Sunday evening worship leadership.
- The café would like to apply for grants in order to broaden our impact by feeding more students and community members.

Requests for prayer:

- Many students we interact with are feeling the effects of our current administrations' policies directed toward college campuses.
- Our board is in a time of transition and we are seeking new and engaged members.

SLU Kairos Campus Ministry

2024 was a challenging but inspiring year for the SLU Kairos Campus Ministry. Our long time director left on short notice in June of 2023. Through 2023 the Board of Directors with Rev. John Gilmore as chair and a dedicated group of volunteers maintained the ministry on a limited basis, caring for 8 residents, maintaining the building, and relocating and restarting the Career Closet professional clothing ministry.

To continue serving the Southeastern Louisiana University, in 2024, we developed cooperative ministries with First Christian Church, First Hammond UMC, and First Presbyterian Church of Hammond. With volunteers from these churches and other local churches, we fed over 50 International students during Spring Break as well as starting a campus wide Monday lunch in the Spring of 2024. We hired a part time interim director in March of 2024 who guided weekly meals and cared for the residents. Our interim director left in May of 2024. We actively searched for a new full-time Director and had a promising candidate but were not able to hire her. In September 2024, Rev. John Gilmore retired from ministry, and Karen Williams (Hammond FUMC) and Janet Holton (Hammond First Presbyterian) became co-chairs of the Wesley board. With active volunteers, we continued our ministry of weekly and sometimes bi-weekly campus lunches and started a popular coffee and breakfast ministry on Wednesday and Thursday. Developing our cooperative ministry and inviting partners in, we developed the Kairos Campus Ministry Plan which will help guide us moving forward this year of 2025. We also hired Rev. Bonnie Simerly as our interim director. Rev. Simerly has been invaluable to Kairos Ministry, organizing and managing the coffee shop, giving counsel to the residents and others involved in activities at the Wesley, providing an Advent Study and activities, and helping with physical upkeep.

Kairos Campus Ministry Plan

Mission: To Proclaim and reflect the love of Jesus Christ to, with, and for the students, faculty, and staff of Southeastern Louisiana University.

Vision: Kairos Campus Ministry is a welcoming place where all people are INVITED to explore their spiritual life and become aware of Jesus Christ and how he lived in the world; INSPIRED to grow in faith and ethical living, as well as learning what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ; and ENCOURAGED to live their lives by doing no harm, doing good, and staying in love with God and with our neighbors.

Where We've Been

The building that houses the Kairos Campus Ministry was built in 1956 on the south side of the growing Southeastern Louisiana University. As SLU grew and expanded, the Wesley served the students, faculty, and staff faithfully through fellowship, bible study, and service. Over the summer of 2016, a new vision was adopted and renovations began. By the beginning of Fall 2016, over $100,000.00 in material and labor was donated which allowed the building to increase its digital, musical, educational presence as well as operate a well-attended Cafe that serves as a meeting and gathering place with morning coffee and fellowship.

Where We Are Going

God has given us an important vision of how we should operate as a community, a sanctuary, and a constant source of comfort, patience, and opportunities for thoughtful and honest discourse. Southeastern has over 14,000 students on campus every week, hundreds of adults who are faculty and staff, and 6,000 additional individuals who call Hammond home. A significant number of participants are international students, as are 4 out of 5 of our Wesley residents. Sharing religious and cultural traditions, learning from one another and respecting all as children of God is essential to Kairos Ministry at Southeastern Wesley. The Wesley endeavors to reach all students, faculty, and staff with the beautiful gospel of Jesus as the light of the world, a guide to truth and charity. We will grow by creating vital mission and worship experiences in our facility.

For the Southeastern Community. As we have created spaces in our community that have welcomed in individuals, we have begun to build a sense of fellowship, even family, at the least a feeling of welcome and acceptance.

We plan to host a Lenten study and worship experience as well as a weekly worship service. We are also planning to host a musical night of folk, soft rock, or other popular and praise music hosted by KSLU radio hosts of the show the Best in American Music, which will include both invited performers and spaces for aspiring students and artists, including poets and singer/songwriters..

We plan to partner more directly with Hammond First Presbyterian and with regional United Methodist Churches. We wish to expand our capacity for lunches and for offering cafe selections and hours. We would also welcome our church partners to join in leading discussion groups and other activities.

We will continue with our career closet, providing professional clothing for Southeastern students.

For Insiders: The Southeastern Wesley will continue to be a safe place for students who are familiar and comfortable with a welcoming and affirming expression of Christianity. It will also be a safe place for any follower of Jesus to grow in their own faith by being disciplined in such a way that they will be fully prepared and capable to make other disciples. It will be a place for existing followers of Jesus to participate in a community of intentional living, merging their lives with not only other followers of Jesus but with others who might be open to seeking God. It will also welcome those of other religions who wish to engage with disciples of Christ and to live in peace with their neighbors.

Vision for Ministry: As a result of this ministry, we would like to see our students become the following kind of persons:

Spiritually Centered:	Open to God's voice and presence.
Prayerful:	Someone who possesses a personal prayer life.
Equipped:	Ready to face the world and prepared to make right decisions.
Community:	Understanding that spiritual growth is a team sport and that in order to grow they need to be in relationship with others who provide accountability and advice.
Student of the Word:	Biblically knowledgeable with a desire to learn even more.
Evangelistic:	Inspired to demonstrate God's love to others.
Servants:	Aware of others' needs with a yearning for service and mission.

Challenges:

- Financial concerns. There is compelling need for upgrading safety features, such as easily accessible exits, repairing lighting, inspecting the roof for possible leaks, upgrading kitchen appliances, maintaining stove and ovens.
- Personnel concerns. We need an adequate number of preparers and servers for meals and coffee, to maintain the career closet, and volunteer or paid staff to supervise the facility to be open for hours of recreation or study and also to be available to residents after hours.

Wesley United Campus Ministry (UL-Lafayette Wesley)

It is a true gift to share time and space with college students and young adults. If we give them the opportunity, they can show us what church might look like with reimagined communities and deep commitment to loving our neighbors through service. There is much to celebrate and here is a quick summary of life at UL Wesley.

Our Monday Free Lunch is the kickoff for our weekly schedule and our largest point of invitation and introduction that exists. Fluid and energetic (sometimes chaotic), we welcome a wide spectrum of backgrounds into our space. Completely free and with “no strings attached”, we average approximately 25 people in attendance per lunch date (as of late March). We encourage our various meal partners/church folks to join us for the meal. These conversations have proven to be life-giving on both sides of this engagement.

Our Wesley Advisory Committee (WAC) is concluding its second full academic year. Our student leaders are completely voluntary. They have agreed to grow and stretch for the further expansion of the UL Wesley community and themselves, on a personal level.

The servant hearts of our students are easily the most humbling and beautiful thing to witness. We have found ways to serve collaboratively with both campus entities and within our UMC connection. We gather a large group every year for The Big Event, and our partnership with the three (3) UM Children's Homes continues to bless the 150+ children with handmade valentines, stuffed animals, and snacks. We added the Do Good Retreat (New Orleans service trip) this fall in collaboration with LSU Wesley and are coordinating details for our Mission Trip in May – plugging into UMArmy's College Week in Victoria, TX. Worship looks different at UL Wesley. We have maintained our monthly dinner church-type experience we call Family Dinner, complete with real plates and real conversation. But, we have returned to a rhythm that includes weekly chapel which has proven to be one of our most sacred times and spaces shared.

Donut Days are some of the most fun we get to have. Each semester we pick a Wednesday and hand out donuts and fresh-made coffee and bottles of water. We are reaching 500+ students in a small window of time and this April we aim to distribute 35 dozen donuts in record time (there will be a stopwatch running). Constantly we answer the questions “why” and “what's the catch?” – our students are redefining who “church people” can be for so many that we meet.

Retreats are beloved moments that our students experience. As mentioned earlier, we enjoyed the Do Good Retreat in the fall and returned to partner with our ministry friends in Texas for College Winter Weekend at John Knox Ranch in February. The Holy Spirit continues to move in and through our young people.

We have our Oldies group of young alumni, grad students, and young professionals that continue to be a sweet community. We are still connected with local churches for our UL Campus Cupboard (food pantry), and you can always find a few friends giggling away over a board game or puzzle. Our workstations help a LOT of homework and assignments get completed, and we always consume plenty of coffee and desserts – and they're always free!

The future is hopeful, and God remains incredibly faithful. The work continues, as does the growth and evolution of our ministry. Intentionality is critical to everything we do. We stay rooted in building relationships by loving God and loving neighbor and we do our best to keep it simple. We love whoever walks in the door and we let God do what God does.

It is with immense gratitude that this report concludes. May God's peace be with you.

UL – Monroe Wesley Foundation

This report will reflect the activities of this campus ministry for the 2024/25 academic year. We see the campus as our mission field, and most of what we do targets three specific groups: Athletes, Greek Life, & International Students. Below will be a list of different events or weekly activities followed by a brief explanation of what takes place at each one.

ULM Baseball

Team Breakfast - Every Friday morning the players & coaches meet at the Wesley Foundation to cook and eat. As the team chaplain, Alan Johnson leads the whole group in a discussion rooted in scripture.

Weekly Players Bible Study - This is a voluntary bible study held on Thursday evenings at Wesley. Average attendance in the Fall semester was 9 players. During the Spring, because they are in season, attendance is up and down. Alan has been leading them through the gospel of Matthew this year.

Team Chaplain - Alan spends time with the team at home games, road games, occasional practices, and meetings with individual players and coaches. Most of this time is for building relationships and discipleship opportunities, but on road weekends he also leads daily bible studies and a chapel service on Sunday mornings before games.

Team Building Retreat - This is a yearly event in January held over a Friday/Saturday at a nearby retreat center or on campus utilizing the Wesley Foundation and other campus facilities. Alan works with former players, local church members, and university employees to put together an experience that helps build team unity, stretches the players & coaches spiritually, and challenges them to think “big picture” about their team and their lives.

ULM Volleyball (Indoor)

Team Building Retreat - This event takes place in August and has become an annual event. It is very similar to the baseball team retreat. Following the retreat, we worked with a local church to set up a program to “adopt” players for the school year. We connected pairs of players with families to build community, invite the girls to worship, and give them a family-type connection while they are away from home.

Burgers on the Bayou - Each week (usually Tuesdays) we grill 160 burgers and pass them out to students in Bayou Park. Local churches help provide the food, and we invite different student groups to come help serve. Baseball, Beach Volleyball, Kappa Sigma, Kappa Delta, Softball, and Nursing students all took turns in the Fall Semester. This Spring, Kappa Sigma & Nursing students have been our primary servers.

Monday Night Worship & Bible Study - This event is open to all students. The attendance is very up & down, but we have a consistent group of 12-15 students. The music is student led, and then Alan leads a bible study. We’ve been working through the 4th season of The Chosen, and currently we are studying 1 Samuel. The plan is to incorporate some clips from the series, House of David. Each week students work through a question sheet developed by Alan and then we discuss some of our answers.

Kappa Sigma Brotherhood Retreat - This event was held in September. It was very similar to the baseball retreat. 36 young men participated. Since that time, 5 members of the fraternity have been baptized - 3 of those baptisms were held at the Fraternity House. Alan meets with several fraternity members individually for discipleship. This has been one of our most fruitful places of ministry this year. We have seen a big change in the leadership of Kappa Sigma at ULM.

Good90Podcast - This spring, Alan started a podcast with 3 students from Kappa Sigma. They have recorded 4 episodes so far, and the response from other students has been extremely positive. Alan helps the boys plan the podcast episodes and participates in the actual discussions, but they do all the technical aspects of production and marketing.

Small Groups & Individual Meetings - Alan spends a great deal of time meeting with smaller groups of young men for bible study & discipleship. This is a big piece of our ministry. These meetings have led to things like the podcast, a fraternity bible study of 15 brothers that is 100% percent student-led, building healthy dating relationships, and students helping their friends begin to read scripture and walk with Jesus.

International Students - Kristi Gadwa leads two weekly events for international students.

Tea Time - This is held on Monday afternoons at the Wesley Foundation. This is a relationship building event designed for Americans and Internationals to share different aspects of their respective cultures while the sip on tea and nibble on muffins.

Christianity 101 - This is held on Fridays at lunch at the BCM. International students are invited to come share a meal and learn more about our faith. People from different campus ministries teach about Jesus and lead a question/answer time.

Fall Break Camping Trip - Kristi organizes a tent-camping trip to the beach. This a very popular event and helps provide a strong connection to build relationships that grow throughout the year. This a great opportunity to have conversations and plant the seeds of the Kingdom.

Fellowship Dinners and Individual Meetings - Kristi invests a large portion of her time in the lives of our international students. She and her husband Jason routinely have students over for dinner, and Kristi gives students rides to the grocery store, the doctor's office, or to Taco Bell. She does an incredible ministry of hospitality to students who are incredibly far from home.

Foreign Missions

Natalie Project - Kristi utilizes her connections with local churches in raising funds to rescue Nepali girls who have been trafficked. She coordinates with people in Nepal to reconnect these girls with their families or set them up in a safe house. They are given care and provided with opportunities to attend school or learn a skill.

Dhading Village - Because of previous mission trips to Nepal, Kristi has organized a feeding ministry for children in this mountain village area. She has organized this entire project that feeds 300 children lunch six days a week. Because of Kristi's efforts, Nepalese students at ULM are curious about why Americans would care so much about people across the world. It provides a great platform to talk to them about the love of Christ.

Mexico Mission Trip - This is a long-standing mission for our campus ministry. The trip is typically taken in December, usually departing from Monroe the day after graduation. We work with an organization called Casas Por Cristo to build a home for family in need. We normally take 20-22 people, but it looks like we will have a larger group for 2025 which means we most likely can build two homes instead of one.

Challenges

We have done a good job over the years staying connected to the churches in our area. Alan routinely speaks at local churches and usually brings a couple of students to share testimony. However, these connections could always be stronger. One of our goals is to better utilize social media to tell the Wesley story, instead of simply using it promote events.

Each year we hold two major fundraising events - a Golf Tournament in the Spring and our Sportsman's Auction in the Fall. The Auction has become a very strong event, netting over $60K in 2024. We are always looking for ways to involve more people and grow these fundraisers. Attendance at the Auction is over 200 people, so it's another great opportunity for our students to tell the story of what God is doing in their lives and on our campus.

BOARD OF LAITY

Over the past couple of months, the Board of Laity and its leadership has been working to create space for members to individually and collectively build, connect and equip themselves with the necessary things to fulfill the mission of both the church and the mission which each one of us individually has.

The fulfillment of God's reign and realm in the world is the vision Scripture holds before us. The United Methodist Church affirms that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Savior of the world, and the Lord of all.

As we strive to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world we also strive to, respect all persons. Jesus' words in Matthew provide the Church with our mission: "Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything that I've commanded you" (28:19-20), and "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, and with all your mind. . . . You must love your neighbor as you love yourself" (22:37, 39).

It is stated that the mission of the Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by proclaiming the good news of God's grace and by exemplifying Jesus' command to love God and neighbor, thus seeking the fulfillment of God's reign and realm in the world. Therefore several questions come to mind.

- How can laity be a catalyst within their congregations and communities for making Disciples for Jesus Christ?
- How can Laity serve as a beacon of light to others?
- How can we as Laity recognize, highlight and share our personal and congregational joy to provide hope to others?

Over the past couple of months, the Board of Laity and its leadership has been working to create space for these questions to be answered. Many of the answers can be found in the individual reports which have been submitted as a part of this report. As well as answers to other questions. Questions such as:

What are we making?
What does it look like and
What is my role in this process?

Then later in the process we also began to help each other capture, in support of this year's theme of JOY,

What brings you not your neighbor but, what brings you joy?
Where do I see examples of joy existing within my church?
Where do I see examples of joy existing within my community?

With these things in mind, it is the goal of the Lay Leadership of the Conference, as well as all Lay Persons to strive to subscribe to the following goals.

Be creative in finding ways to build stronger relationships between members of our individual church communities.

I see my church neighbor, but do I know my church neighbor.

Be creative in finding ways to build stronger relationships between members of other congregations. Spend time capturing and sharing the JOY's which God has given you in your life.

Writing them down, revisiting them and being open to sharing them with others. As we respectfully and openly acknowledge that God has brought Joy to our lives, this could possibly serve as a catalyst for someone else to decide to try God and Jesus as a source of THEIR JOY.

Help members of our respective congregations be aware of the many different roles which they can plan in the process of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. These roles are not just structured, educational pursuits but also include roles such as:

Being open to, reading scriptures at church, being a greeter, being a part of a community focused ministry, Sunday school teacher, etc. The road to building disciples has a place for every member of the church. We just have to find our fit.

Board of Laity – Southwest District

Since Annual Conference 2024, Rev. Chad Brooks has hosted two “Small is the New Big” workshops in our District. These are targeted for churches of less than 100 members. One was at Westlake UMC, in Westlake, and the second at First UMC in Lafayette. Both were well attended by clergy and laity.

Rev. Robert Johnson held a listening session in the Fall of 2024 for Black Church leaders at Louisiana Avenue UMC. District Superintendent Francey Hooten reports that this was also well attended.

Over the last year, eight lay people from the Southwest District have entered Candidacy!

On Sunday, March 23, 2025, the Conference LGBTQ+ Ministry Team will have regional gatherings at Asbury UMC, Lafayette and University UMC in Lake Charles. My understanding is that six UM Churches in the state have committed to be locations for these gatherings at 3 pm on March 23rd. Sacred Worth is what they are calling the gatherings, and they are designed to “celebrate the unique value of every individual through engaging conversations, community-building and spiritual encouragement.” Local churches are invited, and everyone is asked to bring an appetizer or dessert to enjoy during the time together.

Drs. Tom and Delecia Carey of Asbury Lafayette will be moving to Phnom Penh, Cambodia to serve as missionaries for three years through Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church. He will be serving in a teaching capacity as an OB/GYN at two hospitals. She will be the Administrator of a Vocational Training Center. Deaconess Report

I have remained faithful to my ministry. I am a wish granter, fundraiser and speaker for the Make-A-Wish Texas Gulf Coast and Louisiana Chapter. I have the opportunity to impact the lives of chronic and critically ill children when they need hope, strength and joy that only a wish can provide. I love being a Deaconess and what I do with Make-A-Wish. It has been a rewarding experience in my life. I love to see the joy on a child's face when I deliver their wish packet to them or receive photos of their wish. It touches my heart to see them so happy, and in return, I receive unspeakable joy because I've made a difference in a child's life.

In 2024, I experienced many amazing things in my ministry, but the two that stand out the most to me are

- I was able to grant the first baseball field to ever be given to a Make-A-Wish child. My child is located in the Slaughter, Louisiana area. It was a memorable day. Jesse loves his baseball field.
- Over a 10 year period, I worked for the Baton Rouge-Hammond, Baton Rouge-Lafayette, and Baton Rouge Districts. I came into contact with numerous United Methodist members. Last year, I was asked by my Make-A-Wish Director to work on a wish for a little girl in the Baton Rouge area. I was so excited when I arrived at the family's home to discover I would be doing a wish for the great granddaughter of Walter and Helen Brock, a couple who had always been so pleasant to me during my time as District Secretary for the Baton Rouge-Hammond and Baton Rouge Districts. I thank God for giving me the opportunity to make a difference in the life of Helen Marie Brock.

As a Deaconess, I am a layperson who was called by God to be in a lifetime relationship in The United Methodist Church for engagement with a full-time vocation in ministries of love, justice, and service. Together, the Deaconesses and Home Missioners form a covenant community that is rooted in Scripture, informed by history, driven by mission, ecumenical in scope, and global in outreach.

The Deaconess and Home Missioner call to ministries of love, justice, and service is defined in Paragraph 1913.1 of the United Methodist Book of Discipline, which states:

Deaconesses and Home Missioners function through diverse forms of service directed toward the world to make Jesus Christ known in the fullness of his ministry and mission, which mandate that his followers:

- Alleviate suffering
- Eradicate causes of injustice and all that robs me of dignity and worth
- Facilitate the development of full human potential
- Share in the building of global community through the church universal

Discernment Events for Deaconesses and Home Missioner Ministry

During a period of discernment, we listen for the call of God on our lives. The Deaconess/Home Missioner Discernment event is an opportunity to explore God's call to vocational ministry, hear and share call stories, and learn what it takes to be in relationship as a Deaconess or Home Missioner.

Our Order continues to grow! As of May 1, 2024 across the United States, we have:

Deaconess Home Missioners: Active – 267, Retired – 119 Home Missionaries: Active – 4, Retired - 44

As of this date, I am the only active Deaconess in the Louisiana Conference.

Last, but not least, I was chosen as one of the women featured in the Women's History edition (March/April 2025 issue) of By Faith magazine. What a blessing!

Respectfully submitted,
Deaconess Brenda Thomas-Nero

Lay Servant Ministries

Lay Servant Ministries is a critical development program for lay leaders within the United Methodist Church, empowering laity to grow in discipleship and better support their home churches. Lay Servant Ministries provides excellent educational opportunities, whether a lay person is pursuing a certification or just seeking continuing education. It is the goal of Lay Servant Ministries to grow participation and disciples for the glory of God.

Following Conference 2024, Lay Servant Ministries held Basic and Advanced courses in different locations in the state.

- On Saturday, October 26, 2024, First UMC Baton Rouge hosted the Basic Course and two Advanced Courses, Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts and Opening Ourselves to Grace.
- On Saturday, January 11, 2025, Gretna UMC hosted the Basic Course and two Advanced Courses, Opening Ourselves to Grace: Basic Christian Practices and Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts.

It is exciting to be able to continue to offer Lay Servant Ministries courses across the state. It is our hope to continue to grow participation in these wonderful educational opportunities available for laity. With promotions from the Conference office, as well as pastoral promotions within the local church, we expect participation in Lay Servant Ministries will only grow.

On a personal note, it has been my joy to instruct two Basic Courses. Our time was well-spent and relationships fostered, and all of our courses and instructors have received positive reviews from course participants.

The goal of Lay Servant Ministries is to continue to offer courses in Louisiana to grow lay leaders, help others discover their spiritual gifts and provide continued training for laity within the Louisiana Annual Conference.

COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

This past year, the Communications Department of The Louisiana Conference has been vigorously active and pivotal in delivering information and fostering connectivity across our conference. Our efforts have been expansive, covering many initiatives significantly enhancing our communication and outreach capabilities.

Throughout the year, we successfully filed over 80 news stories, each crafted to inform, engage, and inspire our members and the wider community. These stories have highlighted key events and developments within the Conference and showcased our congregations' vibrant life and ministry.

In addition to our regular news coverage, our department provided comprehensive communications support for more than 18 major events. This includes significant gatherings such as the 2024 South Central Jurisdictional Conference in Rogers, Arkansas, the Black Church Convocation, the Common Ground Youth Retreat, the Pre-Retirement Seminar, and the HealthFlex webinars. We also supported Lay Ministry Training, the People Like Me retreat, the Sacred Worth gatherings, and the series of workshops titled "Small is the New Big," among others. Our strategic communication planning enhanced Each of these events, ensuring information was timely and accessible.

Our video production team has also been instrumental in creating impactful video content. This year, we provided video support for various reports from Bishop Delores J. Williamston, cabinet members, and other leaders within the Annual Conference. These videos have proven essential in communicating our leaders' visions and actions, thus bridging the gap between the conference leadership and our annual conference members.

Social Media and Digital Engagement

As we navigate the shifting landscapes of digital media, our department has continued to adapt and innovate our social media strategies to enhance our presence and engagement. We've been particularly focused on expanding our reach and role on platforms like Facebook, Instagram, and TikTok, recognizing these platforms' critical role in contemporary communication.

Our Facebook efforts this past year have been particularly noteworthy, achieving significant milestones in digital engagement:

- 140,000 video views, demonstrating the compelling nature of our video content and its broad appeal.
- Reached over 31,000 people, expanding our community and enhancing our visibility across diverse demographics.
- Over 4,000 unique visits, indicating a strong interest in our content and active participation from our audience.

These statistics reflect our success in engaging with the community and underscore our ongoing commitment to effective digital communication.

In conclusion, the Communications Department is steadfast in its commitment to the vision of the Louisiana Conference—building, connecting, and equipping disciples of Jesus Christ for a transformative future. Through our news stories, event support, video production, and dynamic social media engagement, we strive to meet our audience's immediate communication needs and support our church members' spiritual and communal growth. As we look forward to another year, we are energized by the prospect of further enhancing our communication efforts to more effectively share our faith and inspire action across the Conference and beyond.

Todd Rossnagel, Director

LGBTQIA+ MINISTRY TEAM

Over the past year, the LGBTQIA+ Ministry Team has been actively engaged in fostering inclusion and affirming the sacred worth of all people within the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church. Through various events and initiatives, we have worked to build community, provide education, and advocate for a more inclusive church. Below are some of the key activities and milestones from this past year:

1. Annual Conference Table Initiative

At the Louisiana Annual Conference, we hosted an interactive table that invited attendees to place a pin on a map of Louisiana where they know of a welcoming and inclusive congregation. This initiative served as both a visual representation of our progress and an opportunity to identify areas where further advocacy and outreach are needed.

2. Luncheon Gathering

We organized a luncheon that welcomed over 80 people, offering a space for meaningful dialogue and fellowship. At this event, we highlighted the work done at General Conference related to LGBTQIA+ inclusion, and issued a challenge for the way forward as we continue striving for a more affirming and equitable church.

3. Pride Presence Across the State

Our team was present at multiple Pride events across Louisiana, including Baton Rouge, New Orleans, Lafayette, and the Northshore, among others. Through these engagements, we extended a visible and vocal witness of support from the church, demonstrating our commitment to affirming LGBTQIA+ individuals in all communities.

4. Sacred Worth Gatherings

We have begun a series of gatherings called Sacred Worth, designed to build community around inclusion in the church. These gatherings have created safe and affirming spaces across the state where individuals can share their faith journeys, support one another, and explore ways to advocate for greater inclusivity within our congregations. These gatherings have spanned all districts and regions of our state with over 100 attendees.

5. Celebrating a Historic Milestone

We celebrate the recommendation of Dr. John Fletcher as a Licensed Local Pastor, marking a significant milestone as our first “out” candidate. His journey represents a step forward for LGBTQIA+ inclusion within our conference, and we are committed to supporting him and others who follow this path.

As we continue our work, we remain dedicated to creating spaces of love, justice, and radical hospitality within the Louisiana Conference. We are grateful for the support and engagement of the Annual Conference members and look forward to the ongoing journey toward a fully inclusive church. If you are interested in joining this work, please find our page on the Conference website and reach out through the “Contact Us” button.

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES (LACONAM)

2024 was very difficult in Dulac and help has been slow with few volunteer groups. 2024 has seen some progress toward what we might call normal in the midst of disasters. WE had another visitor, Hurricane Francine.

LACONAM celebrates the Faithful witness of our Native American United Methodists and friends who continue to help our Ministries in Dulac.. The faithful members of LACONAM continue to reach out to many people who were struggling and brought Hope in the midst of these devastations.

LACONAM's goal is to encourage other United Methodist Churches and other churches to help rebuild and repair the damages caused by Hurricane Ida and be a Witness for Our Lord and Savior.

Concerns and challenges: LACONAM would like to encourage all Clergy and Laity to understand the uniqueness of our Native American United Methodist Congregation at Clanton Chapel UMC in Dulac.

LACONAM has worked hard to reach out in the name of Clanton Chapel UMC, Clanton Chapel Preschool and the Dulac Community Center who reach out to provide services to the Dulac area. WE ask that everyone know and understand that Clanton Chapel and Clanton Preschool are part of the United Methodist Church's Faith Community- Louisiana Annual Conference, and the Dulac Community Center is an agency of the Women in Faith, two separate entities who work on behalf of our Dulac Community, and work together when necessary. WE continue to see that many churches do not see our two separate and unique structures.

Items for action/vote by the Louisiana Annual Conference: WE ask that our Bishop Delores Williamston, our cabinet, clergy and laity would continue to support our Mission and Ministry, LACONAM, Native American Ministries Sunday, and Our Native American United Methodists in Dulac, and all the Ministries that reach out in the Name of Jesus Christ in the midst of poverty and destruction in Dulac, Louisiana. Let us remember,” WE are Called to Make Disciples for Jesus Christ and Transform the World through Him. If WE do not do this, who will?

In His Service,

Pastor Kirby Verret

Chair of LACONAM and Pastor of Clanton Chapel UMC

2024 UMM ACTIVITY

LAUNCHING A NEW MOBILE UMM RESOURCE

Building on the success of our initial launch into the mobile app arena the General Commission on United Methodist men developed a new platform.

The United Men Ministry app platform will offer "How-To" information as well as an abundance of spiritual content. The dynamic app will continually add new content, resources, links and small group devotions. Personal devotions and studies will also be part of the offered tools.

Available today on the Apple and Android platform the new app enables men to instantly access desired UMM resources wherever they are.

Videos are planned with information on upcoming events and specific training for leaders and individuals. Bible studies and small group studies will also be added making the app especially useful for ad-hoc devotions and instant small group activities.

Expanding on the mobile app is a new website launching soon that will serve as the foundation for UMM communication and resources including an online store.

SCOUTING

PROVIDING A PLACE OPENS CONNECTION.

Who is missing?

When we look around our churches, we ought to ask ourselves: Who is missing?

- ✓ Younger generations are experience seekers.
- ✓ Where the youth are, their families will be.
- ✓ It takes time together to build a relationship of trust.

United Methodist Men are actively working to connect with Youth through our many programs including Scouting.

We are launching a new initiative called "Camp is my Parish" providing a path for adventure that is morally and spiritually centered. The new program is one of several developed to connect to Youth that is mutually beneficial to the youth and volunteers. An interactive church that actively engages with the community can offer numerous advantages, fostering a stronger and more impactful presence in the lives of its members and the wider society. Here are some of the key benefits:

- Building Stronger Relationships: Interacting with the community allows the church to form meaningful relationships with its members and other local residents. This can lead to a sense of belonging, support, and camaraderie, fostering a close-knit community.

- Addressing Real Community Needs: By being interactive, the church can better understand the needs and challenges faced by the community. This enables it to respond effectively and provide relevant support and resources.
- Increasing Outreach and Evangelism: Engaging with the community allows the church to share its message, values, and beliefs in a non-intrusive and respectful manner. This can lead to increased opportunities for evangelism and spreading the gospel.
- Promoting Social Justice and Compassion: An interactive church can actively participate in addressing social issues and promoting compassion. By getting involved in initiatives like feeding the hungry, supporting the homeless, and advocating for justice, the church demonstrates its commitment to making a positive impact on society.
- Enhancing Community Integration: An interactive church is more likely to be seen as an integral part of the local community. This acceptance and integration can lead to more significant contributions and participation in community events and projects.
- Improving Public Perception of the Church: When a church engages positively with the community, it can help dispel negative stereotypes and misconceptions about religion. This can lead to a more favorable public perception of the church and its role in society.
- Fostering Personal Growth and Spiritual Development: Engaging with the community provides opportunities for church members to develop personally and spiritually through service, empathy, and learning from different perspectives.
- Encouraging Diversity and Inclusivity: An interactive church may attract a more diverse congregation and be more inclusive, welcoming people from various backgrounds and walks of life.

LOUISIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE UMM

The LA UMM are thankful for the active encouragement and engagement of Bishop Williamston who is reaching out meeting with all of the Laity leadership.

The LA UMM leadership joined in with denominational men's leaders in several activities this past year. Together with the other denominational men's ministry leaders, the LA UMM created YouTube devotional videos celebrating the key holidays of the year.

Working with this same group the LA UMM wrote Men's Studies available as a free download in the "LifeLines" series available on www.projecttwelve.net. Over 100 small group bible studies have been created in this ongoing project.

UMM Groups across the conference and nation are presently making use of these free studies. Centered on topics that are relevant to men, these serve to equip men while building intimate relationships in a small group format.

Created to be useful in a variety of settings these studies work as well for two men in a coffee shop as they do for a small group or even a Sunday School environment. Each study is complete with questions that encourage interaction from all participants.

Plans are underway to host District Summits throughout the state inviting all local church leaders, staff and clergy to join in. The purpose of the Summit is to share the many ways the local church can be supported through UMM and what tools and resources are available. An example of some of the training available includes:

- Small Groups based on John Wesley's "Class Meeting".
- The John Wesley "Band Meeting" concept for personal support.
- "Lead Like Jesus" for Church Leadership.
- "Way of the Carpenter" which is a practical application of the model Jesus used to develop His disciples based on the four skills of a Jesus-like leader.

2025 & BEYOND

The General Commission on United Methodist Men has new leadership in place including Bishop James Swanson as the General Secretary, Rev. Sterling Eaton as the Director of Men's Ministry and Steve Scheid as Director of Scouting and Youth Ministry. GCUMM Deployed Staff include Mark

Lubbock who also currently serves as the LA UMM President. Discipleship is the chief focus of the GCUMM working with and through the local church.

Using the S.O.A.R. model, the LA UMM are drafting plans to expand the connection and engage men in the life of the local church. More to come on this!

A “UMM National Gathering” is scheduled for July 31-Aug. 2, 2025, inviting ALL men from the UMC to join in a catalyzing event. Save the date now! LA UMM Leadership are planning to attend connecting with the men of the United Methodist Church.

LA UMM are actively seeking men interested in joining the Conference UMM team.

LOUISIANA CONFERENCE UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

It has indeed been an honor for me to serve my first year as the president of the Louisiana Conference United Women in Faith. I am filled with gratitude. I plan to continue to do my best to serve with integrity. I'm thankful, grateful and blessed for the support of the leadership of our conference, district and local units. It's been a challenge my first year as president with disaffiliation and reorganization, but I know that God did not come this far with United Women in Faith to leave us. We know that He is always with us. We will boldly push forward to continue to transform the world. Women, children, youth and mission institutions need our help and we're not going to let them down. We've come this far by faith, leaning on the Lord. We've trusted in His holy word, and He's never failed us yet. We can't turn around because we've come this far by faith.

As United Women in faith:

- We are not afraid to do the right thing by reaching out to others who are different.
- We have strong hearts.
- We have the strength, faith and grace to change the world.
- It is our responsibility to inspire others and make an impact.
- We are called by God to act boldly.
- We work together as a sisterhood.
- We show up locally and boldly to make a difference.
- We are standing up for social, climate and economic justice.
- New activities are on the way.

In 2024, several items were accomplished by the Louisiana Conference United Women in Faith; are underway or will be beginning soon:

- Our new website was launched (uwfla.org) and is consistently updated. An instrument drive is underway now for the North Rampart Community Center.
- We began online registration for conference events.
- The Facebook page is functioning well and is being kept up to date.
- T-shirts and canvas bags are being sold to bring in revenue for our budget. An E-Store is on the horizon to display our items and to raise funds to help our budget.
- Because of the success of our first silent auction at last year's Annual Meeting, we are planning another silent auction for this year's Annual Meeting. Last year's silent auction raised $2,600. It benefited our mission institutions. We will continue to contribute these funds to them.

- Offerings have been raised during our various events for our mission institutions. Other donations have been given by our local units to provide additional assistance.
- Our UWF districts have been reorganized and we had a slate of officers for their Annual Meeting. We expect a smooth transition.
- A delegation of us traveled to the South Central Jurisdictional Event, along with Bishop Williamston. I actually served as one of the two main photographers for the event.
- Our Conference UWF and the North Rampart Community Center were featured in the July/August 2023 edition of Response magazine when General Secretary/CEO Sally Vonner stopped by for a visit in Louisiana.
- We had a beautiful spiritual growth event in March 2024, chaired by Doris Harry, our Spiritual Growth Coordinator.
- We had a wonderful Mission u in July that was planned by Peggy Evans, Mission u Dean 2024, Ramona Laws, Assistant Mission u Dean and Erin Gilpin, Assistant to the Assistant Mission u Dean.

We plan to continue to strive to do God's will.

Respectfully submitted,
Deaconess Brenda Thomas-Nero, President

YOUTH MINISTRY TASK FORCE

Following the identification of a Youth Ministry Task Force during Conference 2024, youth ministers, program directors for children and youth ministries, and district youth representatives began meeting to assess the needs for resources, collaboration, training, and ministry events across the Louisiana Conference. The primary objective of the task force was to determine whether additional support from the Conference is necessary, and, if so, what form that support should take.

Conversations commenced in earnest in February 2025, following the conclusion of summer ministry trips, school-year kickoffs, Advent, Christmas, and personal obligations. Since then, the task force has engaged in active dialogue and research to shape a sustainable framework for youth ministry support.

Task Force Membership

The following individuals have participated in the discussions:

- Nickie Barr, First UMC Houma
- DeAnna Bourgeois, FUMC Gonzales
- Angie Champine, Pharr Chapel UMC/Southwest District Youth Representative
- Connor Dean (Co-Chair), St. John's UMC/Southeast District Youth Representative
- Kyle Deroche, Asbury UMC-Lafayette
- Rev. Leslie Frietch, First UMC Pineville, Bayou Chicot UMC
- Joe LeBeouf (Co-Chair), University UMC-Baton Rouge
- Olivia Pruett, St. Paul's UMC
- Lizie Robinson, First UMC Deridder
- Heather Treat, Henning Memorial UMC
- Brandon Tubbs, First UMC Alexandria
- Rev. Megan Twyman, Broadmoor UMC-Shreveport/North District Youth Representative
- Colin Winslette, University UMC-Baton Rouge
- Rev. Kale Wetekamm, First UMC Baton Rouge

Current Work & Future Plans

Building on these discussions, the task force has begun researching models of youth ministry support, including discussions with other UMC conferences. Members have also reviewed previous efforts and the existing structures within the Louisiana Conference. In collaboration with Rev. Dr. Van Stinson, the group is working to identify individuals across the state who will serve as district or regional coordinators for youth ministry. Discussions are ongoing regarding whether these positions will be volunteer-based, compensated through stipends, or reimbursed for expenses.

Additionally, the task force is developing a budget and a schedule of events, including at least one Conference-wide youth retreat, a training session for youth leaders, and other formal and informal gatherings for youth and their leaders. It is anticipated that details regarding these coordinators, a proposed budget, and the event schedule will be formally announced at Conference 2025. Should all details not be finalized by then, updates will be communicated via Louisiana Now soon thereafter.

Evaluation & Long-Term Vision

The upcoming year will serve as a period for assessing the feasibility of the proposed model, strengthening relationships within the Conference, and refining the task force's approach. The group remains open to modifications, including the possibility of hiring a Conference-level staff coordinator. A formal recommendation regarding such a position—including a job description, priority needs, and sought-after qualities in candidates—could be presented within the next 12 months. Even if a staff position is created, the task force acknowledges that successful planning and execution of youth ministry initiatives will require broad participation from churches, church staff, and volunteers. This timeframe will also allow for additional stakeholder input to refine the Conference's youth ministry strategy.

Acknowledgments

The task force extends its sincere gratitude to the Conference staff, Bishop Williamston, and Rev. Dr. Van Stinson for their leadership and support in fostering these conversations and strengthening ministries to, with, for, and by youth and youth leaders across Louisiana.

REPORTS RELATED TO CONNECTED MINISTRIES:

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF LOUISIANA

Purpose: The United Methodist Foundation of Louisiana was established in 1975 for the purpose set forth in The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church:

- To promote planned giving programs on behalf of local churches and conferences; and
- To invest and administer funds in a manner consistent with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church.

Planned Giving. The Foundation has helped hundreds of donors establish planned gifts throughout its 50 years. These gifts are worth $50.6 million and will support the future of Methodist churches and ministries in perpetuity. In 2024, donors gave $210,000 to create new charitable gift annuities and endowments to benefit United Methodist churches and agencies. Payouts made to Charitable Gift Annuitants and Trust holders were $263,218, while distributions to churches from endowed gifts totaled $967,381.

Grants. Giving to others is a priority for the Foundation, and the organization models that effort by awarding grants to various Methodist-related ministries throughout the year. Since the first grant in 1992, the Foundation has awarded $8.1 million in grants to United Methodist ministries. In 2023, the Foundation allocated $385,072 to funding grants, with the largest portion allocated for clergy leadership development.

Loans. Another mechanism for helping the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church is through church loans. At the end of 2024, the Foundation had over $2 million on loan to 24 churches and other United Methodist ministries within the Louisiana Conference. Foundation loans offer competitive interest rates and do not charge points, origination fees or appraisal fees.

Seminary Scholarships. Since it began in 2000, the Foundation's Seminary Service Loan program has helped fund seminary costs for more than 100 pastors in the Louisiana Conference. The Foundation funds a significant portion of these pastors' theological training through a grant/loan that is repaid by serving at least five years in the Conference. To date, the Foundation has provided $1.4 million in seminary service loans.

LOUISIANA UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES

More Care to More Children in More Places Than Ever Before!

I am excited to inform you that The Methodist Children's Homes and Methodist Foster Care once again cared for more children last year than in any previous year. We pursue our Mission single-mindedly: We guide children and families home to experience God's love by following the teachings of Christ.

All of us at Louisiana United Methodist Children and Family Services are inspired to expand our services, improve our programs, and find new ways to care for Louisiana's children. We pursue our Mission with passion and it drives us to address the deepest needs of Louisiana's children and families.

In 2024, the Methodist Children's Home continued increasing opportunities to serve children and we provided more days of intensive residential care and therapeutic foster care to more children than ever before. In 2024, we provided 109,782 days of care (an increase of 11,680 over 2023) to 717 children in our therapeutic foster care and residential treatment services. During the last two years, we have increased the number of days of care we provide to children by more than 10,000 per year.

Methodist Foster Care, Louisiana's largest foster care program, provided 63,018 days of care to 336 children. With regional offices in Alexandria, Covington, Lafayette, Monroe, and Shreveport, Methodist Foster Care provides four key services throughout Louisiana: Therapeutic Foster Care, Kinship Navigator services, a Foster Care Mentor Program, and Supports for Foster Caregivers.

We are eager to continue growing Methodist Foster Care, which has more than doubled our ability to meet the needs of Louisiana's children requiring intensive out-of-home care. The chart below shows the continued growth of Methodist Foster Care in purple. While the number of buildings on our campuses and physical beds limit the growth of residential services, therapeutic foster care services are not limited. We actively recruit, train, certify, and support therapeutic foster care families to continue increasing the number of children who receive our care.

Continued Advocacy for Child Well-being

The advocacy work we began in 2022 to inspire the creation of a Louisiana Office of Children's Ombudsman was successful. That Louisiana now has an Office of Children's Ombudsman is a testament to our organization's steady push to improve Louisiana for children.

Visit www.LouisianaChildAdvocacy.com to learn more about our advocacy work to make Louisiana a better place for children. The website reports on the conditions of Louisiana's children and families. Please join the site's email list to receive actionable

LUMCFS is a Statewide Ministry with an Unending Mission

More than 700 employees are focused on serving Louisiana's children, families, and communities. In 2024, we expanded services, and look forward to our opportunities to serve in 2025 and far into the future.

There is no "use by" date for the Methodist Children's Homes. The Methodist Children's Home was created for perpetuity, so our transcendent Mission drives us to look far into the future and prepare for all the opportunities the future presents us to care for Louisiana's children and families.

Of course, we do not work alone. The support and assistance of like-minded individuals and groups throughout the state is essential. With the well-being of Louisiana's children ranked 49th in the nation for 36 years, there is important work for all of us to do!

Three Ways You Can Help Care for Louisiana's Children

Support the Methodist Children's Homes and Methodist Foster Care! The number of children in foster care is increasing faster than the number of foster homes. If you believe foster care could become your personal ministry to Louisiana's children, please visit www.RecruitFosterCare.com.

Refer Potential Staff Members! We need the best-hearted people. We seek exceptional individuals to join our team and help us care for Louisiana's vulnerable children and families. Consider employment opportunities at www.WorkForMethodist.com.

THE WESLEY CENTER

2024 was a busy and exciting year at the Wesley Center! A record number of guests from non-profits, multiple denominations, and the business community experienced and enjoyed their time at the Wesley Center.

The Wesley Center remains a place to gather in fellowship, a place to break away from the hectic pace of everyday life, a place of peaceful silence, and a place to be still and be. Staff are working hard making upgrades throughout the campus, while remembering the importance of providing a place of calm, restful moments.

CAMP CANEY

Camp Caney continues to be a place where lives are shaped, friendships are formed, and faith is strengthened through the love of Christ. As a vital ministry of the Louisiana Annual Conference, Camp Caney is committed to helping individuals of all ages grow in their relationship with God through meaningful, faith-centered experiences in the natural beauty of North Louisiana.

Facilities

In 2024, we made great strides in campus improvements. Renovation work began on Cabins 2 and 8—Cabin 8 is nearly complete, and Cabin 2 will receive its final AC installation in 2025. A new pavilion structure was built and is awaiting final electrical work and lighting. Several smaller yet important projects were also completed, and worship spaces were enhanced with new sound panels and upgraded speakers to better support retreats and camp gatherings.

Looking ahead to 2025, we're excited to continue improving our facilities. Planned projects include renovating the sand volleyball court, repainting and updating the lighting on the exterior of the Rec Hall, building a new parking area near Cabins 13–17, and improving drainage around Cabins 10 and 2. These updates support our goal of providing a welcoming, safe, and inspiring space for all who visit.

Summer Camps

Summer 2024 brought renewed energy and excitement to our camp program. Attendance increased across all sessions:

- Pre Camp 1 – 37
- Pre Camp 2 – 64
- Elementary – 70
- Jr/Sr High – 60

Caney Summer Camps are a place where campers are invited to explore their faith, grow spiritually, and connect with peers and leaders in a supportive, Christ-focused environment. A 60% camper retention rate between 2023 and 2024 shows that campers are not only returning but also bringing new friends and growing deeper in their experience at Caney.

With the rising number of participants, we expanded from four to six camp sessions—adding a second Elementary Camp and separating Junior and Senior High Camps. This allows us to provide age-appropriate programming and give older campers space to go deeper in their spiritual journey.

The Caney Board continues to play a vital role in our growth, investing time and energy into both prayer and hands-on projects. Their leadership, along with the work of our staff and volunteers, helps make Caney a place where lasting memories and meaningful encounters with God happen every summer.

2025 Summer Camp Schedule:

- Pre-Camp I: May 30–June 1 (grades 2–4)
- Elementary I: June 2–6 (grades 4–6)
- Sr. High: June 9–13 (grades 9–12)
- Elementary II: June 16–20 (grades 4–6)
- Jr. High: June 23–27 (grades 6–9)
- Pre-Camp II: June 29–July 1 (grades 2–4)

(Note: 6th graders may attend Elementary or Jr. High; 9th graders may attend Jr. or Sr. High.)

Events & Retreats

In 2024, we hosted 21 retreats and events, welcoming 1,452 guests to Camp Caney. These included church groups, Christian schools, and college ministries. Each event offered time for connection, learning, worship, and rest in a peaceful, faith-filled environment.

A highlight of the year was our Christmas Camp, where campers enjoyed a weekend filled with festive activities—small group devotionals, joyful worship, a candlelight service, and a birthday celebration for Jesus. With snowball fights, cookie decorating, caroling, and cozy movie nights, it was a time of laughter, tradition, and reflection on the true meaning of the season.

Looking forward, we are excited to welcome new church partners and outside groups who are discovering Camp Caney for the first time. Our hope is to continue offering a space where all can retreat, recharge, and experience the love of Christ in community.

Financial Support & Growth

In 2024, Camp Caney experienced a significant increase in activity, with more events, retreats, and camps than in recent years. Naturally, our expenses reflected this growth—but so did our blessings. We are thrilled to report that 2024 brought in the highest revenue since before the COVID-19 pandemic—more than double that of recent years. This encouraging milestone speaks to the renewed energy and engagement surrounding Camp Caney's ministries. As always, we are deeply grateful for the continued generosity of our supporters, and we gladly welcome donations to help sustain this momentum and fuel our mission for the future.

CAMP ISTROUMA

Camp Istrouma had another amazing year in 2024. We had nine weeks of summer camp and served 1,323 campers. We had around 300 campers make spiritual decisions while at camp. This summer we are on track to have the same number of campers if not more. We are also excited to have a curriculum designed for us and written by a couple of our local UMC pastors/youth pastors.

During non-summer camp season, we provide a space for groups to come together, unplug, and be in God's creation. Camp Istrouma had the opportunity to host 68 Retreat/Event Groups, totaling over 5,000 guests. We offer everything from church/youth retreats, corporate events, school field trips, and weddings. One of our favorite events so far in 2025 was hosting the Common Ground retreat for the Louisiana Conference youth. It was a fun weekend filled with spiritual growth and community building. Camp Istrouma was honored to have the opportunity to host such an event. With every group we serve, we get the opportunity to pour into them, show them God's love through our actions and service.

With summer camp and our retreat season growing to a point where we are maxed out, our biggest goal that we are focusing on is growing the camp physically. Our first step would be to add two more cabins, then a new activity/conference center, and lastly build two more cabins with upgrades to our kitchen. This will be a big expansion for Camp Istrouma and will be a process that takes years to fully complete. However, none of this will be possible without the support of campers, churches, and the Louisiana Conference.

CAMP USKICHITTO

A few notable events occurred in 2024. Our septic system overhaul has been completed. This was a long overdue project and we are thankful for its completion.

From 2023 to 2024 our summer camp registrations have remained steady, signalling a hopeful end to the plummeting numbers each year since 2020. Registrations for summer 2025 are coming in sooner than any year since 2014 (digital record) at a surprising rate. For example, the average number of summer camp registrations in the month of January was 0 from 2014 to 2024. In January of 2025, we saw 20 registrations. We are grateful for this blessing, but also maintain a sober understanding that this is not necessarily indicative of how the rest of the 2025 season will unfold, though we remain hopeful. Also, in 2024 we partnered with Angel Tree Camping, a ministry that seeks to send children with incarcerated family members to camp at no charge.

Retreat group numbers for 2024 were slightly lower than 2023. We are hopeful that 2025 will bounce back stronger, as January 2025 saw 4 retreat groups utilize the camp; rare for any month.

Camp Uskichitto received a donation to repair our high ropes course that has been out of service since 2020. We hope to see the completion of this project by the end of 2025.

The goals for camp in 2025 are humble, but also deliberate and focused. For summer 2025, camp seeks to increase registrations to 100 campers. Also, we hope to see 20 retreat groups in 2025.

We celebrate the progress we have made by the grace of God. We also celebrate the 56 campers that made first-time professions of faith in Christ for salvation during the summer of 2024. We are encouraged by the consistency of camper registrations from 2023 to 2024 and are so thrilled to see record-breaking early registrations in 2025, remaining hopeful for the continuation of that trend.

METHODIST HEALTH SYSTEM FOUNDATION

Methodist Health System Foundation (MHSF) has a storied history that reflects its enduring commitment to the communities it serves. In 2024, we proudly celebrated 20 years as a health legacy foundation with a focus on the well-being of the communities in New Orleans East, Gentilly, and St. Bernard Parish.

MHSF developed a unique hybrid model that seamlessly combines operational healthcare services with philanthropic grantmaking. This model allows the Foundation to leverage its deep expertise in healthcare, while continuing to provide essential services directly to the community and support broader health initiatives through grantmaking efforts.

One of the most significant ways MHSF has continued to fulfill its mission is through the operation of School-Based Health Centers (SBHCs). These centers provide vital healthcare services directly to students, ensuring that young people have access to the care they need in order to stay healthy and succeed in school.

Following the devastation of Hurricane Katrina and recognizing the increased need for accessible healthcare in the community, MHSF launched a SBHC at Chalmette High School. We did not stop there. The Foundation extended its services to other schools, including Nunez Community College and C. F. Rowley Alternative School. These centers provide both routine medical care and mental health services and play a crucial role in the overall health and well-being of students and families in the area. In 2024, we served 5,786 patients and provided over 10,000 patient visits.

MHSF also established a robust grantmaking program designed to fund health-related initiatives within the community. Recognizing the need for a more targeted and proactive approach, the Foundation shifted to a strategic grantmaking model. This approach allows MHSF to actively seek out and support organizations and initiatives that are making a significant impact on community health. By identifying key areas of need and aligning its resources accordingly, the Foundation maximizes its impact, ensuring that its grants are driving meaningful and lasting improvements in community health. Last year, MHSF invested $1.6 million dollars in community health grants.

As MHSF looks to the future, it is committed to continuing its work in perpetuity. The Foundation is built to last, with a structure and mission that are designed to go beyond the individuals who are currently involved. MHSF is dedicated to continuing to serve the community for generations to come, ensuring that the legacy of care and service that began with the sale of Pendleton Memorial Methodist Hospital will endure.

With a strong foundation in place, MHSF is well-positioned to continue to positively impact the health and well-being of the communities it serves. Whether through its operational healthcare services, its strategic grantmaking efforts, or its ongoing commitment to community health, the Foundation is poised to build on its successes and continue its important work for the next 20 years and beyond.

Sincerest regards,
Patrick E. Mottram, MD, Chairman

5. Resolution Opposing the Use of Solitary Confinement – Condemning the inhumane practice of prolonged solitary confinement in prisons and detention centers.

The Louisiana Interchurch Conference Who Is My Neighbor? Podcast was launched to explore faith perspectives across traditions, strengthening mutual understanding. This podcast will expand dialogue with interfaith partners while deepening Christian cooperation.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity occurs annually January 18-25. We encourage you to start now to plan events for your area for 2026. Additional resources and liturgy will be distributed by LIC as the dates approach. Sign up for LIC email updates or follow LIC on Facebook to receive notifications.

LIC is currently seeking a Regional Coordinator for the Monroe region. The regional coordinator serves on the executive board and facilitates regional information sharing and ecumenical gatherings. If you are interested in more information about this position, please contact Leigh Rachal.

Formed in 1970, and today composed of 15 Christian Denominations, the LIC seeks greater Christian unity through sharing a common faith in witness, worship, study, and service. Largely funded by the member churches, we are grateful for the support of the Louisiana Conference of the UMC and its commitment to ecumenical relationships that keep before the churches Christ's vision of unity.

Christian Leadership Center (CLC)

Centenary College celebrated the 50th Anniversary of the Church-Careers/Christian Leadership Center Program. The program began in 1974 as Church Careers and has evolved into today's "CLC" program. In October 2024 as a part of Homecoming activities, CLC hosted a CLC mini-retreat for Church Careers/CLC alumni. Former Chaplains and CLC Directors Rev. Jack O'Dell, Rev. Betsy Eaves, Valerie Olson Robideaux and Rev. Meagan (Daigle) Habich traveled-in to join approximately 30 alumni who participated. Rev. Austin Rinehart chaired the home football game tail-gate party for those who stayed for the weekend.

In 2024-25, CLC students studied the themes of "Prayer" and "Worship". Students used two textbooks: "How to Pray: A Simple Guide for Normal People" by Pete Greig and "Finding Words for Worship" by Ruth Duck to guide their discussions throughout the Fall and Spring semesters. The goal of CLC is help students grow in their Christian faith while also developing leadership skills. Students also earn academic credit for successfully completing CLC each semester.

As a regular requirement of their Christian Leadership Center (CLC) coursework, students participate in weekly small groups, called "Temenos Groups" led by local clergy and community lay leaders. Temenos Group leaders in 2024-25 academic year included Rev. Karl & Mrs. Kym Klaus; Rev. Wybra & Mrs. Judy Price; Rev. Maddie Russo; Rev. Dawn Young; and Rev. Megan Stuermann.

We are grateful to our community volunteers who are serving on the CLC Board of Advisors: Rev. Mark Bray; Abigail Dillard; Rev. Andy Goff; Mr. Scott Hughes; Rev. Alston Johnson; Mrs. Judy Price; Mrs.

Valerie Robideaux and Mrs. Marty Vaughan. The CLC Advisory Board is discussing ways to increase enrollment in CLC by recruiting students to the program and by seeking ways to sustain the program financially for the future.

Religious Life & Religious Studies

Centenary has been grateful for the Louisiana Conference Board of Higher Education and Ministry's financial support for religious life on campus in previous years and we would like to encourage that renewed connection and support in the future. Toward those efforts, Centenary offers a vibrant religious life on campus. During the first week of fall semester, Centenary invites local churches to meet Centenary College students through "Campus Connection" so that students may connect with local churches so that they may worship there during the school year. During the 2024 event, we had 15 religious life organizations represented including 4 campus ministry groups and 11 local churches. United Methodist Churches who participated were Asbury UMC Bossier and Broadmoor UMC Shreveport.

Centenary College offers weekly Chapel services every Tuesday during the time period that is reserved for convocations at 11:10 a.m. Services were in-person, recorded and posted on our chapel website at www.centenary.edu/student-life/student-activities/religious-life/student-ministries. The Chaplain's office works with student volunteers in leading chapel services so that they may gain experience in leading worship services. There were 25 chapel services throughout the academic year led by campus ministry groups, CLC, student organizations and sports teams, faculty and staff.

During the 2024-25 academic year, Centenary hosted 4 campus ministry groups on campus. On average, each group met once a week equaling more than 150 campus ministry meetings throughout the academic year.

Centenary College continues to offer Religious Studies courses utilizing local adjunct professors. During the 2024 Fall semester, Rev. Dr. Tom Dolph taught Introduction to Christianity and Introduction to Judaism was taught by local Rabbi Jana De Benedetti. In the 2025 Spring semester, Rev. Dr. Wybra Price taught Introduction to Early Christian Literature.

Centenary also continues to celebrate the clergy families of the Louisiana United Methodist Conference who have entrusted the College with the education of their students. We are proud to count among our students a number of clergy dependents. Clergy dependents are eligible for up to $5,000 in annual Methodist grant funds.

Centenary president Dr. Christopher L. Holoman continues to serve on the board of directors and Vice Chair of NAAMSCU (North American Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges and Universities, formerly NASCUMC), as well as the University Senate of the GBHEM. He was named to the Board of International Association of Methodists Schools, Colleges, and Universities (IAAMSCU) in 2023.

Globally Engaged Leaders

Centenary in Paris held its 10th anniversary trip in August 2024. The freshman class of 195, alongside 25 support staff and professors, engaged with the culture of Paris through examination of historical scenes, race and migration, gender, ethics, and creative writing. International exchange and degree seeking students were welcomed on campus from France, Northern Ireland, Afghanistan, and Honduras. Centenary's beloved tradition of faculty-led summer modules will take 45 students to Spain, New Zealand, Italy, Barbados, and Australia in the Summer of 2025. An additional 7 students will take advantage of Centenary's exchange partnerships to study in France. The Office of Global Engagement looks forward to expanding partnerships and decreasing barriers to access international opportunities in the coming academic year.

Archives

Centenary's Archives and Special Collections Department supports the Louisiana Conference's ministry of memory. Since 1963, the department has served as the official repository for the records of the Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Conference archivist, Mr. Chris Brown, continues to serve as a member of the United Methodist Church's General Commission on Archives and History (GCAH). He is chair for the Archives and Library Committee and one of its representatives to the Executive Committee. In October 2024, Brown began co-hosting monthly online meetings for conference archivists and allies across the UMC's worldwide connection.

During 2024, Centenary Archives staff and student workers used Louisiana UMC records to handle 317 research requests. The Archives acquired 31 collections (66.75 linear feet) of Louisiana UMC records and processed and created online finding aids for 67 collections (49 linear feet). Thanks to funding from the Louisiana Conference, a Centenary student worker was employed to help process and catalog UMC material during the summer. The Archives continues to update its online map with locations and GPS coordinates of all current and former churches in the Louisiana Conference and its predecessor denominations; the map currently identifies 730 churches. For closed and disaffiliated UMC congregations in Louisiana, the Archives continues to work with District Offices to collect churches' permanent records identified in recordkeeping guidelines provided by the GCAH as well as the South Central Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History.

VISION AND GOALS

As Centenary marks its 115th year in Shreveport and bicentennial this year, we renew our commitment to be faithful stewards of the legacy entrusted to us by the United Methodist church, the Shreveport-Bossier community, and the Louisiana Annual Conference.

ITEMS FOR ACTION

1. We request the Louisiana United Methodist Conference's endorsement of the membership of the Centenary College Board of Trustees listed in the Conference Nomination Report
2. We appreciate the Louisiana United Methodist Conference's financial support through apportionments, scholarships and campus ministry funds. This generosity affirms the churches' dedication to higher education and to Centenary College of Louisiana.

DILLARD UNIVERSITY

Since Dillard University's founding as Straight and New Orleans University in 1869, our staff, faculty, students, board of trustees and friends have made New Orleans the home for people, especially African Americans, to become leaders who had faith, courage, strength and confidence to strive to make the world a better place. During the 2022-2023 academic year, our Dillard University community recommitted to activating on our commitment to excellence.

Our community of staff and faculty work tirelessly to build on our legacy of providing an excellent education and environment for students, and community to learn and become healthier, safer, and more innovative.

Since becoming the 8th president of Dillard University on July 01, 2022, I have grown to value the word “communiversity,” which was coined by Nick Harris, director of community and church relations, in 2006 following Hurricane Katrina. According to Harris, “Dillard was among the first in the Gentilly area to have power restored. To support families who were slowly returning home, we began hosting meetings on campus to provide them with information and access to resources that they needed in order to rebuild their homes and the community.” That outreach resulted in Dillard becoming known as a community university, which later evolved into the word “communiversity.”

Eighteen years later, Dillard University is steadfast in our commitment to live our mission of cultivating leaders who live ethically, think and communicate precisely and act courageously to make the world a better place. Our campus community of staff and faculty continue to work tirelessly to build on our legacy of providing an excellent education, as well as an environment for students and our neighbors to learn, become healthier, safer and more innovative.

As we move forward, we rely on the teachings and leadership of those who set us on this path to becoming a communiversity. As such, we have begun focusing our attention on the DU3: facilities that withstand the forecast, fortifying our staff and faculty, and financing the future. We appreciate those who have made contributions of their time, talent, and treasure to make our mission possible by activating on our commitment to make these improvements. We are proud of how far we’ve come, and excited about where we are headed.

As the spring semester came to an end, we gathered to recognize colleagues for their outstanding contributions campus wide. Their commitment and tenacity set the bar for each of us. They are:

- Our painters Alvin Breaux and Agin Saboor, who made Dent Hall, home of Dillard Athletics, more vibrant.
- Mary Clementin, “Miss Cat,” who retired this year, following 26 years of dedicated service under five presidents, and two interims.
- Angie Wu, who manages our fixed asset accounting.
- Chief Angela Honora, who, in addition to keeping the campus safe, often prepares homemade and grilled dishes for our students.
- Geralyn Love, who for the past sixteen years has managed our communications and marketing department, ensuring continuity and adherence to our brand.
- Rodney Peters, who is a jack-of-all-trades in our facilities department. Mr. Peters identified a $20 solution to what consultants quoted to be a $10,000 repair.
- Cortheal Clark, who leads our humanities school within the College of Arts and Sciences and has orchestrated many of university’s major events.
- Lovell Agwaramgbo, who leads our School of STEM and has served as leader of our Faculty Academic Senate.
- Nick Harris, who, as director of community and church relations, coined the term “communiversity,” which frames our new vision for Dillard University.
- Kathy Taylor, who has served as an executive communications professional for three presidents and two interim presidents and provided continuity throughout as the secretary to the board of trustees.

These individuals are illustrations of the great work of our internal team.

I am still in awe by the way New Orleans welcomes our students and employees and invests in Dillard. The Urban League Luncheon was my first event as president, and now we are collaborating through the Southern Communities Initiative in partnership with the Student Freedom Initiative, both established by Venture Capitalist and Philanthropist, Robert Smith.

My second event was the Essence Festival of Culture (EFOC), which led to a strong relationship with the organization, starting with my working with state government officials on the festival’s economic impact on Louisiana. During my first Mardi Gras, I rode in the Mystic Krewe of Femme Fatale parade on the Coca-Cola / Coke United float with the Essence team. Finally, Dillard was honored to welcome Essence Ventures CEO, Carolina Wanga as our 2023 commencement speaker. Thanks to our relationship with Essence, more than 40 students interned or volunteered during the 2023 Essence Festival of Culture.

Additionally, as a new member of the United Way of SE Louisiana board, and as the new chair of the GNO, Inc. Higher Education Council, I am anxious to help Dillard engage more in advancing greater New Orleans.

As the new leadership team and I immersed ourselves in the history of Dillard, one thing I knew we had to prioritize was the relaunching of the historic Dillard University National Center for Black-Jewish Relations, initially founded by 4th president, Dr. Samuel DuBois Cook. The relaunched Center is committed to advancing the work of its precursor by developing new projects that build upon the teachings, conversations, and relationships of the original. True to its mission of cultivating leaders who live ethically, think and communicate precisely, and act courageously to make the world a better place, Dillard is committed to establishing the Center as a space for dialogue, learning, and mutual understanding between Black and Jewish communities.

Dillard is making great strides to not only activate on our commitment to excellence and cultivating leaders, but also to become again the “communiversity” that advances healthy, safe and innovative communities.

With Gratitude, Faith and Strength,
Rochelle Larkin Ford, Ph.D., APR President and Professor

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

Greetings and thanks to you, the members of the Louisiana Annual Conference, for your love of Africa University! Your love, lived out in the local church, and across every level of The United Methodist Church worldwide, is a source of hope and of dreams brought to life.

Africa University's students, faculty, staff, trustees, and alumni are deeply appreciative of the gracious investment of 63.1 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund apportionment by the local churches of the Louisiana Annual Conference in 2024. Thank you for investing in equipping change leaders who share the gospel of Jesus Christ, reduce hunger, improve public health, instill hope, and build prosperous and peaceful communities. As the 2025-2028 quadrennium unfolds, Africa University is urging the members of the Louisiana Annual Conference to:

- Encourage their congregations to maintain their support for the Africa University Fund at the 2016 budget level and strive for 100% investment of the asking each year.
- Help identify at least two (2) churches (keystone congregations) in the conference to provide second mile gifts of $7,000 each (or $14,000 in total each year) for annual scholarships for two undergraduate students.

Through Africa University, The United Methodist Church is nurturing servant leaders with ethics, empathy, and an audacious, can-do mindset. Having experienced God's grace through your love in action, students and graduates of Africa University are stepping forward to help churches and communities to thrive. Here are highlights of the impact of Africa University faculty, administrators, and students in 2024:

- Africa University start-up, Reagan Technologies, earned a semi-final finish in the Hult Prize Global Accelerator competition. Known as the 'Nobel prize contest for students' the three-student AU team impressed the Hult Prize judges with an innovative concept for generating electricity from footsteps. The team's climate-smart pavement tiles stood out against the competition from more than 60 universities.
- Another AU trio is transforming education by bridging the digital divide in Africa. Three students majoring in computer science won the top prize at the UbuntuNet Alliance Women's Hackathon with FUNDISA. It's a chatbot that delivers instant, curriculum-aligned explanations to students who lack internet access, but have phones with SMS functionality. The chatbot enables students to simply send a text to a short code to receive educational support.

- Africa University is excited to share that its Doctor of Ministry program, a first for the continent of Africa, was accredited by the Zimbabwe Council for Higher Education. Going forward, D.Min. candidates will have options for specialization in Mission and Evangelism, Liturgical Theology, Church Administration, Church and Society, and Chaplaincy Ministry. A pioneer group of ten (10) senior officers in the military, prisons and policing from Botswana, Malawi, Zambia, and Zimbabwe have completed the program, thanks to a collaboration between Africa University and Wesley Theological Seminary. The doctoral research projects of this first group of candidates generated new knowledge that addresses deployment trauma, reducing drug abuse among officers, and the use of Psalms of lament for facilitating healing in families of inmates.

This is the transformation story that Louisiana United Methodists, in their faithfulness, are writing through Africa University. Thank you for showing up, always, as the means through which promise, dreams, and a just future are being realized. Your leadership and generous contributions are as pivotal today as they were at Africa University's inception, 33 years ago. Thank you for journeying alongside Africa University in ministry.

James H. Salley, President/CEO of Africa University (Tennessee) Inc. and Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement, Africa University

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world. An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Wesleyan value of ecumenical openness, welcoming students from more than 40 denominations. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 416 from 13 countries, 41 states, 32 annual conferences, and 43% persons of color. We see this diversity as a blessing, enriching our life together and providing the perfect context for training for relevant ministry in the 21st century—ministry that cultivates community across difference, welcomes all to contribute and belong, and embodies Christ's love in and among us.

Candler offers six degrees (Master of Divinity, Master of Theological Studies, Master of Arts in Religion and Leadership, Master of Religion and Public Life, Master of Theology, Doctor of Ministry), most of which are available in hybrid or online formats. Response to our hybrid-format Master of Divinity, blending online classes and in-person intensives, continues to be strong: 63% of 2024's MDiv entering class chose the hybrid model. Nearly a quarter of MDiv students participate in Candler's Teaching Parish program, earning contextual education credit by serving as student pastors in local churches. And our proven DMin program—with a near 90% completion rate—is 90% online. These flexible options along with Candler's recognized academic excellence and hands-on learning opportunities are opening possibilities for more people to follow God's call to ministry.

Generous financial aid is a top priority for Candler. In 2024-2025, we are on track to award nearly $6.5 million in scholarship support across all degree programs. All MDiv students receive scholarship support, and those who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships. Plus, a remarkable gift this year of $20 million from the O. Wayne Rollins Foundation promises to have a transformative impact on the school and future students alike, fueling a considerable expansion of our scholarship program and reducing financial barriers to high-quality theological education.

Several programs beyond our formal degrees make Candler a hub of Christian learning for an expanding audience. Those who are not seeking a graduate degree can engage in learning through The Candler Foundry, which offers in-person and online short courses, events, and certificate programs; the United Methodist Course of Study for educating licensed local pastors; the Candler Center for Christian Leadership for refining business skills of United Methodist leaders; and La Mesa Academy, offering a graduate certificate in theological studies via a two-year hybrid program with courses in Spanish, English, and Korean.

Candler continued to strengthen the already robust United Methodist presence among our faculty with four key appointments this year: Geordan Hammond, associate professor of Methodist and Wesleyan studies; Soren Hessler, assistant professor in the practice of leadership and administration; Jennifer Quigley, assistant professor of New Testament; and Bishop Hope Morgan Ward, who joined us as bishop-in-residence following the retirement of Bishop Larry Goodpaster.

Jonathan Strom became dean of Candler in August 2024, when former dean Jan Love returned to the faculty. Strom has served on Candler's faculty since 1997 as professor of church history, with nearly a decade as senior associate dean of faculty and academic affairs, and a number of years as director of international initiatives. He is committed to nurturing the school's deep connection with The United Methodist Church.

Candler is strengthened by your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of the church. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu and follow us on social media to stay informed of all we offer throughout the year.

DREW UNIVERSITY THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

Drew University Theological School educates and mentors pastors, preachers, deacons, activists, teachers, thought leaders, and change agents for ministry and service in the church, society, and the wider world. Building upon its Wesleyan and Methodist foundations, Drew Theological School is diverse in theology, vocations, age, as well as racial, ethnic, national, and international identities of its faculty, students, and staff. Many Drew students are just beginning their ministry, while others come to graduate theological education with prior ministry experience. The latter reflects a growing trend among all theological schools in the United States and Canada. In providing theological education to the world, Drew holds in-person classes in Madison, New Jersey, classes that meet exclusively online, while others meet in hybrid fashion, i.e., partially online, partially in-person, as well as in-person Doctor of Ministry cohort in South Korea and a pilot in-person Master of Divinity cohort in Liberia. Regular chapel worship originates on campus in Seminary Hall, but also is live-streamed so that students, alumni, and friends around the world can participate. Drew Theological School is a global seminary with a global student population serving the worldwide church.

In Fall 2024 Drew Theological School welcomed 94 new students in all degree programs, with total student enrollment (by headcount) in Fall 2024 semester being 388. Enrollment of international students at Drew increased from 120 students in Fall 2021 to 157 students in Fall 2024. This number includes students who are studying full-time in the U.S.A. on a student Visa, students who are studying online from their home country, and students in the South Korean Cohort of the Doctor of Ministry program.

Drew's interdisciplinary degree programs provide real-world apprenticeships, promote adaptive leadership skills, and encourage innovation through team-taught core courses as well as a variety of electives that integrate theological disciplines and faith practices. The Drew faculty's shared values are infused across all aspects of the teaching, learning, and the formation of students: 1) a commitment to anti-racism; 2) gender and sexual-identity equality; 3) eco-sustainability and environmental justice; and 4) interfaith understanding and cooperation. Drew Theological School has an increase in United Methodist students, additionally, Drew has many United Methodist Global Fellows pursuing further education for ministry. UMC graduates are serving in conferences across the United States, and especially within nearby regional episcopal areas of The United Methodist Church in the annual conferences of Greater New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, Susquehanna, Upper New York, New York, and New England.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

In the fall of 2024, Duke Divinity School celebrated its 98th Opening Convocation with these words from Dean Edgardo Colón-Emeric: “There are potential pulpits across this university and throughout this land. ... If you are here studying how to become a pastor or a chaplain, you are a Pentecost preacher. If you are here studying to be a theologically formed social worker or health care provider, you are a Pentecost preacher. If you are here as an aspiring scholar or merely as a Christian, you are a Pentecost preacher.”

Through God’s sustaining grace and faithfulness, we continue to welcome students from across the nation and around the world to be trained for ministries ranging from rural church pastorates to hospital and prison chaplains to community service leaders to theological educators. In 2024, we were joined by 224 students from 41 U.S. states and the District of Columbia as well as new students who hold either primary or secondary citizenship in 11 other countries. The Master of Divinity program gained 108 new students, including 62 residential students (up from 54 the year before) and 46 in the hybrid program. The Master of Arts in Christian Practice enrolled eight new students; the Doctor of Ministry, 39 (up from 22 last year); Master of Theology, 10; Master of Theological Studies, 27; the Doctor of Theology welcomed five new students to campus. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care welcomed five residential students to campus and 21 to the hybrid program.

We are grateful that God continues to bring people with a diversity of backgrounds and gifts to Duke Divinity School. Of the new residential M.Div. students, 42 percent reported one or more non-white racial/ethnic identities, and female students make up 50 percent of incoming residential M.Div. students. For new hybrid M.Div. students, 33 percent reported one or more non-white racial/ethnic; and female students make up 63 percent of incoming hybrid M.Div. students.

This has been a year of centennial celebrations for Duke University and The Duke Endowment. The Divinity School was honored to participate in a Founders’ Weekend chapel service, held in Duke Chapel, in which both United Methodist Church bishops in North Carolina (Bishop Connie Shelton and Bishop Ken Carter) participated in leading the service, along with Dean Colón-Emeric. Divinity students and alumni contributed prayers and music, and of particular note were three women in our Master of Theology program who offered prayers in Mandarin, Hindi, and Korean. It is a joy to share these gifts from our global community with the university campus.

Duke Divinity School continues to invest in ways to support Methodist leadership and pastoral formation. Our D.Min. program welcomed two new cohorts, one in Traditional Leadership and one in Missional Leadership, with support from the Parish Ministry Fund and The Duke Endowment. These 39 students are strengthening their capacity for leadership, establishing new faith communities, and meeting the challenges confronting churches and communities.

Master of Divinity students in the UMC had the opportunity in the spring 2024 semester to enroll in a course designed to prepare them to be observers at the UMC General Conference, held in Charlotte, N.C. So many students were interested that the enrollment cap had to be raised. Students met weekly with Duke Divinity faculty who are ordained elders in the UMC as well as with nearly half a dozen bishops and denominational leaders. As one student (pursuing ordination in the Virginia Conference) said: “It is a time when we hold fast to our convictions and identify what is unique to the United Methodist Church. What is our role, currently and in the future? It’s amazing: our mission is to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. I am excited about my ministry journey and the future of the UMC.”

Duke Divinity continues to build on our connection to Methodist churches around the world through a formal partnership with Methodist Theological University in Seoul, South Korea. This agreement, signed on Sept. 21, 2024, supports the creation of pathways for the exchange of students, faculty, and academic programming.

Closer to home, Duke Divinity remains committed to our deep roots in the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences of the United Methodist Church. We mourned the devastation from Hurricane Helene that affected so many of our alumni, supporting congregations, and community partners in western North Carolina. The school—and many students and staff—have sought to support Bishop Ken Carter and the Western North Carolina Conference with resources and relief items.

Our faculty continue to excel in their committed service to teaching, research, and ministry. Two scholars joined our faculty this year: Aaron Griffith, assistant professor of American church history, and Kevin Hart, Jo Rae Wright University Distinguished Professor, with a joint appointment in the Duke University department of English. William Turner Jr., James T. and Alice Mead Cleland Professor Emeritus of the Practice of Preaching, received the Duke University Medal for Distinguished Meritorious Service, the highest honor bestowed by the university.

Duke Divinity commemorated the 50th anniversary of the Women's Center at the school with a guest preacher and celebration dinner. With a $5 million gift from The Duke Endowment, we are strengthening our Office of Black Church Studies through recruiting a senior scholar and supporting academic, theological research. A $1.25 million grant from Lilly Endowment Inc., part of their Nurturing Children through Worship and Prayer Initiative, will help launch a Duke Divinity program to study how congregations more fully and intentionally engage children in intergenerational corporate worship and prayer practices. The program, "Let the Children Come," is a regional partnership of congregations and leaders from across the southeastern United States.

Duke Divinity School continues to be grateful for our ongoing participation in The United Methodist Church and partnership with this annual conference. We look forward to our ongoing work with you as we join the leading of God's Spirit in the task of preparing people for Christian ministry. Gammon's Mission is to help prepare for the practice of Christian ministry and public leadership individuals who understand their vocation as working in partnership with God in forming a just and generative world for all.

GTS is currently an "extended unit" of the Interdenominational Theological Center. As a constituent member of the ITC who is accredited through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), GTS has conferred degrees in partnership with the ITC for Gammon Theological Seminary graduates since 1959. Gammon Theological Seminary seeks separate accreditation through SACSCOC and the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS).

We are excited to share Academic and Operational updates for 2024.

- In June 2024, we hired a world-renowned theologian and scholar, Dr. Renita J. Weems, as our Chief Academic Officer.
- This Fall 2024, we launched state-of-the-art renovations to the Gammon building. The renovations transformed the facility into a place for four in-person class sessions, upgrading all meeting spaces with state-of-the-art technology and furnishings.
- In September 2024, the Board of Trustees of Gammon Theological Seminary approved the submission of our application to begin the SACSCOC Accreditation process. This historic decision included Gammon launching our Independent MDIV degree program in September 2024.

Here are a few of this year's ministry and fund development highlights.

- In Spring 2024, Gammon hosted our 2nd Annual Student Scholarship Fundraiser Golf Tournament, which received $70,000 in donations toward the scholarship fund.

- In June 2024, the Florida Conference's Rev. Geraldine McClellan Endowed Scholarship Fund, which is now fully endowed at the Florida United Methodist Foundation, continued to grow with donations for 2024. Now, the fund balance exceeds $130,000.00, and Dr. Geraldine McClellan was honored at our 2024 Founder's Day/Pastors and Leaders Conference Gala banquet with our Icon of Excellence Award.
- Gammon hosted the Ebony Exploration Event for 75 young adults under the age of 35. The students explored their sense of call and vocational discernment.
- In December 2024, Gammon celebrated our 141st Founder's Day and Pastors and Leaders Conference. We hosted over three hundred people attending workshops (in person and virtual) and our Scholarship Gala Dinner at IMPACT Church in Atlanta, GA.
- Gammon received two $10,000 donations for two new endowed funds from Dr. James H. Salley, in honor of his parents in the South Carolina Conference, and from Rev. Dr. Michael McQueen, District Superintendent for the North Georgia Central North District.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE (LPI)

It is with a grateful heart and unwavering hope that I bring you this report from the border – from a place where faith meets resilience; where two nations touch; and where every morning, a sacred journey begins.

At Lydia Patterson Institute (LPI) in El Paso, Texas, we serve some of the most courageous students you'll ever meet. These are young people who, every single day, cross the international bridge from Ciudad Juárez, Mexico, into the United States to pursue education and a better life. This year, 99% of our students cross that bridge daily – many of them US citizens who live in Mexico due to economic hardship, housing insecurity, or family displacement. What they find on the other side is more than a school. They find a community. A calling. A bridge to their future.

Our Mission is United Methodist at Its Core

Founded in 1913, LPI is not just a school – it is a ministry of the United Methodist Church. Our school offers an advanced ESL-based, college-preparatory curriculum, alongside career and college readiness, and spiritual formation. Most students are first-generation college-bound, and many are living in difficult and underserved circumstances. But when they walk through our doors, they find more than a classroom. They find family. They find faith. They find a bridge to something more. Most importantly, every one of our students received a scholarship – thanks to the support of churches, individuals, foundations, and partners like you. Your generosity makes our mission possible. We believe that our students are not defined by where they come from. They are defined by who they are becoming.

2024-2025: A Year of Vision, Growth, and Grace

Despite economic challenges and political uncertainty, LPI has seen extraordinary progress this year – because God continues to make a way, and because you continue to say “yes”. Some of our most meaningful milestones include:

- 100% Graduation Rate (May 2024) – Every senior graduated on time, and 98% were accepted into college, many with scholarships. For most, they are the first in their families to ever dream this big.
- Launch of the Bishop Nunn STEM Makerspace – Once an unused library, this space now gives students hands-on access to robotics, coding, engineering, and technology. It was made possible by Bishop Nunn’s retirement offering and the generosity of the Woolworth Estate Foundation.
- Our First-Ever Robotics Team – For the first time in school history, LPI launched a competitive robotics team. What began as a dream quickly became a reality through the Makerspace. These students – many of whom had never touched a robot before – are now building, programming, and competing with confidence in regional events. It’s more than science; it’s self-worth, teamwork, and the belief that they can lead in any field, including STEM.
- Spiritual Leadership – We reimaged our Student Lay Ministry Program, appointing a chaplain to help guide students in service, reflection, and ministry – rooted in the Wesleyan tradition.
- Academic Recognition and Honors – This year, students represented LPI at regional science fairs, creative writing contests, and math competitions. Several were recognized for academic excellence and leadership.
- Local Partnerships and Visibility – We’ve strengthened relationships with local businesses, media, and institutions raising awareness about LPI’s unique ministry through newspaper articles, TV interviews, and service projects.

This is what we call LPI 2.0 – a sacred reimagining of a legacy that continues to transform lives, one student at a time.

The Bridge as a Symbol of Vision and Faith

There is a painting by René Magritte titled Perspicacity. It shows an artist painting a bird in flight – not by copying the egg in front of him, but by envisioning what it is destined to become. At LPI, we live with that kind of vision. We don’t just see students as they are – we see them in motion – in flight – becoming. We see pastors, teachers, doctors, engineers, and leaders. And like the artist in the painting, we believe in their promise – before the world sees it.

Every morning, our students walk across a real bridge. But they are also crossing a spiritual one – from survival to strength, from poverty to possibility, from despair to hope. As one student shared so beautifully:

“Each morning, I wake up before the sun, lace up my shoes, and begin a journey most people can’t imagine. I cross a bridge – not just between two countries, but between who I was and who I’m becoming. On one side is where I live...and on the other is where I believe my future lives. That bridge carries my hope.”

But the Bridge Needs Repair: Our Facilities and Financial Needs

Our mission is strong – but our campus is aging. Some of our most urgent needs are not exciting, but they are essential:

- Intercom System Replacement – Ours is from the 1950’s. It no longer supports emergency communication or modern security standards. A safe school needs a reliable voice system.
- Asbestos Abatement – In a 110-year-old building, select areas still contain asbestos. We’ve planned phased remediation, but we need support to ensure the safety of our students and staff.
- Transportation – Our vans are outdated. Students are missing college visits, competitions, and internships. Safe, reliable transportation is essential to equity and access.

- Infrastructure and Security Upgrades – We need updates to fencing, lighting, technology, and campus entry systems to protect students and ensure a secure, connected learning environment.

A Vision for the Future: Building an Endowment

We are laying the foundation for a scholarship endowment that will ensure every student has the financial support they need – not just this year, but well into the future. This is more than a financial goal; it is our commitment to secure the bridge of opportunity we've built, so it can carry generations of students across with hope, dignity, and purpose. Every morning, our students cross a literal border, but with your help, they also cross into a future that once seemed impossible. This endowment is how we strengthen that bridge – permanently. Your continued support is what makes that future real – not just for today's students, but for every student who will follow in their footsteps. It's a courageous vision; then again, so was the idea of founding a school on the border in 1913.

And yet, here we are – still crossing, still rising, still believing.

How Can You Walk With Us: We invite you – our church family – to walk this bridge with us by

- Sponsor a student or a class
- Host us at your church or district gathering
- Give through The Advance (#3020504)
- Pray for our students, staff and families
- Visit us – walk the bridge, meet the students, and witness the miracle of this ministry
- Bring your mission groups to LPI

LPI is a border school, yes – but more importantly, it is the only bridge-building ministry secondary school of the South Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church.

We do not just serve students. We serve the Gospel. We serve justice. We serve hope.

Thank you for believing in the mission. Thank you for believing in our students. And thank you for reminding them – every step of the way – that they are not walking alone.

Dr. Carla Cardoza
President, Lydia Patterson Institute

METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Field education students will benefit from Liturgy and Leadership Cohort Program

To equip the next generation of leaders with the ability to navigate complexity with resilience and adaptive leadership skills, MTSO has developed the Liturgy and Leadership Field Education Cohort Program. Funded with a grant from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry through the Ministerial Education Fund, the program is presented by United Methodist pastors Rachel Billups and Matt Rawle, built upon their deep-rooted dedication to creativity and innovation within the church. Over the course of three academic years, we are convening three cohorts of seven promising ministry candidates to immerse them in the methodologies that foster church growth and community impact.

Lisa Allen-McLaurin and Beth Stroud elected to faculty

We began the 2024 Fall Semester with two newly elected faculty members. Assistant Professor of History Beth Stroud, an ordained United Methodist elder, comes to MTSO from Princeton University, where she served as a lecturer in the Princeton Writing Program. She also has taught at Union Theological Seminary, Princeton Theological Seminary and Sarah Lawrence College.

Professor of Worship, Music and Spirituality Lisa Allen-McLaurin, an ordained elder in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, is the author of Worship Matters! A Collection of Essays on the Practical and Spiritual Discipline of Worship. Prior to her election to the faculty, Dr. Allen-McLaurin served under appointment at MTSO starting in July 2023. Previously, she chaired the Church Music and Worship Department at Interdenominational Theological Center.

Racial Resilience project launched

Beginning in April, MTSO brought together congregational clergy, lay leaders and youth for training around anti-racism and justice as part of a new project, Cultivating Racial Resilience, made possible by a grant from the Lilly Endowment Inc. Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative. While many anti-racism training programs ask participants to set aside the complex feelings about race and racism, this program treats those feelings as effective guideposts for sustainable anti-racist work. Three cohorts will participate in Cultivating Racial Resilience over the next two to three years.

ST. PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary serving a diverse community dedicated to forming leaders for innovative, creative ministry. Our integrated theological education, enriched by faith and social justice, combines real-world experience with academic rigor. Through our FLEX schedule offering on-campus, online, and hybrid learning options, our Master's and Doctorate programs provide customized education guided by dedicated faculty, experienced pastors, and community leaders. Our graduates emerge equipped with the tools and first-hand experience to pursue diverse paths in ministry, service, and leadership locally and globally.

Saint Paul recently launched an innovative Doctor of Ministry program: Spirituality, Innovation, and Adaptive Leadership. This program focuses on developing contemplative spirituality practices that empower students to become change agents in church and society. Grounded in divine listening, students engage with innovative ministry practices while learning to manage and sustain them through adaptive principles, emotional intelligence, and intercultural competence. The program prepares leaders to forge renewed paths for faithful leadership in a challenging world. Discover more about the Saint Paul DMin at spst.edu/doctor-of-ministry/.

In July 2024, the Pause/Play Center for Preachers welcomed its first cohort of 12 preachers from five denominations nationwide. These leaders sought to revitalize their preaching through Spiritual Direction, coaching, retreats, and specialized resources. The Center's inaugural public gathering drew 50 pastors nationwide for a two-day event featuring keynote speaker and Saint Paul alumna Dr. Marcia McFee. The Center accepts applications for the next pastor cohort open in March, with registration for the July 30-August 2, 2025 Kansas City gathering beginning in January.

Saint Paul School of Theology earned the distinction of hosting the Smithsonian traveling exhibit "Exploring Human Origins: What Does It Mean to Be Human?" through a national competition by the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History (NMNH) and American Library Association (ALA). Scientists and experts from the NMNH Human Origins Program will visit our Kansas Campus in Leawood to lead community events, including clergy programs, educator workshops, and community conversations. The exhibit, running February through May 2025, features interactive panels, kiosks, hands-on displays, and videos that explore humanity's evolutionary journey. This free public exhibition encourages meaningful dialogue about human origins while embracing diverse perspectives from both scientific and theological viewpoints.

Our hybrid format continues to unite our community, enabling participants to join chapel services and events either in-person or online. Weekly chapel services throughout the academic year showcase the talents of students, alums, faculty, and local leaders. At the same time, Spiritual Formation sessions engage participants in varied spiritual practices, from outdoor experiences to community leadership connections.

The Saint Paul faculty consistently upholds high scholarship, research, publication, and engagement standards. Notable recent faculty achievements include:

- Dr. Israel Kamudzandu, Lindsey P. Pherigo Associate Professor of New Testament Studies and Biblical Interpretation, contributed the chapter "Biblical Interpretation and Criticism in Neocolonial Africa: Challenges, Conceptualizations, and Needs in the Twenty-First Century" to The FUTURE of the Biblical PAST
- Dr. Jacob Randolph, Assistant Professor of History of Christianity and Academic Director of the Oklahoma Campus, published "What About the Palestinians? Southern Baptists vs. Southern Baptist Missionaries"
- Dr. Casey Sigmon, Assistant Professor of Preaching and Worship and Director of Contextual Education and Pause/Play Center for Preachers, authored "Designing Worship from a Process Perspective" in Preaching the Uncontrolling Love of God and launched the Pause/Play Center for Preachers podcast
- Dr. Richard Liantonio, Adjunct Professor of Hebrew Bible, reviewed The Bible: A Very Short Introduction, 2nd ed. in the Journal of Jewish Studies

The 2024-2025 academic year brought significant leadership changes to Saint Paul. The Board of Trustees appointed Mrs. Dana Aldridge as Board Chair and welcomed Tom Cochran as Executive Director of Development and Alumni Relations. Cochran's extensive experience strengthens our donor relationships and alums network. We are actively reconnecting with alums across the Midwest and beyond through regional events, fostering collaboration and sharing recent achievements.

The Course of Study (COS) School served 233 students in 2024-2025, including 66 new enrollees, offering 45 classes with approximately 550 total registrations. The program serves 34 Conferences and 92 Districts, supporting 107 full-time and 121 part-time Licensed Local Pastors. Twenty-two students completed the 20-course program this year. With GBHEM approval, we offer both asynchronous and synchronous online formats. COS School students receive full seminary benefits, including library access, chapel participation, and engagement in campus events.

Saint Paul maintains strong financial health with a balanced budget, no debt, and an endowment nine to ten times our annual expenses. Seven years of focused sustainability efforts have positioned us for strategic growth. As always, we continue to be grateful for the community donations supporting technology advancement, scholarships, and program development. Our enhanced hybrid learning model provides flexible options for students while maintaining educational excellence. The Board's newly approved strategic plan charts an ambitious course for our future.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Since 1871, United Theological Seminary has prepared faithful and fruitful Christian leaders who make disciples of Jesus Christ. United welcomes all who are following God's call on their lives, and many are answering God's call! In the 2023-2024 academic year, the seminary served 595 graduate students, making it the second largest of the thirteen United Methodist seminaries in the United States, according to the Association of Theological Schools.

A diverse community of many denominations, races and nationalities, United welcomed students from 35 states, 21 nations, and 48 denominations, with United Methodists representing the largest group at 30 percent of the student body.

Academics

In large part, enrollment growth is due to continued interest in United's Houses of Study programs, which offer master's and certificate tracks to equip students for the unique ministry needs of the communities, movements, and denominations in which they serve.

In summer 2024, United welcomed its inaugural cohort of Doctor of Theology students. The advanced research degree program is conducted primarily from a distance, requiring only four weeks of in-person intensives during the three-year program. During their program, students develop original research with a focus on church renewal.

United's Doctor of Ministry program continues to attract students looking for an advanced professional degree to expand their ministerial and leadership capabilities. In the 2023-2024 school year, 267 students participated in the mentor-led program.

Finances

United celebrated becoming debt free in May 2024, after making its last payment on a $3.3 million debt to its endowment. In addition to eliminating the seminary's debt, United has been focused on reducing the educational debt of its students. The Fresh Wind campaign to raise $10 million for the endowment will expand scholarship opportunities for students for generations to come. With the increase in scholarship gifts from the Fresh Wind campaign and the reduction of United's own debt, the seminary has significantly increased scholarship support for United students.

Innovation Center

The Bishop Bruce Ough Innovation Center celebrated the third anniversary since its launch as United's "research and development" hub for ministry practitioners and thought leaders seeking to create and provide innovative resourcing for congregations. In 2024, the Innovation Center engaged over 2,200 participants through more than 30 live webinars, training events and courses.

In Romans 10:14, St. Paul writes: "How shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?" United's students and graduates are going out into the world to proclaim the Good News of God's unconditional love. Thanks be to God!

Rev. Yvonne Piper Dayries
December 31, 1938 – February 1, 2025

Yvonne Piper Dayries was born December 31, 1938, to Lillian Givens and August Piper in New Orleans. Yvonne graduated from Walter L. Cohen Senior High School. She was active in high school participating in clubs such as Speech Club. Yvonne was voted Most Ambitious. While there she made a number of lifelong friends. Les Jeunes Filles Social Aid and Pleasure Club began from some of those lifelong friendships.

Yvonne was an active member of Shaw Temple UMC. In July 1963, Yvonne married the love of her life, Herman J. Dayries, Sr. To this union was born four children. Yvonne worked for Social Security Administration for over 30 years and retired in 1995. She rose the ranks to become a supervisor. After retirement, Yvonne stayed busy. She became a member of Kairos Prison Ministry. Yvonne was instrumental in the building of Shaw Temple (now Brooks Shaw Temple) in its current location.

Yvonne developed osteomyelitis due to a childhood injury. The osteomyelitis was so severe that the doctors did not believe she would live. Her mother, Lillian, was a praying and Godfearing woman. Lillian put her faith in God and Yvonne defied the odds. This led Yvonne to know and understand the love of God an early age. It is no wonder that her favorite bible verse to recite to her children and grandchildren is "I can do all things through Christ that strengthens me".

Yvonne had a calling upon her. She came out of retirement to become a United Methodist Church pastor in the Louisiana Conference. Rev. Dayries was associate pastor at Mount Zion United Methodist Church (UMC) and Wesley UMC in Baton Rouge; and senior pastor at Mount Zion UMC in Clinton and St. Paul in Ethel. In 2005, after relocating to Baton Rouge, Yvonne volunteered with the United Methodist Disaster Recovery and later was hired as an employee. Yvonne was a 2008 Top Ladies of Distinction and received the Key to the City of New Orleans. Yvonne went into her final retirement in 2018. She relocated to New Orleans in 2022 and rejoined her family church Brooks Shaw Temple UMC.

Yvonne enjoyed spending time with her family. She loved being able to attend conference with her sisters. Yvonne never hesitated with helping people out. She took in relatives, help others secure housing, and was a listening ear for those she encountered.

Yvonne Dayries was called home on February 1, 2025. She is survived by her children Sonje', Helina, Herman (Lori) Dayries, and Alyssia (Michael) Sam; siblings Rhoberta Piper, Weldon Piper, and Dianne P. Wooden; sisters-in-law Marryane Piper, Willie Mae Piper, Algeria Piper, Gloria Dayries, and Brenda Bridgewater; brother-in-law Ralph Lagrue; grandchildren Joshua Bojorquez, Christopher Charlot, Derick Sam, Herman Dayries, III, Jacob Bojorquez, Thomas Dayries, Lucas Bojorquez, Ethan Bojorquez, Elaina Sam, and Lexa Dayries; great-grandchild Xiomara Bojorquez; and a host of nieces and nephews. Rev. Yvonne P. Dayries' memory will live on in the lives of those she touched.

Rev. Calvin Jeffery Duke
August 1, 1954 – June 15, 2024

Jeff was a man with a 'servants' heart. He delighted in countless opportunities for mission. Once he drove a school bus over 3,000 miles to take his youth group on a mission trip. Countless days were spent at the UMCOR Depot at Sager Brown, and he joined a group for a mission trip to Mexico. While in Oklahoma for Barb to continue her training in chaplaincy, Jeff built a church with a small congregation using volunteer labor. Seeing a community need in Jackson Parish, Jeff helped to establish a branch of Louisiana Council on Child Abuse.

As a man that never shied away from a challenge, Jeff found himself (under appointment) three different times in the path of a hurricane. He coordinated volunteer teams in Plaquemines parish after Katrina while his church fellowship hall was taken over by the National Guard and a DMAT team. Then again in Houma and Chalmette. Hurricanes seemed to follow him.

One of his dreams was to be a street preacher and came close to it when he volunteered at the New Orleans Mission, took food to the homeless and prayed with them (hence the photo). He came home invigorated every time. He hoped everyone would find God's pleasure serving in similar ways.

Jeff served mostly entry level churches during his forty plus years of ministry and chose to use them as opportunities to become active in those communities. His wife, Barbara, used to warn the congregations that if they hadn't been using their God given gifts, that Jeff would be challenging them to move forward or get out of the way.

Jeff also took advantage of his gifts for visual arts by taking classes at colleges, institutes of art, and even with renown portrait artists. He would draw portraits and caricatures and paint landscapes, still life's and portraits. Jeff was a licensed artist with LSU and many people have prints of his pastel tiger drawings. His favorite media to create was making sculptures from clay. Always looking for ways to express his faith through art, you can find some of his originals hanging on the walls at the Conference Center.

Always entertaining to be around with a great sense of humor, Jeff's imagination was present sitting around a table or standing in the pulpit area. He wanted to be a cartoonist and started drawing cartoons for his son, Josh, and put them in his book sack daily to discover at school. There is an unfinished 'great American novel' waiting to be published on his laptop.

Jeff was born in Crossette, Arkansas on August 1, 1954. He was a student in the very first Church Careers program at Centenary College. He graduated from Iliff School of Theology in Denver with two master's degrees. It was also there that he found and married his wife, Barbara. Jeff and Barbara have one son, Joshua. Josh and his wife Karli blessed them with two grandsons, Boston and Banks.

Jesus drop kicked Jeff into heaven on June 15, 2024.

Rev. David Frank Fortuna

December 12, 1950 – January 17, 2025

David Frank Fortuna, "Dave," completed his Earthly journey and entered heaven on January 17, 2025. Dave was born on December 12, 1950, to Walter and Dorothy Fortuna as the third of their four sons. He grew up in a loving home that was full of playing, creating, building, traveling, scouting, and, most importantly, learning about God. He spent most of his childhood and school-age years in Bossier City, graduating from Bossier High School in 1968. In the spring of 1969, Dave's mother asked him to attend a Lay Witness Mission at Barksdale Methodist Church which led to him meeting the love of his life, Annette Smith, and to "officially" committing his life to Jesus Christ. He described it as the time he "met the two most important people in my life."

Over their 52 ½ years of marriage, Dave and Annette enjoyed many adventures, lived in many towns, served the Lord together, and built a loving family that started with their daughters, Misty Fortuna Davis and Wendy Fortuna Gallineau. Later, Dave was thrilled to gain two son-in-laws, Todd Davis and Danny Gallineau. But, one of his favorite roles was being "Poppa" to his six grandchildren: Ella Davis, Addison Mitchell, Bryce Mitchell, Livi Gallineau, Bailey Gallineau, and John Kirklin Davis. He also enjoyed spending time with his brothers, nieces, nephews, and cousins. Dave leaves a spirit of love, empathy, determination, and joy with his family who will carry on his legacy.

If you ask Dave's friends how they met him, the responses could be very wide-ranging. They may have first encountered Dave in school or Boy Scouts or at Louisiana Tech or Emory University. Others met him as he joyfully pastored churches, led youth ministries, participated in the Cursillo and Walk to Emmaus movements, or directed camps and retreats at Camp Caney, fulfilling his call to help others know Jesus and grow in their faith. They could have met through one of the over 30 Operación Abrigo Mexico mission trips. Many would say he challenged them on a pickleball court as far back as the 1990s. Still others would call him a "pilot buddy" that helped them build an airplane at his beloved hangar. Regardless of what connected people to Dave, he was loyal, always willing to lend a helping hand, solve a problem, or simply add his unforgettable humor and have a good time. He had a way of always thinking outside of the box with a creative touch and attention to detail no matter the size of the project.

Although our hearts are sad and empty today because he is gone, they are also very happy and full because he was here. The family would like to thank Dr. Kirtan Koticha and his team at Highland Clinic Oncology and the Christus Hospice nurses for the care they provided Dave. Annette, Misty, and Wendy would also like to express sincere gratitude for the family and friends who visited, called, messaged, and showered Dave with immense love in his final days. Each one brought him true joy and comfort.

Rev. Robert Ingram Galatas

June 3, 1930 – August 11, 2024

Rev. Robert Ingram Galatas passed into the loving arms of our Lord on Sunday, August 11, 2024 surrounded by those who he loved & dearly loved him. As a friend, Bob brought a sense of humor & care to so many people. Even in his final months of significant health challenges, he was gentle, humorous in spirit, & thankful to those who cared for him. As a spouse, he was loyal, selfless, and a world traveler companion. As a father, he was simply, a show-up Dad - there was never a time his daughters & grandchildren did not feel his presence, respond to his wit, & receive his unconditional love. As a devoted Christian & United Methodist minister, "Brother Bob" lived up to John Wesley's message of religious tolerance and liberty of conscience.

Rev. Galatas was born on June 3, 1930 in New Orleans, LA, to Grace Ingram & Morgan Roland Galatas. He was preceded in death by his twin brother Jimmy. He earned a Bachelor's of Arts in Accounting from Southeastern Louisiana College & a Master of Divinity degree from Southern Methodist University Perkins School of Theology in Dallas, TX. Over the course of his 38-year career, he touched countless congregants lives in the 14 churches he served throughout parishes of the United Methodist Church Louisiana Conference. After his retirement, Rev. Galatas served on the pastoral staff at First United Methodist Church, Clearwater FL, where he had married his bride, Shirley Ann Harris Galatas on July 19, 1957.

In his spare time, Bob meticulously repaired & restored furniture for family & friends. Some of his pieces will live on in the Clearwater Historical Society Plumb House Museum. He enjoyed painting many of his parsonages, Sunday school rooms, & daughters' homes served as his pallet. He also loved watching NFL football and due to his brevity in the pulpit, his members were afforded the same opportunity! Always the faithful servant, and likely in search of serenity, he slept many a night under the stars on camping trips across America with his young family.

He was very knowledgeable in history--American, World, and Biblical. He was a man of deep compassion; he was a Gentle Giant.

Rev. James Edwin Wilson
January 19, 1936 – December 22, 2024

While a January blizzard swirled around their home in Booneville, Kentucky, James Edwin Wilson was born to Alice Judy and Thomas Bell Wilson. It was 1936. Alice was a Methodist preacher's daughter from Missouri who came to teach children from Appalachia at Kingdom Come Settlement School. She wanted her first son to be a preacher and brought him up in church from the age of two weeks.

He worked his way through Asbury College as a restaurant cook, went to Lexington Theological Seminary for his divinity degree, and later earned an M.A. at Scarritt College. Jim agreed with John Wesley, who wrote that being Christian had little to do with what you believe and everything to do with what you do. Jim thought copying Jesus's actions was what mattered – feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, including women in his ministry, seeking justice for those who were poor or marginalized, welcoming the stranger – and he tried to do that in his ministry.

Jim found his true calling as campus minister at Eastern Kentucky University. Working with students would be his joy for decades. But a few years in, he was sent to an isolated community after preaching about fair housing at an affluent congregation. So, he applied to the Wesley Foundation at the University of Louisiana, Monroe (then NLSC) where he ministered for over 25 years.

His was a prophetic voice during the campus' integration in the 1970s and beyond. In 2008, the People of Color Caucus of the National Campus Ministry Association (NCMA) gave him an award, noting that in conservative northeast Louisiana, Jim "was a drum major for racial and economic social justice." One of the college's deans called Jim "a bur under the saddle." NCMA said more gently that he "encouraged various ethnic groups and international students to serve, work, fellowship and worship together in unity when it was not the norm of the time."

A student from that era posted on Fb after Jim's death: "This platform is not adequate to describe how this white campus minister welcomed and made to feel welcome hundreds of Black students in the 70s to a university that was often hostile to our presence. He was the first white man in whom I saw Christ and who practiced a Christianity that looked like the gospel."

When AIDS came, Jim pastored and buried dozens of God's children who had no one else to turn to for spiritual care. On the banks of Bayou DeSiard behind the Wesley, he began what became the annual memorial. Along with his work on campus, he served part-time at various small churches. Oak Ridge United Methodist was his favorite. He was happy there for thirteen years.

Jim had boundless energy and many hobbies. He bought used cars like Carrie Bradshaw and Imelda Marcos bought shoes. He once owned thirteen cars at one time. He lost a Studebaker because he couldn't remember where he parked it. He spent a zillion hours in his shop, restoring old cars and working on somewhat newer ones for his three children and his friends. He forgave Vicki but never forgot that she wrecked his BMW.

In the 1990s, Jim remarried and talked his wife into pursuing ordination. They served churches in Greater New Orleans. In the early 2000s, they moved to Tulsa, Okla., where she was a professor at a progressive seminary for nearly 20 years. Jim still loved being on a campus and befriended many students there. He wrote poetry every morning on the scripture passages for that week; the Order of St. Luke published a book of them, "Poetic Justice."

Eventually, they moved back to their beloved New Orleans, in part because Jim developed vascular dementia, a tragedy which made his last years difficult. He died on Dec. 22. Now we can begin to remember him as he used to be.

He's survived by his wife, Ellen Blue; his daughter, Kathy Bryan of Eros, La.; his stepchildren, Valery Williams and Jeff Blue of New Orleans; grandchildren Ryan, Lindsie, Samantha, Tabitha, Payton, Madison, Devin, Jourdan, and Elise; great-grandchildren Vance and Jaxen; a brother, Tom Wilson of Lexington; a sister, Catherine Arrington of Austin; and generations of nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters, Anna Bell Walker and Alice Sue English; his children, Vicki Wilson Johnson and Jamie Wilson; and a grandchild, Aidan Williams.

Dr. James Dale Bates

August 1, 1930 – August 15, 2024

James Dale Bates was born August 1, 1930, in Homer, Louisiana, to Wade Bates and Gladys Dickens Bates. He entered into rest on August 15, 2024, at the age of 94.

Jimmy Bates was a lifelong lover of sports. A high school standout in basketball, he graduated from Homer High School in 1949 and entered Louisiana Polytechnic Institute (now Louisiana Tech University) where he played basketball and tennis. Each summer, Jimmy played baseball for the Homer Oilers. He took his first teaching job in Pelican, LA, followed by several years in Athens, LA, where his basketball teams achieved state championships. As a teacher and coach, he encouraged many young people to be the best they could be as athletes and proponents of fair play.

Jimmy received his bachelor's degree from Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, his master's degree from Northwestern State College and his doctorate from Louisiana State University. He was among the initial faculty of LSU in Shreveport, serving as the institution's first Chairman of Health and Physical Education Department when LSU-S opened its doors in the fall of 1967.

During the Korean Conflict, Jimmy Bates served his country proudly as a member of the U.S. Army's 101st Airborne Division, the "Screaming Eagles." Following his retirement from teaching, he embarked on an entirely new endeavor...that of Petroleum Landman. As a Landman, he made new friends, visited new places and mastered a new set of skills.

Jimmy is preceded in death by his parents, his Aunt Lucy and Uncle Brooksie Dickens, and his cousin, Charlie Dickens. He is survived by his loving wife of 55 years, Patricia Teel Bates of Homer; daughter, Catherine Owen and husband Jim of Spotsylvania, VA; son, Scott Bates and wife Paula of Benton, LA; and grandchildren, Christopher Bates and wife Sarah Ellen, Matthew D'Reaux, Ansley D'Reaux and Clark D'Reaux. He is also survived by his brother, Dr. Joe B. Bates and wife Paula of Tyler, TX; brother-in-law, A. Alex Teel and wife Susan of Hoschton, GA; very special first cousin Elbie Jean Dickens of Homer; and many nieces and nephews, all of whom he loved very much.

Jimmy Bates was successful in many areas of life, but in none more than in his relationship with other people. His students were particular beneficiaries of the way he related to them. He leaves behind a family who will always love him and a host of friends who remember him with affection

Virginia Kirkland Bowdon
December 28, 1928 – April 23, 2025

Virginia Kirkland Bowdon, a beloved mother, grandmother, and steadfast community member, passed peacefully at the age of 96 on April 23, 2025, in Sunnyvale, Texas. Born on December 28, 1928, in Montgomery, Alabama, Virginia led a life filled with love, faith, and a profound dedication to her family and community.

Virginia graduated from the Texas State College for Women with a degree in Physical Education on June 5, 1950, a day that marked the beginning of her journey as both an educator and a devoted wife. Later that same day, she married the love of her life, Joseph Henry Bowdon, Jr. (Henry), in the Little Chapel in the Woods. Their partnership spanned an incredible 70 years, during which they served 13 churches throughout Louisiana as Henry fulfilled his calling as a pastor in the Methodist Church. A proud mother of four, Virginia considered her children, Joseph Henry Bowdon III (Jay), John Kirkland Bowdon (Kirk), Kenneth Steven Bowdon (Ken), and Virginia Bowdon Ellsworth (Ginny), to be her greatest achievements. Her nurturing spirit extended into her career as a teacher, where she spent 29 years inspiring young minds. At the age of 60, Virginia earned her certification to teach special education, dedicating nine years to working with autistic and special needs children, a testament to her compassionate nature.

Her legacy is carried forward by her nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, all of whom were deeply cherished by Virginia. Her family recalls her as a fierce protector and a beacon of love, often saying they hit the jackpot with her as a parent.

Virginia was actively involved in her community, sharing her time and talents with the Methodist Women's Circle and the Delta Kappa Gamma Society. Together with Henry, she embraced the open road as part of the Louisiana Camping Methodists, exploring the southern states with their trailer in tow. A dedicated Den Mother and Girl Scout leader, Virginia's influence extended beyond her immediate family, touching the lives of many young people.

A quintessential preacher's wife, Virginia served alongside Henry, offering unwavering support and love to the congregations they led, with her trademark principled approach and occasional candid exceptions. Her faith was the cornerstone of her life, guiding her every step with grace and purpose.

Virginia is preceded in death by her husband, Henry, her brothers Henry Otis Kirkland and Charles Dozier Kirkland, and her parents, John Henry Kirkland and Ocille Starr Kirkland. Her family will carry her memory forward with love and gratitude for the remarkable life she led.
